UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA
NOV 21 1938
LIBRARY

The Post Leads
Unrivaled in news coverage in Washington, The Post has Associated Press, United Press, Herald Tribune News Service and Wirephoto.

The Washington Post

The Weather
Today—Intermittent rain and warmer. Tomorrow—Fair. Yesterday—High, 47; low, 35.

NO. 22,799 | Entered as Second-Class Matter, Postoffice, Washington, D. C. | WASHINGTON: THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 17, 1938 | ★★★★ | Copyright, 1938, By The Washington Post. | THREE CENTS

Trial Exposes Racket Aides, 'War Chest' Of Warrings

Tax Agent Testifies
Recalls 1936 Talks
'Protection' Discussed
Emmitt the 'Brains'

The Warring gang bared its $30,000 cash "war chest," disclosed its schedule of "protection" payments and named its henchmen to Treasury agents in an effort to adjust income tax troubles, Government witnesses yesterday told the District Court jury trying the three racketeer brothers for conspiracy.

Assistant District Attorney Wilson Issed H. Watson Leese, Internal Revenue agent, through a recital of the revelations made by Emmitt Warring, 33, and Gordon L. R. Sadur, his income tax counselor, in more than a year of negotiations.

Leese testified most of the day, describing a dozen conferences with Sadur and Emmitt Warring, "the brains of the gang," in which they went over the returns in which the Warrings accounted for the gross profits of the racket the Government claims handled $2,000,000 worth of bets every year.

Signatures Theirs

The returns went into evidence after half a dozen Treasury officials had testified to the Warrings having signed and sworn to them. When Leese had added his testimony to that of the others, defense counsel abruptly offered to concede that the signatures were those of their clients.

Leese, a slight, blond, soft spoken man who was frequently exhorted to talk louder, then told of his rise in the Internal Revenue Bureau from clerk to auditor, to agent, and of his training in accounting which qualified him to analyze the Warring books.

Then he opened his account of the gang's transactions which kept him on the stand half yesterday morning and all the afternoon. Leo Oscar Warring, 35, "the hard worker" in the numbers headquarters, and Charles "Rags," 30, the "outside worker" and alleged trigger man, listened in silence. They wore well tailored gray suits yesterday, having shed both the natty brown ensembles and the gayety in which they attended the opening session Tuesday.

Lawyer on Trial

On trial with them for conspiracy to defraud the Government with false income tax returns are Sadur, a tall, big-shouldered, black-mustached tax expert, and Henry L. Scherr, Sadur's brother-in-law and junior partner.

Leese testified that in 1936 Emmitt was called to the Treasury for questions about his 1934 and 1935 returns. John Cox, chief special agent at that time, asked whether the Warrings did not pay "protection" to keep their unlawful business going, Leese told the court.

"Mr. Warring said he paid $400 a month in 1934 and $1,000 in 1935," Leese related. Some time later, he

See WARRINGS, Page 6, Column 1.

Police Clerk Crawford Suspended Until Audit

Handles Millions
Pay Is Held Up
Irregularities Denied
Edwards Takes Over

Howard E. Crawford, chief clerk and property clerk of the Metropolitan Police Department, returned last night from a hunting trip to find his office under guard, locks changed and himself suspended without pay.

His suspension was ordered by Commissioner Melvin C. Hazen, "pending an audit of all property and money under his care," and was announced by Maj. Ernest W. Brown, superintendent of police. Still in hunting clothes, Crawford said he welcomed any investigation.

"My conscience is clear," he said, "and my books are in order. They investigated me once before, and I was innocent. The same thing will happen this time."

He was joined at Police Headquarters by James A. O'Shea, attorney, who said he was there not as a lawyer but as a friend.

"Crawford doesn't need a lawyer," O'Shea said.

The suspended clerk said he would wait for Inspector L. I. T. Edwards and offer him all possible assistance in whatever investigation was planned. Police guards were placed outside the chief clerk's office and the storeroom, and locks on all doors were changed.

H. E. CRAWFORD.

Inspector Edwards was appointed acting chief clerk and property clerk by Hazen immediately after

See CRAWFORD, Page 6, Column 5.

Chest Drive Gets Million, Half of Goal

Given in 5 Days
Ad Man Appeals
Speaks to the Secure

(List of Contributors, Page 26.)

With 70,521 pledges totaling $1,007,840.26 gathered in the first five days of the 1939 campaign, Community Chest officials calculated last night their teams must bring in $280,000 a day until the drive ends to reach the goal of $2,127,000.

Yesterday's pledges of $155,640 from 19,158 persons brought the total to 47.36 per cent of the mark.

"Let's go out now and get the next million," William J. Flather, jr., campaign chairman, urged the 800 volunteers at the noon meeting yesterday.

Bert Sarazan, publicity director for the Hecht Co. and a member of the volunteer Community Chest publicity committee, of which Charles B. Dulcan, sr., is chairman, told the thousands of volunteer solicitors that the money for welfare services is here in Washington, and that theirs is the task of getting it.

Sarazan's Plea

"You are asking funds for suffering, bewildered, broken humanity," he said.

"Many of you call upon people in their homes—secure and comfortable. Tell them, please, that you bring them greetings from people who have no homes—from people to whom 'home, sweet home' is a mockery and a jest—to whom the words 'comfort and security' are merely stupid words out of a dictionary."

"To you who are giving your own time, your own efforts and your own money—who are fighting to batter down these barriers to social betterment—who are meeting the public face to face, take courage in this thought: That you as a volunteer worker represent an important and a vital part of a great social machine.

Press Representatives

"And whether your collections are large or small, they are equally important. If circumstances limit one giver to a few dollars, that gift may well be just as vital to the cause as 20 times that sum from one who can better afford it. From the smallest to the largest, every gift counts."

Sarazan paid tribute to the newspapers who are aiding the Chest

See CHEST, Page 7, Column 6.

Parks Board Won't Destroy Cherry Trees

Leaves It to Contractors
Transplanting Some
Only 171 Imperiled

On the heels of an announcement that only 171 Japanese cherry trees, instead of 328, must be cut down or transplanted to make way for the Jefferson Memorial, it was learned last night that not a single tree will be cut down by the office of National Capital Parks.

"For the last two weeks," said a parks official, "we have been removing trees in the Tidal Basin area for transplanting. None, however, has been chopped down nor will any be.

"The present plan is to turn over the site to the contractor, when the time comes, and let him take the responsibility of cutting them down."

'Situation Too Hot'

The official would not allow his name to be used because, in his words, "the situation is too hot."

A stay of execution for the cherry trees until Congress convenes and vacancies in the Memorial Commission can be filled, was urged last night by the executive committee of the Federation of Citizens Associations. In an emergency meeting the committee asked that Congress reconsider both the site and the design of the memorial.

Fearful of crossing wires with President Roosevelt, who has said he will have something to say about the cherry blossom issue tomorrow, and with Congress, which last June appropriated $500,000 to start work on the memorial, practically every official concerned with the problem is either keeping mum or divulging information only after exacting a solemn pledge not to reveal the source.

Trees Recounted

It is known that many, probably most, of the Federal and municipal executives involved in the dispute are opposed to the park site chosen by the Thomas Jefferson Memorial Commission but that they dare not air their views.

Following a recount conducted Tuesday and yesterday it was disclosed, under pressure and with anonymity, that 181 cherry trees stand in the area to be occupied by the marble temple monument.

See CHERRY, Page 7, Column 5.

Share-Profit Inquiry to Start Monday

Employers to Testify
Vandenberg Directing Incentive Tax Sought
Green to Take Stand

By Robert C. Albright.

Leading industrial pioneers in profit-sharing will be called to Washington beginning next Monday to testify before a special Senate committee seeking a compensatory tax formula to encourage spread of profits among employes.

Senator Vandenberg (Republican), of Michigan, author of a Senate resolution authorizing a $30,000 investigation into profit-sharing plans and means to encourage them, today will announce a preliminary list of witnesses.

"We hope to create a record which American employers who are social minded can follow in working out systems mutually beneficial to employer and employe," the Senator said.

Incentive Taxes Sought

"Our primary object is to develop incentive taxation—tax exemptions and tax rewards to encourage employers who render a social service. Our tax laws tend too much to punish and prohibit. We need more taxes to encourage, and in my opinion you are going to hear a lot more about incentive taxation in the next few months."

Officials of Procter & Gamble, whose profit-sharing plan is one of the oldest in the country, will be among the first witnesses summoned. President William Green, of the American Federation of Labor, is expected to be called before hearings are concluded, as are Alfred P. Sloan, of General Motors, and possibly Henry Ford.

Presiding at the opening hearings will be Senator Herring (Democrat), of Iowa, chairman of the committee, and Senator Vandenberg. Senator Johnson (Democrat), of Colorado, a third member of the investigating group, will join the committee later.

'Not Trying to Dictate'

Vandenberg estimated that between 2,000 and 3,000 different industrial units now are practicing profit-sharing in some form, and approximately 200 different plans are now in operation.

"We are not trying to dictate any standard formula," the Michigan Senator said. "Some of these plans are good and some are bad. We want to develop what's right about them and what's wrong, and we will have witnesses on both sides. We will spread it all on the record to guide employers who wish to follow."

Since the resolution was adopted in the closing days of the last Congress, quiet studies have been in progress, and both Treasury experts and aides of the special Senate committee have been at work on possible tax alterations to encourage profit-sharing in industry.

A second section of the Senate resolution directs the committee to explore tax incentives in connection with the study.

Beware of Frogs, Zoo Head Warns; New Ones Bite

Frogs are generally deemed harmless, but it may prove unwise to tease—not that anyone will have the opportunity—a big croaker that arrived at the zoo yesterday.

He is a Brazilian horned frog (Ceratophrys ornata) but it is his teeth, not his horns, one should beware of. His bite is poisonous.

A pair of babies of the same species arrived at the same time and, young as they are, their molars were respected by the keepers who unpacked them.

The trio joins a pair of Argentine horned frogs which came here nine years ago via the Berlin zoo. The Argentine frogs are members of the same genus but a different species—dorsata.

Common in South America, horned frogs are infrequent in zoos of the United States. Stories are told, said Dr. William M. Mann, director of National Zoological Park, of mules being killed by the creature's bite.

(Photograph on Picture Page.)

Boys Adrift at Sea Unfound in Search

Boston, Nov. 16 (AP).—Swept out to sea in a skiff Monday night Lester Welford, 18, and Thomas Glendon, 17, today remained unreported, despite extensive search by the Coast Guard.

Glendon's mother, widow of Richard J. Glendon, Columbia University rowing coach, clung to the belief that her son had been taken aboard by a fisherman, unable to report until it returns.

U. S., Britain Set to Sign Trade Pact

Ceremony Today
Also Canada Accord
Alters Many Tariffs
Curb on Germany

By Sidney Olson.

The governments of the United States, Great Britain and Canada today will sign a reciprocal trade agreement—the greatest peacetime bond ever to link the world's biggest merchant nations.

At 4 p. m. in the White House, in the presence of the President, Secretary of State Hull, British Ambassador Sir Ronald Lindsay and Prime Minister Mackenzie King of Canada, will pen their names on the pacts.

Thus simply but impressively will be inaugurated this country's first trade agreement with Great Britain and its second with Canada.

Blow at Germany

The action will intensify the isolation of Germany, now blacklisted by this Government for its barter and economic self-sufficiency policies.

The trade agreement with Great Britain will be the nineteenth such agreement negotiated by the patient, white-haired Secretary of State, whose goal has consistently been the attainment of peace through international trade betterment.

The agreement binds two nations now dominating more than 40 per cent of all world trade and brings within the fabric of the trade agreements about 60 per cent of American foreign commerce.

Details of the British and new Canadian agreements will be released tonight for publication tomorrow morning.

The new Canadian agreement supplants one which expires December 31 and will be considerably modified, it is learned.

Many Concessions Made

The British agreement involves about 1,000 tariff concessions by both sides, in wide variety. American concessions have been made on British leather and textiles, it is understood, while the United States has received concessions on cereals, fruits, meat products and by-products.

Trade between the two countries now stands at about $1,500,000,000 a year, excluding Australia, British South Africa and New Zealand, which are not parties to the agreement. Exploratory discussions with those governments and with India, also not in, have been held, and rapid settlement of detailed agreements is expected.

In the British pact, the participants include the United Kingdom, Northern Ireland, Newfoundland, East Africa, West Africa, the West Indies, Mediterranean, Pacific and Far Eastern possessions.

Prime Minister Mackenzie King left Ottawa last night for Washington to take part in the signing. Premier King, an old acquaintance of the President, is expected to stay

See TRADE, Page 4, Column 5.

Berlin Demands 140 Villages With Czech Populations

Prague, Nov. 16 (AP).—Germany is demanding from shrunken Czechoslovakia certain "boundary corrections" which would add to Germany about 140 small villages with an aggregate population of about 60,000, most of whom are Czechs.

The villages demanded are along the present boundary line between Germany and Czechoslovakia, determined after the Munich agreement's cession of the Sudetenland to the Reich.

According to informed circles tonight, negotiations over the new German demands are proceeding.

Belgium Closes Border to Refugees

Brussels, Nov. 16 (U.P.).—Belgium today closed her frontiers to swarms of German Jewish refugees attempting to escape anti-Semitic violence in the Reich.

Before the closing of the borders about 1,500 German Jews succeeded in reaching Belgian soil. It was expected that the cabinet Friday would examine the Netherlands government's appeal for international co-operation in aiding the Jewish refugees.

Danes Defer 'Shylock' Play, Fearing Reaction

Copenhagen, Nov. 16 (AP).—Production of "The Merchant of Venice" at the well known Odense Theater was postponed today because the directors feared its presentation at this time might aggravate the international Jewish question.

Unity Against Dictators Sped by U. S.; Huge Refugee Plan Weighed

British Cabinet Meets Suggestion Kennedy's Cost $150,000,000 Committee Called

By Joseph Driscoll.

Special Cable to The Post.

London, Nov. 16.—The British cabinet today gave favorable consideration to a plan devised by American Ambassador Kennedy for the rescue of thousands of Jews from Germany and their transportation overseas to sparsely populated areas in Africa and North and South America. Unofficial estimates are that this scheme of resettlement might cost $150,000,000.

Prime Minister Chamberlain, Foreign Secretary Viscount Halifax, and Colonial and Dominions Secretary Malcolm MacDonald outlined to the 18 other ministers the broad scope of the Kennedy "peace plan" as confided to them in the last four days by the American Ambassador, who again visited Downing Street today.

Committee to Meet

As a step toward trying to put the plan into operation, Britain is expected to call an early meeting of the intergovernmental committee, representing 27 nations, which was established as a result of the Evian conference last July, sponsored by President Roosevelt. The chairman of this committee is Earl Winterton, a member of the British cabinet.

This meeting of the full committee will be preceded by a meeting of Lord Winterton and the four vice chairmen of the committee, who represent the United States, France, Brazil and The Netherlands. The United States will be represented by Ambassador Kennedy, deputizing for Myron C. Taylor, who cannot come to London in time. The French, Brazilian and Dutch diplomatic envoys likewise will substitute for their absent countrymen.

Nazis Prevent Migration

The Evian conference was summoned to organize international relief for refugees from old Austria and the rest of Germany. Early in August, as a follow-up on Evian, the intergovernmental committee met at the foreign office for several days. Two Americans, George Rublee and Robert Pell, were appointed director and assistant director of the committee's permanent bureau opened in London. Since then Rublee and Pell have been busy with various plans for transferring Jews from Germany to more hospitable lands.

Any transfers on a large scale have been held up through the refusal of the Nazi government to permit Jews to take their fortunes out of the country.

Two weeks ago the German government was requested to receive Rublee and Pell to discuss means of beginning an orderly emigration of refugees. So far no reply has been received.

Speed Found Necessary

[The Swedish, Norwegian and Danish governments were reported by the United Press to have agreed to a Norwegian proposal whereby asylum will be given to 1,200 refugees from the German-occupied Sudeten areas of Czechoslovakia. The refugees, many of whom are Jews, will be placed in camps in each of the Scandinavian countries. Each camp will accommodate 400 refugees.—Editor's note.]

A five-year plan for the resettlement abroad of 500,000 German Jews was once considered by the Evian committee. This plan may come to life again in a revised form. In the light of the current Nazi persecutions, five years is

See BRITISH, Page 4, Column 3.

Joins Churchmen In Attacking Nazis

AL SMITH.

Catholics Call Nazi Action Shameful Orgy

Plead for Tolerance Clergy Sad for Jews
Joined by Al Smith

American leaders of the Catholic church from the Atlantic to the Pacific coasts united last night on a Nation-wide radio hookup sponsored by Catholic University to condemn "the shameful orgy of ruthless oppression," that is blotting out the Jews of Germany.

Response to Pope

The broadcast, protesting religious persecution not only in Germany but also in Mexico, Spain and Russia, came as a stirring response to the plea for Catholic defense of "true human liberties" uttered by Pope Pius XI at ceremonies marking the opening of jubilee year at Catholic University recently.

The Right Rev. Mgr. Joseph M. Corrigan, S. T. D., rector of the university, was joined in the broadcast over 150 American stations by Alfred E. Smith, former Governor of New York and papal chamberlain; the Rev. Dr. Maurice S. Sheehy, of Catholic University; Archbishop John J. Mitty of San Francisco; Bishop Peter L. Ireton of Richmond, and Bishop John M. Gannon of Erie, Pa.

Speaking from his study in Caldwell Hall, Mgr. Corrigan asked, "Where, in the light of the fury of inhumanity raging in Germany, is the tolerance of our vaunted advance in civilization? Where is the Christianity that once reigned in a Christian nation?"

Blames Lust for Power

The "orgy," he said, is "willed by the mad lust for personal power of men who have 'damned themselves to immortality.'" He pleaded that the world "be cleansed of the poisonous cancer even now gnawing at the very vitals of organized society and just government."

The power of the dictator today "clamps its iron grips upon a hapless, helpless, already shackled people," said Mgr. Corrigan. "Tomorrow, unless we protest with all the vigor of right, and perhaps despite our most insistent protest, its wrath may spew out to engulf other groups, other peoples, other faiths."

"We appeal to all Catholics and to all of other faiths who are listening tonight," he said, "to send up a holocaust of prayer for those oppressed in Germany and in other

See BISHOPS, Page 7, Column 3.

Roosevelt Seeking to Justify Imperialism, Says Nazi Press

By the Associated Press.

Berlin (Thursday), Nov. 17.—Reichsfueher Hitler's Voelkischer Beobachter in captions today said President Roosevelt in his White House press conference pictured an imaginary menace to America to further an armaments program.

"Roosevelt's Imaginary 'Menace' to America," the caption read in one of the few German morning papers to print a brief account of Tuesday's interview. "Suspicions cast on other powers in the interest of United States armaments."

It was the first reaction printed in Germany to the President's announcement that air force plans contemplated defense of both North and South America. Yesterday was a Protestant holiday, the Day of Atonement, and most government officials were en route to Dusseldorf for the funeral of Ernest vom Rath, slain diplomat.

The Lokalanzeiger, another of the post-holiday newspapers to carry an account of the interview, printed the headline, "President Roosevelt's Lust of Power" and said at the end of its New York dispatch, "the coming Pan-American conference in Lima will show whether the armament agitation in the United States is working out as Washington hopes.

"There already are signs that South Americans are beginning to see through the American talk about

See BERLIN, Page 4, Column 1.

Parley Dec. 10, 11 To Join Americas Roosevelt Praised Stress on Lima Rises

By William V. Nessly.

President Roosevelt's sharp denunciation of German persecution of minority groups was followed yesterday by a wave of condemnation for oppression by dictatorships, and a speeding of plans for joint Inter-American resistance to the spread of Fascism to this hemisphere.

While the White House was receiving hundreds of messages approving the President's assertion that he "could scarcely believe that such things could occur in a twentieth century civilization," the dramatic foreign relations picture was given color by these activities:

Defends Catholics, Too

There was a hastening of plans for the conference on Pan-American Democracy, to be held here on December 10 and 11 to combat fascism from Europe and imperialism from Japan.

The advisory committee on German refugees presented a report on its work to the President, while immigration applications flooded United States consulates in the Reich.

At Havana, Secretary of the Interior Ickes warned of the "greed" of "some foreign dictator," and called for "a common determination that the peace and security of any one of the Americas shall be peace and security of all the Americas."

Secretary of State Hull said that any protest that Ambassador Hugh Wilson may have presented to Germany against destruction of Americans' property had been made in conformance with standing instructions to envoys abroad to guard American interests.

Guarded on Precautions

He neither confirmed nor denied reports that the State Department had asked governors of the States to take precautions against attacks on German consular agents in this country.

The conference on Pan-American democracy will be held here while the eighth International Conference of American States is under way at Lima, Peru. The Lima assembly is being looked upon as of unusual importance in view of overseas developments and the movement for a united front of countries of this hemisphere against any foreign encroachment.

The sponsoring committee of the conference here yesterday praised the statement by the President which it said had "warned that the American nations were as one in their determination to guard their

See STATE, Page 7, Column 1.

Goldstein, Licker And Finkelstein to Guard Nazis in N.Y.

New York, Nov. 16 (AP).—Three non-Aryans—Finkelstein, Licker and Goldstein—were set apart today by Mayor LaGuardia and Police Commissioner Valentine to guard prominent Nazi visitors to New York.

LaGuardia and Valentine declined comment, but when pressed the mayor said the move was made "to protect personal property."

Capt. Max Finkelstein, president of the Police Department's Jewish Organization, with Lieut. Jacob Licker and Sergt. Isaac Goldstein, will head an all-Jewish guard to replace members of the criminal alien squad at the German consulate, 17 Battery place, and to serve as Nazi escorts.

Plans call for 12 patrolmen, all Jewish, to serve under their command.

Today's Index

	Page
About the Showshops	8
Alice Hughes	13
Amusements	8, 9
Barnet Nover	11
Classified Ads	26, 27, 28
Comics	29
Crossword Puzzle	13
Death Notices	26
Editorials	10
Financial	23, 24, 25
Ida Jean Kain	13
In Hollywood	9
Over the Coffee	17
Walter Lippmann	11
Pegler	11
Pictures	12
Radio	13
Society	14, 15
Sports	30, 31, 32, 33
The Post Impressionist	10
The Federal Diary	10
Woman's Page	33

The Post-Junior Board of Commerce Safety Institute

Goes On the Air Tonight

Know more about Washington's unique traffic laws. Hear local drivers discuss traffic problems with traffic experts. An informative, informal discussion—brought to you over

WJSV—11:15 P. M.

Quadruplets Born In Mud Hut Given Fair Chance to Live

Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, Nov. 16 (AP).—A country doctor, Alziro Dos Rios, said today 3-day-old boy quadruplets born prematurely in a back country mud hut had a fair chance to live.

Dr. Alziro, a general practitioner and the only physician in the small hospital at Tatuhy, state of Sao Paulo, where the quadruplets were brought yesterday, said he had been working unceasingly to care for the babies, the smallest of which weighed 2.11 pounds and the largest 3 pounds.

The children were born Sunday to Maria de Conceicao with only the aid of a neighbor woman, Alziro said.

2 D.C. Women Hold Only Ticket On $6,754 Bowie Daily Double

By Walter Haight.

A Staff Correspondent.

Bowie, Md., Nov. 16.—Paying off a single $2 ticket with $6,754.50, the daily double set a new record for Maryland and was near the all-time mark for the Nation as the Maryland racing scene shifted to Prince Georges County today.

Two attractive young ladies, giving their names as Miss Helen O'Brien and Mrs. Robert E. Dwyer, of 4444 Yuma street northwest, Washington, stepped up to the window to jointly claim the fortune. After posing for pictures, they asserted they had no particular reason for playing the combination. They admitted they were not strangers to the track, but it was the first time they had invested in a daily double ticket.

"We knew nothing about the horses," said Mrs. Dwyer, "we just liked the number of '1 and 9' as as good combination as any and we were surprised when it proved best."

They left the scribes flat to run to the front of the clubhouse to check on the odds of the third race. Their parting words were, "Now we can do some real betting."

Mrs. Dwyer's husband, a Police Court clerk, said afterwards a friend told him the two women had bet funds supplied by the friend to See RACES, Page 26, Column 6.

Legion Prods Miss Perkins on 'Bridges Trial

Chadwick Writes Her Labor Leader Reticent Branded 'Undesirable'

By the Associated Press.

Indianapolis, Nov. 16.—The American Legion, through National Commander Stephen F. Chadwick, of Seattle, urged the Department of Labor today to proceed immediately with the trial of Harry Bridges, West Coast director of the Committee for Industrial Organization, on charges that he is an "undesirable alien" and should be deported.

At Pittsburgh, where the C. I. O. convention is in session, Bridges said when informed of the legion's action that he had "no comment at this time."

Legion departments have requested Bridges' deportation since 1934.

Sent Letter to Miss Perkins

Chadwick made public today a letter he sent to Secretary of Labor Perkins, saying, in part:

"We are interested that every person subject to charges which might warrant deportation should have the benefit of those legal rights with which all people charged with offenses against our Government are protected. We do not prejudice any situation, but we do demand that theorderly processes designed for the protection of our country, its peace and happiness be pursued."

Brig. Gen. Frank T. Hines, administrator of veterans' affairs, Washington, reported to the commanders and adjutants on the Federal Government's work in caring for disabled veterans and their dependants.

30,000 Die Each Year

Hines said in an interview the average World War veteran is 45 years old, and that 30,000 die each year.

"I have estimated," Hines added, "that when the average age is 62, there will be 3,330,000 living veterans, or approximately three-fourths of the total number of World War veterans."

Paul Griffith, of Washington, the legion's re-employment director, said the contention that men and women reaching the age of 40 no longer are assets to industry "has been disproven."

Labor Laws Parley Seeks State Aid In Enforcement

The fifth National Conference on Labor Legislation adjourned last night after approving plans for State co-operation in enforcement of the new Federal wage-hour law, and adopting a resolution urging ratification of the pending child labor amendment.

The conference, attended by representatives of 43 State Governors, agreed on a co-operative plan which provides for establishment of State agencies, headed by full-time executives and composed of personnel chosen on a merit basis, to investigate and enforce State labor regulations, including those affecting child labor, maximum hours and minimum wages. States co-operating would be reimbursed by Federal funds provided in the wage-hour law.

Other resolutions called for promotion of apprenticeship training; all States to enact legislation banning industrial homework; States to extend workmen's compensation coverage to all employments, private and public; States to enact legislation requiring employers to pay wages in full on regular, specified pay days, and the U. S. Labor Department to appoint a committee to study effect on wage earners of alleged inequalities of freight rates for manufactured goods.

U. S. Population Found Exceeding 130 Million

The Census Bureau estimated officially yesterday that the population of continental United States exceeded 130,000,000.

Based on birth and death statistics for the first half of 1938, the bureau figured 130,215,000 persons liven in this country July 1.

Mrs. Hahn to Die Dec. 7 For Poison Slaying

Columbus, Ohio, Nov. 16 (AP).—Ohio's Supreme Court today set for December 7 the electrocution of Anna Marie Hahn, convicted of the poison slaying of Jacob Wagner, aged German, in what the State called a murder-for-profit scheme involving several old men.

Quints on Regular Diet Week After Operation

Callander, Ontario, Nov. 16 (Canadian Press).—The Dionne quintuplets were permitted today to resume their regular diet for the first time since the removal of their tonsils and adenoids a week ago. Dr. Allan R. Dafoe said they were "getting along fine."

An Item for His Souvenir Collection

Associated Press Photo

Senator McAdoo, of California, who will be among the missing when the Seventy-sixth Congress convenes in January as a result of his recent defeat, takes the name sign from his office to add to his souvenirs

Georgetown Grad Returns As Congressman From Texas

Kilday Was Selected to Succeed Maverick 'Will Not Be Spectacular', Legislator Terms Self Progressive, but Not Radical

The smiling assurance that he "will not be a spectacular Congressman" was given last night by Paul J. Kilday, of San Antonio, who left Washington 16 years ago with a string of A's made at Georgetown University and returned yesterday as successor - elect to Maury Maverick, the Texas firebrand.

KILDAY

Accompanied by his wife, Kilday is here to look over the apartment situation and to get lined up as "a Democrat reporting for duty." He will return just after Christmas to check in for his first term to an elective office.

He is pretty sure he wants District residents to have the vote—an idea in which some Texas Congressmen have not joined.

"I know of no reason why they should be disfranchised. There are, of course, some difficulties involved but I will approach the subject with a sympathetic attitude," he said.

Terming himself a progressive, but not a radical, Kilday said he would join in Congress with "those Representatives who hope to see the Wagner act amended."

"It appears that the principal ones who are satisfied with the act are the C. I. O. members and members of the labor board itself. Something must be wrong," he declared.

He stressed that he is not coming to Washington hoping "to change anything or buck the standard order of things."

No. 1 in Md. Police Test Waives Job

Baltimore, Nov. 16 (AP).—The No. 1 applicant for Maryland's most popular State job—that of State patrolman—surrendered his chance for appointment and took another job, State police headquarters disclosed today.

Announcing appointment of four new officers from the eligible list headed by William Reinhart, former Washington College football star, headquarters said Reinhart had accepted "other employment" before the rookie officers were named.

Appointments announced today were: John S. Landbeck, Baltimore; James C. Latham, Baltimore; Donald M. Graham, Catonsville, and William E. O'Hara, Frederick.

Paul Steward Funeral Today at Takoma Park

Funeral services for Paul Steward, 27, who died Tuesday at Endowood Sanitarium, Towson, Md., will be held today at 2 p. m. at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Roy Steward, 112 Alleghany avenue, Takoma Park, Md.

The Rev. Charles S. Longacre, of the Takoma Park Seventh Day Adventist Church will conduct the service. Burial will be in Cedar Hill Cemetery. Mr. Steward leaves a sister, Mrs. Inez Rodgers, of Takoma, Park, Md., and his parents. He had been ill for two years.

Girl, 2 Men to Hunt Deer With Bow, Arrow

Berlin, Md., Nov. 16 (AP).—A modish Diana and two men will hunt deer with bow and arrow in Worcester County when the season opens December 1.

Elizabeth Henry, Robert W. Phillips and Paul Lynch will stalk the county's few deer with quivers of arrows and long bows. All must obtain the regular hunting license. The season closes December 5.

Va. Tech Head Elected

Chicago, Nov. 16 (AP).—Dr. Julian A. Burruss, president of Virginia Polytechnic Institute, Blacksburg, Va., was elected president of the Association of Land Grant Colleges and Universities today. He succeeded Cecil W. Creel, of the University of Nevada.

Roper Praises 'Fundamentals Of Business'

Called 'Encouraging' Lauds Future Outlook Exports Exceed Imports

Secretary of Commerce Roper, back from a recent meeting of the department's business advisory council in Houston, Tex., said yesterday the "fundamentals of business are in a more encouraging condition than they have been for a long time." The success of the Houston meeting at which the business and industrial situation in the Southwest was surveyed, Roper said, convinced him of the importance of council meetings outside of Washington.

Secretary Roper also said he did not believe the election results forecast any "backward movement" and quoted W. Averill Harriman, chairman of the advisory counsel as saying:

"I don't see any indication that the people of this country don't like the fundamentals of what they understood to be the objectives of the New Deal. If the business people interpret the election as being an indication that this country is going back to the 'good old days,' I think they are fooling themselves."

Roper made public estimates of Dr. Amos E. Taylor, a departmental finance expert, indicating that in the first half of 1938 the United States received $602,000,000 more for merchandise, services and dividends from foreign countries than it paid out. In the comparable months last year, there was an excess of payments to foreigners amounting to $193,000,000.

On merchandise alone, exports exceeded imports by $631,000,000 the first half of this year, while imports were ahead of exports by $147,000,000 in the same months last year.

Net payments by Americans to foreigners resulting from the use of foreign ships, tourist traveling and other services amounted to $150,000,000 in the first half of 1938 compared with $211,000,000 last year. Net receipts from foreigners of interest and dividends, however, declined to $121,000,000 from $165,000,000 last year.

M. I. T. Dean Tells Inquiry TVA Rates Are U. S. Lowest

The Congressional committee investigating the TVA devoted yesterday's hearing to building up figures on possible earnings of the TVA system when it is complete. The witness, Edward L. Moreland, dean of engineering at Massachusetts Institute of Technology, and an expert for Commonwealth & Southern Power Co., held that the full load revenue of the system, when complete, should be $24,135,000. This was based, he said, on the sale of 7,303,700,000 kilowatt hours at 3.3 mills per k. w. h. Dean Moreland could recall no private utility which delivered electricity at such a low rate.

Examination was begun of allocation of TVA investments to flood control, navigation and power. Before the committee adjourned today, Moreland presented the figure of $1,809,000 as a proper allocation for navigation. This was a figure previously furnished by Maj. Rufus W. Putnam, former Army engineer and the owner of barge lines on inland waterways. The figure contrasts with $150,000,000, which was the allocation made by the directors of TVA.

After Dean Moreland and two other experts are heard, Wendell L. Willkie, president of Commonwealth & Southern, will take the stand.

Inland Steel to Appeal NLRB Order to Bargain

Chicago, Nov. 16 (AP).—The Inland Steel Co. announced today it would appeal to the Federal district court a recent order of the National Labor Relations Board to negotiate a written collective bargaining contract with the C. I. O. steel workers organizing committee.

The Political Arena

Senator Bulkley Calls Court Rumor 'Crazy' Josh Lee, of Oklahoma, Has New Farm Plan

By the Associated Press.

Senator Bulkley (Democrat), Ohio, who was defeated for re-election, said after a conference with President Roosevelt yesterday he wanted no Federal appointment of any kind.

BULKLEY.

He described as "crazy" reports he might be named to the Federal bench.

Terming the elections in general "a little setback, but nothing to apologize for," Bulkley said he talked with the President about the need for "keeping liberal principles" to the fore.

Bulkley left the White House with Charles West, former Ohio Congressman and White House "contact man" with Congress.

Bulkley said he would remain here about a week but had no further appointments with Mayor LaGuardia or other liberal leaders. He reiterated that he believed the liberal movement remained within the Democratic Party and that he did not believe in the third party movement.

Madison, Wis., Nov. 16 (AP).—U. S. Senator Joseph (Josh) Lee (Democrat), Oklaoma, addressing the Farmers Educational and Co-Operative Union of America, declared he would introduce at the next Congress amendments providing a five-point farm program which would guarantee the farmer cost of production for domestic consumption.

Lee also demanded enactment by Congress of a mortgage bill extending Government credit to tenant farmers with which to purchase farms from absentee owners. He said the "trouble with the present farm program is its failure to separate the home market from world markets."

Wilmington, Del., Nov. 16 (AP).—Garrett E. Lyons, chairman of the Democratic city committee, was free today on $10,000 bail after being arrested on a warrant charging violation of the election law.

The warrant did not specify the alleged violation. In Municipal Court today Lyons' case, with that of eight other men arrested on charges of violating election laws, was continued for a hearing November 23. Most of the other arrests were made on or immediately after last Election Day.

Pittsburgh, Nov. 16 (AP).—Representative James L. Quinn (Democrat), of Pennsylvania, said tonight he was deferring a decision on a petition for a recount of votes in the Thirty-first Pennsylvania Congressional District, which unofficially showed him defeated for re-election by John McDowell, Republican.

Quinn said there were "rumors" of faulty returns from "25 or 50" precincts in his district.

Harrisburg, Pa., Nov. 16 (AP).—Chairman John Hamilton of the Republican National Committee said tonight his party's minorities in Congress would be "impotent" unless they joined forces with the "real and genuine Democrats."

"The opposition party has many tasks," Hamilton said in an address prepared for the annual convention of the Pennsylvania Council of Republican Women. "Some are negative. Some are positive. All are legitimate. All are essential."

"Honest criticism in politics," Hamilton asserted, "fills the same need in government as does fair competition in business."

Hamilton said that a responsibility would fall on the Republican Governors in office next year to give "clean, wholesome government, charted along humanitarian lines yet within limits shown by experience to be sound."

Miami Beach, Fla., Nov. 16 (AP).—Frank E. Gannett, Rochester, N. Y., publisher, said tonight he was "so much encouraged by the recent elections" that he expected President Roosevelt to lose if he sought re-election to a third term.

He said in a statement that he was misunderstood in an interview yesterday quoting him as predicting the President would run for a third term and win re-election. "I predicted the renomination of President Roosevelt in 1940," Gannett said, "but not his re-election."

Survey Finds Republicans Polled 51.5% of Vote

By the Associated Press.

A postelection survey of 24 States showed yesterday that by unofficial counts Republicans polled 51.5 per cent of the vote, compared with 40.1 per cent in 1936 and 46.1 per cent in 1934.

With the exception of Georgia, the survey did not include any of the heavily Democratic Southern States because sufficient data from them is still lacking.

The percentage of Republican votes in the 24 States in 1936 was computed on the basis of the total vote in the Presidential race. The percentage for 1934 was reached on the basis of votes for Representatives. For the 1938 compilation, gubernatorial and Senatorial returns were used in some cases because of incomplete returns in the district elections of Representatives.

In the 24 States this year, the G. O. P. polled 14,386,356 votes. With 14,010,223 ballots, Democrats had 48.5 per cent of the major party vote.

Despite the indicated Republican vote-getting advantage in half the States, which comprise populous centers of the East, Midwest and West, Democrats elected 262 Representatives, or 60.2 per cent of the House membership. With 170 Congressmen, Republicans have 39.1 per cent of the House voting power.

The Nation-wide popular vote cannot be tabulated until all States have reported. If the ratio of former years is maintained, however, the 24-State survey would indicate a total vote of about 40,000,000. Such a total, which would include about 1,000,000 minor-party ballots, would be the greatest off-year vote in history.

Yesterday's preliminary tabulation showed that Democrats suffered major percentage losses in a dozen key States.

Although they won the New York governorship, Democrats polled only 50.7 per cent of the major party vote in that race. The ratio in some other State-wide races was higher, however. In the 1936 Presidential election, the party polled 58.5 per cent of the vote, and 56.8 per cent of the off-year balloting of 1934.

Pennsylvania gave the G. O. P. 53.6 per cent of its Democratic-Republican vote this year, compared with 41.8 per cent in 1936 and 43.8 per cent in 1934.

The Democratic percentage in California dropped from 67.8 in 1936 to 54.1 this year. It fell from 60.7 to 47.5 in Ohio, from 56.0 to 50.1 in Iowa and from 59.2 to 50.7 in Illinois.

The sharpest Democratic reverses, however, occurred in the "third party." States of Minnesota and Wisconsin. The party polled only 5.7 per cent of the Minnesota vote this year, compared with 62.4 per cent in 1936 and 26.8 per cent in 1934. Farmer-Laborites, who polled 39.4 per cent of the 1934 vote, had 34.3 per cent this year.

James Roosevelt Flies to New York

Special Dispatch to The Post.

Newark, N. J., Nov. 16.—James Roosevelt, eldest son of the President who resigned yesterday as his father's secretary, arrived at Newark airport shortly today by airplane from Chicago. He was not listed as a passenger, but attendants said they recognized him as he left the ship. He left the airport for an unannounced destination.

Ship Movements

At New York

Arrived Yesterday
Grimsholm, from Gothenburg.
Ile de France, from Havre.

Arrive Today
Queen Mary, from Southampton.
Rex, from Genoa.

Arrive Tomorrow
Hansa, form Hamburg.
Ilsenstein, from Antwerp.

Sailing Today
Rotterdam, for Plymouth.

Sailing Tomorrow
American Traveler, for Liverpool.
American Merchant, for London.
Black Eagle, for Rotterdam.
Laconia, for Glasgow.
Queen Mary, for Plymouth.
Seanstates, for Gothenburg.
Tunaholm, for Gothenburg.

The Collar-Attached Dress Shirt 4.00

The double-breasted dinner coat suggests a more informal evening shirt. Our collar-attached Ruxton Dress Shirts of fine pique are comfortable and lie flat without a bulge.

Other Ruxton Dress Shirts 3.50 to 5.00

GOLDHEIM'S
1409 H Street

Attention Music Lovers

Chas. Schwartz & Son presents the immortal classics of world-famous composers of Opera, Symphony and Song recorded on

VICTOR RECORDS
COMPLETE ALBUMS AND SINGLE DISCS

ON OUR EASY
Payment Plan—Pay as little as 50c a Week

Give your friends their musical favorite Victor Records, for Christmas Gifts.

Phone and Mail Orders Filled

LOOK FOR THE GOLD CLOCK
Chas. Schwartz & Son
Since 1888...Home of Perfect Diamonds
708 SEVENTH STREET N W
Phone MEtro. 0080

"THOMAS CAN SAVE YOUR HAIR"

YOUR Hair can grow and will grow if (1) you keep your scalp free from infections, such as dandruff, and (2) if you systematically stimulate the scources of hair nourishment. Ninety percent of all cases of baldness result from the 14 local scalp infections which respond readily to Thomas treatment. If your scalp itches; if your hair is falling; or if you are troubled with dandruff—Nature is warning you that some of the 14 local scalp ills are attacking your hair. You can, if you choose, disregard these positive warnings—and become bald. Or you can consult a Thomas expert who will determine the exact cause of your hair loss, correct it, and make it possible for you to have a good head of hair.

More than a quarter-million men have avoided baldness by the reliable, dignified Thomas method. Thomas can help you, too. Consult a Thomas expert today. No charge is made for a complete scalp examination (always given in private).

WORLD'S LEADING HAIR & SCALP SPECIALISTS FORTY-FIVE OFFICES

THE THOMAS
SUITE 1050-51 WASHINGTON BUILDING
(Corner N. Y. Avenue and 15th St. N. W.)
(Separate Departments for Men and Women)
HOURS—9 A. M. to 7 P. M. SATURDAY to 4:30 P. M.

Spirit of the Gay Nineties

The popular blended whiskey of the good old days is back again—the spirit of Old New York. We earnestly recommend this particular brand for particular people!

Dickel's MURRAY HILL CLUB
BLENDED WHISKEY—90 Proof

PINTS $1.05
HALF PINTS $.55
QUARTS $2.05

THE STRAIGHT WHISKIES IN THIS PRODUCT ARE 32 MONTHS OR MORE OLD. 30% STRAIGHT WHISKEY, 70% NEUTRAL SPIRITS DISTILLED FROM AMERICAN GRAINS. 25% STRAIGHT WHISKEY 32 MONTHS OLD. 5% STRAIGHT WHISKEY 5 YEARS OLD.

Dept. 1138, Geo. A. Dickel Distilling Co., Inc. Lexington, Ky.

FHA LOANS to REPAIR
REPAINT
REMODEL

Repayable in monthly instalments for periods from one to five years.

EXAMPLES:

$200 borrowed for one year—Monthly payment of $17.38 would cover both interest and principal

•

$300 borrowed for two years—Monthly payment of $13.54 would cover both interest and principal

•

$500 borrowed for five years—Monthly payment of $10.02 would cover both interest and principal

•

In every case the full amount is advanced to you

Ask at either office for a Loan Application blank

THE WASHINGTON LOAN AND TRUST COMPANY
F Street at 9th • 17th Street at G

Member, Federal Reserve System. Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation

SPECIAL NOTICES

GEORGE WASHINGTON drank the famous Berkeley Springs mineral water nearly 200 years ago. You can have it, too, as well as Berkeley Club ginger ale and sods. Old friends are finding new ones for this great health drink. Phone Wisconsin 3232.

POSITIONS GUARANTEED Graduates of Complete Courses—
Openings hourly. Gregg and Boyd Shorthand. Touch Typing. Spelling. Business English. Calculating Machines. Accountancy, etc. INQUIRE NOW. AT. 2340.
BOYD SCHOOL 1333 F St.

'blue coal'

• 'blue coal' is prepared in six different sizes, so you can select the size that gives best results in your furnace. Order from us today.

GRIFFITH-CONSUMERS COMPANY
1413 NEW YORK AVE. ME. 4848
Tune in on "The Shadow" every Sunday at 5:30 P. M.—Station WOL

Fay Wray Plans Coast Trip for Reconciliation

Now in Charlottesville Husband, Baby There Leaving for Hollywood

By Edward T. Folliard
A Staff Correspondent.

Charlottesville, Va., Nov. 16.—denouement in the strange domestic drama involving John Monk Saunders and Fay Wray will come in Hollywood.

Attorneys for the author-playwright and his actress-wife said here today that the couple and their 2-year-old daughter, Susan Cary, would depart for the California movie colony as soon as Saunders is well enough to leave the University of Virginia Hospital.

Once in Hollywood, it was said, Saunders and Miss Wray will determine whether there is to be a reconciliation or whether they will take their affairs into court. If it is to be a legal battle, it was explained further, Hollywood obviously would be a more desirable ground, since that is where the couple have their home and where their friends and potential witnesses liv .

Hope for Harmony

Hope was expressed, however, that Saunders and Miss Wray, married in 1927 and often pointed out as happy exceptions in a colony notorious for wrecked marriages, would be able to straighten out their affairs and avoid a court battle.

For six weeks, it was learned today, Miss Wray was without knowledge as to the whereabouts of her husband and their daughter. A newspaper article telling of his arrival here, along with the baby and a nurse, finally came to her attention in Hollywood, and she boarded a plane and flew East.

Saunders, 41-year-old scenario writer who turned "Wings," "The Dawn Patrol" and other hits, came here, he told friends, because he felt he could do better work than in the hurly-burly of Hollywood. He is writing a historical novel.

Suffered From Nerves

By the time Miss Wray arrived here last week, along with Adele Rogers St. John and J. E. Lumbard, jr., a New York attorney, Saunders was in the University of Virginia Hospital suffering from "nervousness and insomnia."

The baby at that time was in a private home just outside of Charlottesville, but was moved to another home when news of Miss Wray's arrival reached Saunders in the hospital.

Ultimately an understanding was reached whereby both the baby and Miss Wray moved into the hospital. The three, Saunders, his wife and the child, now are in separate quarters in the institution.

Saunders' condition, it was reported, has been fluctuating. Yesterday it was said he was "sleeping like a baby" and soon would be able to leave, but today he was described as being "on edge."

Chamberlain Man Wins in Election

London, Nov. 16 (AP).—Sir George Schuster, running on the Liberal National ticket, today won election to Parliament in the Walsall constituency over the labor candidate, George Jeger, thus retaining the seat for Prime Minister Chamberlain's government.

Although Jewish suffering in Germany was exploited by the opposition, an dthe conservatives were disturbed before the returns came in, Sir eGorge's majority was only slightly reduced under that of the last general election.

Jury Refuses to Indict Indian's Ousted Widow

Los Angeles, Nov. 16 (AP).—The Federal grand jury declined today to indict Mrs. Anna Laura Barnett on charges of resisting officers who evicted her recently from the colonial mansion belonging to the estate of her late husbnad, Jackson Barnett, multimillionaire Creek Indian.

New Parking Meter Falls a Victim to Looter

Post Staff Photo

Spectators crowd around the "innards" of a parking meter held by a motorist who attempted to use the meter but was unable to insert his nickel. The meter inspector took apart the meter and found that a vandal had attempted to loot the box

First Court Case and Futile Attempt at Theft Mark Day's Progress in Park-Meter History

Washington's new parking meters attarcted their first would-be thief yesterday and sent their first case to court.

While an unsuccessful attempt to rob a meter near Thirteenth and E streets northwest was discovered, Robert W. Waldron, 22, of 1014 Florida avenue northwest, was charged with failing to deposit a coin. Judge John P. McMahon will decide in Traffic Court today if one motorist may use another's unexpired time without depositing a nickel.

Waldron was arrested on Fifteenth street northwest and told Policeman W. J. Lynn he did not deposit a nickel in the meter. The policeman admitted that the man parked less than an hour.

Women Bothersome

Meanwhile, patrolmen were still busy answering questions and in many cases were forced to give detailed explanations to users of the meters.

Women motorists, according to three policemen downtown, caused the majority of the trouble.

"They insist upon paying after they have parked an hour instead of before," Private E. E. Watkins said. "Apparently they hate to pay in advance."

Watkins declared many drivers approached him on the street praising the new meters. They all seem to be thankful because "there are more parking spaces in the metered area," he said.

Question of Time

The principle question was whether a car is parked illegally if the motorist uses some free time that is left by a previous parker and an hour of his own.

Capt. Milton D. Smith, commander of the traffic division, said in his opinion the car is parked overtime, because of the one-hour limit in the downtown area.

He said the best thing to do was to drop a nickel and start the machine over again, unless the driver is certain he will be no longer than the time remaining on the meter.

Reads the Law

Capt. Smith cited a paragraph in the new regulation governing the meters. It said:

"When a vehicle is to be parked in any vacant zone, the operator shall immediately deposit a nickel in the meter alongside of the parking space."

The robbery attempt was discovered by Milton R. Muller as he parked his car near Thirteenth and E streets northwest. The meter he selected had the red flag flying, but when he tried to deposit his coin nothing happened.

He then noticed the glass covering on the coin slot had been removed. His futile efforts to pay for an hour's parking privilege soon attracted a good-sized crowd. All manner of suggestions were offered, but to no avail.

Proof Against Theft

As things progressed, a stranger stepped up and produced a bunch of keys. He quickly opened the meter coin box, pulled a few gadgets and corrected the trouble. He identified himself to the crowd as A. E. Lamarine, service manager for the Karpark Corporation, owners of the meters.

"These things are robbery-proof," said Lamarine, "but it will take a few weeks for would-be thieves to find it out. Unless the meters themselves are uprooted from their cement foundation, it is impossible to extract coins."

He said the first robbery attempt was made by prying back the glass facing on the coin slot.

Administration Ponders Delay in Philippine Liberty

On the eve of arrival here of a Philippine economic mission, the question of delaying the date of independence for the Philippines or changing the projected status of the islands to a dominion basis was again slated for consideration, according to some indications in Administration quarters.

Continued Japanese aggression in Asi ais advanced as one cause for reconsideration. Withdrawal of the American flag from the Philippines now is scheduled for 1946.

The present independence law sets up a tariff on certain Philippine exports to the United States in 1941 and complete tariff levels in 1946. Last spring the President suggested a more gradual tariff to 1960.

Vice President Sergio Osmena of the Philippines will arrive in Washington tomorrow as the head of the economic commission. Osmena will be accompanied by Antonio de las Alas, secretary of finance, and Benito Razon, economic adviser. The commission will be met by J. M. Elizalde, resident Philippine Commissioner.

Photo Request

Latest request for an autographed photograph of Robert Taylor comes from the library of the Appalachian State Teachers College in Boone, N. C.

Roper Denies He'll Resign, but Rumors Persist

Daniel C. Roper, secretary of the Department of Commerce, denied yesterday that he planned to resign.

Roper's denial, however, failed to end persistent rumors that Harry L. Hopkins, Works Program Administrator, is slated for promotion to cabinet rank. Some suggested that Secretary oRper could be persuaded to accept appointment to the American embassy to oSviet Russia, which has been in the hands of a charge d'affaires since Ambassador Joseph E. Davies was transferred to Belgium.

Another rumor that would not down was that Secretary of War Woodring would be invited to accept appointment as high commissioner of the Philippines, if Commissioner Paul McNutt resigns after January 1, as he has indicated he would. Assistant Secretary of War Johnson appeared to be the leading candidate for Secretary Woodring's job.

Powell High Play

"Speed," the fall play of Powell Junior High School, will be presented today and tomorrow at 8 p. m. in the school auditorium under direction of Miss Elizabeth Ralston, one of the teachers. The actors include Tommy Elgen, Joe Olcott and Elinor Goode.

Motor Vehicle Chief Indicted For N.Y. Bribes

Surrenders to Dewey Action Was Delayed Awaited Election

By the Associated Press.

New York, Nov. 16.—Charles A. Hartnett, State commissioner of motor vehicles, was arrested today in the office of District Attorney Dewey on a long-secret indictment charging him with accepting $67,000 in cash bribes for official favors granted four taxicab concerns.

Hartnett, veteran Democrat who has held his post since 1924, surrendered when told of the accusations against him, pleaded not guilty, and was released in $5,000 bail.

The indictments, charging extortion and bribery, were ready in late September, Dewey said, but were deliberately held up until after the election.

Hartnett was the eleventh person indicted in the district attorney's long investigation of the taxicab industry. Another was former State Assemblyman Edward S. Moran, jr.

The accusations against the commissioner centered about his administration of State laws requiring that each operating taxicabs be bonded.

Harnett, Dewey said, permitted the Parmelee Transportation Co. to act as surety on the personal bonds of its subsidiaries—Yellow Taxi Corporation, National Transportation Co, Inc., and the Hamilton Peters Operating Co., Inc.

He was permitted, under discretionary authority granted in the State statutes, to make such an arrangement, but, Dewey said, he refused to exercise his discretion similarly for competing companies, requiring them to provide a more costly method of insurance.

It was at the instance of Morris Markin, alleged agent for Parmelee, that Harnett refused to grant to other concerns the favorable consideration he gave to the Parmelee group, the indictment charged, and it was Markin who was named as the "pay off" man

Harnett appeared before the grand jury at his own request during its investigation, waiving immunity

M. J. Lynch Rites Set Today at Westminster

Westminster, Md., Nov. 16 (AP).—Funeral services for M. John Lynch, 76, prominent retired businessman and one of Westminster's pioneers, will be held tomorrow at St. John's Roman Catholic Church.

Surviving are a wife, the former Branford Gist, who is historian of the local D. A. R. chapter; three sons, five daughters, 21 grandchildren and one great-grandchild

Big Home-Town Welcome Greets Sullivan, 'Boy Who Made Good'

In West Chester, Pa. 50 Years a Journalist Flags Mark Reception

By Edwin McKinstry.

(Editor of the Daily Local News, West Chester, Pa., who gave Mark Sullivan his first newspaper job on that paper 50 years ago.)

West Chester, Pa., Nov. 16.—After walking with the great on two continents, Mark Sullivan, author and columnist, returned to his home town today to retain the common touch by taking up the newspaper game here where he left the local field before becoming famous. He announced it as celebrating his "50 years in journalism."

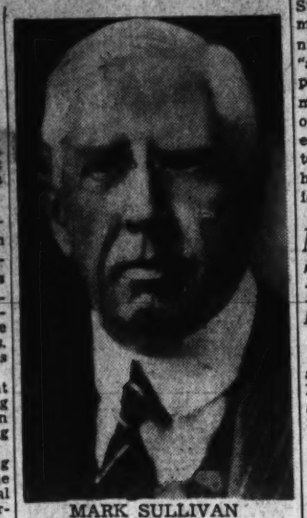
He was welcomed with a great reception in the flower and flag decked lobby of a building at an intersection of streets blooming with emblems of greeting.

Hundreds of neighbors, including college presidents, leaders of the bar, industrial chiefs, financial princes, farmers, dairymen, laborers and mechanics by the score shook his hands. In travels about town he was escorted by the college band. Quakers, firemen, pioneers and others in costume or uniform took part.

He was greeted with especial fervor by a group from the Avon Grove Consolidated School, which has supplanted the little one-room East Grove building, where he attended as a child, and also by a delegation of former residents of Phoenixville, where he for some years edited the Daily Republican before he entered Harvard.

At the State Teachers College here Sullivan, announced by President Charles S. Swope as the outstanding alumnus, was given an ovation by faculty and students.

In the office of the Daily Local News, whose guest Sullivan was for the day, he made whimsical application for a position on the staff. The managing editor, Henry L. Brinton, a fellow college alumnus, gave him a job for the day, on trial, but he could not do much actual work, being interrupted by a bevy of 20 pretty girls who insisted upon asking him questions about how to succeed in journalism.



MARK SULLIVAN

Court Denies Delay In Dalhover Execution

Chicago, Nov. 16 (AP).—The United States Court of Appeals today denied a petition for the postponement of the execution of James Dalhover, member of the Brady gang, condemned to die next Friday in the electric chair in Michigan City, Ind.

A delay had been requested pending the outcome of an apeal for executive clemency sent to President Roosevelt earlier in the day.

Sightseeing Bus Operator Sues To Regain License

Stanley L. Mahoney yesterday sued the District Commissioners in District Court to recover his license to engage in the sightseeing business here.

Engaged in showing visitors about the city for more than 20 years, Mahoney declared he received a license to continue his profession six years ago after regulatory legislation was passed by Congress.

Subsequently, he continued, "came a time when the Commissioners wrongfully and illegally revoked the said license and threatened to criminally prosecute him if he engaged in the sightseeing business.

He alleged that the Commissioners lack the power under the act of Congress to license him or to "revoke the license without just cause" and stated that his "inalienable right to labor and earn a living is being interfered with and he and his family are enduring great hardship as a result of the interference."

Legion Commander Supports President

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 16 (AP).—Stephen F. Chadwick, national commander of the American Legion, tonight said President Roosevelt's "acts and pronouncements" in the present foreign situation "express my thought" and the "thoughts of our great organization," with reference to "the shocking reversals to tolerance and to civilization which have filled the press of the world in recent weeks."

Maryland Warned To Start Bridge or Face Loss of Aid

Baltimore, Nov. 16 (AP).—Immediate recession of PWA grants for the Potomac River Bridge from Morgantown to Dahlgren, Va., will be recommended, M. E. Gilmore, regional PWA director, announced today, unless the State roads commission takes steps at once to start work on the project.

The local PWA affice announced the project was one of 139 in the East which are "in danger of losing Federal funds because the necessary steps to get construction started on or before the PWA deadline dates has not been taken."

The PWA allotted $1,766,700 for the bridge project. The State promisedto provide the remainder of the $3,926,000 estimated cost.

Coming!
THE DAWN OF A NEW DAY IN HEATING COMFORT

By AMERICAN RADIATOR

LIGHT AS A FEATHER
WARM AS A FIRESIDE

Langora
TOPCOAT

$35
COMPARE

OUR EXTENDED PAYMENT PLAN
4
MONTHS TO PAY
No Down Payment.
No Carrying Charge.

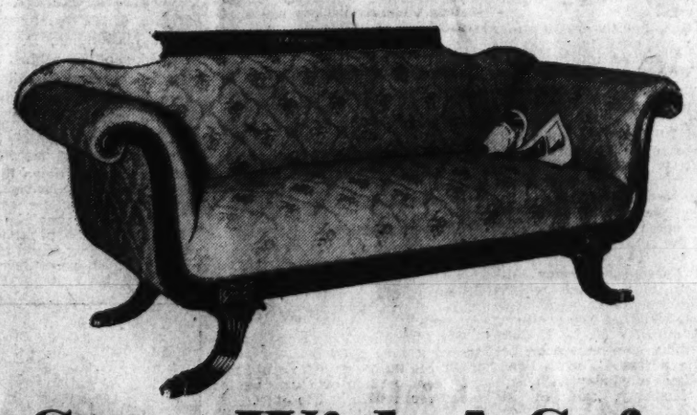
EXCLUSIVE WITH RALEIGH FOR THIRTEEN SEASONS

Ask the man who wears one. Thousands of men will tell you this is a long-life coat. A coat with a history in Washington! A scientific mixture of angora fleece and mohair making it shower-proof, wind-proof, wrinkle-proof! And it has a world of style and durability. Amazingly light . . . surprisingly warm. In Blue, Camel Brown, Oxford Gray, Green in solid colors and smart broken check effects.

RALEIGH HABERDASHER
WASHINGTON'S FINEST MEN'S WEAR STORE 1310 F STREET

Lifetime FURNITURE

Every Tuesday Evening—7:30 to 8 P. M.—Station WRC—Listen to "The Home Towners."



Start With A Sofa

and gradually transform your living room so that it becomes

"The Room of Your Dreams"

Have you ever wished that you might completely change your living room furnishings and suddenly abandon the idea when you thought of the investment required? But there is no need of doing it all at once! Start with a sofa—pick a good one—and then, piece-by-piece, add to your living room. Before you know it, your entire room will be transformed into "The Room of Your Dreams" and you acquire it without financial strain. Let us help you plan and show you how reasonably you can add to your sum of home contentment.

Sofa Illustrated, in Tapestry, $130

HONDURAS MAHOGANY—KARPEN CONSTRUCTION
CURLED BLACK HORSE HAIR FILLING

MAYER & CO.
Seventh Street Between D and E
HOUSE OF LIFETIME FURNITURE

ARCADE "SUNSHINE" Laundry Service
THURSDAY AND FRIDAY ONLY
7c POUND
10c EACH ADDITIONAL FOR FINISHING SHIRTS

A lot for just 7c a pound . . . wash your things in softened water with the finest soaps . . . return wearing apparel damp and folded ready to iron . . . return all towels, bed and table linen, all household linens finished.
*Small Additional Service Charge

CALL COLUMBIA 8010

ARCADE SUNSHINE
THE YARDSTICK OF QUALITY AND SERVICE IN COMPLETE CLEANSING

Hitler's Paper Says Roosevelt Seeks Excuses

Berlin

Continued from Page 1.

alleged menace of foreign attacks and that they are perceiving Washington's imperialistic designs hidden behind it."

A foreign office spokesman said reply would be made tomorrow, if at all, to President Roosevelt's criticism of German anti-Semitism.

The Fremdenblatt, a Hamburg newspaper, said:

"The entire public opinion of the United States has been covered with a slander campaign which also took into service the radio and such well-known persons as Hoover, Al Smith, Landon, Dewey and Ickes."

The paper said "these circles" must be reminded of the sins of their own country, referring to lynchings.

German Jews, most of them in seclusion and an estimated 40,000 under arrest, tearfully awaited their ultimate fate.

These were immediate factors in their fears and hopes:

The Vom Rath funeral.

A United States protest on behalf of American Jews following President Roosevelt's denunciation of anti-Jewish actions.

Suspension of normal government business yesterday because of the Protestant Day of Atonement.

Fear New Restrictions

Resignedly, the Jews believed the government would use the funeral of Vom Rath as an occasion to issue further restrictions promised by Field Marshal Goering and Propaganda Minister Goebbels.

Some Jews professed to have received a warning—in what way they did not explain—that another "spontaneous demonstration" such as last Thursday's might be organized in connection with services for Vom Rath, a secretary of the German Embassy in Paris slain by the 17-year-old Merchel Grynszpan.

British to Send Bill

A formal note sent by the United States Embassy to the foreign office protested destruction last Thursday of property belonging to American Jews. The United States reserved the right to take further action in the matter.

It was said in British circles that the British government intended in due course to present a bill to the Reich for compensation for damage done British Jews in last week's wholesale shop window demolitions.

But so far as could be learned no British protest, similar to that of the United States, had been made. It was thought likely no steps would be taken until full estimates of the riot damage were available.

Wilson Leaves

United States Ambassador Wilson took an express train toward Paris and home at 9:20 p. m. yesterday in response to a Presidential summons. Mrs. Wilson remained in Berlin.

No Nazi Party or government officials were at the station to bid the Ambassador good-by.

Because of the Protestant holiday, the Day of Atonement, government offices were closed, and relatives could do little to help the 40,000 Jews reliably estimated to be under arrest.

Jewish leaders still unarrested awaited the resumption of normal business and government activity in the hope that the economics and finance ministries might present some concrete plan for levying the previously announced 1,000,000,000-mark ($400,000,000) fine against Jews as penalty for Vom Rath's assassination.

Many Homes Deserted

Jews also must bear the property loss occasioned by the disorders.

Some Jews hoped Goering would extend on a national basis his instructions to Joseph Buerckel, Nazi commissioner to Austria, that anybody caught damaging or looting Jewish property hereafter would be shot.

Many Jewish homes, nevertheless, were deserted because the women and children remaining at large feared further violence. Some sought refuge at friends' homes.

Anti-Jewish actions were reported in provincial communities.

In Breslau telephone service to Jews was discontinued. Wealthy families were put on a ration basis in the matter of withdrawing money from banks.

Jews' Radios Seized

Three of the best-situated Breslau families, closely related to each other, were advised they could spend among them monthly only $400, which would be doled out to them.

Nazis went from one Jewish home to another in Munich to seize radios because "radio is a matter of German culture, and is nothing for Jews."

In Berlin, mail addressed to the National Executive Committee of German Jewry was returned to senders with the notation, "undeliverable—offices closed."

In cities like Munich, Leipzig and Nuremburg no shop remained at which Jews could buy foodstuffs. Everywhere there were signs indicating nothing would be sold to Jews. Many Jews there depended upon "Aryan" friends to bring them foods secretly at night.

Refugee Advisory Committee Reports to President

Harris & Ewing.

Members of the advisory committee on refugees are shown leaving the White House yesterday after submitting a report to the President. Shown are (from left) Hamilton Fish Armstrong, Undersecretary of State Welles, George I. Warren and James G. McDonald, chairman

Russians Urge Co-operation With America

Anglo-U. S. Bond Hit Press Belittles Nazis See Signs of Collapse

By the Associated Press.

Moscow, Nov. 16.—The government organ Izvestia today urged closer co-operation with the United States, while the Communist Party newspaper Pravda called anti-Jewish violence in Germany "a direct result of the critical situation of the Fascist dictatorship."

Pravda recalled that waves of anti-Jewish violence under the Russian czarist regime failed to save czarism from collapse and argued that persecutions generally are the last resort of toppling governments.

Izvestia pegged its editorial on the fifth anniversary of establishment of diplomatic relations between the Soviet Union and the United States.

British Bond Assailed

Even before the September crisis in Europe, the government organ said, American leaders such as President Roosevelt, Secretaries Hull and Ickes and Undersecretary Welles saw clearly that "the safety of the United States depends on the safety of other countries."

The newspaper declared that "in recent years the United States has lost much because it always made its foreign policy dependent on British policy."

The Munich settlement demonstrated Britain's willingness to capitulate to an aggressor, the editorial continued, while at the same time the attitude of reactionaries in the United States showed that capitalism also tended toward agreement with an aggressor.

Peoples Held United

The newspaper said it was to be regretted that all the hopes of 1933 over the establishment of normal diplomatic relations between Washington and Moscow had not been justified but asserted this was "no fault of the Soviet Union."

"Nevertheless, the hope of possible co-operation between the two countries in the interest of general peace undoubtedly is the uniting of the peoples of both countries in the present moment. It is no accident that reactionaries in both Europe and the United States are trying hard to prevent further rapprochement of the U. S. S. R. and the United States.

"The Soviet Union continues to follow the path of actively defending peace and resisting aggression and both countries may still meet on that path."

New Guardian Urges Sale of McLean Property

Disposal of the McLean block of property at Fifteenth and I streets northwest for $2,000,000 moved a step nearer conclusion yesterday when sanction for the deal was recommended by Frank H. Myers, recently appointed guardian for Edward B. McLean, in District Court.

Rear Admiral Mark L. Bristol, ancillary committee and Maryland guardian for McLean, life tenant of the John R. McLean estate, testified the price was "insufficient," but left decision to the court.

During the hearing before Justice Oscar R. Luhring, a strong recommendation for sale of the property was made by Corcoran P. Thom, president of the American Security & Trust Co., trustee for the John B. McLean estate. He said that the annual average deficit of the estate was approximately $58,000 and that it could be eliminated or reduced if the $2,000,000 could be used to remove or cut down obligations.

Ralph S. Quinter, guardian at law for Edward B. McLean, testified in favor of the sale.

Justice Luhring said he would decide within the next few days whether to authorize acceptance of an offer made by the Lafayette Building Corporation deemed much too long for completion of the rescue efforts. Instead it is desired to solve the German Jewish problem within the next few months, if that is physically, financially and politically possible.

British Cabinet Weighs Kennedy Refugee Plan

British

Continued from Page 1.

The big problem is money. The British empire with its vast open spaces, should be able to provide habitable areas, but immense sums will be required to ransom the Jews, move them across oceans and support them for whatever period is necessary until their own industry makes them self-supporting. The British and American governments may be asked to underwrite the monumental undertaking, but in the absence of official details, it is thought the millions of American Jews will be invited to do the lion's share of the financing in behalf of their persecuted brethren.

There is hardly any precedent for the projected wholesale transfer of populations. A million Greeks returned from Asia Minor and Turkey to Greece after the victories of Mustapha Kemal in 1922. This transfer was supervised by the League of Nations which is impotent today. The Greeks had Greece to go back to; the German Jews have nowhere to go to in great numbers, not even Palestine.

Reports published in London—which the foreign office refused to deny or confirm—estimate that £30,000,000 to £40,000,000 would be needed for full execution of the German refugee program under consideration in this capital and Washington. Britain is pictured as willing to underwrite the scheme up to 50 per cent.

British Guiana, on the northern coast of the South American continent, is an added starter to the list of remote places which might be thrown open to refugees. Development of natural resources there would provide for the ultimate settlement of 20,000 families, it is believed by some, though others regarded this figure as unduly optimistic.

Jews Prefer Palestine

[The United Press reported the plan considered by the cabinet called for Britain to offer land in Guiana and other colonies, asking the United States and other countries to finance the settlement.—Editor's note.]

Meanwhile, Jewish organizations in Britain are petitioning for increased immigration into Palestine, which they regard as more suitable for cultivation than some of the African and American spots already mentioned.

The Zionist General Council at today's meeting in London, attended by 80 delegates, representing Zionist groups throughout the world, appealed to the British people "in this dark hour of Jewish history" to open wide the "Gates of Zion" for the return of the Jewish people.

Former Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden, in a speech tonight which was broadcast to America, commended President Roosevelt and the prime minister of the Netherlands for their intervention on behalf of the harassed Jews. Eden, who had luncheon today with Ambassador Kennedy, said in his broadcast:

"Our own government may rest assured that in any action they may be able to take, they will receive the full support of all sections of the British people.

"Perhaps I may be allowed to add that the attitude of the United States, of Holland, and of so many other countries at this time seems to us, in Britain, to be characteristic of the great traditions of those countries. We would, none of us, wish to be backward in our association with them in an attempt to mitigate a great tragedy in human history."

Copyright, 1938, New York Tribune, Inc.

Cardinal Hits At 'Racism' as World Menace

Schuster Fears Spread 'A Kind of Heresy' Turns Back 2,000 Yrs.

By the Associated Press.

Rome, Nov. 16.—The Catholic Daily L'Italia, of Milan, has published a sermon by Alfred Cardinal Schuster, Archbishop of Milan, in which he denounced "so-called racism" as an "international danger."

The cardinal has been an outstanding atholic defender of fascism. His attack coincides with Vatican opposition to Italy's new marriage laws, based on the "racist" principle of superiority of "Aryans" over "non-Aryans."

In his sermon Sunday in the Duomo, cathedral in Milan, the cardinal said:

"A kind of heresey has been abroad and is spreading elsewhere which not only attacks the supernatural basis of the Catholic church, but is materializing the spiritual concepts of individuals, the nation and the fatherland in human blood, denies to humanity every other spiritual value and thus constitutes an international danger no less than that of Bolshevism itself. It is so-called racism."

Cardinal Schuster brought Italy and Germany into his sermon with a reference to "the privileged race of Arminio," which he said "may create tomorrow a religion and faith not merely superior to but directly against the 'ari and patri lari' (altars and ancestral worship) of all other peoples."

Arminio was a German commander who tricked and defeated Roman legionnaires in the days of the ancient Roman Empire.

The cardinal pointed out that the empire of Augustus—the ancient Emperor mos tadmired by Premier Mussolini—"was truly an anti-racial empire." He asserted that ancient Romans understood that they "must pass over all national barriers and ethnological differences to recognize a certain equality of right among all Roman subjects."

Cardinal Schuster said "if there is a concept which is anti-imperialist and anti-Roman, it is undoubtedly this racial myth of the twentieth century, which turns world history violently backward for 2,000 years."

Carol Receives Chamberlain At Buckingham

London, Nov. 16 (AP).—King Carol of Rumania, who is the guest of the King of England, received Prime Minister Chamberlain at Buckingham Palace tonight.

They were believed to have discussed plans to increase Rumania's oil and wheat exports to Great Britain and "matters associated with Rumania's oil supplies."

The Rumanian King was regarded as being in a good position to get favorable terms, since he could play off German trade overtures against whatever Britain had to offer.

Japan's ReplySoon On Open Door Note

Tokyo, Nov. 16 (AP).—Japan's reply to the United States Government's protest against alleged interference with American rights in China is "nearly ready," it was said in authoritative quarters tonight.

The reply was scheduled for submission to the cabinet Friday. The United States in a note October 6 demanded maintenance of the "open door" in China.

U. S., Britain Ready to Sign Trade Accord

Trade

Continued from Page 1.

overnight at the White House, to spend Friday at the Canadian embassy and to return to Ottawa Monday. He came to Washington on November 15, 1935, to sign the first trade agreement, signalizing Hull's first victory for his program.

The enormous volume of trade involved makes the British agreement the most extensive in all the long series concluded among governments, under which this country extends "most-favored nation" treatment to all nations participating.

Signing in East Room

Today's ceremonies will take place in the East Room of the White House, scene of many historic events. After signatures have been affixed, mutual congratulatory speeches are to be exchanged by the participants.

A year's groundwork and six months of the most intensive detailed negotiations have gone into the new pacts, which are of greater significance than even the amount of trade at issue, in view of troubled world conditions.

The British agreement will be accompanied by a note expressing that government's willingness to discuss further tariff reductions with this country after Britain is released from previous commitments to the Dominions made in the Ottawa preferential agreements.

Spy Case Witness Angers Judge by Stiff-Arm Salute

New York, Nov. 16 (AP).—A German World War veteran who appeared to give the Nazi salute in Federal court drew a glowering rebuke today from Judge John C. Knox at the trial of three alleged German spies.

Michael Forst, called as a character witness for Otto Hermann Voss, 38, raised his arm in the stiff "heil" gesture as he was sworn, and immediately drew a scowl from Judge Knox.

"Was that the Nazi salute?" the judge demanded sharply.

The witness gulped and reddened. "No, sir," he said.

Cross-examination of Voss, who is accused of stealing United States Army airplane secrets and transmitting them to German agents, was concluded with the defendant protesting that a statement he made to Federal agents implicating him in the espionage ring was obtained under the compulsion of Leon G. Turrou, former FBI agent who was in charge of the spy probe.

Lame Samaritan Shot and Robbed By Two He Aided

Special Dispatch to The Post.

Fredericksburg, Va., Nov. 16.—Edward John Mullens, 35-year-old cripple, of 208 Upshur street northwest, Washington, D. C., was assaulted, shot and robbed by two fellow hitchhikers, 10 miles south of here on Route 1 early tonight.

Mullens said two youths for whom he bought doughnuts and coffee here this morning, beat him up after they had gotten down the highway about 10 miles. As he lay on the ground helpless, one whipped out a revolver and shot him in the leg and the arm, then robbed him of $44. Passers by found Mullens unconscious, his pants torn from his body and his crutches broken.

250,000 Seek To Enter U. S. From Germany

85 Per Cent Jewish Quotas Are Barrier Stowaways Increase

More than 250,000 Germans, officials indicated last night, are trying to get into the United States to live.

On October 1, latest date for which exact figures are available, there were 220,000 would-be immigrants on the waiting list. It was officially calculated that at least 85 per cent of them were Jews.

Consulate Stormed

Indications were that the latest outburst of anti-Semitism in the Reich had sent the figure beyond a quarter million. Cable reports from Berlin said the American consulate was stormed by frantic wives of arrested persons, seeking credentials showing their husbands could enter the United States. Such papers in the past have enabled some Jews to regain freedom.

The credentials cannot be given, however, unless the applicants have qualified under the highly selective visa restrictions which usually disqualify from 80 to 90 per cent of all applicants.

Despite the terrific pressure in Berlin, no large scale immigration of Jews is possible because of the quota laws which permit only 2,700 Germans to enter the United States monthly. This quota has stood since the 1924 act was passed, and cannot be altered except by Congress.

Pressure Both Ways

Indications in official quarters here are that there will be heavy pressure upon Congress in January both to increase and reduce the central European immigration quotas, and to close quotas altogether.

Officials also disclosed a rise in the number of captured stowaways attempting to come to the United States, in recent months from 20 to 25 monthly to 50 or 60 monthly, many coming from Germany and Austria.

Loyalists Attack Power Plant Area

Hendaye, France, Nov. 16 (AP).—Government dispatches said tonight militia attacked this morning in the Tremp sector, 40 miles north of Lerida on the Catalonian front.

The new offensive apparently was intended to recapture Tremp power plants, lost in the insurgents' spring drive to the sea.

Insurgent dispatches said the cleanup on the Ebro River front farther south was continuing. A number of government troops were encircled.

Roper Tells Baptists Church Must Renew Force in Homes

Holds Family Faith Bulwark Against 'Isms Convention Lauds President on Nazis Commends Traffic Safety Drive

Secretary of Commerce Roper, addressing the closing session of the D. C. Baptist convention last night at Calvary Baptist Church, warned that "the church must regain its hold on the family life of the Nation, to combat the threats of the enemies of religious freedom and other sacred human rights."

His talk followed the convention's adoption of resolutions deploring Germany's treatment of the Jews; approving President Roosevelt's "expression of indignation" and deploring the Rumanian government's suppression of Baptists in that country. Copies of the resolutions are being sent to the German ambassador, Hans Dieckhoff; Mr. Roosevelt and the Rumanian envoy, Radu Erimescu.

"The public conscience must be aroused to the fact that spiritual power behind one is greater than the material task before one," said Secretary Roper, adding that "the challenge is not to youth but to those who are responsible for implementing youth with the armor of the fundamental virtues which are prompted and cultivated through spiritual forces."

"The 'Frankenstein' of racial and religious hate and intolerance is not a mythical monster," continued Roper, "but is today a living menace to the happiness and safety of all who believe in human liberty and freedom. We cannot escape the duty of raising our voices in protest against man's inhumanity against man, whether it involves racial or religious persecution. It is the responsibility of the church to condemn sin against the living God wherever it exists, but, to make its voice more effective, spiritual forces must co-ordinate their efforts and strengthen their defenses."

Earlier in the day, the convention elevated its vice president, the Rev. Charles B. Austin, pastor of the West Washington Baptist Church, to the presidency, and named the following officers: George B. Frazer, vice president; W. W. Everett, assistant secretary, and William M. Janson, secretary, the latter succeeding S. C. Nottingham, who was appointed secretary emeritus and presented with a silver plaque, a testimonial of 54 years spent in various church administrative posts here. He served as convention secretary for eight years.

Other resolutions included commending of the efforts of the board of commissioners, the director of traffic, the board of trade, the press and other agencies of the District to reduce traffic hazards by better control of drivers and pedestrians; the plans of the board of education and the PWA for extending to crippled children the facilities of schools and the work of Police Superintendent Maj. Brown among the boys of the city.

Fascist Press Raps Roosevelt on Jews

Rome, Nov. 16 (U.P.).—The Fascist press, attacking President Roosevelt's statements regarding the Jewish situation and armaments, today used such headlines as "Roosevelt Is a Palladium of the Ghetto" and "Roosevelt Sheds Tears for the Jews But Declares Himself Ready to Defend North American Imperialism."

One paper said that "in order to provide for rearmament Roosevelt decreases the subsidies to the unemployed.

SPORT CENTER Sale!

Reg. $12.50 to $15
Admiral Byrd
Men's Leather JACKETS
$7.95

Brown, tan, mahogany and black cape leather sample jackets to be sold at almost half their worth. Tailored in Cossack style, leather collars and cuffs, full-length celanese lining, two front slash pockets, many with extra zipper breast pocket. All men's sizes.

SPORT CENTER
8TH & D STS. N.W.
Phone MEtro. 6454

Washington's Best! Smith's "Natural Method"
RUG CLEANING
9x12 Domestics!. Elsewhere $4!
$2.95

Give your rugs a new lease on life! Let Smith's "Natural Method" Shampoo clean them through and through! Healthfully sterilized. Resized to prevent sliding at no extra cost!
Free Call & Delivery — COL. 57-57.
Smiths
21 Servicenters
Cleaners • Launderers • Shoe Repairers

Spray of Flowers
Express your sympathy with a spray of beautiful flowers expertly assembled and designed by a competent florist.
PROMPT DELIVERY $2.00 UP
C & C Flower Stores
808 14th St. N.W. MEt. 7433
804 17th St. N.W. MEt. 7945
928 F St. N.W. MEt. 7404
609 12th St. N.W. MEt. 9369

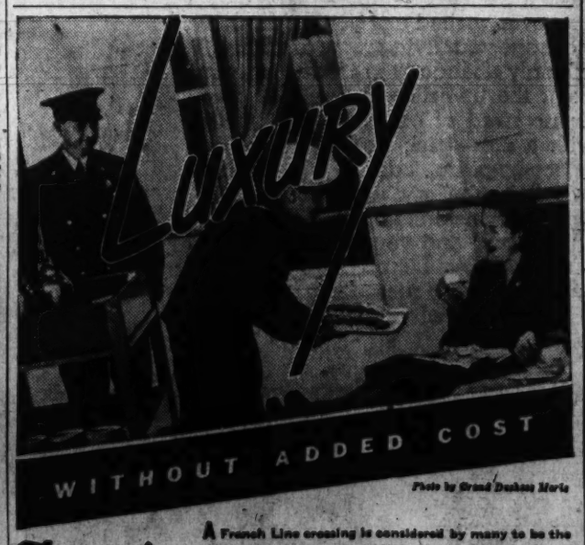

Photo by Grand Duchess Maria

French Line
J. E. BERRY, Res. Mgr.
924 19th St. N.W.
REpublic 4434

A French Line crossing is considered by many to be the height of travel luxury, yet it is surprisingly inexpensive. When you go abroad this fall or winter, take advantage of French Line's dependable speed and security . . . world-famous cuisine (table wine free) . . . alert, sympathetic service . . . large, cheery staterooms . . . the care given every detail. See your Travel Agent soon. His time and services cost you nothing.

• New York to England and France, and thus to all Europe: NORMANDIE, November 26, December 10, 28 • CHAMPLAIN, December 2, January 5 • PARIS, December 17, January 14 • Fly anywhere in Europe via Air-France

Ask for America's Biggest-Selling* WHISKEY in independent package stores from coast to coast!

Double your enjoyment with TEN HIGH
Straight Bourbon Whiskey. 90 proof

* According to an unbiased survey of independent package stores sponsored by leading distillers.

AMERICA'S Biggest-Selling Whiskey—that's TEN HIGH's amazing record. Made possible because TEN HIGH gives double-value for the money. Because TEN HIGH really does Double Your Enjoyment!

Its flavor is doubly-rich, doubly-satisfying, smooth because all Rough Edges are kept out. Strict methods of distilling control in the world's largest distillery are the secret of TEN HIGH's perfectly balanced bourbon taste.

Discover for yourself why TEN HIGH is America's favorite whiskey . . . Double Your Enjoyment today with TEN HIGH. You can buy TEN HIGH at stores and taverns all over the nation. Hiram Walker & Sons Inc., Peoria, Illinois.

Britain, France Both Refuse Colony Deal

To Keep Possessions Taken From Germany Daladier States Policy

By the Associated Press.

Paris, Nov. 16.—The French and British governments, pushed to definite statements by rising parliamentary and public opinion, joined today in flat opposition to handing back colonies taken from Germany through the World War.

The British attitude was bolstered by the statement of Gen. Jan Christian Smuts at Maritzburg, Natal, South Africa, that "we are going to defend South Africa and its vital interests, including Southwest Africa, to the uttermost."

Smuts was World War commander of the forces of the Union of South Africa. He termed the mandate over the 318,000 square miles of Southwest Africa, seized in 1915 from Germany and mandated by the League of Nations in 1920, a "sacred trust."

French Premier Daladier brought his government's attitude sharply to the fore with an unexpected statement in answer to inquiries from the Chamber of Deputies colonies committee.

The premier said, in part:

"Several weeks ago it (the government) made known that France opposes any blow at its colonial empire and that it would maintain resolutely the integrity of its possessions as they were constituted at the end of the World War.

"No cession has ever been envisaged, nor could one be. . . ."

(Daladier's statement presumably meant he had no intention of relinquishing Togoland and Cameroons, held by France under League of Nations mandate. These have frequently been mentioned among the territories that might be handed back.)

In London, before the House of Commons, Colonial and Dominions Secretary Malcolm MacDonald said the government "did not contemplate the transfer of any territory under British administration."

These developments emphasized the possibility that colonial appeasement of Germany would have to be based on acquisition of African territory from Portugal and Belgium for a transfer to replace Germany's own former colonies or formation of an international colonial pool with Germany as a member to give the Reich free access to former possessions.

Since both Paris and London had announced their decisions informed sources said the only thing left to talk over was how to hold out against expected German demands. They reiterated that thus far Germany has made no official request.

Italo-British Pact in Effect As England Recognizes Empire

Envoy Is Accredited to Ruler of Ethiopia
Rome Stresses Firmness of Berlin Axis
Possibility of Paris Accord Held Remote

By the Associated Press.

Rome, Nov. 16.—Italy and Great Britain finally made effective today a 7-month-old pact, settling their quarrel arising out of the Ethiopian war.

The Earl of Perth, British Ambassador, and Foreign Minister Ciano signed a brief declaration making operative the Anglo-Italian agreement of April 16 which, among other things, recognized the Italian conquest of Ethiopia.

Lord Perth presented to Count Ciano new credentials accrediting him to King Vittorio Emanuele as King of Italy and Emperor of Ethiopia. This was part of the procedure of composing Anglo-Italian differences in the Mediterranean, Africa, Spain and the Near East.

"Welded to Germany"

The friction dates from November 17, 1935, when economic penalties sponsored by Britain and France, with 50 League of Nations members, went into operation to isolate Italy in the 1935 African war.

Italian sources, however, declared Italy was still welded "strongly and firmly and with a full consciousness of responsibilities" to Germany in the Rome-Berlin axis.

They flatly refused to consider any accord with France for the time being, at least, partly because of anti-Fascist tendencies in French political circles.

Paris Gets Stiff Terms

Paris, Nov. 16 (AP).—Premier Daladier, threatened with a wide-open split in his cabinet over his financial program, was reported to have received stiff conditions from Italy as a price for a French-Italian friendship accord.

These demands, said persons close to the foreign office, were that France cede to Italy the Djibouti-Addis Ababa railway and the port of Djibouti, in French Somaliland, and share with Italy her part in the control of the Suez Canal and the administration of Tunisia.

Such terms were universally acknowledged by parliamentary deputies to be unacceptable.

The demands came as a distinct blow to Daladier's new policy of seeking friendship accords with the dictators. A settlement with Germany, it was officially announced, was well on its way.

The premier's suppression of a second group of decree laws designed to increase the government's supervision over commerce and industry was responsible for the cabinet dissension.

Six ministers were reported to have threatened to resign, declaring Finance Minister Reynaud obtained suppression of their decrees after safely launching his own.

Added to these worries for Daladier were a threat by the General Confederation of Labor to order its 5,000,000 workers to stage a 24-hour general strike in protest against new taxes contained in his decree laws, and increased agitation by extreme conservative parties for immediate dissolution of the Communist party.

Queen of Norway, 68, Is Operated On

London, Nov. 16 (AP).—Queen Maud of Norway underwent an abdominal operation here today while her husband, King Haakon VII, was on his way to her side.

A physicians' bulletin said: "Although her majesty has come through the operation well, the next few days cannot be without some anxiety." She is 68 years old.

Queen Maud, sister of the late King George V of Britain, became ill during her annual visit to England.

World Silver Output

New York, Nov. 7 (AP).—Production of silver by world refineries—with the exception of Mexico—totaled 15,586,000 fine ounces in September.

Japan Bombs Sian, China Red Center

Shanghai, Nov. 16 (AP).—Japanese planes today raided Sian, capital of Shensi Province, in a new and determined effort to sever communications between the Soviet Union and China. Sian has been the center of activity of the Chinese Communist army.

A dispatch from Hankow on the warfare in Hunan Province said that with exception of the southeast corner of Changsha, the once busy and prosperous provincial capital, was a smouldering ruins.

American property was reported to have escaped damage.

Tientsin, Nov. 16 (AP).—An unidentified gunman fired upon but did not hit the wife of United States Consul General J. K. Caldwell today.

WOODWARD & LOTHROP
10TH 11TH F AND G STREETS PHONE DISTRICT 5300

Limited Quantity

Harriet Hubbard Ayer's

Exquisite Perfumes

At Mere Fractions of Original List Prices $1.50 and $2

(Beautiful French Bottles—now discontinued)

In fact, the manufacturer's list prices are so very much higher that we do not even mention them—they seem almost unbelievable. It is a marvelous opportunity to indulge yourself, and to check off dozens of feminine names on your Christmas list.

Muguet, Lilas, Panier Fleuri Odeurs, $1.50
Muguet Odeur only, $2

TOILETRIES, AISLES 11 AND 13, FIRST FLOOR

WOODWARD & LOTHROP
10TH 11TH F AND G STREETS PHONE DISTRICT 5300

An "eye-must" you must have

TUSSY EYE CREAM

Wear it day and night . . . to keep your eyelids moist, shiny, richly lubricated . . . to counteract that dull, crepey, old look eyelids may get from dryness or squinting. $1

Last 3 days—Get a full-sized jar with a $1 purchase of Tussy Cosmetiques.

Miss Vontella Buchholz will be here for 3 more days to advise you on your beauty problems.

TOILETRIES, AISLE 13, FIRST FLOOR

WOODWARD & LOTHROP

invites you to attend
A Showing by Mannequins of Latest Fashions in Lovely Underthings
Smart Foundations
Charming Negligees

Today
at 4:30 o'Clock in the Tea Room,
Seventh Floor

WOODWARD & LOTHROP

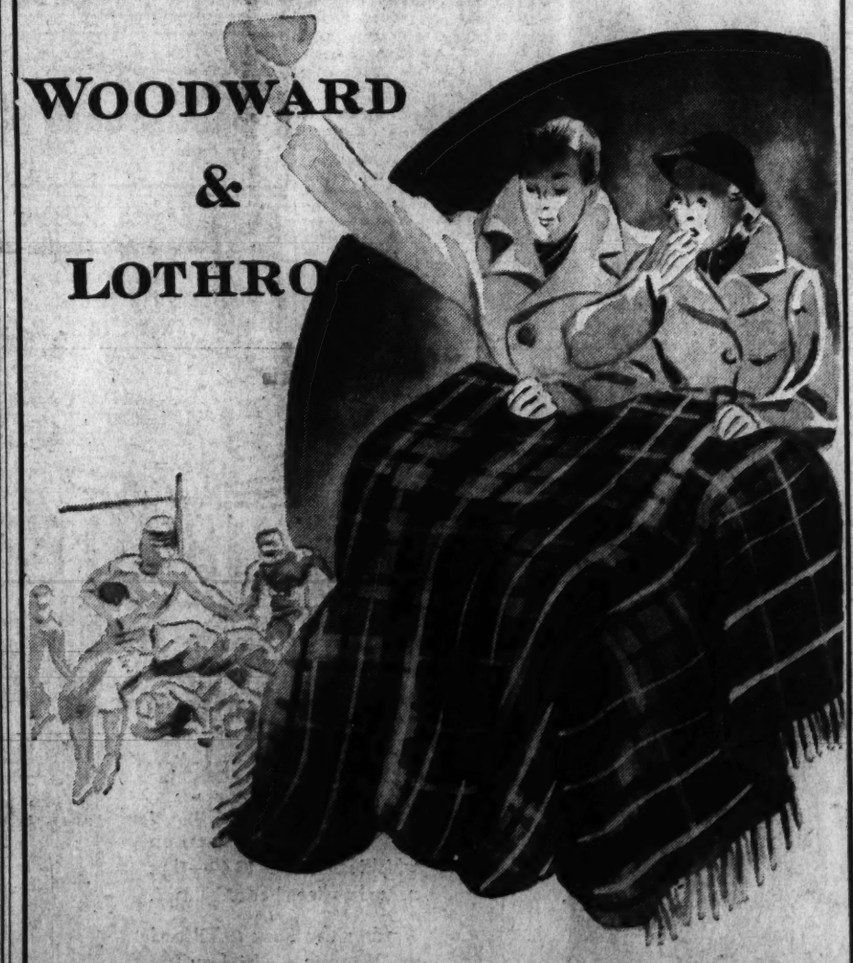
Flexible Bracelets Gleaming with Color

—exceptionally lovely for yourself or for gifts

Glamorous bracelets you would expect to cost much more than their modest price—even the trio you want costs very little. Lovely colors to combine—simulated sapphires, rubies, emeralds, diamonds or topazes sparkle in beautifully simple Sterling silver settings. With safety catches. Each, $2

NOVELTY JEWELRY, AISLE 5, FIRST FLOOR

WOODWARD & LOTHROP



Warm Wool Auto Robes

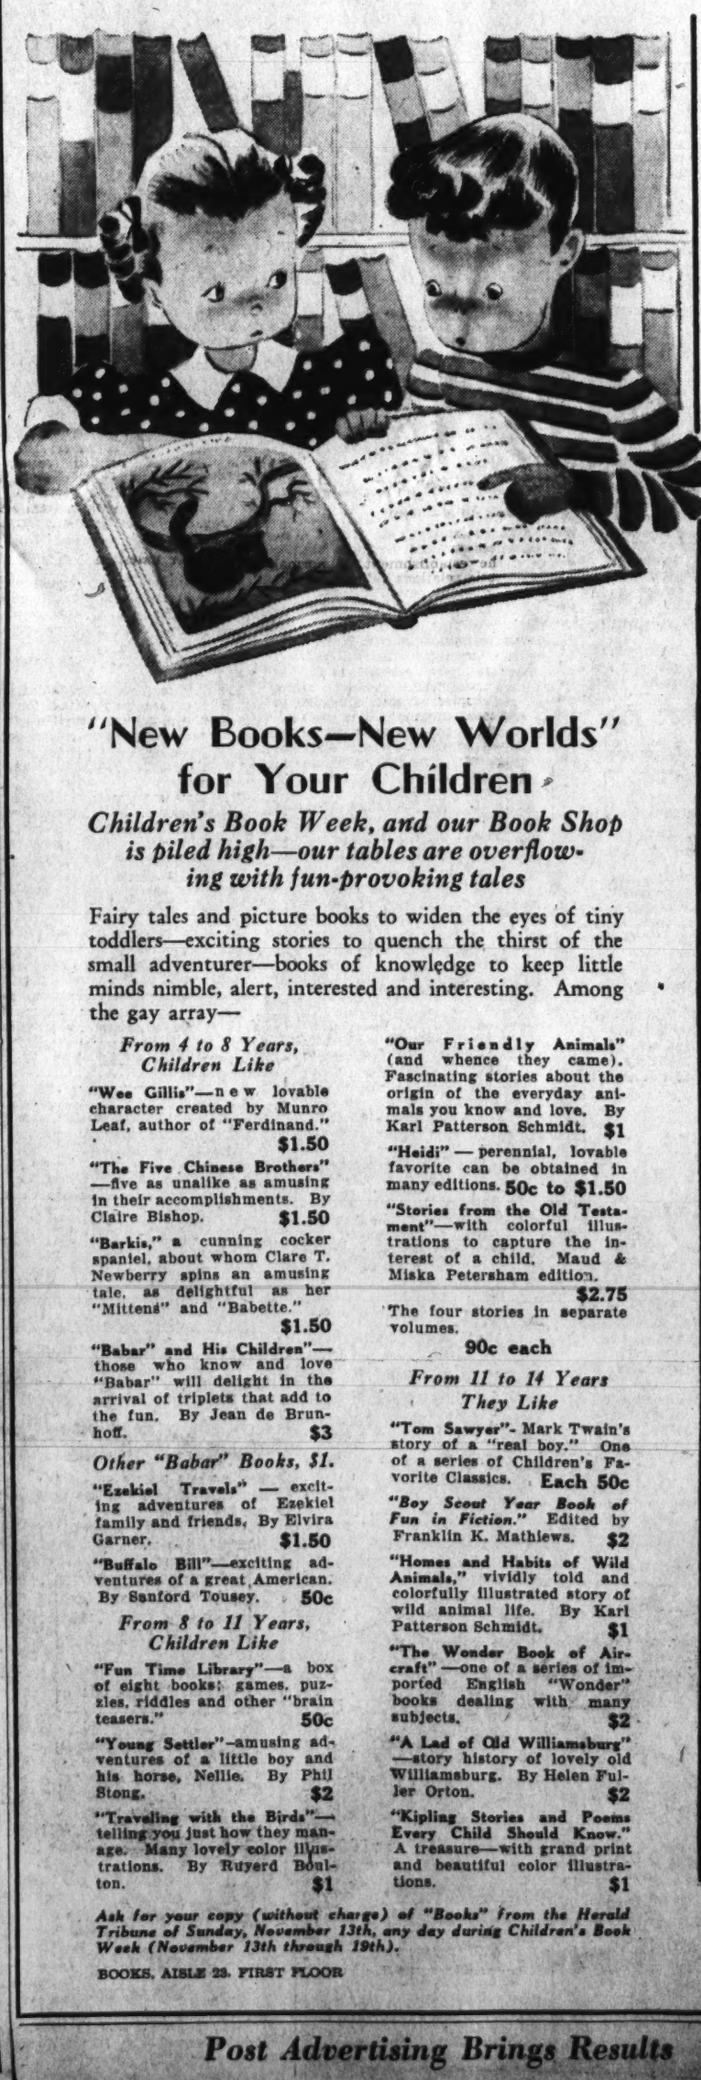
—what you need to really enjoy long drives on Wintry days—or exciting football games in chilly stadiums

Robe featured from our choice collection—was made in England of fine quality, beautifully soft wool—woven with double face; one side a gay plaid, the other a subtle solid color. Easy to carry, for one of its best features is "warmth without weight." Choice of innumerable color combinations, attractively finished with fringe $10

Other Robes, $2.50 to $25

LUGGAGE, FOURTH FLOOR

WOODWARD & LOTHROP
10TH 11TH F AND G STREETS PHONE DISTRICT 5300



"New Books—New Worlds" for Your Children

Children's Book Week, and our Book Shop is piled high—our tables are overflowing with fun-provoking tales

Fairy tales and picture books to widen the eyes of tiny toddlers—exciting stories to quench the thirst of the small adventurer—books of knowledge to keep little minds nimble, alert, interested and interesting. Among the gay array—

From 4 to 8 Years, Children Like

"Wee Gillis"—new lovable character created by Munro Leaf, author of "Ferdinand." $1.50

"The Five Chinese Brothers"—five as unalike as amusing in their accomplishments. By Claire Bishop. $1.50

"Barkis," a cunning cocker spaniel, about whom Clare T. Newberry spins an amusing tale, as delightful as her "Mittens" and "Babette." $1.50

"Babar" and His Children"—those who know and love "Babar" will delight in the arrival of triplets that add to the fun. By Jean de Brunhoff. $3

Other "Babar" Books, $1.

"Ezekiel Travels" — exciting adventures of Ezekiel family and friends. By Elvira Garner. $1.50

"Buffalo Bill"—exciting adventures of a great American. By Sanford Tousey. 50c

From 8 to 11 Years, Children Like

"Fun Time Library"—a box of eight books: games, puzzles, riddles and other "brain teasers." 50c

"Young Settler"—amusing adventures of a little boy and his horse, Nellie. By Phil Stong. $2

"Traveling with the Birds"—telling you just how they manage. Many lovely color illustrations. By Ruyerd Boulton. $1

"Our Friendly Animals" (and whence they came). Fascinating stories about the origin of the everyday animals you know and love. By Karl Patterson Schmidt. $1

"Heidi" — perennial, lovable favorite can be obtained in many editions. 50c to $1.50

"Stories from the Old Testament"—with colorful illustrations to capture the interest of a child. Maud & Miska Petersham edition. $2.75

The four stories in separate volumes. 90c each

From 11 to 14 Years They Like

"Tom Sawyer"- Mark Twain's story of a "real boy." One of a series of Children's Favorite Classics. Each 50c

"Boy Scout Year Book of Fun in Fiction." Edited by Franklin K. Mathiews. $2

"Homes and Habits of Wild Animals," vividly told and colorfully illustrated story of wild animal life. By Karl Patterson Schmidt. $1

"The Wonder Book of Aircraft"—one of a series of imported English "Wonder" books dealing with many subjects. $2

"A Lad of Old Williamsburg"—story history of lovely old Williamsburg. By Helen Fuller Orton. $2

"Kipling Stories and Poems Every Child Should Know." A treasure—with grand print and beautiful color illustrations. $1

Ask for your copy (without charge) of "Books" from the Herald Tribune of Sunday, November 13th, any day during Children's Book Week (November 13th through 19th).

BOOKS, AISLE 23, FIRST FLOOR

Post Advertising Brings Results

Names Listed Of Warrings' Racket Aides

Warrings

Continued from Page 1.

said. Warring declared the protection cost approximately doubled in 1938, which would make $2,000 a month. The "protection" was described as bribes to policemen and others. When asked why the payments did not show on the income tax return, Leese said, Warring explained that he took care of it himself by inserting the payments in the "hit" column of his books, which tabulated what was paid to winners on the numbers.

Tax Data Confidential

The gang's disclosures to the Treasury were confidential, under the law, until they got into trouble about their income tax, so they were able to tell the details to one branch of the Government without fear that the police or the Department of Jusitce would be informed.

The Treasury, Leese said, objected to Emmitt's way of accounting for the protection money and Sadur wrote $13,000 into the gross receipts for 1935 with a red pencil and then wrote in $13,000 for "expenses." This made the net income the same as before.

Then, Leese said, Sadur was informed that the bribes were not deductible as "legitimate" expenses of the gambling racket and he expressed surprise. Leese said it was then that Cox told Sadur he was going to have him disbarred.

Refers to Steinberg Case

Former District Attorney Rover, who is defending Sadur, indicated during Leese's testimony that the numbers operators were prepared to make a fight in court to prove the law allows the bribes to be deducted. When he started his cross-examination late in the day he referred Leese to the Steinberg case where, he said, a Federal circuit court of appeals ruled that bribes were a proper expense for an outlaw business and that it could charge them up to overhead when it paid its income taxes.

District Attorney Pine, who is directing the prosecution, and Wilson promptly interrupted to quote the Supreme Court to the contrary.

Leese repeated in detail various explanations of the protection-money bookkeeping by which Emmitt Warring tried to make his tax return come out even. Once, Leese said, the agents pointed out that when the bribes were included in one of the returns the "Warring Brothers, commission brokers," would appear to have operated at a loss for the period.

Borrowed from Slain Man

"How could you do that?" Leese said Emmitt was asked. "You have told us you had only a few hundred dollars and that you borrowed from your father when your losses were heavy."

"Oh, I borrowed $30,000 from Eddie Killeen," Leese said Emmitt replied.

Killeen, a gambler, was slain in 1936.

"Will you make an affidavit to that effect?", Emmitt was then asked. Leese said Emmitt declined, on the ground that he did not wish to make an affidavit "that somebody could come at me for $30,000."

The name of Killeen popped suddenly back into the testimony when Leese was describing how Treasury agents and Sadur went to the numbers headquarters at 2510 K street northwest and counted the cash in the safe. He said it came to $30,000.

There was also part of a diamond necklace in the safe, Leese said. Emmitt pulled out the jewels, he testified, and explained that "it was security on a $600 loan to Mrs. Eddie Killeen."

Counsel Clash

For the first time in the trial counsel, who have rigorously observed courtroom amenities, clashed yesterday. Wilson got Leese to identify a heavy stack of photostatic copies of the Warrings' ledgers, with a view to placing them before the jury. Rover offered to make available the actual books.

Wilson rejected them saying that they had been out of the Treasury's hands for years, and that while he did not mean to imply that they had been changed "we could not vouch for them."

Officers Fear Missing Arizona Boy, 5, Kidnaped

Douglas, Ariz., Nov. 16 (U.P.).—Sheriff I. V. Pruitt said tonight he was investigating the possibility that 5-year-old Jerry Hays, missing six days in the rocky Chiricahua Mountains north of here, had been abducted after wandering away from his parents' hunting camp.

From 600 to 800 men, including a battalion of soldiers from Fort Huachuca, joined in the search.

Bloodhounds from the Arizona State Prison were unable to pick up any trace of the boy, son of Lauren N. Hays, Bisbee, Ariz., miner.

"It's entirely possible," the sheriff said, "that he has been picked up and taken to some ranch or distant home."

One Found Alive, One Dead in Plane

Riverhead, N. Y., Nov. 16 (AP).—Charles Tyte, 24, was found alive, but unconscious, today in the wreckage of an airplane in which he apparently had lain helples since last evening. A companion, Austin Mickle, 26, was dead.

The two went aloft yesterday afternoon, and when they did not return at dusk State police started a search. They found the wrecked plane near Suffolk Airport today.

Nervous, Weak, Ankles Swollen!

When Nervousness is caused by an excess of acids and poisons due to functional Kidney and Bladder disorders which may also cause Getting Up Nights, Burning Passages, Swollen Joints, Backache, Circles Under Eyes, Excess Acidity, Leg Pains and Dizziness. Help your kidneys purify your blood with Cystex. Usually the very first dose starts helping your kidneys clean out excess acids and this easy may make you feel like new. Under the money-back guarantee Cystex must satisfy completely or cost nothing. Get Cystex (sistex) today. It costs only 3c a dose at druggists and the guarantee protects you. (adv.)

Bottleneck Eliminated, Traffic Flows Evenly

Post Staff Photo.

An aerial view from the Goodyear dirigible Resolute gives an excellent view of the main artery from the north now widened at Queens Chapel road, where numerous accidents occurred because the road narrowed at the railroad underpass. Rounded corners at New York avenue (foreground) have expedited movement of vehicles at this point

Warrings' Income Tax Return Lists 75 Persons As Employes; Gives Names, Dates and Places

Against the Warring brothers yesterday went into evidence in District Court the sworn tax returns which purported to portray down to the last penny and the most menial employe in the fiscal organization behind one year's operation of what the Government claims was the numbers racket in Washington.

There were names and amounts, dates and places, which the principals themselves certified were correct. The personnel of their organization, they reported was 75, besides the Warrings themselves.

"Exhibits 1 to 8"

This information passed into the hands of 11 men and one woman trying the three Warring brothers and their income levy experts for conspiracy to defraud the Federal Treasury in "Government Exhibits for Identification 1 to 8." These were the tax returns and accompanying documents submitted by the Warrings—Emmitt, Leo Paul and Charles (Rags)—for 1934, 1935 and 1936.

District Attorney Pine and Assistant District Attorney Wilson called yesterday morning one Treasury aid after another to identify the signatures on the papers. Suddenly, former District Attorney Rover who is attorney for Gordon L. R. Sadur, tax expert, annqunced that the defense would admit the documents into evidence. Former Assistant District Attorney Goldstein, counsel for Henry L. Scherr joined in the concession. So did the lawyers for the Warrings, Harry T. Whelan and William B. O'Connell.

Justice Laws, presiding, went over the stipulation with the lawyers before he received the evidence. Then to the jury he passed the forms and typewritten sheets which Emmitt Warring swore on March 15, 1937, constituted a true report of the business of "Warring Brothers, Commission Brokers" for the preceding year.

Fraud Plot Charged

The Government claims that the Warrings handled $4,000,000 at this racket in 1935 and that they plotted to defraud the Government out of the tax on huge profits.

The papers studied for a quarter of an hour by the jurors claimed a much smaller net for 1936. The Government's estimates are still to be supported by evidence. But if the 1936 return, which Emmitt Warring swore before Mary H. Shadrick, notary public, was correct, there was to be read an amazingly complete account of the gang's operations.

First came the familiar Treasury form, identical with that for a lawful partnership. It reported $145,013.51 in gross profit—that is, that much was left after the winning betters had been paid off at 600 to 1.

Then came the claims for deductions, with a note that the itemized schedule were attached, being too long for the form. Then, on the stationery of Sadur & Co., came the details.

The Warrings—known in underworld circles as the Foggy Bottom gang—had 56 employes, they claimed in the tax return. Their names were given, and most of their addresses. Beside each name was the amount of salary the Warrings claimed they paid him. These ranged from $6.30 paid to "Shorty" to $4,123.45, paid Mickey McDonald, Takoma Park, Md.

Then came the Warrings claims for deductions on account of their staff. They listed 19 employes whose salaries were totaled at $30,932.10.

The complete return which was placed in evidence follows:

Return for 1936
Warring Bros., 2510 K street northwest, filed March 15, 1937. Firm described as a partnership organized in December, 1934.
Gross profit	$145,013.51
Deduct salaries	79,773.32
Deduct overhead	6,283.03
Deduct non-business prop.	1,432.80
E. Warring (earned $3,834.97); balance of credit	15,339.88
L. Warring (earned $3,834.97); balance of credit	15,339.89
C. Warring (earned $3,834.97); balance of credit	15,339.88
Sworn to by Emmitt Warring March 15 and by Gordon Sadur, as the man who drew it up.
(Attached to the income tax return were schedules which follow.)
Commissions Paid
D. Gilman, 842 N. H. ave.	$500.16
Clarence Ware, District Jail	19.80
Shorty, address unknown	6.30
Spencer, address unknown	156.00
Arthur, address unknown	557.55
Digg, address unknown	1,337.06
George Payne, address unknown	630.57
Parks, address unknown	25.60
Inscoe, address unknown	169.33
News, address unknown	313.30
Pat, address unknown	135.00
Luke, address unknown	427.90
William King, address unknown	1,427.60
George Walker, address unknown	1,281.69
John H. Stanton, 1743 Corcoran	1,192.96
Shirley Brown, 1733 T st. nw.	1,631.87
Mickey McDonald, Tak. Pk., Md.	4,123.45
Albert Thurston, 2207 Champlain	983.33
Ruth Phenix, 2612 I st. nw.	708.79
George Mayfield, 27 Dungrieve	1,040.00
C. Baker, 1409 5th st. nw.	1,845.13
Simon Berman, 933 25th st. nw	2,179.05
Chuck McCue, 6 I st. nw.	928.19
Al Brooks, 324 C st. sw.	600.39
Carl Dean, 413 Third st. sw.	422.05
John H. Tyler, 719 Girard st. nw.	863.04
Gil. Stark, 3059 M st. nw., Apt. 2	360.00
Earl Bailey, 821 2d st. sw.	1,508.03
Edw. Fox, 1825 Vernon st. nw.	473.70
Ralph Nach, 413 3d st. sw.	478.94
Maxwell Howard, 2246 12th nw.	327.40
Chas. Hughes, 4102 Elliott nw.	735.50
Fred McIvor, 1272 25th nw.	$10.11
Maude Bowman, 1010 6th st. se.	1,809.00
Milton Reeves, 1117 9th st. nw.	1,560.00
Pearl Newman, 514 Flor. av. nw.	522.15
Pearson, 1009 Wolf st. Alex., Va.	671.65
Eddie Poe, 525 1st st. sw.	1,897.14
Ray Brent, 1824 Oreg. av. nw.	967.00
Sam Clement, 2502 M st. nw.	1,070.02
Cliff Williams, 1838 16th nw.	697.27
Herbert Lawson, Alexandria, Va.	282.60
Morris Slafsky, 801 10th nw.	2,243.50
Burpeion, Anderson, 800 N. H.	3,405.96
Iola Johnson, 132 G st. sw.	2,140.04
Wm. Walker, 1700 blk. I st. nw.	9.00
Robert H. Whitaker, 1501 Tilden	404.05
Freddie Nusbaum, Ritz Hotel	403.30
N. Sater, 1555 Ninth st. nw.	685.50
Sarto Zumbo, 1717 17th st. nw.	95.00
Elmore Chase, 911½ 4th st. nw.	42.35
Naomi Barhem, 35 Defrees st.	780.00
Sam Bortnick, 433 Delafield pl.	240.00
Kermit J. Mallette, 1328 Girard.	1,177.05
John Wiles, 320 T st. ne.	130.00
Total commissions	$68,841.22
Salaries Paid
Frank Duraut, 1124 22d st. nw.	$1,602.00
Paul Kyle, 90 K st. ne.	1,560.00
William Cady, 2502 Pa. ave. nw.	1,716.00
Moris Sweeney, 3232 13th st. nw.	1,820.00
Mrs. R. Saylor, 4921 Ga., Apt. 505	1,449.55
Miss A. Andrews, 4423 Hunt ne.	1,046.00
George Charubas, 4216 4th nw.	2,028.00
John Petrone, 90 K nw.	1,716.00
Donald K. Wallace, 1907 Pa. ave.	2,028.00
Ellis Solet, 2423 Pa. ave.	1,820.00
Shepp Shapiro, 715 Ingraham st.	1,820.00
John R. Mitchell, 1621 A st. ne.	2,080.00
Edward Oliveri, 1442 Fairmont	1,660.00
Nellie Paris, East Riverdale, Md.	1,048.55
George Page, 1118 21st nw., Apt. 2	1,148.00
Edward Juliana, 2106 4th st. ne.	1,820.00
Col. Haagland, 1002 Irving ne.	1,820.00
J. M. Caffey, 814 22d nw., Ap. 31	2,194.00
Will Walker, address unknown	556.00
Total salaries	$30,932.10
Total deduction for salaries and commissions	$79,773.32
Business Overhead Deductions:
Auto and traveling expenses	$893.71
Stationary and printing	2,077.87
Light and heat	520.09
Telephone	256.20
Miscellaneous expenses	167.42
Insurance and bonds	1,731.88
Legal fees	600.00
Repairs	35.86
Total overhead	$6,283.03

no minimum

no cover

Here's where your dining, dancing, imbibing cost you less than you had dare imagine . . . you'll find that entertaining at the MADRILLON is smart, quick, and most economical.

Johnny Shaw and his orchestra from 7:30 till 1:30

Cocktails from 25c

RESTAURANT MADRILLON

WASHINGTON BLDG.
15th and N. Y. Ave. N.W. Di. 4561

TONIGHT! dinner $1.00

This is our regular $1.50 dinner, served every Thursday night for $1.00.

BA

Real Estate LOANS

★ Quick action on applications.
★ Low initial cost.
★ Payments as low as $7.50 per thousand per month.
★ No extra charges.

Washington's Oldest Building Association.

ORIENTAL Building Association No. 6
600 F St. N.W. NAt. 2182-3
Under U. S. Government Supervision

Police Clerk Suspended; Audit Ordered

Crawford

Continued from Page 1.

Crawford's suspension was ordered. Inspector James F. Beckett was made temporary personnel officer in place of Edwards.

Previously, Crawford was listed as absent without leave yesterday. Employes in the property clerk's office said he left Tuesday night. He said last night he had taken a day's leave due him.

Crawford lives on his 26-foot cabin cruiser Moonbeam, anchored at the Corinthian Yacht Club.

"Send All Receipts"

Maj. Brown handed Inspector Edwards the suspension order about 1 p. m. An order was immediately sent to all precincts and bureaus. It said:

"Send to the major and superintendent at once all receipts for property delivered to the property clerk between October 1, 1935, and November 1, 1938. Each precinct will send with the receipts a statement showing the number of receipts."

Inspector Edwards ordered new locks placed on all the doors in the property office and warehouses. File cabinets and records were moved from Crawford's offices.

Two auditors from the District auditor's office were sent to headquarters to work with Edwards and Lieut. Earl P. Hartman on the checkup. This is the first time in three years that the books of the property office have been examined.

Investigated by Treasury

Besides being chief clerk and property clerk of the Police Department, Crawford also is secretary-treasurer of the Police Relief Association. In this capacity, $500,000 is entrusted to his care.

Police pointed out that the affairs of the relief association were not involved in any way with the suspension of Crawford. However, the board of directors of the group called a meeting for tonight to determine if the suspension affects Crawford's post.

The Commissioners ordered "an immediate inventory of all property and money which has come under his hands as chief clerk."

Crawford was appointed to office by Maj. Pelham D. Glassford in December, 1931. He was placed under $10,000 bond at that time. Before his promotion, he was a clerk and police shorthand reporter.

He began working in the Police Department in 1917. In four years after he first began, he resigned an equal number of times. Each time he was reappointed.

It was learned that Treasury Department agents have recently completed an investigation at Police Headquarters. It is thought the agents made several recommendations to the Commissioners, but they were not made public.

The property office handles more than $1,000,000 worth of property annually. All stolen goods recovered by police, property found on dead persons and lost articles go through that office.

Equipment Sellers For Rail Subsidy

New York, Nov. 16 (AP).—The Railway Business Association, composed of firms which supply railroad equipment and accessories, proposed today that the Federal Government provide a subsidy for the carriers.

"A general program of railroad legislation," said the Association's announcement, "should contain a definite subsidy to the railroads, limited to a period of from three to five years, and based upon a defined proportion, say 25 per cent, of their expenditures for maintenance of way and structures during the preceding year."

The association recommended consolidation "into a much smaller number of systems."

Charms of Communist Girls Found Turning Troopers Red

Ex-Red Is Witness
Predicts Auto Split
Inquiry Put Off

The use of pretty Communist girls to lure National Guardsmen into Detroit beer gardens in order to propagandize them against war was described by a former Communist, John Pace, before the House committee investigating un-American activities yesterday.

Pace, who said he was a Communist from 1931 to 1934, said that the comely high school girls, members of the Young Communist League, were sent out by party chiefs to win the friendship of the Guardsmen.

He said they began by asking the men why they wanted to be cannon fodder, and then gradually assembled promising candidates into Communist nuclei in each Guards camp. He named Nydia Barker and Mary Imhoff as two of the girls, but was uncertain how they spelled their names.

Predicts Auto Split

Pace's testimony, embracing many phases, included an assertion that "It seems to me the Communists have about got control of the C. I. O." at the Pittsburgh convention of the Congress of Industrial Organizations.

He predicted an early split of the United Automobile Workers Union, C. I. O. affiliate, adding:

"Communists won't have anything to do with any movement they can't control."

He cited the Bonus Army march of 1932 to Washington as an example, saying that he and four other Communists headed the march from Michigan of 430 war veterans.

LaFollette Probe Put Off

Dies announced yesterday that the committee had decided to defer, until full membership was present, the suggestion it investigate the origin of the investigations of Senate Civil Liberties Committee. He said that the question of the propriety of one branch of the Government investigating another had not been settled.

He also announced that in December the committee would begin hearing "the positive side" of the problem of un-American activities, saying he would call representatives of:

The American Federation of Labor, American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars, National Grange, Knights of Columbus, B'nai B'rith, Masonic order, Daughter of the American Revolution, Sons of the American Revolution, German organizations, Sons of Italy, Knights of Pythias, Odd Fellows, representatives of educational and racial groups and outstanding clergymen of all denominations.

Hopes for Suggestion

From these, said Dies, he expects to get concrete suggestions by prominent Americans on what can be done to "promote, revitalize and instill" a greater love for Americanism in the citizenry of the Nation.

Another witness yesterday, Pat McCartney, of Detroit, told the committee that Communists controlled a union of 10,000 workers at the Plymouth automobile plant.

He named the union as Local No. 51 of the United Automobile Workers, of which he is a member and former officer. He said he lost a race for election through "smart strategy" by Communists, who dominated the electioneering as well as the vote-counting.

He insisted he was not a labor spy nor a company stool pigeon, and testified only because he was under subpena.

Associated Press Photo

JOHN T. PACE,
of Detroit, identifying himself as a Communist Party member from 1931 to 1934, told the Dies committee yesterday, "It seems to me the Communists have about got control" of the C. I. O. convention at Pittsburgh

Boy Kills Himself In Leap Off Capitol

Baton Rouge, La., Nov. 16 (AP).—A youth, identified as Keith Parham, 15, a New Orleans high school student, plunged to his death today from the twenty-sixth floor parapet of the skyscraper Louisiana State Capitol Building. A note said:

"Dear Mother: I am sorry it had to happen this way, Keith."

NUT HARD COAL, $10.25
SPECIAL STOVE, $9.25; STOVE, $10.25; EGG, $10.00; PEA, $8.50.
ANTHRACITE MINED IN VIRGINIA
We Deliver ¼ Ton and Up
Delivered in BAGS to Your Bin
BLUE RIDGE COAL CO.
MET. 3545 Jackson 1900

Liggett's
DRUG STORES
For Free Delivery Call
DU. 5050

English Antiques at Public Auction at Sloan's 715 13th St. Friday, 10 A. M.

Guests Quit Jail To Hold Up Bank

Fairfield, Nebr., Nov. 16 (AP).—Two armed men, who slept in the City Jail here last night as "transients," held up the Fairfield State Bank at opening time this morning, tied up two bank employes and escaped with $800.

Selective Tastes PREFER THE CRYSTAL ROOM
Celebrated Cuisine
Featuring
DAILY BUFFET LUNCHEON 90c
The WILLARD HOTEL

There's a Good Reason You're Constipated!

When there's something wrong with you, the first rule is: get at the cause. If you are constipated, don't fiddle around with makeshift remedies. Find out what's giving you the trouble!

Chances are it's simple if you eat only what most people do: meat, bread, potatoes. It's likely you don't get enough "bulk." And "bulk" doesn't mean a lot of food. It's a kind of food that isn't consumed in the body, but leaves a soft "bulky" mass in the intestines and helps a bowel movement.

If that fits you, your ticket is a crisp crunchy breakfast cereal—Kellogg's All-Bran. It contains the "bulk" you need plus the great intestinal tonic, vitamin B1.

Eat All-Bran every day, drink plenty of water, and just watch the old world grow brighter! Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

Fresh Nuts Daily!
At The Two Peanut Stores
705 15th St. N.W.
1010 F. St. N.W.

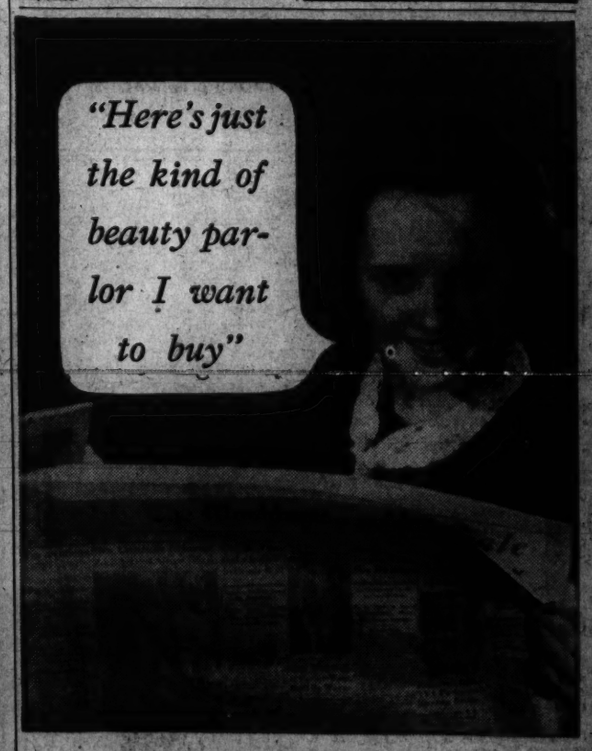
Established 1895
LOUIS ABRAHAMS LOANS ON JEWELRY
$100 to $1,000
CASH FOR YOUR OLD GOLD
713 G St. N.W.

Garlic-Parsley an Aid in HIGH BLOOD PRESSURE

Medical reports say that Garlic-Parsley concentrate has a double action in reducing high blood pressure. First, it tends to relax tightened arteries. Second, it checks or inhibits decomposition of waste matter in the bowels, a contributory cause of high blood pressure. To get concentrated garlic and parsley in odorless, tasteless form, ask for ALLIMIN. These tablets, used repeatedly at regular intervals, aid in reducing blood pressure and relieving headache and dizziness caused by excessively high readings. To learn what raises your blood pressure and for medical treatment consult your doctor. Large box, 50c. Special economy size, $1.00.

Have your Photograph Taken Now

REGULAR $3 VALUE
Jules Rousseau Portrait of you or your Child
½ PRICE THIS WEEK ONLY $1.50
No Appointment Necessary
Photograph Studio, Third Floor
The Palais Royal
G Street at 11th



"Here's just the kind of beauty parlor I want to buy"

Anyone looking for an opportunity to buy or rent a business first looks at the business opportunities listed in The Post. If you want to rent or sell your business, let Post readers know about it through the business opportunities column in The Post. Call Miss Young—

NAtional 4200
POST WANT ADS

PARK & TILFORD

Since 1840

America's leading name in Fine Whiskies

CERTAIN names stand for the best. In American whiskies—since 1840—that name has been Park & Tilford.

Among the Park & Tilford whiskies is a whiskey for every taste and purse. One of them is certain to be your type of whiskey.

Choose your Park & Tilford whiskey—your personal whiskey—from the list below.

PARK & TILFORD Distillers Inc., New York, N. Y.

PARK & TILFORD "Kentucky Bred" Straight Bourbon Whiskey 93 Proof — $2.15 QT. $1.13 PT.

PARK & TILFORD "Reserve"—A Blend 70% Neutral Grain Spirits—90 Proof — $2.05 QT. $1.08 PT.

A WHISKEY FOR EVERY TASTE AND PURSE

Exclusive Distributors for the District of Columbia—THE HOUSE OF STOVER, 1730 I Street N.W.

Democracy Parley Plans Are Hastened

State

Continued from Page 1.

sovereignties against invasion from beyond the seas."

The committee, through the executive secretary, Dr. Donald McConnell, said in a statement that the President "has made it possible" for the Lima meeting "to discuss this question with equal frankness and to arrive at important conclusions."

It added:

"The continental solidarity of the 21 American republics and Canada to which the President referred offers the only real hope of checking the westward extension of German and Italian fascism and the eastward thrust of Japanese militarism."

It said the conference hoped to organize public opinion "behind the new declaration of foreign policy."

Stephen T. Early, White House press secretary, said the President's statement had been treated by the press "as a rather unusual and firm statement as to Jews only, but it refers to the Catholic situation, too." He mentioned specifically the stoning of the palace of Cardinal Innitzer, Vienna.

Ickes Asks Unity

Secretary Ickes' warning was made in an address before the Pan-American Conference of Municipalities at Havana. Of conditions abroad he said "the toll of the slain and the wounded mounts day by day to ever more ghastly heights."

"Who can say," he continued, "that the day will not come, and that perhaps before we are aware of it, when the greedy eyes of some foreign dictator may not be cast covetously in the direction of any one of us? . . .

"Can it be doubted that the greatest assurance of peace and security within our own borders against foreign aggression is the peace and security that rests upon a common interest, a common friendliness, a common understanding, a common determination that the peace and security of any one of the Americas shall be the peace and security of all of the Americas?"

James G. MacDonald, chairman of the President's advisory committee on German refugees, was accompanied to the White House by Hamilton Fish Armstrong, George L. Warren and Sumner Welles, Undersecretary of State. They would not reveal details of their talk.

Logan Asks Ostracism

While Senator Pat Harrison (Democrat), Mississippi, told the Associated Press at Memphis he was "delighted" that the Administration is trying to remove "the horrible persecutions and appalling atrocities said to exist in Germany," Senator Logan (Democrat), Kentucky, here, asked action by the powers to "ostracize" Germany. Urging that the American republics co-operate with England and France to that end, he said "it seems to be the only way to bring a crazy man to his senses."

Secretary of Commerce Roper and Senators Bailey (Democrat), North Carolina, and Pope (Democrat), of Idaho, emphatically commended Mr. Roosevelt's stand.

Speaking at a dinner in New York in honor of Col. Fulgencio Batista, head of the Cuban army, Representative Hamilton Fish insisted that Germany, Japan and Italy "have a perfect right to trade and sell goods in Latin America and to use propaganda to gain these markets," adding that propaganda should be fought with propaganda, "not with battleships, submarines and aircraft."

Panama Supports U. S.

Panama, Nov. 16 (AP).—President Juan Demostenes Arosemena of Panama today supported President Roosevelt's program for defense of the entire Western Hemisphere, saying "the delegation from this country to the forthcoming conference of American republics (at Lima, Peru, in December) will be instructed to support all proposals there tending to achieve this purpose."

Colombia Votes Aid

Bogota, Colombia, Nov. 16 (U.P.).—The Senate, in a resolution passed tonight, placed itself on record in support of President Roosevelt's proposal for a common defense of the Western Hemisphere by Canada and Latin America as well as the United States.

Dr. Compton Says Mars Has Plants

Chapel Hill, N. C., Nov. 16 (U.P.).—Dr. Arthur Holly Compton, physicist of Chicago University and Nobel Prize winner in physics in 1927, said tonight in alecture at North Carolina University he believed there might be life on Mars.

"Evidence led me to base the belief on the assumption Mars is an abode of vegetation," he said, "although there is not sufficient evidence from which I could form an opinion regarding intelligent animal life."

C. I. O. Resolution Backs Roosevelt

Pittsburgh, Nov. 16 (AP).—The Congress of Industrial Organizations today adopted the following resolution:

"Be it resolved that the chairman of this convention be directed to express to President Roosevelt our accord with his public statement denouncing the persecution of the Jews by Nazi Germany and that we subscribe to the President's determination to prevent naziism from gaining a foothold in the Western Hemisphere."

Are You Neglecting Sluggish Kidneys?

Why not drink

MOUNTAIN VALLEY MINERAL WATER

From Hot Springs, Ark.

It tends to stimulate the kidneys to healthy action and eliminates the poisons which cause many forms of

RHEUMATISM

NA. 9045 1405 K St. N.W.

Protests Against Nazis Pour In

Gov. Hurley Assails, Nazi 'Bestiality'

Boston, Nov. 16 (U.P.).—Condemnation of the "bestiality" of "the pagan Hitler" was expressed today by the Massachusetts Governor's council in a resolution recommended by Gov. Charles F. Hurley and adopted by his council of one Jew and seven Gentiles.

Simultaneously, Harvard and Simmons College students at mass demonstrations wired resolutions to President Roosevelt supporting his criticism of the anti-Semitic drive in Germany.

The resolution of the Governor's council read:

"The world must rally to the side of our noble President . . . who demands justice and fair play for the victims of Nazi barbarism and an opportunity for them to resettle elsewhere with the help of the great nations of every continent."

The student demonstrations, sponsored by the American Student Union and addressed by faculty and student body members, urged Mr. Roosevelt to help Jewish refugees find homes in the United States and Great Britain.

100 Methodists Join in Protest

New York, Nov. 16 (AP).—More than 100 bishops, ministers and laymen of the Methodist Episcopal Church, here for the one hundredth annual meeting of its board of foreign missions, today unanimously adopted a resolution condemning "unspeakable persecution" in Germany.

Mrs. Mary Rils, widow of Jacob Rils, the philanthropist, proposed in an open letter to President Roosevelt that an American committee be established to finance the mass immigration of the entire German Jewish population of 600,000 into the United States.

Estelle M. Sternberger, executive director of World Peaceways, suggested that British areas in South Africa be set aside for refugees and that credits for the colonies be furnished by England, the United States, France and the Netherlands.

German-Americans Urged to Protest

New York, Nov. 16 (AP).—Augustus G. Miller, chairman of the German-American group of the National League of American Citizens of Foreign Descent, tonight appealed to more than 400 German-American organizations to unite in opposing Nazi attacks on minorities.

William W. Hinckley, chairman of the American Youth Conference, seconded demands for an official boycott of German goods.

Thirty-five of the Nation's best-known writers, including Noble Prize-Winner Pearl Buck, telegraphed President Roosevelt to request a boycott, Dashiell Hammett announced.

The Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America added to its long list of protests statements from Ruth Haller Ottaway, president of the National Council of Women, and Maude Wood Park, founder of the National Federation of Business and Professional Women.

Columbia Group Asks Trade Halted

Some 3,000 faculty members and students of Columbia University signed a letter to President Roosevelt urging him to follow Theodore Roosevelt's precedent in protesting the Kishkinev pogroms in Russia, and sever trade relations with Germany.

The American League for Peace and Democracy, sponsoring a mass protest in New York, urged the permanent recall of Ambassador Wilson and an embargo on German goods.

Dr. Edward J. McCormick, grand exalted ruler of the Elks, denounced "persecutions" in Germany and asked the Nation's 500,000 Elks to rededicate themselves to tolerance.

Kentucky Governor Expresses Shock

Frankfort, Ky., Nov. 16 (AP).—Gov. Chandler in a Thanksgiving Day proclamation today expressed shock over the treatment of Jews in Germany.

The proclamation said:

"The picture of a people driven from their homes by a merciless invader or harassed and robbed of their possessions for no excuse except their race saddens our hearts and causes us to add to our prayer of Thanksgiving an appeal to the Almighty that the principles of Christianity and brotherly love may have a wider acceptance among the people of the earth."

'Unbelievable,' Says Van Zeeland

Cincinnati, Nov. 16 (AP).—Dr. Paul Van Zeeland, former premier of Belgium, said today "what Germany is doing to the Jews is simply unbelievable. One cannot realize that such a thing is possible in the twentieth century."

The former premier added:

"Germany has a Jewish problem, but no one can justify her method of dealing with it."

PIANOS for RENT

● New full keyboard spinets and small uprights at very low rates. All money paid as rental will be deducted from purchase price if you decide to buy later. CALL . . .

NAtional 3223

JORDAN'S

Corner 13th & G Sts.

Post Staff Photo.

The Rev. Dr. Maurice S. Sheehy, head of the department of religion, and the Right Rev. Joseph M. Corrigan (right), rector of Catholic University, are shown before the microphone last night as they participated in the Nation-wide broadcast

U. S. Catholic Leaders Denounce Nazi Action as 'Shameful Orgy'

Bishops

Continued from Page 1.

parts of the world in this time of great turmoil."

After the broadcast, Dr. Corrigan observed that the Catholic Church is "not declaring war against the Nazis—it was the Nazis who declared war against us; and we are accepting the challenge."

"Thank God for the United States of America!" was the keynote of former Gov. Smith's address from New York. Declaring that President Roosevelt "spoke for the whole Nation when he said the news of the last days from Germany had deeply shocked public opinion in the United States," Smith asserted that "the German officials can stop this cruel assault on their own people and on civilization at large any time they want to."

"What would happen if the mob turned on the officials," he asked. "We all know the answer. The army would shoot them down."

Can it be that Germany has become intellectually barren, that the people desire to set clock back to the dark ages, that its authorities have no care for world opinion, Smith demanded.

"If this is possible," he declared, "then all we can say is that Germany has fallen from her position into the hands of a band of ruffians."

Talking from Baltimore, Bishop Ireton declared in a voice deep with emotion that "I speak not with bitterness but with sadness." The combined condemnation "of all those who love freedom and justice throughout the world will channel itself into a flood of indignation that will sweep away the barriers of censorship that will reach the minds and consciences of the rank and file of the German nation," he declared.

The modern era of religious persecution was commenced by "Lenin and Communism," said Bishop Gannon in Cleveland. He added that "the first light of hope and intelligence since then" was to be seen in the recent moves of European statesmen "to isolate Russia." From the U. S. S. R., persecution jumped to Mexico, Bishop Gannon asserted, and from there to spain.

"Now it has broken loose in Germany," he said, "where the Jewish people have been subjected to the fierce passions of mobs, the harsh, unjust decrees of dictators and the almost total loss of their civil and moral rights."

Expressing his "revulsion, disgust and grief" at the events in Germany, Bishop Gannon concluded with an assurance to the Jews of "the sympathy, respect and support of their fellow citizens." He said: "To share their grief, I accept as a privilege and an honor."

Dr. Sheehy, head of the department of religious education at Catholic University, opened and concluded the program from Mgr. Corrigan's study. Quoting Pope Pius to the effect that "we are all spiritually Semites," Dr. Sheehy said that the purpose of the program was "to appeal particularly to the sentiments of those Christian hearts in Germany which have remained true to the Divine Master."

"We Catholics in America love the German people, those faithful souls, who have suffered so much that they have preferred any sort of leadership to chaos," Dr. Sheehy declared.

"Our hearts may be heavy with grief tonight," said Dr. Sheehy, "but we still trust in God, the God of both Jew and Christian, and we would conclude this program with the prayer for the Jewish people found in the Book of Psalms:

"'May the Lord hear thee in time of trial;
May the name of the God of Jacob protect thee;
May He send thee help from the sanctuary
And defend thee out of Zion!
May He be mindful of all thy offerings
And may thy sacrifice be acceptable.
May He grant thee thy heart's desire
And fulfill all thy plans.'"

He pleaded for pacific settlement of American disputes with other countries. "'Let us not be be trayed by thoughts of revenge, or tempted by and precipitate act," he said.

Warning that classes of our own population may be stirred to thoughts of persecution by "propagandists and agitators," the prelate urged Americans "to honestly search our own hearts, and if we find this evil thing there, do our best to root it out of our being."

Archbishop Mitty said Catholics have suffered "a parallel crucifixion" in Spain "for more than two years." He charged that newspaper correspondents there had been "muzzled" and the cables "controlled."

The condemnation of terrorism against Jews in Germany drew remarks from leading Catholic clergymen in all sections of the country, including San Francisco spoke.

Harrison Approves Recall of Wilson

Memphis, Tenn., Nov. 16 (U.P.).—Senator Harrison (Democrat), Mississippi, tonight said he was opposed to severance of diplomatic relations between the United States and Germany because of Nazi persecutions of Jews, but approved of President Roosevelt having called home Ambassador Wilson.

Harrison said "now is not the time to advocate severance of diplomatic relations . . . until we are better acquainted with the facts."

Legion Commander Supports President

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 16 (AP).—Stephen F. Chadwick, national commander of the American Legion, tonight said President Roosevelt's "acts and pronouncements" in the present foreign situation "express my thought" and the "thoughts of our great organization," with reference to "the shocking reversals to tolerance and to civilization which have filled the press of the world in recent weeks."

For information that is honest; Reference that is real— Just ask your neighbor about The Funeral Home of Deal.

Open for Public Inspection

DAILY UP TO NOV. 20th

9 A. M. to 10 P. M.

Sacred Music Recitals—Week Days 8 to 9 P. M.
PROGRAM THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 17.
Charles Haycraft, Baritone — Elsie H. Weaver, Organist

DEAL FUNERAL HOME

4812 Georgia Ave. N.W.

Phone GE. 8700 — Unlisted 'Til New Book Is Issued

Branch Home: 816 H Street N.E.

Parks Board Won't Destroy Cherry Trees

Cherry

Continued from Page 1.

rather than 328, as previously announced.

Within the site proper of the memorial's structure, a 300-foot-radius circle, there are 81 cherry trees, of which 46 can be transplanted and the remainder must be chopped down, it was said. In addition, there are 17 elms, to be transplanted or destroyed.

So far about a dozen cherry trees have been transplanted.

Of the 90 cherries which must go to make way for the approaches to the temple, it was stated that 37 can be transplanted but 53 must be destroyed.

Contrary to previous conclusions, the recount showed that excavation work, scheduled to begin within a few weeks, will not necessitate removal of 136 cherry trees between the inlet and outlet bridges of the Tidal Basin.

Unless President Roosevelt's statement tomorrow on the muddled controversy alters plans, bids for the excavation contract will be opened Monday and the award made soon thereafter.

In a letter sent yesterday to Frederic A. Delano, chairman of the National Capital Park and Planning Commission and one of the President's closest advisors on District planning affairs, the chairman of the Arlington County Board urged that the memorial be erected on Columbia Island, upstream from Arlington Memorial Bridge.

"If this memorial is to be utilitarian in nature, I would suggest that it be built as an imposing planetarium," Mrs. Elizabeth B. Magruder said in her letter.

She reminded Delano that the proposal was submitted some time ago, explaining that it was being presented anew because "there seems to be some doubt as to the construction of the Thomas Jefferson Memorial on the agreed site on the south side of the Tidal Basin."

In support of her suggestion, she said that the Columbia Island location is on District soil, offers a handsome river vista, creates an imposing entrance to the Capital from the west and facilitates access to Theodore Roosevelt Island, which is being developed as a memorial to that former President.

Chest Drive Gets Million, Half of Goal

Chest

Continued from Page 1.

campaign through editorial and news columns, in addition to generous contributions of money.

Three representatives of the Washington newspapers who were among the honor guests at the speakers' table were Earl D. Baker, business manager of the Washington Daily News; Fleming Newbold, business manager of the Washington Evening Star, and Alexander F. Jones, The Washington Post.

Twelve additional firms reported by Harold A. Brooks, group solicitation chairman, joined the "One Hundred Per Cent and Up" honor group of the campaign. They are the Cafritz Construction Co., the Nation Wide Stores, Ambassador Hotel, Howat Concrete Co., National Cash Register Co., Electric Sanitary Laundry, Globe Wernicke, Uptown Theater, Penn Theater, Trio Production, Inc., Columbia Film Exchange and Prudential Insurance Co.

Alvin W. Hall, chairman of the governmental solicitation unit, reported that the Bureau of Engraving and Printing, of which he is director, has already made and passed its quota of $29,150, with about 1,000 employes yet to be heard from.

The Metropolitan unit volunteer solicitor given the floral award for outstanding achievement is Miss Betty Kressfield, a worker in Area III of the unit. Honorable mention for going over 100 per cent of quota went to Mrs. Frank Dunn, captain of the first northeast area team to do so; to team 312, captained by Mrs. Joseph Bernstein; to team 371, Mrs. Samuel Rubenstein; team 811, Bernard Nordlinger, and team 953, Mrs. Alexander Lagare.

George A. Ford, chairman of Area IX for the metropolitan unit, and one of the speakers' table guests, gave the fifth day's report for the unit, of 899 pledges totaling $15,810.25, bringing the total to date up to 6,045 pledges, amounting to $105,871.15.

Dr. Arthur C. Christie, a guest at the speakers' table and chairman of committee A-4 for the special assignments unit, reported for his unit 26 additional contributions amounting to $23,455, making the total for special assignments 399 givers, totaling $377,860.

The governmental unit's report, Chairman Hall stated, had 15,796 pledges, amounting to $98,841.71, making the total for the unit to date, 49,704 pledges totaling $365,023.02.

This Scotch is light and the price is right

● IT'S SMOOTHER
● IT'S MILDER
● IT TASTES BETTER

King William IV

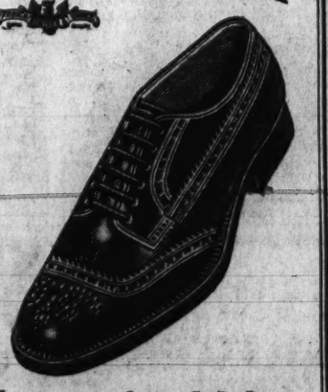
BLENDED SCOTCH WHISKY · 86.8 PROOF

SOMERSET IMPORTERS, LTD. • NEW YORK • CHICAGO • SAN FRANCISCO

FRENCH, SHRINER & URNER

presents

"RUFF -N- TUFF"



a smart, weather-proof model that makes it a double pleasure to forget your rubbers first; because "RUFF-N-TUFFS" will keep your feet dry and warm in all kinds of weather; second; because you won't have to hide their trim, custom-grade smartness under clumsy, unattractive rubbers.

Ask for style 105

Cut from the choicest soft, plump Eskimo calfskins and lined with leather thru'out.

$11.85

Other custom-grade models $10.85 to $14

SHRINER SHOES — Made by French, Shriner & Urner — $7.85 and $8.75

Saltz

1341 F Street N.W.

DO YOUR XMAS SHOPPING EARLY IN NOVEMBER AT

Clark's — Phone NAtional 3328

705—14th—ST. N. W.

4 Years Old "Setter" — MARYLAND STRAIGHT RYE WHISKEY

Sensational Value!

Setter

STRAIGHT MARYLAND RYE

4 Years Old

MARYLAND RYE at its best—Rich in flavor and full bodied, this whiskey has matured into a rich, golden, mellow rye—90 proof. Distilled by the Balto. Pure Rye Distilling Co., recognized as distillers of the finest Rye Whiskey in the United States.

$1.99 — $1.00 Pint — Quart

IMPORTED CHAMPAGNE "CORDON BLEU" Vintage 1928

Splits of delicious sparkling French champagne, packed in the dinner size, grand for individual service of Champagne cocktails.

3 splits 6½ oz. $2

CLARK'S STRAIGHT WOODCROFT RYE

3 Years Old

Uncut and unblended, an excellent mixer for cocktails and highballs.

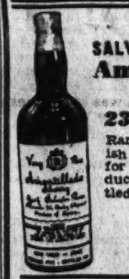
$1.35 Quart

4 Qts., $5.35

"Glen Strae" HIGHLAND SCOTCH WHISKY

Produced and bottled by Glenfyne Distillery at ARDRISHAIG, SCOTLAND, especially recommended.

$2.39 Fifth



IMPORTED SALVADOR RAMOS Amontillado Sherry 23 Years Old

Rare, old dry Spanish Sherry, excellent for cocktails. Produced in 1912, bottled in 1935.

$1.58 Fifth

IMPORTED ROYAL TAWNY PORT 10 Years Old

88c Fifth

IMPORTED CHAMPAGNE

Pol Clement—1928 or Sparkling Burgundy Desivroy—1929

Sparkling wines of fine bouquet and flavor. A grand buy for the holidays.

$1.99 large bottle

$23.50 case of 12 bottles

CLARKDALE BOURBON — 3½ YEARS OLD

Older and Better 100 PROOF

This straight Bourbon at 100 proof makes a grand mixer for highballs and cocktails now that Clarkdale is 3½ yrs. old; it will make thousands of new Friends.

$1.59 Quart

IMPORTED WEST INDIES RUM MORENO

Produced and bottled in Puerto Rico—GOLD LABEL, a splendid rum and fine mixer.

$1.39 Fifth

IMPORTED FRENCH DINNER WINES 1929 VINTAGE

GRAVES
BARSAC
SAUTERNES
HAUT-SAUT
MEDOC
ST. JULIEN

79c Case of 12 Fifths $9.00

Bottled in Bond 100 Proof MONOGRAM 4 YEARS OLD "RYE OR BOURBON"

BONDED RYE from BERNHEIM DISTILLERY CO.
BONDED BOURBON from J. A. WATHEN DISTILLERY

Two splendid bonded whiskies from Kentucky's finest distilleries. Stock up for the holidays at this low price.

$2.19 — $1.19 Pint — Quart

Nelson B. Bell About the Showshops

Those Happy Days Are Coming Here Again

'The Sisters' Brings Back Early 1900's
Producer Anger Seeks Local Talent
News and Gossip of the Playhouse

IF YOU think the cockeyed gadgets the stronger sex are wearing for hats this year are funny, wait until you see some of the headgear unveiled in "The Sisters," the Warner Brothers' picturization of the Myron Brinig novel, coming to the Earle screen on Friday! Wait until you see a lot of the things that are brought back to memory in this picture of the early 1900's, for the matter of that.

BELL

You will see a very elegant mess of those old high-collared shirt waists, with puff sleeves, for one thing. You will see street-sweeper skirts, cleated in at the waist and swirling clear out to here at the hem; men togged out in swanky suits with high lapels and shoulders as broad as a Pullman car joke; smart cafes that look like unstreamlined dumps and horse-drawn conveyances that you had forgotten all about—if you ever knew them at all. And that automobile that canonaded its way down Main street to the home of the Elliotts with the rapid-fire detonations of a Gatling gun. Boy, was that a car!

That thin-tired tommy-gun was supposed to be the last word in 1904. But this column made the first trip by motor car ever made across the island of Puerto Rico, a little earlier than 1904, in a better firecracker than the one in the picture, even if it was only a one-lunged Locomobile. They overdid the "horseless carriage" a bit in the picture. They weren't as bad as that in 1904.

The period of "The Sisters" happens to span the last months we spent in the tropics and the first years we lived in Washington. The first Teddy Roosevelt campaign for election on his own, and not as an accidental President projected into the White House by tragedy, marks the opening of the action. Then comes the election of Taft, with all of the old marching tunes, the torch-light processions, the small-town hullabalioo, with its campaign posters, slogans and all the rest of it. You will have to be a few years the other side of high school to get the full nostalgic wallop of "The Sisters." It goes back a few decades and probably will mean only another tempestuous story of domestic debacle and love's eventual triumph to the youngsters of the present era. To the oldsters, it will mean a turning back of the years more than a quarter of a century. Personally, I, me, myself am a sucker for these reminiscent wiggle pictures that bring back fading memories that I should prefer to remain bright.

But apart from all that, "The Sisters" has elements of appeal that will register with a majority of audiences. It gives Bette Davis a role which, for staunchness of character, perhaps excels any in which she has appeared on the screen. It also affords Anita Louise, Jane Bryan, Beulah Bondi, Ian Hunter, Henry Travers, Mayo Methot, Lee Patrick, Donald Crisp, Dick Foran, Alan Hale, Laura Hope Crews, Harry Davenport, the memorable judge in "You Can't Take It With You;" Paul Harvey, Errol Flynn and many more opportunities to demonstrate their talents in varying degrees.

Mr. Flynn, costarred with Bette Davis for the first time, for example, never has portrayed a part just like this before the cameras. He is a no-good, drunken newspaperman—and never mind the cries of "well, aren't you all?"—who finally quits chasing the will-o'-the-wisp and settles down to business, after his desertion of his wife, the San Francisco earthquake and a few other mild impediments have almost made a wreck of "the little woman." Anita Louise and Jane Bryan didn't have it quite so tough as Bette. Anita married a millionaire and, after he died, only had to marry three or four other fellows to satisfy the longings of her shallow nature, and Jane got along all right after the pretty milliner her banker-husband went for was chased out of town. Bette had to put up with a "living death," as the saying goes. A "living death" is a pretty steep order.

You'll see.

Before we get out of the Earle, it might be well to divulge that Producer Harry Anger, in charge of the stage shows, is tentatively plotting a "Secret Ambition" revue—or something of the sort. The idea seems to be that in Washington there probably are a great many competent entertainers who harbor a secret ambition to disclose their talents to the public gaze. Mr. Anger has it in mind to round up these aspirants for stage fame, give them auditions and compile a stage entertainment out of their collective abilities—if any. Applications now are being accepted and filed in the order of their receipt for early future reference. Those interested may obtain details by writing a letter to "Secret Ambitions," care of the Earle Theater, Washington. The letter should include information concerning (1) the present occupation of the writer and (2) the form of entertainment he or she wishes to present upon the stage—song, dance, acting, legerdemain, whatnot. All applicants must be 18 years of age or over and must provide their own music and musical instruments. The Earle will supply a piano accompanist to assist the embryo entertainers at auditions. There it is.

For the third successive year, the President of the United States has dispatched a letter to the Variety Club of Washington on the eve of its annual banquet and ball, wishing the barkers and their friends an evening of gayety and extolling their charitable enterprises. This Presidential letter, as it has in previous years, will occupy the page of honor in the souvenir program distributed to members and guests at the Variety frivolities.

The event falls on Saturday night of this week and will be celebrated in the grand ballroom of the Willard Hotel, beginning promptly at 7:15 o'clock.

Having been privileged to scan the official program of entertainment planned for this fifth annual club assembly, this typewriter is able to guarantee an unbroken succession of stellar acts, consuming a continuous running time from 7:45 p. m., until goodness knows when. Every stage turn appearing in Washington and vicinity this week will be on hand, plus Jimmy Dorsey's Orchestra, the Leon Brusiloff Orchestra, Sande Williams' instrumental group from the Carlton Hotel, Ted Hill's Orchestra and so on and so forth.

In addition to the formal entertainment, many notable guests will be in attendance. Johnny Perkins, past master of the art; Tony Wakeman, of the Mutual Broadcasting System, and Arch McDonald, C. B. S., will serve as masters of ceremonies during the evening.

A big night in show business. In fact, one of the biggest.

It may not be too far in advance to note that when "Our Town" comes to the National Theater the week of Monday, December 12, it will represent the second winning of a Pulitzer Prize by Thornton Wilder, its author. "Our Town," as of course everyone knows, was the Pulitzer Prize-winning play of 1938. Just ten years previously, in 1928, Mr. Wilder had won the prize in literature with his novel, "The Bridge of San Luis Rey.'. And another thing. There are two generations of Cravens in the cast. Frank Craven, star of the play, is supported by his son, John, who appears in the principal juvenile role. Then there is Thomas W. Ross. Tom Ross was costarred with the late William H. Crane and Amelia Bingham in "The New Henrietta," 'way back yonder, and before that had been famous for his performance in the well-remembered racing comedy of "Checkers." His famous exhortation, "Come on, Remorse," has stuck to him ever since. "Our Town" will be the third subscription play of the Theater Guild-American Theater Society's current season.

Application was filed yesterday for the erection of a two-story, brick theater building at 820 Fourth street southwest, in the name of Frank J. Storty, well-known Washington motion picture man, and W. C. Rick. Lewis W. Giles is the architect and the Thompson Co. will be the builders of the new project, which will run to an estimated cost of $30,000.

Quick-Watson-the-Needle Note

Then there is the one Fred Spooner, here ahead of "Golden Boy," tells about the dipsomaniac mongoose, that saw so many aspirin tablets before its eyes that they had to feed him a couple of snakes!

Film Table

Palace—"If I Were King," at 12 noon, 2:20, 4:45, 7:10 and 9:35 p. m.

Earle—"The Arkansas Traveler," at 11 a. m., 1:45, 4:30, 7:15 and 10 p. m. Stage shows at 12:50, 3:35, 6:20 and 9:10 p. m.

Loew's Capitol—"Submarine Patrol," at 11 a. m., 1:50, 4:40, 7:30 and 10:20 p. m. Stage shows at 12:55, 3:40, 6:30 and 9:20 p. m.

RKO-Keith's—"The Mad Miss Manton," at 11:45 a. m., 1:45, 3:50, 5:50, 7:50 and 9:55 p. m.

Metropolitan—"Brother Rat," at 11:30 a. m., 1:30, 3:35, 5:35, 7:40 and 9:40 p. m.

Columbia—"Suez," at 12 noon, 2:25, 4:50, 7:20 and 9:45 p. m.

Belasco—Peg of Old Drury," at 4:35, 6:20, 8:05 and 9:55 p. m.

Little Theater—"Generals Without Buttons," at 12:30, 3:15, 6 and 8:50 p. m. "The 39 Steps," at 11 a. m., 1:45, 4:30, 7:20 and 10:05 p. m.

Trans-Lux—Newsreel and shorts, at 10 and 11:45 a. m., 12:30, 1:45, 3, 4:15, 5:30, 6:45, 8, 9:15 and 10:45 p. m.

Mount Vernon (Auto Theater)—"Mother Carey's Chickens," at 7:55 and 10:20 p. m.

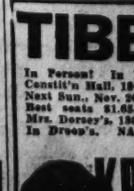
Tivoli—"Too Hot to Handle," at 1:15, 3:25, 5:30, 7:35 and 9:40 p. m.

Ambassador—"Room Service," at 1, 2:45, 4:25, 6:10, 7:50 and 9:35 p. m.

Uptown—"Moonlight Sonata," at 1, 2:40, 4:20, 6:05, 8 and 9:55 p. m.

AMUSEMENTS

TIBBETT
In Person! In Recital!
Constit'n Hall, 18th & C.
Next Sun., Nov. 20, 4 p.m.
Best seats $1.65, $2.20.
Mrs. Dorsey's, 1300 G St.
In Droop's. NAt. 7151.



KREISLER
In Full-Length Recital!
Constit'n Hall, 18th & C.
Next Tues. Eve., Nov. 22
Seats at Mrs. Dorsey's,
1300 G (Droop's) NA. 7151

DANCING

MEN — DO YOU DANCE?
Fistere Ballroom DANCING
No longer need you feel awkward when dancing. Learn the latest steps from Ethel M. Fistere, former Arthur Murray teacher.
Open 10 to 10—Dist. 2460
Studio 1223 Connecticut Avenue

De Lesseps and His 'Cigarette'

TYRONE POWER AND ANNABELLA
as they appear as the creator of the Suez Canal and guardian angel of the desert, respectively, in the Twentieth Century-Fox production of "Suez," inaugurating a repeat engagement on F street at Loew's Columbia Theater today

The New Yorker

By Leonard Lyons

New York, Nov. 16.

THE FACT that Robert Irwin would cheat the electric chair, after confessing to three murders, first was announced in this column on July 27, 1937, and then was repeated Monday . . . But this is the real story: Irwin was not satisfied to accept a result which would save his life after he had taken three lives. He demanded, in addition, $500—and got it! . . . For in the watch-pocket of his trousers, protected by a safety-pin, Irwin has $500 in cash. He will deposit that money with the superintendent of the State Hospital in Dannemora . . . The $5,000 promised him by the Chicago paper to whose editors he surrendered never has been paid.

LEPKE BUCKHOUSE, associate of Gurrah Shapiro and Public Fugitive No. 1, has sent negotiators to the prosecutor's office to arrange the terms of surrender. He'll return within a few weeks . . . Phil Plant is the backer of Frank Buck's World's Fair show, "Jungle Camp" . . . Arrangements have been completed to start making America N. Y.-World's-Fair-conscious by broadcasting Gershwin's theme song over all stations on New Year's Eve . . . Col. Batista, the Cuban dictator, likes America so much that he's postponing his return trip for two more weeks.

JOHN STRACHEY, whose right to remain in this country now is being determined by the courts, lunched last Sunday with his friend, Corliss Lamont, at the home of Tom Lamont, the J. P. Morgan partner. Lamont and the House of Morgan were criticized recently in the Richard Whitney report issued by the Securities & Exchange Commission . . . The luncheon was a pleasant one. Strachey discussed Soviet Russia, Stalin, Socialism, the OGPU—to all of which the senior Lamont listened with great interest. He exploded only when Strachey mentioned—the Securities & Exchange Commission.

MR. AND MRS. FRANKLIN D. Roosevelt, jr., who named their son F. D. 3d, because of too much criticism when another name was considered—and who then compromised by nicknaming the boy Joe—again have bowed to the resultant complaints. They now call the boy Three . . . Leni Reifenstahl, Hitler's camera woman, got into an international wrangle at El Morocco last week-end. She arrived with France's Marquis Melchoir de Polignac and danced Britain's Lambeth Walk . . . Charlotte Greenwood, the veteran musical-comedy comedienne, will tour the provinces in Schiller's "Marie Stuart." She'll portray the role of Queen Elizabeth.

LOCAL NEW DEAL leaders conferred yesterday and decided to invite District Attorney Geoghan to resign because of ill-health. By appointing another Democrat as his successor until next year, they hope that the new prosecutor's activities would make him prominent enough to combat the expected candidacy of Bill Herlands . . . "Nellie," the dog which became famous during the Hauptmann trial at Flemington, was stolen yesterday from its reporter owner . . . Cast changes in "Knickerbocker Holiday" have the man who played Vanderbilt now portraying Roosevelt. The President, who saw the show, thought the message wasn't strong enough. He told Walter Huston, who stars in the hit show: "I think I'll write those lines for you myself."

KURT WEILL, the Viennese composer who now is in America, wrote to his music publisher in Vienna and notified him that—although the music has been banned in Germany—there was demand for it here, and a sale could be arranged . . . The publisher notified Goebbels, the Propaganda Minister, who became interested because the purchase money would be delivered in Vienna. Goebbels consented to the shipment of the music, under certain conditions—and so the music arrived here yesterday . . . It had been kept at the Hotel Metropole, where Schuschnigg is a prisoner. Six Storm Troopers removed and shipped it, but—pursuant to Goebbels' orders—didn't look at the notes, lest their Nazi souls be affected by the music of an exile.

All-Role Master

An actor who has played every role in Charles Dickens' "A Christmas Carol," from Tiny Tim to Scrooge, was discovered by Edwin L. Marin, directing the Yuletide classic for Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer. The actor is Leo G. Carroll, who will play Marley's Ghost.

AMUSEMENTS

LITTLE NINTH above F
ROBERT DONAT in "GENERALS WITHOUT Buttons"
Last 39 Days

AMUSEMENTS

RKO KEITH'S 13TH AT G
A WASHINGTON INSTITUTION
TOMORROW!
LOOK WHO'LL BE HERE . . !

with the Love Lure in her eyes Connie goes to work on Broadway's newest romantic idol . . !
6 STARS HANGING UP A NEW LAUGH RECORD
Constance BENNETT
VINCENT PRICE
Former leading man with Helen Hayes in "Victoria Regina" makes his film debut in "SERVICE DE LUXE"
★ Charlie RUGGLES
★ Helen BRODERICK
★ Mischa AUER
★ Joy HODGES
Added
WALT DISNEY'S "DONALD'S GOLF GAME"
LAST DAY
BARBARA STANWYCK
HENRY FONDA in
"MAD MISS MANTON"

In Hollywood

With Hedda Hopper

Hollywood, Calif., Nov. 16.—A. J. Cronin, author of "The Citadel," has dropped everything to write a special screen story for Roz Russell. I'd call that interest, plus. The fact is that Dr. Cronin is Scotch and all his books are best sellers. He cleans up a fortune on each. I still think his "Hatter's Castle" with Oscar Homolka starring, would be sensational.

HEDDA HOPPER

The run-off for "The Great Waltz" contest at the Grove tonight will see some silk-smooth gliding. It has excited all the waltz-minded people in the land, and has put a crimp in the jitterbugs. The prize—a round-trip ticket to New York for the finals to one couple from each State. The winning couple gets a three months' contract in Hollywood.

George Brent on the "Dark Victory" set had a headache. Smoke pots filled the huge stage with acrid fumes, the frequent flitting of Flit also assailed the nose. "The Flit's for the flies, the smoke's for illusion, the headaches' for the actor!" gasped George.

Bette Davis, playing a scene with him, had Tibi, her Scottie, on the set. A lot's been said about Tibi, except that she's a one-woman dog. I tried but couldn't get to first base with the beast.

With Bela Lugosi sporting a stiff neck, Boris Karloff a stiff leg, and Lionel Atwill a stiff arm in "The Son of Frankenstein," all Basil Rathbone, romantic lead, can boast is a stiff upper lip.

No wonder our producers are trying frantically to get Maurice Chevalier back again. He's the sensation of Paris. Even Grace Moore is running second to him. Nothing travels faster than success—except a brainstorm.

Taint true they've done away with assistant producers at Twentieth Century. Most of those boys and their assistants, have gone back to writing screen stories.

It's news when a star like Jeannette MacDonald phones to tell you how delighted she is with the cast in her new picture, and raves about Lucille Ball, the other girl!

Albert Hay Malotte's mother stepped into a book store to buy a copy of "Ferdinand the Bull." The salesgirl not knowing who she was, said, "Isn't it strange that the man who could put music to The Lord's Prayer would stoop to 'Ferdinand the Bull?'—35 cents, please."

Irene Rich is having agent trouble. There were so many looking out for her they were about to form a club, until they discovered she expected them to divide the 10 per cent among them. Poor Irene! Looks as though she'd have to do her own scouting now.

I'm a peace loving woman, but I'll howl if anyone but Laura Hope Crews plays Pitty Pat in "Gone With the Wind." That's why Laura was born.

The minor clashes between Ginger Rogers and Irene Castle are the natural outcome of one woman playing the other. It's always hard for an older woman to let go, especially when she's been front page news for 25 years and still is.

A year ago when things weren't so hot for Victor McLaglen, he made a bet against himself that 1938 would be his off year. That's the only bet he was ever happy to pay—it's been his best.

Matilda Trotter is here, reading lines—no, not in faces—she's a well-known palmist. After reading Jack and Elaine Barrymore's, she told me that Elaine is the last woman in Jack's life—that he's found his mate and will stick to the bitter end. What! no more headlines.

Jean Fontaine, who's just celebrated her twenty-first birthday, is swamped with offers from New York and London. She's eyeing London. If she goes there, she'll probably come back a duchess.

Carole Lombard and I cornered Clark Gable on the "Idiot's Delight" set and begged to see a bit of his dancing. He wouldn't give, but told us that after his first lesson he heard George King, his teacher, mumble as he walked away, "Well—that guy must have normal intelligence, but that's all I've got to start with." Do you wonder we love Clark.

Irvin S. Cobb Will Do Autobiography

Irvin S. Cobb has started work on an autobiography.

It will climax a writing career of more than 25 years, during which he has written between 300 and 400 stories and articles for national magazines and several books.

Cobb's experience in Hollywood, where he has been acting with Bob Burns in "The Arkansas Traveler," will constitute an important part of the book, he said.

His most popular book to date is "Speaking of Operations."

AMUSEMENTS

LIMITED ENGAGEMENT
ANNA NEAGLE
SIR CEDRIC HARDWICKE
—IN—
Peg of Old Drury
A Tri-National Film
The delightful film story of the roguish Irish girl who won the heart of the Great Garrick.
"FASCINATING . . . there is something in it for every taste."
—Nelson Bell, POST.
"Sparkling with humor."—STAR.
Cont. from 4 P. M.—35c to 6 P. M.
Belasco THEATRE
Opp. the White House
National 0149

OPEN-AIR
Thurs.-Sat.
RUBY KEELER—ANN SHIRLEY
"MOTHER CAREY'S CHICKENS"

AMUSEMENTS

NATIONAL
Tonight at 8:30
Next Mat. Sat. at 2:30
KATHARINE CORNELL
in CLEMENCE DANE'S
"HEROD AND MARIAMNE"
Staged by GUTHRIE McCLINTIC
NEXT WEEK, BEG. MON. EVE.
—SEAT SALE NOW—
Mats. Thurs. (Thanksgiving) & Sat.
Tallulah BANKHEAD
IN
"I AM DIFFERENT"
Evs., 50c to $2.50. Mats., Thurs., Sat., 50c to $2.00. Plus Tax.

TONIGHT Constitution Hall—8:30 P. M.
NATIONAL SYMPHONY
In Joint Performance With BALLET RUSSE
De Monte Carlo
Leonide Massine, Artistic Director
Three Colorful Ballets!
Swan Lake ..... Tchaikovsky
St. Francis ..... Hindemith
Le Beau Danube ..... Strauss
Tickets at box office, Julius Garfinckel & Co., NA. 7210. At hall after 7 P. M., ME. 2661. C. C. Cappel, Mgr.

TOWN HALL
DEBATES AND FORUM DISCUSSIONS
Sun., Nov. 20, 8 P. M. HOTEL SHOREHAM
BRUCE BLIVEN & LEWIS MUMFORD
"How to Fight Fascism in the U. S."
Sun., Dec. 4—Geo. Palsh and Geo. Soule
"The Economic Causes of War."
SEASON TICKETS, $10.00, $15.00.
Single Tickets, $1.50, $1.25.
T. Arthur Smith Bureau, 910 G St.

AMUSEMENTS

First Time Together!
TOMORROW
Two great stars in a breathless drama of a woman who lost her heart to a man who had lost his soul . . . !

Errol FLYNN-Bette DAVIS
In Myron Brinig's Best Selling Novel
"The Sisters"
A Warner Bros. Picture With ANITA LOUISE
IAN HUNTER
DONALD CRISP
BEULAH BONDI
JANE BRYAN
ALAN HALE
DICK FORAN
HENRY TRAVERS
PATRIC KNOWLES
A Stage Show To Make You Happy
Mayris CHANEY & Edward FOX
Internationally Famous Dancers—White House Favorites
THREE WIERE BROS.
TEXAS JIM LEWIS & LONE STAR COWBOYS
DON CUMMINGS - GEORGE BYRON
Extra Added Attraction
They're Back Again
16 EARLE ROXYETTES
Thrilling You With Three New Routines
2 Hits To 1 P. M.
Warner Bros. EARLE
Last Day • BOB BURNS in "ARKANSAS TRAVELER" & TED LEWIS & His Orch.
"The Sisters" can Also Be Seen Tomorrow, Sat., Sun., Mon., & Tues. At The Ambassador—Matinees 1 p.m.

NOW
"BROTHER RAT"
A Warner Bros. Picture
METROPOLITAN

Lone Angler

Myrna Loy, yearning for the open sea, chartered a small launch and went fishing, alone, off Malibu Beach. Her day's catch was 14 small calico bass.

AMUSEMENTS

GAYETY
BURLESQUE
MATINEES 12 TILL 2
NOW COUNTESS NADJA
SUNDAY Carrie Finnell

AMUSEMENTS

Loew's CAPITOL
FRIDAY
A screen full of M-G-M stars . . . it's the year's most exciting love drama.
JOAN CRAWFORD
MARGARET SULLAVAN
ROBERT YOUNG • MELVYN DOUGLAS
FAY BAINTER
The SHINING HOUR

STAGE
Pre-Holiday Gayety
Held Over! Harriet HOCTOR AND HER 16 Beautiful Ballerinas
RADIO ACES Song Hit Parade
The FREDYSONS Hungarian Whirlwinds
Extra Added Attraction
Johnny PERKINS "A Ton of Fun"
25c to 1 P.M.
1500 Seats Every Night 40c
TODAY • "SUBMARINE PATROL" Richard GREENE • Nancy KELLY
Stage . . HARRIET HOCTOR & 16 GIRLS

"If I were king, I'd go and see, 'If I were king'"
NELSON BELL
Post

The Grandest Romance Ever Filmed!

RONALD COLMAN
in FRANK LLOYD'S
"IF I WERE KING"
A Paramount Picture with Frances Dee • Basil Rathbone
Ellen Drew • C. V. France • Henry Wilcoxon
2nd week
Loew's PALACE

Loew's COLUMBIA F AT 12TH
STARTS TODAY
SUEZ
A 20th Century-Fox Picture with TYRONE POWER
LORETTA YOUNG ANNABELLA
and a cast of ten thousand!
Plus Dick TRACY Thriller

Today's NEIGHBORHOOD Movies

MOTION PICTURES ARE YOUR BEST ENTERTAINMENT
$250,000 Movie Quiz Contest Booklets Now Available in All Warner Theaters Pictures Marked X Are Quiz Contest Pictures.

Theaters Having Matinees

AMBASSADOR 18th & Col. Rd. 1 P.M. CO. 5895
(X) Marx Bros. in "Room Service." At 1, 2:45, 4:25, 6:10, 7:50, 9:35.

AVALON 5612 Conn. Ave. N.W. Mat. 2 P.M. CL. 2800
(X) Charles Boyer, Hedy Lamarr in "Algiers." At 2, 3:50, 5:45, 7:40, 9:35.

CALVERT 2324 Wisc. Ave. N.W. Mat. 1 P.M. WO. 2345
(X) Clark Gable, Myrna Loy in "Too Hot to Handle." At 1, 3:10, 5:20, 7:30, 9:40. Popular Science Short.

CENTRAL 425 9th St. N.W. Open 11 A.M. ME. 2847
Helen Mack, Lon Chaney, Jr., in "Captain Hurricane." At 11, 1:25, 3:50, 6:20, 8:45. Ann Harding in "Witness Chair." At 12:05, 2:35, 5, 7:30, 9:55. Also Short.

PENN 630 Pa. Ave. S.E. Mat. 1 P. M. LI. 2179
(X) Dorothy Lamour, George Raft in "Spawn of the North." At 1, 3:10, 5:15, 7:25, 9:35. Musical Short.

SHERIDAN Ga. Ave. & Sheridan Mat. 1 P.M. RA. 2400
(X) Ritz Bros. in "Straight, Place and Show." At 1:30, 3:10, 4:50, 6:30, 8:10, 9:50.

SILVER Ga. Ave. & Colesville Pk. Mat. 1 P.M. Silver Spring 5800
Parking Space
(X) Charles Boyer, Hedy Lamarr in "Algiers." At 1:25, 3:30, 5:30, 7:35, 9:40. Robert Benchley Short.

TIVOLI 14th & Park Rd. N.W. Mat. 1 P.M. CO. 1800
(X) Myrna Loy, Clark Gable in "Too Hot to Handle." At 1:15, 3:25, 5:30, 7:35, 9:40. Also Popeye Cartoon.

UPTOWN Conn. Ave. & Newark Mat. 1 P.M. CL. 5400
Ignace Jan Pederewski in "Moonlight Sonata." At 1, 2:40, 4:20, 6:05, 8, 9:55. Also Cartoon, News.

Theaters Having Eve. Performances

APOLLO 624 H Street N.E. LI. 3575
(X) Ritz Bros. in "Straight, Place and Show." At 6:30, 8:15, 10. Also March of Time and Short.

AVE. GRAND 645 Pa. Ave. S.E. LI. 3400
(X) Mickey Rooney, Spencer Tracy in "Boys Town." At 6:15, 7:55, 9:40.

COLONY 4323 Ga. Ave. N.W. GE. 6300
(X) Charles Boyer, Hedy Lamarr in "Algiers." At 8, 7:50, 9:40. Cartoon.

HOME 1230 G St. N.E. AT. 2188
"Broadway Musketeers," with Margaret Lindsay, Ann Sheridan, Marie Wilson, Janet Chapman, John Litel. At 6:45, 8:25, 10.

SAVOY 3030 14th St. N.W. CO. 4060
Mary Carlisle, Lloyd Nolan in "Hunted Men." At 6:30, 8:05, 9:55.

SIXTH 8244 Ga. Ave. Silver Spring Parking Space SH. 3344
(X) "Secrets of an Actress," with Kay Francis, George Brent. At 6:15, 8, 9:50. Also Comedy.

TAKOMA 4th & Butternut Sts. Parking Space. GE. 4312
(X) Laurel and Hardy in "Blockheads." At 6:35, 8:15, 9:55. Also Comedy.

YORK Ga. Ave. & Quebec Pl. N.W. RAnd. 4600
(X) "Secrets of an Actress," with Kay Francis, George Brent. At 6:30, 8:05, 9:45. Also Comedy.

ACADEMY Of Perfect Sound Photoplay 8th at G S.E.
EDMOND LOWE
"MURDER ON DIAMOND ROW."
Also
"THE MAIN EVENT."

WARNER BROS. THEATERS
For additional information, phone theaters direct.

DOWNTOWN SUBWAY LINE

ATLAS 1331 H St. N.E. AT. 6200
Mat. 2 P. M.
Spencer Tracy, Mickey Rooney, "BOYS TOWN."

CIRCLE Home of "Mirrophonic Sound" Penna. Ave. at 21st N.W.
Dionne Quintuplets, Jean Hersholt, "FIVE OF A KIND."
Comedies.

CONGRESS 2931 Nichols Ave. S.E. Air-Conditioned
"TIME OUT FOR MURDER."

FAIRLAWN ANACOSTIA, D. C.
N. Shearer, "MARIE ANTOINETTE."

PRINCESS 1119 H St. N.E. Double Feature
"MIDNIGHT INTRUDER."
Louis Hayward, Barbara Read, "THE OUTER GATE."
Ralph Morgan, Kay Linaker.

STANTON 6th and C Sts. N.E. Finest Sound Equipment
"A GIRL WITH IDEAS."
Wendy Barrie, Walter Pidgeon.
Also "TROOPSHIP."

STATE-BETHESDA 6970 Wis. Ave. BETHESDA, MD.
At 6:00 & 8:30 p. m. Margaret Lindsay in "WHEN WERE YOU BORN?" Also at 7:10 & 9:40 p. m. Warren William in "WIVES UNDER SUSPICION."

FALLS CHURCH, VA.
STATE No Parking Worries LEE
Lane Sisters in "FOUR DAUGHTERS." | Irving Berlin's "ALEXANDER'S RAGTIME BAND."

ARLINGTON, VA.
WILSON 1720 Wilson Blvd. Opp. Colonial Village
George Raft, Dorothy Lamour, "SPAWN OF THE NORTH."

ASHTON 3166 Wilson Blvd. Phone Oxford 1120
Gloria Stuart, "TIME OUT FOR MURDER."

JESSE THEATER 18th & Irving 6th, N.E.
Double Feature.
"BROADWAY MUSKETEERS."
Margaret Lindsay, Ann Sheridan.
"FLIGHT TO FAME."
Charles Farrell.

SYLVAN 1st and S. L. Ave. N.W.
"FOUR DAUGHTERS."
Lane Sisters, Claude Rains.

PALM THEATER DEL RAY, VA.
"MY LUCKY STAR"
Sonja Henie, Richard Greene

NEWTON 12th and Newton 6th, N.E.
"YOU CAN'T TAKE IT WITH YOU."
Jean Arthur, James Stewart.
Matinee at 1:00 p. m.

BORO 7101 Wisconsin Avenue Bethesda, Md.
Cont. 7:00-11:00.
Fay Wray, "KING KONG."

HIPPODROME E. Near 9th Double Feature
S. Tracy, M. Rooney, "BOYS' TOWN."

CAMEO MT. RAINIER, MD.
Cont. 6-11
"VALLEY OF THE GIANTS"

ARCADE Hyattsville, Md.
Cont. 6-11
M. Rooney, S. Tracy, "BOYS' TOWN."

RICHMOND ALEXANDRIA, VA.
Today, Tomor., Sat.
Warne Morris, "BROTHER RAT."

REED Alexandria, Va. Alex. 3443
Today, Tomorrow, Sat.
Wallace Beery, "STABLEMATES."
Free Parking Space—500 Cars.

MILO ROCKVILLE, MD.
Cont. 7-11
J. Garner, "2 LOVES HAS NANCY."

MARLBORO Upper Marlboro, Md.
Cont. 7-11
J. Garner, "2 LOVES HAS NANCY."

Miss Bankhead Here Monday In New Play

John Emery Is Lead At the National Other New Bills

With a cast including such eminent names as Fritzi Scheff, John Emery and Glenn Anders, and a handsome production mounted and presented on the West Coast before enthusiastic audiences, Tallulah Bankhead, now concluding a brief tour through her native South, will begin a week's engagement in Zoe Akins' new comedy, "I Am Different," at the National Theater next Monday night. The gifted and fascinating young star has found in Miss Akins' play a role of great opportunity for her admired flair in interpreting a modern-minded woman. In the present instance, she is a brilliant author and columnist, famed in Europe for her diagnosis of love and jealousy. In her own case there turn out to be emotional elements of which she had not previously been aware. An excellent supporting company appears with the principal players. There will be the usual matinee performances, but on Thursday, Thanksgiving Day, and Saturday, instead of Wednesday.

Costarred for the first time, Bette Davis and Errol Flynn will be seen on the screen at the Warner Brothers' Earle Theater, beginning Friday, in "The Sisters," a film version of the novel by Myron Brinig. America in the 1900's provides the locale of the dramatic story of three sisters. They are impersonated by Jane Bryan and Anita Louise, in addition to Miss Davis. Beulah Bondi, Henry Travers, Ian Hunter, Dick Foran, Donald Crisp and others of note lead the supporting cast. The stage bill at the Earle next week will be headlined by Chaney and Fox, favorite dancers. Others on the vaudeville bill include the Weire Brothers, in novel tap creations; Texas Jim Lewis and His Texas Cowboys; Don Cummings in "a new variation of an old twist;" George Byron, vocalist, and the 16 Earle Roxyettes.

"The Shining Hour," Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's picturization of the Keith Winter stage play, will be the major film offering at Loew's Capitol Theater for the week beginning tomorrow. The principal roles are played by Joan Crawford, Margaret Sullivan, Fay Bainter, Melvyn Douglas and Robert Young, with Frank Albertson, Hattie McDaniels and others in the lesser roles. The story is one of love and domestic upheaval, interspersed with dancing and amusing comedy situations, with Miss Crawford executing the dances, the first in which she has participated since "Dancing Lady." The stage portion of the entertainment will have Harriet Hoctor, held over for a second week, and Johnny Perkins, master of ceremonies and comedian, as its joint headliners. Miss Hoctor will be seen in a new series of ballets others on the bill will be the Radio Aces and the Juvelys, juggling sensations.

Constance Bennett will be the pictured star of "Service De Luxe," the new screen play coming to RKO-Keith's Theater for the week beginning tomorrow. Chief in her support will be Vincent Price, new to the American cinema, but remembered as Helen Hayes' leading man in the original production of "Victoria Regina," in which he assumed the role of the Prince Consort. Others prominent in the cast includes Charles Ruggles, Mischa Auer, Helen Broderick and Joy Hodges. The story is a romantic comedy, in which a naive upstater visits New York to market a tractor invention and falls into the pleasant clutches of a clever young woman. The bill will be augmented by short subjects and a new issue of the Pathe News.

Ronald Coleman, supported by Frances Dee, Ellen Drew, Basil Rathbone, C. V. France, Stanley Ridges and a host of others, will continue a second week, beginning today, at Loew's Palace Theater in Paramount's picturization of Justin Huntly McCarthy's legendary romance of "If I Were King." Mr. Colman appears in the role of the vagabond poet, Francois Villon, and Mr. Rathbone plays Louis XI of France. The production is one of the notable ones of the current season. The short subjects also will be continued.

So successful has been the first week of the repeat engagement of 'Brother Rat,' at the Metropolitan Theater, that this Warner Brothers picturization of the famous George Abbott stage hit will be held over for an additional week, beginning tomorrow. In this lively comedy of undergraduate life at the Virginia Military Institute, the principal roles are played by Eddie Albert, Wayne Morris, Priscilla Lane, Johnny Davis, Jane Bryan, Jane Wyman, Ronald Reagan and Henry O'Neill. Much of the background of the V. M. I. story was photographed at the "West Point of the South," at Lexington, Va. The short subjects also will be continued.

Tyrone Power, Loretta Young, Henry Stephenson, Nigel Bruce, Annabella, J. Edward Bromberg, Sig Rumann and hundreds of others will be seen on the screen at Loew's Columbia Theater for the week beginning today, when the chief feature of the bill will be the Twentieth Century-Fox production of "Suez," recently seen at the Palace. A production of huge proportions, "Suez" deals with people and events surrounding the inception and construction of the waterway connecting the Mediterranean and Red Seas. Allan Dwan was the director and did a fine job.

A short subject bearing the title of "African Jamboree" is expected to prove the outstanding short feature on next week's bill at the Trans-Lux Theater, beginning tomorrow. It deals first-hand with the fellows of the real French Foreign Legation at play on their time off. For music lovers there will be "Wagner's Tannhauser" overture, played by the National Philharmonic Orchestra, under the baton of Frederick Feher. "Bravest of the Brave" will be the historical short; "The Little Moth's Big Flame," the color rhapsody. The bill will be based on newsreel coverage of the world.

"Mr. Deeds Goes to Town," starring Gary Cooper and Jean Arthur, will be revived as chief feature of next week's screen bill at the Little Theater, beginning Sunday. In this Frank Capra production other prominent roles are played by George Bancroft, Lionel Stander, Douglas Dumbrille, Ruth Donnelly, Walter Catlett, Raymond Walburn and H. B. Warner. The customary short-reel subjects and picturized news events will complete the program.

On Saturday morning at 10:30, in the National Theater, the Children's Theater of New York will present "Nobody's Boy" as the second production of its current season. This dramatized tale of Remi's adventures is one of the most beloved stories for boys and girls in many lands. It will be interpreted by a cast of adult professional actors. Tickets are obtainable at 1734 F street.

"Peg of Old Drury," costarring Sir Cedric Hardwicke and Anna Neagle, supported by a splendid cast, will be continued into its second week at the Belasco Theater, beginning Sunday. The story is of the rise of Peg Woffington from the slums of Dublin to the heights of theatrical fame as the feminine star of the Drury Lane Theater in London. The course of the drama permits the introduction of various scenes from classic plays and the introduction of music. "Peg of Old Drury" will be followed by "Ossge," a new French production, starring Charles Boyer, with Michele Morgan, a new "discovery."

In conjunction with the "Stage Scandals" burlesque attraction, coming to the Gayety Theater on Sunday for a week's engagement, the management announces Carrie Finnell as the extra added attraction. She is said to offer the greatest novelty act of the season. Comedy will be in the hands of Bob Carney and John Barry, well known here. Mimi Reed and Virginia Jones also are in the cast of 60, which includes a lively beauty chorus.

Phelps Dodge Corp Votes Dividend

New York, Nov. 16 (AP).—Directors of Phelps Dodge Corporation today declared a dividend of 55 cents a share on the capital stock, payable December 9 to stock of record November 15. Previously this year three payments aggregating 45 cents have been made. In 1937 total disbursements were $1.60 a share.

American Telephone Regular

Directors of American Telephone Co. declared the regular quarterly dividend of $2.25 a share on the capital stock, payable January 14 to stock of record December 15.

Directors of Ruberoid Co., manufacturers of building materials, declared a year-end dividend of 60 cents a share on the common stock, payable December 20 to stock of record December 5. The last payment was on December 20, 1937, when 15 cents cash and $1.40 in promissory notes were disbursed.

Penick & Ford Ltd. Dividend

Directors of Penick & Ford Ltd. today declared a dividend of $1 a share on capital stock, payable December 15 to holders of record December 2. In two preceding quarters payments of 75 cents each were made.

Johns-Manville Opens Three New Factories

New York, Nov. 16.—Johns-Manville will have in full operation by the end of this year or early next year three new plants located in the South, Midwest and Far West, it was announced today by Lewis H. Brown, president of the corporation, at the dedication of the Johns-Manville Exhibit Building at the World's Fair.

With these new factories and with anticipated increased production in existing plants, the company expects that by early in 1939 at least 1,000 more employes will have been added to its pay roll, Mr. Brown said. Total cost of the plants is approximately $4,000,000.

Texan Indicted For Stock Fraud

The Securities and Exchange Commission and the Department of Justice reported yesterday that J. B. Parkinson, of Houston, Tex., has been indicted by the United States Grand Jury in the United States District Court for the Southern District of Texas, Laredo Division, for violations of the fraud provisions of the securities act of 1933.

The indictment, which contains ten counts, charges that between December, 1936, and April, 1938, the defendant, operating in the City of Houston, Tex., under the name of J. B. Parkinson & Co., employed a scheme to defraud in connection with the sale of securities. Defendant had branch offices at Austin, San Antonio, Port Arthur, Beaumont and Luling, Tex.

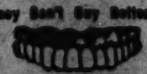
Health Center Cost Seen $21,000 a Year

Special Dispatch to The Post.

Winchester, Va., Nov. 16.—Citizens of Clarke and Frederick Counties and Winchester, assembled to discuss plans for a public health center, were told by Dr. L. E. Roper, of the State Board of Health, that the cost would be $21,000 annually, of which the State will bear half. The remainder of the cost would be apportioned between the three subdivisions.

A junior board of trade committee headed by Dr. R. H. Kerlin, of this city, is taking the lead in investigating possibilities.

Money Don't Buy Better Teeth



Plates $10, $15 and $20
Plates Vacuumed While You Wait
Work Done in My Own Laboratories
No Lost Wallets. No High Prices
CROWNS AND BRIDGE WORK
$5 $5
Extractions, $1—By Gas, $2
Dr. SMATHERS
DENTAL SURGEONS
Open Sundays—Evenings

Berwyn Man Acquitted in Boys' Shooting

Fired at 'Pranksters' Says Stone Hit Him Happened on Halloween

George A. Godey, 77, Berwyn chicken farmer, who admitted in Police Court at Hyattsville yesterday that he wounded three youngsters with birdshot from a 12-gauge shotgun because he thought they had played Halloween pranks on him October 31, was found not guilty of assault with a dangerous weapon.

Godey said he fired the shot low to scare the boys. He testified Halloween pranksters had thrown stones at his house and chicken coops and that one of the missiles struck him in the head and knocked him down.

The boys, Jack McManus, 14; Roland Woods, 15, and his brother, Milton, 11, all of Berwyn, told the court they were walkin home after "soaping windows and knocking on doors" when the shotgun blast struck them. They denied having thrown stones at Godey's property.

Milton Woods, youngest of the boys, said the shot knocked him down and he was unable to get up. "My legs felt like they were asleep," he said. All three youths were given hospital treatment.

Police Court Judge George B. Merrick heard several character witnesses, including Prince Georges County Treasurer-elect Harry W. McNamee, who spoke highly of Godey's reputation.

Industries for Greenbelt

Private industrial concerns will be invited to locate in the Government-owned town of Greenbelt, Md., if a proposal now under consideration by the town council is adopted.

A resolution offered by Councilman Louis Bessemer proposes that $10,000 be set aside in the town's 1939 budget to promote industrial development, as provided in the original plans, in two areas outside the residential sections. One of these areas, comprising about 70 acres, would be for light industries, and the other, including 250 acres, would be for heavy industries.

Mayor Henry H. Maurer pointed out the industrialization plan would benefit the town by increasing employment opportunities and would provide more revenue for the county by increasing the town's assessable basis.

The Farm Security Administration, which has charge of the low-cost housing project, would lease the industrial plots.

The resolution will come up for discussion and vote at the next meeting of council, November 28.

Co-operation of the Prince Georges County commissioners, the Baltimore and Prince Georges chambers of commerce, the Washington Board of Trade and the industrial commissioner of the State of Maryland has been requested.

Road Contract Awarded

Contract was awarded by the State roads commission yesterday for relocation of 1.17 miles of University drive, which crosses the University of Maryland campus. The project is part of the university's building program.

Architect's plans call for the center of the campus to be shifted to the north. Relocation of the road is necessary to prevent its becoming a traffic hazard.

The M. J. Grove Lime Co., of Lime Kiln, Frederick County, was awarded the University drive contract on a bid of $55,338.

Fraternity Plan Dropped

The Interfraternity Council at the University of Maryland has turned thumbs down on a proposal to admit Jewish social fraternities.

Albert Ireland, president of the interfraternity group, pointed out the primary purpose of the council was to regulate "rushing" practices of the clubs. Since the Jewish lodges do not "rush" the same men, he added, there is no need for regulation by the council.

Safety Drive Pushed

A campaign to reduce traffic hazards on the University of Maryland campus is under way and faculty members as well as students are being cautioned against violating speed and parking laws.

Persistent violators, it was announced by university officials, will be deprived of the use of their cars on the campus. The speed limit on the university roadways is 15 miles an hour.

Kiwanians Open School Hold Winchester Fete

Special Dispatch to The Post.

Winchester, Va., Nov. 16.—The Winchester Kiwanis Club had two headline events today.

This morning, the annual lieutenant-governors school for the Capital District was convened by the Rev. Miles Reifsnyder of Westminster, Md., district governor.

Tonight, the annual banquet of the Martinsburg-Winchester Clubs was held here in honor of the football teams of the two institutions which will meet here on Thanksgiving Day. There were about 150 persons present.

ART MATERIALS
MUTH
710 13TH.
NAT. 6286

HAPPY RELIEF FROM PAINFUL BACKACHE

Many of those gnawing, nagging, painful backaches people blame on colds or strains are often caused by tired kidneys—and may be relieved when treated in the right way.

The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking excess acids and poisonous waste out of the blood. Most people pass about 3 pints a day or about 3 pounds of waste.

Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning shows there may be something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

If the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters don't work well, poisonous waste matter stays in the blood. These poisons may start nagging backaches, rheumatic pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from the blood. Get Doan's Pills.

'Blue Chip' Stock May Be Removed From Exchange

New York, Nov. 16 (AP).—One of the last of the exceedingly "blue chip" (very high priced) stocks may soon disappear from New York Stock Exchange trading, it was disclosed today.

The stock, certificates of proprietary interest in Texas Pacific Land Trust ($100 par value), will be withdrawn from listing and registration if an application which has been made to the SEC is approved.

The last recorded sale of shares was at $1.075. The highest figure recorded in usual reference books is $2.650 in 1927. Application for delisting was made on the ground of the small amount now outstanding, 3,653 certificates. Sub shares (par $1) are not affected by the application.

U. of Va. Wins Two V. I. P. A. First Places

Yearbook, Newspaper Best Among Colleges Other Awards Listed

By the Associated Press.

The University of Virginia won two first places in the 1938 publications contest sponsored by the Virginia Intercollegiate Press Association, Miss Helen Miller, president, announced today.

Miss Miller, a student at American University, said 30 colleges and universities in Virginia and the District of Columbia submitted yearbooks, magazines and newspapers at the association's recent convention in Fredericksburg. The winners were made public today.

The university's Corks and Curls was adjudged first among annuals of more than 225 pages, with the V.M.I. Bomb taking second.

The university's College Topics was first in the classification for collegiate newspapers published more frequently than once a week.

The Battlefield, of Mary Washington College, Fredericksburg, was first among yearbooks of less than 225 pages, and the Spinster, of Hollins second.

In the contest for junior college and prep school annuals Virginia Intermont College took first and the Sampler, of Sullins College, second.

Other winners were as follows:

Weekly college newspapers—Va. Tech of V. P. I., first; Campus Comments of Mary Baldwin, second.

Junior college-prep school newspapers—Sullins College, Reflector, first; Traveller, Stratford College, Danville, second.

Magazines—The Royalist of William and Mary, first; Garnett of Hampden-Sydney College, second.

Humorous publication—The Old Maid of Randolph-Macon Woman's College, first.

Handbooks—Sweet Briar, first; Bridgewater College, second.

New Life Insurance 21.1% Below Year Ago

New York, Nov. 16, (AP).—Total new life insurance written in October by 40 companies having 82 per cent of life insurance outstanding in all United States legal reserve companies was 592,432,000, the association of life insurance presidents reported today.

This was 15.5 per cent below the October total last year of $701,038,000. The aggregate for the first ten months of the year of $5,876,545,000 was 22.1 per cent below the comparable 1937 total.

L. J. Houston Re-elected As City Head; Pay Raised

Special Dispatch to The Post.

Fredericksburg, Va., Nov. 16.—The city council last night re-elected L. J. Houston, jr., city manager here for the last 20 years, and increased his salary from $5,500 to $6,000. Claude Parcell, council president, complimented Mr. Houston on his excellent services here and said the increase in salary was well deserved.

The school committee of the county School Board for a general discussion of free text books for all city schools.

Debbie Need Not Face Jury In Montgomery

Excused by State Witness in Holdup Would Hinder Schooling

Montgomery County Bureau of the Post.
8713 Clark Ave., Silver Springs, Md.
Telephone Sligohard 4200.

Miss Helen Kiendl, pretty New York society girl, was excused from testifying before the Montgomery County grand jury yesterday by State's Attorney James H. Pugh.

Miss Kiendl is under $1,000 bond as a material witness in charges of highway robbery against Edward W. Jackson, colored, 27, of Washington.

Pugh said he excused Miss Kiendl at the request of her parents, who said attendance before the grand jury would interfere seriously with her studies at the exclusive Sarah Lawrence School.

While truant from the school last April, Miss Kiendl met with adventure on the road near Four Corners, Md., when her car was forced from the road by Jackson's car. She ran into nearby fields and escaped to a house, where police were called. After an exciting chase, Jackson was captured by Montgomery County police.

Fender Bumping Admitted

Jackson told police that Miss Kiendl had bumped his car and bent a fender and that he was merely trying to collect for his fender when he forced her from the road. The colored man took several dollars from her purse, police said. Pugh said that Miss Kiendl will be called if the grand jury insists upon her presence. Her bond was posted by former Undersecretary of the Treasury Dean Acheson, of Sandy Spring neighborhood.

Tax Accounts Studied

The grand jury today will begin investigation of the dog tax accounts of James R. King, former assistant in the office of the county police court clerk. Approximately 49 cases are due to be presented, Pugh said. King now is at liberty on bond following his indictment on four charges of embezzlement in connection with dog tax accounts.

The inquisitorial body is expected to complete its deliberations tomorrow and will visit the county jail, poor house, county buildings and other county property. The group is expected to present its report for the term to Judge Charles W. Woodward tomorrow afternoon.

Dance Honors Johnson

Walter Johnson, former baseball star and county commissioner-elect for Montgomery County, will be guest of honor at a dance of the Montgomery County Young Republican Club Saturday night at National Woman's Country Club, according to an announcement by Ralph M. Seebold, chairman of the entertainment committee. The dance will be from 10 to 2.

Fair at Poolesville

The annual Poolesville Community Fair, sponsored by the Future Homemakers and the Future Farmers Club will be held at Poolesville High School today.

Entries must be in place today at 9 a. m. Miss Edythe Turner, county home demonstration agent, will judge household exhibits while farm exhibits will be judged by experts from the University of Maryland.

Bethesda Plans Library

Citizens of the Bethesda fire tax area have been invited to a meeting tomorrow at 8 p. m. at the Bethesda County Building to discuss plans for obtaining a public library for the Bethesda area. Howard P. Bailey, president of the Silver Spring Library Board, will talk.

Takoma Park Election

A nomination committee to select a slate of candidates for the coming year will be elected at a special meeting of the Young Men's Democratic Club of Takoma Park tomorrow at 8 p. m. in the Takoma firehouse.

J. Bond Smith, president of the club since its organization six years ago, announced yesterday that he would not accept nomination for re-election due to pressure of private business.

Yawkey Flynn, 13, 200 Del Ray avenue, Bethesda, achieved his lifetime ambition of becoming a fireman yesterday. Young Flynn extinguished a fire on the roof of his home with a garden hose before the Bethesda Volunteer Fire Department arrived.

Bethesda Woman Hurt

Mrs. Martha B. Dent, 58, 115 Northbrook lane, Bethesda, was injured yesterday when an automobile in which she was riding, operated by her son, Wade G. Dent, jr., 33, was in collision with an automobile operated by William F. Hughes, 17, 6308 Broad Branch road, Chevy Chase, Md., at the intersection of Raymond and Delaware streets, Chevy Chase. Mrs. Dent was taken to Emergency Hospital by the Bethesda Rescue Squad and treated for a broken right ankle. Both drivers were charged with reckless driving.

Firemen Aid Cripple

G. G. Gummel, full-time fireman in the Bethesda Volunteer Fire Department, is chairman of an impromptu committee which is collecting $120 to purchase a rolling chair for a crippled Bethesda youth, whose chair was wrecked by a woman motorist. Contributions may be made at the Bethesda Firehouse, on Old Georgetown road.

Clinic at Silver Spring

The Silver Spring Public Health Lay Committee will sponsor a child health conference today in the health center in the county building. The commitete is planning to hold its dental clinic for school children again this year. The clinic will begin early in January and continue for several months. Dental examinations are now being made in the schools preparatory to the opening of the clinic. Mrs. Thomas E. Wrathall is the new chairman of the lay committee, taking the place of Mrs. J. Audley Granger, who has resigned.

Meeting at Rockville

Roy S. Braden, town manager of Greenbelt, will be guest speaker at a luncheon of the Montgomery County League of Women Voters Friday at Hungerford Tavern, Rockville. Braden will discuss the county manager plan. Election will be held.

Assistance Cost Told

Officers of the Montgomery County Welfare Board have been re-elected as follows: Chairman, Fred L. Lutes; vice chairman, Mrs. B. Peyton Whalen and secretary-treasurer, Robert Miller. Rapid progress is being made in retiring the pending list of applications for assistance, Mrs. Dorothy M. Kurtz, executive secretary, reported. During October, 42 investigations were completed; 17 old age assistance grants and aid to six dependent children were approved at the November meeting of the board, and 19 applications were rejected or withdrawn.

Last month a total of $14,753.29 was expended by the welfare board. The cost of assisting 436 recipients of old age assistance totaled $7,964.80. One hundred and fifty-seven families or 454 children received aid at a cost of $4,839.14. Fifteen persons received aid to the needy blind.

Kensington Meeting

A group study "Our Children and Their Parents," featured the monthly meeting yesterday afternoon of the Kensington Parent-Teacher Association. Mrs. E. F. Davis was director. The program included readings by Mrs. Henry Clemons, of Charlottesville, Va., and music by the Parent-Teacher trio. Mrs. Herbert Schiefer presided.

Christmas Chairmen

Warren D. Haley yesterday resigned as chairman of the community Christmas celebration of the Takoma Park Chamber of Commerce, owing to pressure of business. The chairmanship was accepted by Robert Lyons.

Plans were made for a community Christmas tree at Laurel and Carroll avenues and a contest for lighting displays for merchants and residents.

Following are the chairmen and their committees: Tree lighting, Russell Lampson, chairman; Nickolas Bougades and Herman Hannauer; program, Leo Hubbard, chairman, Douglas Bradshaw, jr., and Warren D. Haley; publicity, Ralph Shure, chairman; Robert Lohr and John Coffman; prize, Robert Lyon, Arthur Hart and Charles Klinck.

Waters' Funeral Held

Funeral services for Charles Winfield Waters, 70, whose death occurred at the Montgomery County General Hospital, Sandy Spring, as a result of injuries when struck by an automobile near Gaithersburg Saturday night, were held yesterday at the funeral home of Ernest C. Gartner, Gaithersburg, the Rev. Norman O. Scribner, pastor of Epworth Methodist Church, Gaithersburg, officiating. Burial was in Rockville Union Cemetery.

Mr. Waters was a lifelong resident of Montgomery County. He leaves two sisters, Mrs. E. Virginia Virts, Gaithersburg, and Mrs. Ollie C. Baker, Rockville, and a brother, Arthur L. Waters, Washington.

Shelton Divorce Granted

Mrs. Martha E. Shelton, of Bethesda, has been granted a limited divorce by Judge Charles W. Woodward in the Circuit Court at Rockville from Maurice J. Shelton, of Denton, to whom, the petition stated, she was married in Washington March 4, 1926. The decree awards her custody of the couple's two children, Mary Frances and Ruth Allen.

Sale for St. Mary's

For the benefit of St. Mary's Catholic Church, Rockville, a food sale will be held Saturday in the store room on Montgomery avenue, Rockville, until recently occupied by Morris Stern. A committee of women of the church, headed by Mrs. Ethel Carr, will be in charge.

Homemakers to Meet

Mrs. Margaret McPheeters and Miss Marian Birdseye, nutrition specialist of the Maryland University Extension Service, will be guest speakers today at a meeting of the Homemakers at the home of Mrs. Women's Club at the home of Mrs. C. S. Snyder, 240 Walnut street northwest, at 1 p. m.

The Silver Spring Singers held their annual election last night at the home of their director, Mrs. Elizabeth Clayton Bacon, 8400 Woodside Parkway, Silver Spring.

Elected were W. W. Shumaker, president; Mrs. Warner B. Ragsdale, vice president; Mrs. Betty Ruth McDevitt, recording secretary; Mrs. John Gannaway, corresponding secretary; Charles Benedict, treasurer, and Mrs. H. Winkler, librarian.

The group of 35 mixed voices has begun rehearsals for a musical dramatization to be held in Silver Spring, January 20. Meetings are held each Tuesday at 8 p. m. Mrs. Bacon announced that there are vacancies for tenors in the chorus.

It was voted upon to exempt school students and unemployed persons from paying dues.

In a petition filed in the circuit court at Rockville, James L. Ward, of Bethesda, Md., asked an absolute divorce from Mrs. Glenna M. Ward, also of Bethesda. The couple were married in Washington, June 8, 1927, and have no children, the petition states. Attorney Kenneth Lyddane, of Rockville, represents the plaintiff.

Turkey at Bryantown

A turkey supper and bazaar will be held by members of St. Mary's Catholic Church, Bryantown, Md., from 4 to 8 p. m. Saturday, the Rev. Thomas J. McKew, pastor, announced yesterday.

TRICO
Radiator Covers
complete the beauty of well-furnished and decorated rooms, prevent radiator smudge and provide proper humidity. Reasonable prices—convenient terms.
Estimates Without Obligation.
FREDERIC B. BLACKBURN
5627 Georgia Ave. N.W.
Phone GEorgia 5627

Irritated Pores.

Resinol Ointment—effectively used over 40 years—gives the soothing medicated touch that causes soreness and hastens healing. Cleanse skin first with mild Resinol Soap.

Buy from your druggist today. For sample, send to Resinol, 10, Baltimore, Md.

RESINOL
SOAP AND OINTMENT

Swim in the Beautiful AMBASSADOR POOL
ILLUMINATED—PURIFIED
Cleaner than drinking water

ADMISSION ONLY 25¢
Includes towel, soap and individual locker.

Open, Monday to Friday incl., 1:30 to 10:30 P. M. Saturday and Sunday, 10 A. M. to 10:30 P. M.
Individual Swimming Instruction, 6 Lessons for $5.00.

AMBASSADOR HOTEL
Washington's Newest 800-Room Downtown Hotel . . . 14th at K

WHO WANTS MY NOSE?

Always Sniffling... Can't Smell... Can't Taste... Can't Enjoy Anything... Can't Breathe

Are you, too, a slave to the constant drip, drip, drip of sticky mucus trickling down your throat due to colds? Is it spoiling your enjoyment of life? Is its offensive choking making you feel miserable all over? Do you wake up in the morning with your nose and throat blocked with sticky phlegm? Get some Mentholatum. This is a comforting balm containing menthol, camphor, and soothing oils. Put a little in each nostril and rub it on the throat and chest. Happy relief quickly follows. Mentholatum helps prevent the gathering of mucus and aids in clearing the breathing passages. Its soothing vapors spread through the nose and throat reducing the irritation and helping Nature to restore a healthier condition. Ask your druggist for Mentholatum today. In jars or tubes, 30¢.

THE MAYFAIR,
A 19th Hole
FOR SHOPPERS

As close to the shopping district as the clubhouse is from the tee. Slip in at the close of a day's shopping—relax over a cocktail, you'll go home a refreshed and livelier person.

Jack—Beverly—Leo
Entertaining every afternoon and evening
Never a cover or minimum charge

The Nationally Known Mayfair
Cafe of all nations
13th at F

NEED HELP?

Use Post Want Ads For Quick Action

Has the Wages-And-Hours bill cut down your production? Use Post Want Ads to get more help quickly. Post Ads bring help the same day because they're read the first thing in the morning. Call

NATIONAL 4200

Post Want Ads

"THE WHISKEY WITHOUT REGRETS"
90 Proof, Blended Whiskey, 70% grain neutral spirits. Glenlyon Distillers, Inc., New York, N.Y. Distilleries located at Cedarhurst, Maryland and Lillingston Springs, Kentucky

YOU'RE MISSING SOMETHING—

Look for the GREEN RIVER label when you buy whiskey. It's a front-row ticket to today's big money's worth. Buy a bottle today and score with your purse as well as your palate.

make your next drink GREEN RIVER

$1.85 Quart

The Washington Post

Registered in U. S. Patent Office.

An Independent Newspaper.
(Published every day in the year.)

Eugene Meyer, Publisher.
Floyd R. Harrison, Comptroller.

The Associated Press is entitled exclusively to use for republication of all news dispatches credited to it or not otherwise credited in this paper and local news of spontaneous origin published herein. Rights of republication of all other matter herein are also reserved.

New York Office.....370 Madison Avenue
Chicago Office.....360 North Michigan Avenue

DELIVERED IN WASHINGTON
Daily, Sunday, 1 yr...$7.80 Daily, Sunday, 1 week 15c
Daily only, 1 yr.....5.20 Daily only, 1 week.....10c
Sunday only, 1 yr.....2.60 Sunday only, per copy..5c

BY MAIL—MARYLAND, VIRGINIA, WEST VIRGINIA AND NORTH CAROLINA

Daily and Sunday	Sunday Only	Daily Only
One year...$9.00	One year...$4.00	One year...$6.00
Six months...5.00	Six months...2.00	Six months...3.50
One month...85c	One month...40c	One month...60c

OTHER STATES, MEXICO AND CANADA

Daily and Sunday	Sunday Only	Daily Only
One year...$11.00	One year...$4.50	One year...$7.50
Six months...5.50	Six months...2.50	Six months...4.00
One month...1.00	One month...45c	One month...70c

All Subscriptions by Mail Payable in Advance.
Entered at the Postoffice Washington, D. C., as second-class mail matter.

TELEPHONE NATIONAL 4200.

Thursday, November 17, 1938.

Appeal To The States

Administrator Andrews has publicly and frankly admitted the inadequacy of the staff at his disposal to compel compliance with the terms of the Federal wage-hour law. Moreover, without a long series of court decisions it will be impossible for him to know where to draw the line between industries coming within the scope of the law and those that are intrastate. Hence, he has wisely appealed to representatives of the States in a meeting called by the Labor Department to co-operate in reporting violations of the law.

Even if Administrator Andrews had an imposing force of trained workers and abundant funds to finance his program, he would still be facing a task of appalling magnitude in trying to impose uniform standards upon numerous industries scattered throughout the United States. Without the co-operation of the local authorities he cannot hope to make much progress toward detection of law violations. And as certain State administrations resent the refusal of Congress to provide for regional differences in wages, the Federal authorities are likely to encounter hostility in some quarters.

The situation simply emphasizes the fact that regulatory legislation affecting wages and hours should be left to the individual States, or at least administration of the law should be decentralized and standards left flexible. The Federal Government, moreover, cannot constitutionally regulate purely intrastate labor. But the States individually and through co-operation among themselves can reach the great masses of workers and can do so more effectively than the Federal Government.

The troubles of Administrator Andrews are just beginning. It seems more than likely that longer experience will demonstrate the need for a new approach to the regulatory program upon which he has embarked with enthusiasm although with full knowledge of the difficulties of his task.

The British Pound

The prolonged and pronounced fall in sterling is a factor that could not have been ignored in negotiating the Anglo-American trade pact, the signing of which is scheduled for this afternoon. Under the circumstances special interest will be manifested in any provisions that may be incorporated for modifications of the agreement in case of sharp and unforeseen fluctuations in dollar-sterling exchange ratios.

Experts generally agree that the present weakness of sterling is due to a combination of factors likely to perpetuate and possibly intensify its weakness. At this season of the year sterling is normally under pressure because of increases in imports.

To this anticipated strain upon an always heavily adverse merchandise balance, there has now been added the burden of accelerated rearmament which acts in two ways to lower sterling exchange values. In the first place it increases purchases of foreign goods required for military use. And it also stimulates a flight of capital from the country, partly to avoid heavy taxes entailed by rearmament outlays and partly to escape the threat of loss which always hangs over a country which may become involved in war.

Sterling is, therefore, affected unfavorably by the pressure of commercial transactions as well as by an exodus of capital belonging both to British and foreign investors. In two months—September and October—over $900,000,000 of gold was shipped to the United States, with three-fourths of the total coming from Great Britain. While the rate of influx slackened following subsidence of the war panic, current political events have revived uneasiness.

Even in the event that France and other continental countries regain confidence in a peaceful solution of political problems, repatriation of continental capital would entail a continued drain upon London. Hence the rather general assumption that sterling is likely to remain depressed in relation to the dollar.

Under present unsettled conditions, international currency stabilization certainly seems highly improbable. However, experience has taught us that the hampering effects of exchange fluctuations are not an insurmountable barrier to trade expansion. And in these days, with nations arming feverishly for defense or aggression, many kinds of trade flourish regardless of the handicaps of fluctuating exchange rates.

French Justice

The presence of excellent motives does not insure that actions springing therefrom will be immune from undesirable consequences. And this truism may well prove applicable to Dorothy Thompson's "appeal for funds to finance the defense of Herschell Grynzspan."

It would be most unfortunate should this generous gesture lead the French to believe that Americans are even inferentially criticizing the impartiality and integrity of their judicial system. Yet such an inference is almost inescapable when the stated objective of the appeal is to provide for the murderer of Herr vom Rath "the best available lawyer or corps of lawyers in France." This implies that money is able to influence the conduct of justice in the French courts.

Miss Thompson is certainly careful to emphasize that "our effort throws no reflection whatsoever on the will of the French people as a whole to have this trial conducted according to the traditional French principles of justice and fair play." But she also emphasizes a suspicion of "tremendous pressure which may be exerted" in the forthcoming trial. Americans would resent a French intimation that political pressures could affect the conduct of justice in our courts. It will be due to the generosity of the French if they are not as offended as we should be in a similar instance.

President Roosevelt, speaking for the Nation as a whole, has splendidly summarized the deep-seated American indignation over "the news of the past few days from Germany." It is vital that this indignation should be directed into helpful and constructive channels, efficacious in stopping Nazi brutality and in strengthening the hands of all opposed to it.

Intimations that the French courts are somehow subject to improper influences, and need American intervention to make the balance of justice even-handed, will not be efficacious in this direction. Indeed they invite a tart suggestion that we mind our own business.

The Nazi persecutions of racial and religious minorities constitute our business, and that of the whole civilized world. We should—we must—do all that is possible to see that such outrages are stopped and permanently stopped. But conduct by the French of the trial of Herschell Grynzspan is not our business.

We should not let our sense of proportion be obscured by the fact that his crime was made the excuse for touching off an orgy of calculated brutality in Germany. To handle the crime as a crime is the duty of the French courts. To handle the Nazi menace as a menace is the problem of the United States, of France and of many other countries. Precisely because the menace is so real the handling must be intelligent.

When all is said and done an individual crime remains a crime. Justice, in the larger sense, can never be served by pretending otherwise. The French know this as well as anybody and better than most. Their courts, it is fair and proper to conclude, will be impervious to pressures from Nazi Germany or any other country.

For Mutual Defense

Coming on the eve of the Lima conference, President Roosevelt's announcement that the United States is thinking of our defense problem in terms of the entire Western Hemisphere is of the very highest importance. It gives emphasis to the growing belief that the Lima parley may prove of epochal importance in the history of the Americas.

Yet, revolutionary as it sounds, the President's statement of policy contains no essential surprises. Though admittedly inspired by developments which have compelled all the nations of the New World to consider the possibility of aggression from overseas, the new policy is, in essence, one of America's oldest. The germs of it are to be found in the Monroe Doctrine.

At Buenos Aires three years ago the Monroe Doctrine, up to then a unilateral declaration of policy by the United States, was generalized. The 21 republics of this hemisphere then agreed that any threat to the peace of one of the American republics is a threat to the peace of all of them. It was also agreed that in the case of such a threat immediate joint consultation would be essential.

Since then the threat of aggression has increased rather than diminished. It stands to reason, therefore, that a provision for joint consultation is no longer enough. The necessities of the times make it peremptory on all New World nations to plan for common action for the purpose of common defense, in other words to dovetail their defense programs. And while Canada was not represented at Buenos Aires, and will not be represented at Lima, Mr. Roosevelt's Kingston speech earlier this year, and the very favorable response it received from all sections of Canadian and American opinion, suggest that Canada is not averse to participating in this enlargement of the Monroe Doctrine.

The unanswered question is to what extent the views which Mr. Roosevelt has expounded will meet with the full acceptance of the other countries on this side of the water. But none of them can escape the implications of the world situation which have thrown the Americas upon themselves and have also tended to emphasize the interdependence of the 21 republics and Canada.

A Cabinet Shift

References to members of the Cabinet as the President's official family symbolize the close personal relations existing between the Chief Executive and his department heads. Cabinet officers are personal advisers, useful only so long as their views are in accord with those of the President or so long as they enjoy his confidence sufficiently to influence his actions.

The extent to which a Cabinet member is able to determine departmental policies depends both upon legislative restrictions and upon the attitude of the President himself. Some Presidents are temperamentally disposed to seek advice and follow it, thereby throwing vast responsibility upon the shoulders of their subordinates.

President Roosevelt is not that type of Chief Executive. When he assumed office, in the midst of an acute economic crisis, he asked and received from Congress discretionary powers greater than those ever before exercised by a President in time of peace. During succeeding years, his administration has continued to be characterized by an unusual degree of centralized control. This has tended to dwarf the stature of Cabinet members.

Under these conditions it is especially difficult to appraise the record of Attorney General Cummings—the first member of his original Cabinet to announce volitional retirement. During his tenure of office it has fallen to the lot of Mr. Cummings to defend numerous New Deal measures of a radical sort against charges of unconstitutionality. None the less he has acquired the reputation of exercising a restraining influence upon the Administration's attitude toward business. That is the only hypothesis which explains why certain industrial interests view with alarm the return of Mr. Cummings to private life. There is widespread fear that his successor—whoever he may be—is likely to employ the anti-trust laws to force fundamental changes in accepted business practices.

The Department of Justice performs varied important functions in the field of law enforcement, but the anti-trust laws are a type of legislation that calls especially for the exercise of good judgment rather than mere prosecuting zeal. It is in this field that the department can do a great deal to assist or retard industrial progress.

If the successor to Mr. Cummings relies upon persuasion and peaceful agreement to reform business practices not in the public interest, we can have effective enforcement of the laws against unfair and monopolistic practices with a minimum amount of economic disturbance. If, on the other hand, the next Attorney General embarks upon a crusade to make the anti-trust laws an instrumentality for radical changes in approved and established business practices, there will be grave danger of a setback to recovery.

Carol In London

Times have changed. Not very long ago King Carol of Rumania was decidedly persona non grata in Great Britain. The court of the late King George V and Queen Mary was shocked by his conduct and the doors of Buckingham Palace were closed to the "playboy of the Balkans."

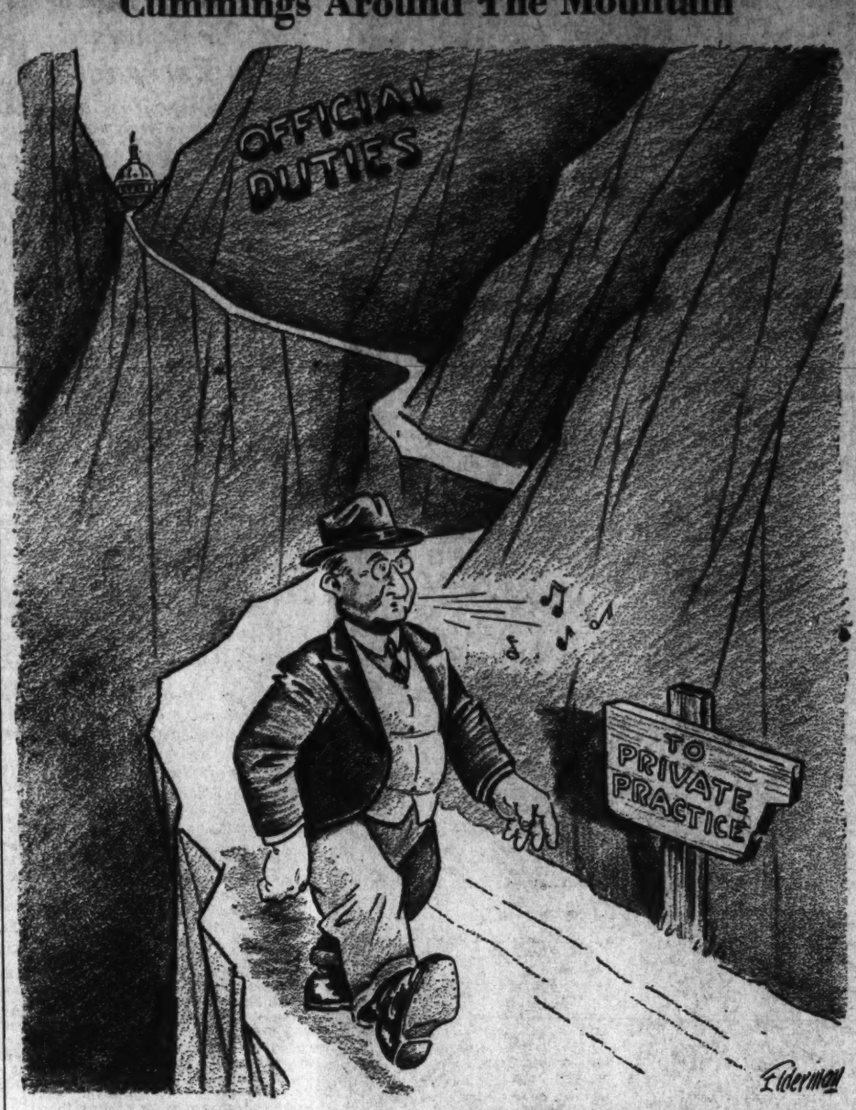
Carol is a playboy no longer. Recently he has been devoting himself very assiduously to the difficult job of being a monarch and that task is not made any easier by current European developments. As a result of the partitioning of Czechoslovakia and the expansion of Germany to the southeast, Rumania finds herself in a very difficult position.

Potentially the richest of the Balkan countries, Rumania's borders include many of the primary products that the Third Reich desperately needs. There are vast grainlands, great timber resources, a wealth of minerals and, above all, oil. But to a very considerable degree these resources are as yet undeveloped. Capital and technical skill have alike been lacking.

Carol realizes that if Nazi representatives lay hands on these riches Rumania's independence will become largely nominal. He also realizes that Rumania needs assistance if Germany is not to dominate her economic life. Therefore, his visit to London, and the frank request for British financial and economic assistance which he made there yesterday.

It is to Britain's interests to build up trade with Rumania, and to share in the development of Rumania's latent wealth. So it can be assumed that Carol's Guildhall speech had many attentive listeners, attracted much more by the King's outlook on the future than by his escapades in the past.

Cummings Around The Mountain



Letters to the Editor

All communications must carry the writer's name and address, though pen names are permitted at the Editor's discretion. In fairness to other correspondents, brevity is requested. Letters are subject to condensation.

What Bryce Said

To the Editor of The Post—Sir: Whatever those in this country who desired war by Great Britain and France on Germany and Italy to "save" the Czechs from "rape" may now think about the wisdom of the action of Premier Chamberlain in at least preventing war in the whole of Europe for the time being, certainly the dramatic war scare in this country Sunday night, October 30, put on by an overdramatic dramatist via radio leaves the feeling that perhaps most of the people of Great Britain and France were acting very sanely when they praised Chamberlain—and our own Ambassador Kennedy.

Now, today, war in Europe is far removed as a possibility for years to come. Chamberlain has made it possible for the leaders of Great Britain, Germany, France and Italy to sit down together in conference to revise the map of Europe peacefully, if not altogether satisfactorily to everybody concerned.

This conference may lead to a concerted plan on the part of these nations to take joint action in Eastern Asia for the protection of the Chinese and to safeguard the interests of other nations in Asia. Certainly this would be more sensible than the petty quarrels between these four nations over "who is what" in and around the Mediterranean.

It is my impression that most of the people of the United States have been fed up on "saving democracy in Europe," although, of course, regretting the sacrifice which had to be made by other nations and other races, in this inevitable scramble for a revision of the treaty of peace and the League of Nations.

I have just finished re-reading "The Holy Roman Empire," by James Bryce, written in the 1870's. Perhaps for a hundred times in the period covered by the work, everything was settled permanently. But change is the only permanent thing. It might be well if the youth of today read the story as Bryce tells it.

GROVER AYERS.
Washington, Oct. 31.

Arrest 'Em

To the Editor of The Post—Sir: To arrest pedestrians who jaywalk or cross against the lights is highly advisable. It causes pedestrians to cross all together. No sober driver will run into a group.

In case a pedestrian is run down, he collects damages more easily. He has plenty of witnesses, including the always available traffic officer, to testify for him that he was on the crosswalk and crossing with the lights.

Washington streets would lose most of their terror. When pedestrians move all together, automobiles are compelled to do the same.

I am a pedestrian. I don't drive and never did. Also, when I was practicing law, I tried many street accident cases and never failed to set up or to encounter the defense of contributory negligence.

THOMAS McMORROW.
Washington, Nov. 8.

More Jefferson Memorial Protests

To the Editor of The Post—Sir: If any of your readers failed to read the "Jefferson Memorial Scheme" by Mrs. Charles Edward Russell in your issue of November 15, I suggest that he buy a copy at once. Why bury money or concrete 90 feet below the mud line, when the same money can be used in the construction of a memorial above ground upon any one of 50 more suitable sites?

Let's be specific for a few minutes. If you are interested, take a taxi to the loop at the Virginia end of the Key Bridge. You are then at the foot of a slope which rises to a flat field several hundred feet above the river—giving a commanding view unobstructed up and down the river; also of the dome of the Capitol and the Washington Monument, unless the fog is too thick. On clear days you can see the mountains of two States clearly. A few years ago this hill was offered for 15 cents per square foot, and no doubt it could be bought for the same price today, if the few inexpensive two-story houses and frame bungalows were bought under Federal condemnation laws.

Ordinary footings, at this site, will support the heaviest type of buildings at ordinary cellar depth without going through 90 feet of mud to reach a suitable supporting stratum of gravel.

A few inexpensive tests with steel drills will prove the above statement and they can also be verified by examining the gravel slopes and outcroppings where the road builders have made deep cuts through the hill.

Too many of our fine structures are placed too near flooded areas, so that the landscaping in some cases had to be dug up, in great haste, to protect the buildings by formation of earth dykes along the entrances. Your own photographs within the last two years will prove this to be a fact.

Rome was built upon hills, history tells us. Then why do we in Washington ignore history and good judgment—and select the swamps or lowest places we can find on which to erect some of our gems of architecture and engineering?

C. H. UMSTEAD.
Washington, Nov. 15.

To the Editor of The Post—Sir: Anent the Jefferson Memorial and the threatened destruction of the elm and cherry trees: Many years ago the authorities in Gainesville, Fla., decided to destroy a double row of more than a century old magnificent oak trees bordering a street in that beautiful little city. Protests of civic and women's organizations were of no avail, but on the day appointed for the beginning of the vandalism the women, armed with shotguns, beat the cutting crews to the scene. The women dared the workmen to lay a single ax on a single tree. These oaks still stand in that Gainesville street.

BYRON McG. WEST.
Jacksonville, Fla., Nov. 15.

To the Editor of The Post—Sir: I would like to express my personal protest against the demolishing of our beautiful cherry trees in order to put a pile of marble as a memorial to Thomas Jefferson, who (if I read his history aright), would bitterly oppose such a thing.

With the world in such great need of substantial memorials which will help the living, I cannot understand our Congress or any committee being willing to spend millions in this way.

I am sure you will be deluged with people objecting, so I will say no more; except to hope that through your splendid paper something worth while may be done and desecration may be avoided.

MRS. HENRY ALVAH STRONG.
Washington, Nov. 15.

Dies And Roosevelt

To the Editor of The Post—Sir: The letter in The Post of October 29 by "Southerner" has prompted me to write this letter and I am going to express my views as another "Southerner" from deep into Virginia, while I reside in Maryland at present.

"Southerner" takes Representative Dies to task for trying to smear the Administration. The real truth in the matter is that the honest investigation being conducted by Chairman Dies is finding its way right up to the root of the whole evil, which is the communistic workings of this raw deal which is called New Deal. Mr. Roosevelt has done more to stir up trouble in this country than all the Presidents before him, and the very worst thing he could have done he did when he started out to force every workingman into some union, most of which are dominated and controlled by the radicals from the ends of the earth. With all his claims of democracy, his way of doing things would indicate that he is more nearly a Communist. "Southerner" goes on to say that the so-called investigation is witch hunting. Well, I do hope they keep on hunting until they find all the witches hidden in this new raw deal, for I am sure there are some very witchy witches in is ranks.

And he also sees spies and former convicts among the witnesses before the committee. I also can see spies among the strikers. He also makes a reference to Catholic labor leaders, as if being a Catholic would render a man immune from any wrongdoing. But why should a man's religion be brought into this argument? I suppose among the righteous labor leaders one could find men of all faiths. There is a lot that could be said on the subject, but I think a man's religion is a duty he owes to God and not man. The thought I want to convey is that Mr. Roosevelt is like a man being pursued by bloodhounds and when the dogs get close upon him he gets scared and begins to holler.

Stop the investigation until after the election is over! What a plea! No; keep up the good work and, instead of deporting men like Mr. Dies, get rid of the more subtle enemies in higher places.

ANOTHER SOUTHERNER.
Washington, Nov. 1.

New Baltimore Highway

To the Editor of The Post—Sir: I heard with interest Gov. Nice's nice dream of a high-speed highway between Baltimore and Washington; of a dream of a $10,000,000 bridge which would cost taxpayers nothing.

At $1 a car, it would take 10,000,000 cars to pay for construction of the bridge alone. Six million cars pass annually over the Baltimore-Washington boulevard, but 40 per cent belong strictly to local and commuter traffic; at least 20 per cent are trucks, and not an overwhelming majority of the remaining 40 per cent would pay $1 and drive 5 miles extra to save 20 minutes.

If I am correctly informed, the entire Baltimore-Washington boulevard could be lighted with the most modern type of luminaires for $100,000, and an additional $50,000 would pay for all resurfacing, shortening of curves and widening of bridges.

Obviously, the public pays for bridges and highways whether passage over them is free or under toll. You can't get something for nothing.

History of toll bridges in Maryland and between Maryland and other States indicates that after a time of unprofitable operation in private hands the property is acquired by the State with taxpayers' money at a profit to the concessionaires. It may be supposed that bondholders of the defunct W., B. & A. are not donating their right of way to the State.

LORIN BROWN.
Laurel, Md., Nov. 8.

The Post Impressionist

Country Weekly

IT ARRIVES Monday morning (having been published the Friday before) and broom and mop stand idle, the grocery list goes unchecked, while I read the eight pages.

It is no typographic beauty, The Clarion. The type is heterogeneous; the news items are scattered about as if sown broadcast, as a farmer sows oats. No particular scheme of make-up is followed by the editor, and he is totally oblivious to the fact that page one is sacred to the newsmen of cities and reserved for Nation-rocking events.

The Clarion's page one is (like the primrose) that and nothing more to the man who guides the destiny of this eight-page sheet. Thus I find the front page this week devoted to the meetings of the ten circles of a local church, whose membership is solely feminine; while a lively slice of social jottings from the Pine Hill section rubs its hickory-shirted shoulders amiably with cards of thanks and advertisements of syrup buckets from the town's lone hardware store.

He is a leisurely person, the editor, his demeanor and attitude the exact opposite of the city reporter whose sole mission in life is to get the facts and get them as quickly as possible. No such ambition motivates the Clarion. If he fails to write the story of the fire that destroyed Mrs. Tom Brown's house last Tuesday, in time for this week's edition—what matter? He will include it the next, and neither Mrs. Brown or any of the townsfolk will take it amiss.

As for journalistic style our editor steers a meandering course between all human events without recourse to those verbal forms most acceptable to his city colleague. The "five W's," the "it is alleged" and the "according to Mr. Blanks" are dispensed with as so much waste of white paper.

Instead, we have a warm and sunny pen that dips in friendly ink and jots down the most trivial happenings with a point that is tipped with kindly interest and sincere neighborly feelings. I find myself reading a birth announcement written in a manner that must have brought joy to the parent's hearts.

"Mr. and Mrs. Earl Smith are all smiles this week and there is a reason. They became the proud parents of a bouncing baby boy who arrived to gladden their home last Saturday. Congratulation, Earl."

Sympathetic notations of illnesses are always made, the ailing ones reported as being on "the sick list", and the editor adds that he hopes they will soon "be up." Then, when in the course of human events, the invalid recovers, this too, is worthy of mention: "Mr. Greenleaf Hill is out again after a few weeks' illness that kept him confined to his home, and was busy shaking hands with his many friends on Main street yesterday, who were glad to see him out again."

When he has to record a death, there is none of the cut and dried wordings such as characterize the city obituary.

"The Death Angel," our editor will record, "visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hewes last Wednesday night and bore away the gentle spirit of Mr. Hewes' father, aged 69 years. All was done that loving hands could do but God in His wisdom saw fit to end his sufferings and call him to His eternal Home. To the bereaved children I say, weep not, for your loved one is at rest." Sometimes these obituaries are rounded out with a bit of verse, homespun it is true, but treasured gems to the family who clip and preserve the consoling messages:

"Farewell, dear Fanny, but not forever,
Death will not always sever;
We'll meet again in the bliss on High,
We'll meet you again in the Sweet Bye and Bye!"

Social gaieties are dealt with in a mood that is both attentive as to detail and impartial in accrediting all such functions as events of charm and distinction.

"A delightful affair of the past week was the tea given by Mrs. Harry Hall. The rooms of her spacious home were opened en suite and were radiant with a profusion of flowers of many glowing shades. The tea table was covered by a handsome lace cloth and centered by a cut glass bowl filled with red roses." Then follows a meticulous mention of all guests and the story closes amid a welter of adjectives when the editor calls the roll of the refreshments; each delicacy is proceeded by "tempting," "dainty," "delicious," and "delightful." Now Mrs. Hall's house is a relict of the gay 90's, it is dark and gloomy, and opened en suite means that the old-fashioned sliding doors were pushed apart; the flowers were picked in the garden and were probably zinnias and Spanish cosmos, but who can deny that the tea was not an event of the first water after reading the Clarion?

This is the letter written in appreciation of the paper, especially when accompanied by a dollar renewing the reader's subscription.

"I always look forward to receiving the Clarion for it seems I cannot do without it. It is just like a letter from home each week," writes Mrs. Essie Jones, a renewal. I can do no less than add that I echo her sentiments.

LAURIE HAVRON.

Fair Enough

By Westbrook Pegler

This Nazi Thing

IT IS NO MORE possible to argue with the Nazi state of mind than with the germ of some foul disease. It must be considered as a thing no more capable of reason or decency than dirt. Civilized human beings find it offensive even as a topic of discussion, but must discuss it because it is there, swollen and horrible to sight, smell and intelligence, right outside the window of the homes of the human race and beginning to spread disease.

PEGLER

In this vein, and not as an appeal to the nonexistent reason of the thing, human beings must discuss its offensiveness and speculate on means of protecting themselves from its pervading stench and the dangers emanating from a rotting object in the street.

THIS THING thinks that it is God and that all the creatures which crawl in it partake of Godliness, while the members of the human race, being outside Nazidom, are vermin to be subdued, sickened and destroyed by the germs which it gives off. It has called this country a nation of gangsters and boasted of its discipline and then has ordered out mobs to murder, loot and burn, offering the excuse that the disciplined, nongangster state was unable to control the rioters and maintain internal order.

This country has had a few isolated, spontaneous mishaps of the same kind in Chicago, Springfield and Atlanta, but with the difference that the government in all such cases promptly leaped into the fight to quell the rioting and restore order.

THIS NAZI THING for some time had been planning the final act in the debasement of the German nation, the reintroduction of human slavery in a country which once could make honest boast of its intelligence and civilization. The assassination of one of its agents by a young hero in Paris was not the cause but the pretext.

If this had been an outburst of uncontrollable public indignation it would have happened three years ago, when another desperate victim of its tortures killed one of its agents in Switzerland. The indignation was well controlled that time, however, because the Nazi thing was not yet ready to stage the act.

THE THING CALLS its victims all Communists in one breath and in the next speaks of them as greedy capitalists. It cries "Coward!" at an utterly desperate waif in the world who invited death to strike one blow, but sees bravery in the hounding and scourging of unarmed, helpless, hopeless, starving people by mobs operating without risk under the direction of its police and troops.

It cries "Gangster!" at the American Nation and pleads helplessness when mobs stone two cardinals in their homes, smash and loot and throw a priest out of a window to his death.

THIS NAZI THING set adrift in a river a barge loaded with its victims and laughed uproariously as they were stoned from shore to shore, threatened with death by beating wherever they should land and with death by starvation and exposure if they didn't land. It has made human beings prowl in a field on all fours, like beasts, to cut the grass by nibbling it with their teeth and has found humor in that.

It has torn families apart and stoned them away in all directions, never to be reunited or know a day's peace again in this world, and forbidden fathers even beseech, much less to work, for food, warmth or medicine for their children.

THIS THING has infected the Italian nation and has even exported its pestilence to this country through its bunds, while from Germany it reviles the very people whom the bunds are ordered to seduce. It has armed beyond any other power in the world and mobilized 1,500,000 men to crush an independent nation, but has denounced this country as a warmaker because the United States has decided to repair its defenses.

And yet, between the lines from Germany at the height of the terrors, there were hidden away little hints that some of the German people still remain human beings. Some were arrested, the dispatches said, for daring to express pity for the victims and alarm for German civilization.

A GERMAN WOMAN was beaten up for a murmured objection. So there is ground for hoping that if the force were removed the decent element by example, influence and law would lead the race back to civilization and bury the thing in shame.

The American Steuben societies purport to cherish Americanism while preserving their cultural heritage. That heritage is almost destroyed in Germany and is in much more urgent need of preservation there than here. The Steuben societies have spoken out courageously on persecution many times, but if there ever was a time for them to denounce it and defend their heritage the time is now and Germany is the place in which to make themselves heard.

Copyright, 1938, for The Washington Post.

Etiquette Politique

(Those wives of newly elected Senators and Representatives—who have so far lived only in smallish towns—are already viewing with pleasure mixed with alarm their advent in Washington—where society is ruled by a rigid etiquette internationally flavored.)

Now that she'll live in the capital city ranging its splendors beside the Potomac, she will want clothes so correct and so pretty, and cry to her husband, "How soon do we go, Mac?" What shall she wear to an afternoon party—formal, informal—but which is at fait? What if the other wives think her too smarty for sporting an opera cloak at a soiree?

If she's invited to meet the Ambassador spending his gold for the bad Soviet, should she not snootily, brutally pass a door offering vodka internationally wet? Ah, when she's bidden to tea at the White House that's held up by pediment, pillar and corbel, can she be positive it is the right house where you don't trumpet, but push on the doorbell?

Think of the noblemen proudly Brazilian when she attends an affair diplomatic! Shall she appear in a cape that's Castilian, or in a reefer that's quite democratic? While she is waiting to go in to dinner, dare she swap jokes with an old Supreme Courter? What is good form if the venerable sinner offers her bitters and gin for a snorter?

Oh, for an etiquette really oracular, proving her pop didn't land with the steerage! Else she may slip into fearful vernacular, saying "Hi toots!" to the visiting peerage.

From the Chicago Daily News.

The New Nazi Outrages

More Readers Express Their Opinions

Renunciation

To the Editor of The Post—Sir:

I, Henrich von Moltke, kin of the Von Moltkes that bore the arms of Prussia in 1914 and 1870, renounce all that is German in me today, until my people have restored Germany to the throne of enlightenment she enjoyed prior to the ascendancy of the foreign element that now holds her in bondage and who, in the name of Germany, have committed the abominable crimes for which she stands condemned today.

I renounce the German in me and I renounce the heritage that has made me proud throughout my life. I denounce all that is German and with it cast from my heart the pride of one descended from those who defied the legions of Rome at Teutoberg Wood—all in the name of liberty. I cast from me as though it had grown into something loathsome the birthright of a German.

I renounce my German birthright—not because that which is German has degenerated but because my people no longer strive for German Kultur; because they have suffered themselves to become so dominated by the moronic element of nazism as to no longer deserve the civilization of mankind.

HENRICH VON MOLTKE.
Washington, Nov. 15.

Emerson On Persecutions

To the Editor of The Post—Sir:

I wonder how many of your readers are familiar with the following extract from Emerson's Essay on Compensation. It is very much to the point at present.

"The history of persecution is a history of endeavors to cheat nature, to make water run up hill, to twist a rope of sand. It makes no difference whether the actors be many or one, a tyrant or a mob. A mob is a society of bodies voluntarily bereaving themselves of reason and traversing its work. The mob is man voluntarily descending to the nature of the beast. Its fit hour of activity is night. Its actions are insane like its whole constitution. It persecutes a principle; it would whip a right; it would tar and feather justice by inflicting fire and outrage upon the houses and persons of those who have these. It resembles the prank of boys who run fire engines to put out the ruddy aurora streaming to the stars. The inviolate spirit turns their spite against the wrongdoers. The martyr cannot be dishonored. Every lash inflicted is a tongue of fame; every prison a more illustrious abode; every burned book or house enlightens the world; every suppressed or expunged word reverberates through the earth from side to side. The minds of men are at last aroused; reason looks out and justifies her own, and a malice finds all her work vain. It is the whipper who is whipped, and the tyrant who is undone."

CHARLES E. CROSS.
Washington, Nov. 15.

Satanic Political Organisms

To the Editor of The Post—Sir:

Your editorial of November 13, "Basically Antagonistic," is one of the ablest of the many able editorials you have published—with some of which, as you know, I have differed emphatically, although always recognizing their high literary standard. There is, however, no difference of opinion between us regarding the opinions expressed in the mentioned editorial, or if there are any, they are merely over phraseology.

America—and the democratic and civilized world—stands aghast at the governmental cannibalism which is Hitlerism. The organized fiendishness and ferocity that the heartless and fanatical Nazi dictator today directs against the suffering Jews may tomorrow be directed against some other minority, and undoubtedly it will be. The tyranny of the Kaiser was child's play in comparison with the systematic sadism now being practiced by the world's chief exponent of oppression.

Yes, America—and the democratic and civilized world—stands aghast. But it is not enough to stand aghast. There must be collective action and economic pressure swiftly and energetically.

The monster of nazi-ism—it is but a matter of terminology whether we characterize it fascism or nazi-ism—glares in our eyes and is only awaiting the opportune moment to pounce upon other prey even as it now fastens its teeth in the throat of the Jewish people. I considered American participation in the last war a grave mistake and a bloody blunder. I have not changed my mind as to that. It cannot now be denied that the conflict between the Allies and the Central Powers was mainly commercial.

I hope that in 1938, 20 years later, we may be spared the destiny of entering another military conflict. With President Roosevelt, "I hate war." By all means, let us use collective action and economic pressure to the fullest extent before we go further. But if the monster of nazi-ism thrusts a single one of his cruel claws into democratic America, the time for peace will have passed and the hour will have come for the monster's extermination by American democracy in co-operation with world democracy. In such a crisis we must "stand at Armageddon" and battle to save civilization from being devoured by the satanic political organism known both as nazi-ism and fascism.

LINN A. E. GALE.
Washington, Nov. 15.

Hitler's Fallacy

To the Editor of The Post—Sir:

Hitler claims that all of his persecutions to non-Aryans and his other persecutions are prompted by the desire to bring fame and honor to the fatherland and his race. By his recent activities, Hitler is only bringing reproach, hatred and abhorrence upon his beloved race and country.

If he is seeking a respectable place in the hearts of all countries, he is failing miserably and will continue to do so in the future if he adheres to his present-day tactics.

Hitler is bound to learn some day. Remember, that democracy, combined with Christianity, is greater than all of the isms," and will continue to be so in days to come.

RUTH JOSEPHINE ANDERSON.
Washington, Nov. 14.

The King Resolution

To the Editor of The Post—Sir:

Several years ago, shortly after Nazi Germany began her vicious campaign to prove her "Aryan superiority," a mass protest meeting was held at the Belasco Theatre. One of the speakers that evening was Senator King and during his humanitarian address he made the statement that if Germany did not cease her persecution of helpless minorities, he would not hesitate to introduce a resolution in the United States Senate to sever diplomatic relations with Germany.

Far from ceasing this persecution, Germany has increased its violence and savagery in a geometric progression until the entire world today stands aghast, almost unbelieving that such cruelty and sadistic hatred can exist in human beings.

If an individual exhibited the characteristics possessed by Nazi Germany today, no self-respecting person would choose to associate with him. Why, then, should our country continue to have "friendly" relations with Germany? The newspapers show the temper of the American people—let the Nation's leaders follow it up. The time is more than ripe for Senator King's resolution.

S. J. ROSENBERG.
Washington, Nov. 14.

Usurping Fanatics

To the Editor of The Post—Sir:

The Hitler government should be overthrown and the peace-loving, orderly German people freed from the tyranny and folly of a usurping group of fanatics who achieved their present power in Germany only by a treason to the constitution of the German Republic.

In order to effect this overthrow the governments of the democratic nations should immediately refuse to recognize the Hitler government as the legal government of the German people. They should break off all diplomatic relations with the Hitler government and close all German frontiers to trade and transportation of all kinds.

We must make it clear to the German people that no democratic nation will fight against them but that we must overthrow a group of fanatics who are betraying Germany in an even more stupid and vicious way than did the old imperial government of the Hohenzollerns.

The recent outburst of ordered destruction of property owned by Germans is a flagrant form of brigandage which finally deprives the Hitler government of any claims to the respect and trust of civilized people both within and outside of Germany. And if military force is going to be necessary to overthrow such a travesty of a government then the United States should be ready to do its share.

CHARLES TUTTLE.
Washington, Nov. 14.

Jewish Self-Determination

To the Editor of The Post—Sir:

Not long ago when Adolf Hitler wanted to grab a marginal slice of Czechoslovakia, he was strong for the "self-determination of minorities," so he took the Sudetens into his own country. What is he doing about the "self determination" of the Jewish minority now in his own country? Even those who want to leave cannot get out—unless they leave most of their possessions behind them!

It would seem a great act of folly to place crowds of innocent and helpless members of the Jewish race in concentration camps, where they will be a charge on the state, instead of allowing them their right to pursue an honest living at their various lawful pursuits, in a country in which they most unfortunately have been born or reared. No wonder the voices of decent peoples of other countries are raised in intense protest against the brutal and outrageous treatment he is meting out to the Jewish race within his borders!

He thinks our land is a "country of gangsters." Our police authorities are taking care of most of them, and certainly are not aiding them. Our gangsters have never gone to the lengths German hoodlums have gone in the destruction of places of worship or private dwellings, or shops.

Just how would Adolf relish the situation of our treating our German citizens as he is treating the Jews because one crime in our country was committed by a German?

The Most Rev. Dr. Curley must be about right—the tyrant over the German people must be a "madman!"

H. BRADFORD.
Bethesda, Md., Nov. 14.

Looks To The President

To the Editor of The Post—Sir:

As a citizen of this country, I strongly protest against the inhuman and intolerable treatment and persecution of the Jewish people in Germany.

As the head of this Nation, we look to the President of the United States to extend relief and aid to people in distress without delay, and to employ whatever means possible to curtail business relations with this country. Also seek to establish refugee aid with Great Britain, France and other powers immediately.

ETHEL ABRAMS.
Washington, Nov. 14.

Off the Record

By Ed Reed

"Who are all these people? I thought you had a private room!"

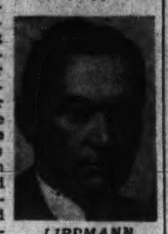
Can the U. S. keep the foreign dictatorships from invading our half of the world? Read Leland Stowe's article in Sunday's Post on the vital problems of the coming Pan-American Conference.

Today And Tomorrow

By Walter Lippmann

The Problem Of The Refugees

THE PROBLEM of refugees has passed far beyond the scope of charity and private compassion, and if there is to be any approach to a statesmanlike solution, we must look at it coolly and in clear perspective. For though at the moment the problem seems to turn upon the calculated suffering being inflicted upon the helpless Jews within Germany, the problem will soon involve, in fact it has already begun to involve, ethnic minorities of all kinds, Poles, Ruthenians, Hungarians, Czechs, Slovaks, as well as Jews, in that whole region of central Europe which at Munich was opened to Nazi dominion. We are witnessing a phenomenon like that in the great migrations of the fourth century, when, under the fierce pressure of the Huns behind them, the tribes of central Europe were pushed through the boundaries of the Roman Empire.



LIPPMANN.

THOUGH THE CRUEL injustice of the Nazis is unique in the history of modern nations, the necessity for massive emigration out of central Europe has existed for nearly a century. The reason is clear enough. From the sixth century to the nineteenth century, the total population did not rise above 180,000,000. It was kept down by great epidemics like the black death, by a very high rate of infant mortality, by diseases that modern science and public health administration have since learned to prevent, and perhaps by biological causes that are quite obscure.

But after the year 1800 the population of Europe grew suddenly at a startling rate and by 1914 it had become 460 millions. The older Europe could obviously never have supported such a population. But in the nineteenth century two fundamental things made it possible not only to support such an increase of the European population, but to support it in increasing comfort. The first of these was the industrial revolution and the world-wide division of labor under free trade; the other was the opening up to settlement by Europeans of the virgin lands of the Western Hemisphere. Europe lived by exporting manufactured goods, pioneer farmers, and artisans.

THE WORLD WAR marked the end of the regime of free trade and the end of the possibility of free migration. At once central Europe became greatly overcrowded, particularly overcrowded in its cities. For the people of the cities, and this, of course, included most of the central European Jews, depended for their existence at their customary standard of life upon a volume of international trade that was continually contracted in the postwar period. Immediately there were too many urban people, too many shopkeepers, too many professional men, too many artists and intellectuals, all in fierce competition for the narrowing opportunities of Europe. And there was no settled and temperate region of the earth open to these urban people, long divorced from the soil and so unfitted by generations of urban existence for the life of pioneers in a wilderness.

The problem of the refugees is, therefore, a problem of adapting masses of urban people to the life of the pioneer in undeveloped countries. For it is as impossible in the twentieth century, as it has been in any other century, to move masses of people from the overcrowded cities of one nation to the overcrowded cities of another. That can be done for individuals. But for masses the only possible emigration is from the crowded to the uncrowded regions of the earth.

IF MIGRATION of this sort is to be possible at all, if what we see in Germany today is not to end in slavery and massacre, the migration will have to be organized with the full and active cooperation of the great colonial powers. For they alone have sovereignty over territory into which mass migration is possible, and the only moral justification for empire is that it opens up the backward and empty regions of the earth to settlement.

But if the colonial powers are to organize such a migration, they must have time and the facilities to undertake such a project. That means that they must not have millions of helpless, demoralized paupers dumped upon them before any measures can be taken to deal with the problem. This is the practical reason why it is necessary to bring pressure upon Nazi Germany to show some degree of moderation. If nothing can be done to modify the present wave of persecution and spoliation, it will not only make impossible any orderly organization of the movement of peoples, but it will provoke throughout central Europe a condition of terrorism, probably of desperate violence, which will multiply the task beyond the human capacity to solve it.

THE PROBLEM is a colonial problem, and it seems improbable that Great Britain, France, Belgium and Portugal can consider a redistribution of colonies without insisting as part of the bargain that there shall be some provision for the victims along with fresh opportunities for their oppressors. If colonies are to be redistributed in order to carry out the policy of appeasement, surely an integral part of that appeasement must be some orderly, feasible place of settlement for the minorities who cannot live in Europe under Nazi rule. That means not merely the finding of land and the opening of it to colonization, but also pressure upon the Nazis not to aggravate the difficulty beyond all reason.

But that is not all it means. If this migration is to be organized, it will have to be a regimented movement of peoples under a strict political discipline. For only under a strick political discipline can the excessively urbanized migrants be re-educated and trained to the life of pioneers in a new country. This would be necessary, in any event, to make possible migration on a large scale; it will be essential in view of the inevitable nervous impairment which this persecution will have inflicted upon them. They cannot hope as individuals to drift out of central Europe to places of safety where they can live the urban life to which they are accustomed. They will have to go, if they are to go at all, in organized formations, led by firm leaders, according to an agreed plan, and under the sovereign control of the great colonial powers.

Copyright, 1938, New York Tribune, Inc.

Why It Can't Happen Here

A Primary Lesson

By Mark Sullivan

TWO YEARS AGO Mr. Sinclair Lewis wrote a novel in which he imagined the United States under an authoritarian government. He described citizens, seized, maltreated, and carried away to the equivalent of German concentration camps. He described lawlessness practiced upon citizens and their property, in some cases by officials of the imagined authoritarian government, in other cases by mobs incited by the authoritarian government. In short, Mr. Lewis imagined and described an American approximation of what is and has been happening in Germany for some five years.

SULLIVAN

To the novel Mr. Lewis gave the title "It Can't Happen Here." The title was meant to be ironic—Mr. Lewis meant to tell us it could happen here.

If Mr. Lewis were to write and title his novel today, I think he would not imply that it could happen here. The risk of an authoritarian government in America is less today than when Mr. Lewis wrote. America has been shocked by authoritarian government and will have none of it. America does not want even the possibility of it. America has turned its face in the opposite direction. America has turned homeward, toward the American tradition.

THAT FACT, rather more than any other, is an epitome of the meaning of the recent election. A majority of the people voted against a tendency they feared, a tendency toward centralized government. The people, while tacitly giving support to the President, voted for Congressmen who would be independent of the President. They voted for an opposition party. They did so in order to have an agency that would balance the executive, scrutinize the executive's actions, oppose executive aggrandizement.

The people, without fearing that Mr. Roosevelt personally would do any of the things that are being done in Germany, voted to prevent the gradual setting up of a mechanism by which anybody at any time might be able to do these things. The people voted for preservation of a government made up of three coordinate powers—the executive, the legislative and the judicial—each an equal of the others, each a check upon the others. In short, the people voted for the negation of authoritarian government.

LET US USE the spectacle in Germany to provide a primary lesson in the American form of government. Let us use what happens in Germany to illustrate what cannot happen in America, and why it cannot happen here.

Consider not only the hideous brutalities against Jews but the ordinary actions of the German government. The German government is one-man. In Germany, the executive—Leader Hitler or one of his ministers, such as Goebbels, or his whole cabinet—issues decrees, about all sorts of matters. One decree is that the Jews in Germany must pay a fine of some $400,000,000 because in Paris a Jewish boy, maddened by persecution, killed an official of the German embassy.

Observe that this is done by executive decree. It is not done by law, as America understands law. It is not done by passage of any act of the Reichstag, the German equivalent of our Congress. The Reichstag is not in session. Practically, the Reichstag has been abolished. It has been utterly subordinated to the head of government, the Leader Hitler. It meets only when he summons it to meet, and does only what he wants it to do. The Reichstag has abdicated all power to the executive.

In AMERICA, what Hitler is doing could not be done by our President, even if he wished to do it, which in this case he would not. None of the steps that Hitler is taking in many fields—taxation, industry, farming, foreign relations, religion—none of these things could be done by a President at any time. They could only be done by act of Congress. They could only be done by a President if and after Congress passed a law authorizing him to do it.

Everybody knows that our Congress would not authorize a President to do any one of many of the things that the German leader is doing in many fields. With almost equal certainty it can be said that the German Reichstag, if it were meeting and functioning of its own free will, would not authorize what Hitler is doing to the Jews.

Here, then, is the lesson for America. Preserve Congress. Preserve it as an independent body, co-ordinate with the President but free from domination by the President.

AGAIN, HERE in America, even if by some unthinkable development, Congress should authorize the President, any President, to lay a fine on any group, Congress would be checked. It would be checked by the courts. The Jews or any other minority, picked out for a punitive fine, would go into court. The courts would say to Congress, "You cannot do this thing."

So here is another lesson. Preserve the courts. Preserve them as they always have been. Preserve them as a branch of government independent of the other branches; coordinate with the other branches but not under compulsion from them. Preserve the courts for the most valuable function they have, the most-to-be-prized function possessed by any institution anywhere in the world at any time in history. Preserve the American courts for the function of standing between the government and the citizen, for protecting the citizen, and also minorities, against oppression by the government.

Completing The Arch

By Barnet Nover

The Anglo-American Trade Pact

THE SATISFACTORY conclusion of the prolonged negotiations for an Anglo-American trade agreement represents the most constructive, as it is the most hopeful, development that has occurred in the world in a long time.

This pact is the first ray of light in a sky that has been getting steadily darker and gloomier of late. It constitutes the first major victory won by the democracies in many years, the first setback suffered by the totalitarian dictatorships. In the long run, the Anglo-American agreement may prove to be a decided offset to the Munich accord and all it stands for.

IT WILL BE a long time before the economic consequences of this latest and most important in Mr. Hull's series of reciprocal trade pacts can be fully gauged.

The Anglo-American agreement involves thousands of items and an exchange of British and American goods which, in 1937, totaled more than three-quarters of a billion dollars. Moreover, since the concessions granted by each nation to the other are automatically extended, under the most-favored-nation clause, to all nations that do not discriminate against American trade, the total volume of commerce directly or indirectly affected is enormous.

It was this very complexity and comprehensiveness of Anglo-American trade that was responsible for the long delay in reaching an agreement. But that was not the only reason. Other very real difficulties stood in the way. Great Britain had to make up her mind whether and to what extent she should modify or scrap the Ottawa system of imperial preferences. The American Government, for its part, had to take into account the legitimate protests of American producers against the possibility of permitting a larger influx of competitive products from Great Britain.

The possible effects of such an agreement on the trade between each of the two nations and the rest of the world had also to be considered. If there were, in both countries, powerful elements favoring a trade accord between the two great Anglo-Saxon democracies, there were also powerful elements lined up in the opposition.

IN THE WORLD of today politics and economics are indissolubly mixed. The economic setup in every nation tends to mirror the political regime. Thus in each totalitarian dictatorship the urge for self-containment or autarchy arises directly out of the political trends and national policies are at the same time affected by this drive.

Take Germany's case, for instance. Germany lacks certain essential raw materials such as rubber and oil and iron ore and the ferro-alloys. She is also normally deficient in certain categories of foodstuffs. These wants have been filled in the past through the normal process of trade.

During the last few years the Third Reich has strained every nerve to supply her deficiencies in raw materials and foodstuffs by production and by substitutes.

FOREIGN TRADE is the Achilles heel of the Nazi system. Without increased export markets, Germany cannot increase her imports of raw materials. And unless a continuous and expanding supply of indispensable primary products can be brought in, the whole top-heavy economic structure faces collapse. Even a relative slowing up in productivity can be dangerous since it might result in a sharp increase in unemployment. And, as much as any other factor, the elimination of unemployment in the Reich justifies the Nazi regime to its followers.

What holds true of Germany is true of Italy and Japan as well.

IT IS AT THIS point that the Anglo-American agreement has a potentially vital bearing on the world situation.

This pact is clearly not directed against any nation, whatever its political ideology or economic setup may be. The Hull system of which the Anglo-American agreement is the capstone is open to all nations. Germany can join it. So can Italy. So can Japan. But they cannot join it so long as they make autarchy the be-all and end-all of their economic efforts. They can do so only if they agreed to remove the strait-jacket into which, to an increasing degree, they have placed foreign trade and foreign exchange. And if they do so it may be impossible for them to remain totalitarian.

EACH OF THESE nations can, of course, seek to extend their economic orbit outward by means of bilateral agreements as Germany has so successfully done and is doing—particularly in central and southeastern Europe. But this system of bilateral pacts has its grave limitations. Nations would rather trade in a free market than in one where payment is in the form of blocked exchange. In other words, in the economic as in the political sphere they would rather be free than chained.

As a result of the Anglo-American agreement the area of free commerce bids fair to be enormously widened. Not only do the United States and Great Britain represent in themselves the two most important markets in the world but each of them is a financial and economic planet around which revolve a host of satellites. There are, on the one hand, the British empire, the British commonwealth of nations and the other nations that form part of what has been called Sterlingaria. There are, on the other hand, the United States and those nations such as Cuba, Brazil and other parts of Latin America to which the American market is vital.

THE CONJUNCTION of the British and American planets and all their satellites is bound to exert an enormous pull on all those hitherto outside the orbit of the Anglo-American constellation. By the same token it may weaken the pull exerted by the totalitarian states.

Their efforts to achieve autarchy will now be hampered by even more serious obstacles than before. Unless, therefore, they are prepared to modify their systems in the direction of greater economic freedom, which inevitably means greater political freedom as well, the internal pressures within these states may prove too great to bear.

At Munich the totalitarian states won a political victory of the first magnitude. At Washington this week the democratic states achieved an economic triumph which was the result not of capitulation but of co-operation. Of the two the Washington accord may prove in the long run far more enduring as it is infinitely more constructive.

Topcoats

The Lewis & Thos. Saltz Showing of Fall and Winter Topcoats is very comprehensive and embraces the World's Finest Fabrics combined with the best Hand Tailoring. We cordially invite you in to see them.

★ ★

"John Shannon" Harris Tweeds $50
From England
"Andesian" Virgin Wool Coats $35
Reversibles $38.50
Shetland Tweeds and Gabardines
"Stroock" Camel Hair $50
Covert Cloth Coats . . . . . $45 to $60
Set in Sleeve Box and Fitted Models
Fitted Coats . . . . . $50 to $60
Single and Double Breasted
Chesterfield Dress Coats . . . . $50 to $75
Single and Double Breasted
Venetian Coverts $75
"Rodex" English Whipcords $50
English and Scotch Tweeds . . $45 & $50
Tweeds—Zipper Linings . . . . $35 & $50
Detachable Wool Linings

SPECIAL
$65 Camel Down Topcoats $56.50
Natural Tan, Navy Blue, Oxford Grey

"OXFORD" TOPCOATS
King's Cashmere, Venetians, Camel Hair, Vicuna, West of England . . . $75 to $165

LEWIS & THOS. SALTZ
INCORPORATED
1409 G STREET, N. W.
DISTRICT 3822
NOT CONNECTED WITH SALTZ BROS. INC.

Daily Cross Word Puzzle

ACROSS.

1 Wanting firmness
8 Thin layer
15 Compunction
16 Flowering shrubs
17 Suppression of vowel in pronunciation
18 Author of "David Copperfield"
19 Norse god
20 Furtive
21 Australian bird
22 Discern
23 A drink
24 Mexican rubber tree
28 City in northeast Italy
30 Race course
34 German form of address
35 Era
37 Preposition
38 Seaweed derivative
39 Clamor
40 Pieces of meat
41 Rocky watercourse
42 First parts of days
44 Beverages
45 Scoffed
47 Asiatic country
49 Piffle
50 Feminine name
51 Rope on a boat
54 Spike of corn
56 Only
57 Fit closely, as two pieces of lumber
60 Marine zoophyte
62 Green arsenate of copper
64 Resembling silica
65 Wool fat
66 English author
67 Feminine feline carnivore

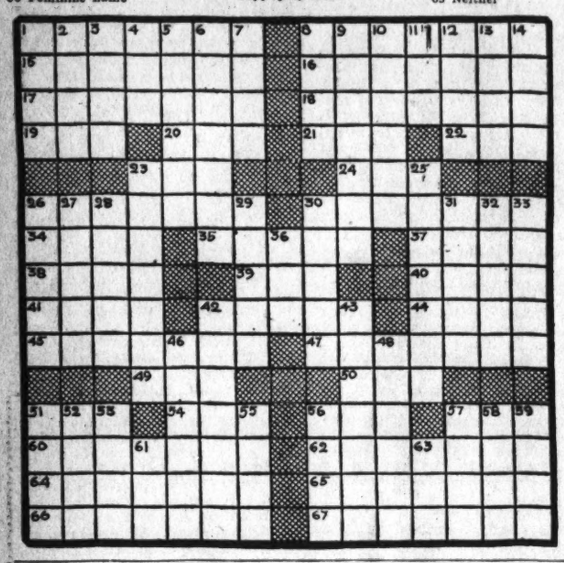
DOWN.

1 Worry
2 Dutch 17th century artist in England
3 Arab prince
4 Island in the Aegean Sea
5 Turning points
6 Place alone
7 Disavow
8 Load, as a ship
9 Arc of sky from zenith to horizon
10 Dark spot on sun's surface
11 Ruminant
12 Sediment
13 Alley
14 South African fox
23 Small dog
25 Instruct
26 Defrosts
27 Character in Shakespeare's "King Lear"
28 Turkish decree
29 Jewish priestly vestment
30 Perfume
31 Yellow-flowered herb
32 Complete
33 Cryptogamous
36 Of us
42 Pertaining to a 5th century Athenian astronomer
43 Japanese lesser nobility under feudal system
46 Florid
48 Scolding
51 Convulsive breath
52 Genus of freshwater mussels
53 Shout
55 A summons
56 Waistband
57 Rasp
58 Hindu monkshood
59 Desires: colloq.
61 Wire measure
63 Neither

YESTERDAY'S ANSWER.

S	C	O	R	E		E	T	N	A		U	S	H	A
M	A	S	O	N		T	H	O	R		P	H	E	W
A	M	I	C	I		H	E	R	C	U	L	E	A	N
S	E	E		S	H	O	R	N		R	I	A	L	S
H	O	R	O	L	O	G	E		S	I	F	T
		H	E	A	R		B	L	A	T	H	E	R
S	A	P	I	D		A	P	R	O	N		I	D	E
H	E	R	O		S	P	R	U	E		S	N	O	B
O	R	O		E	T	H	O	S		D	O	G	M	A
D	I	S	P	L	A	Y		H	E	E	D
		P	E	E	R		S	I	L	L	A	B	U	B
S	T	E	R	N		G	E	N	I	I		O	N	E
H	O	R	T	A	T	I	V	E		G	H	O	S	T
O	R	E	L		A	Y	E	S		H	I	R	E	S
T	I	D	Y		L	E	N	S		T	E	S	T	Y

Copyright, 1938.



Levering Will Leaves $5,000 to Hospital

Fredericksburg, Va., Nov. 16.—Mrs. Stephen Koundouriotis, of Decatur Heights, was left $1,000 in the will of the late Frank D. Levering, of this city, which was probated in Spotsylvania Circuit Court today.

Mr. Levering left $5,000 to Mary Washington Hospital here and the rest of his estate in trust to his sister, Mrs. Flora M. Hammer, of Philadelphia.

Executors gave bond of $250,000.

Hospital Head on Trial In Death of Patient

Baltimore, Nov. 16 (AP).—A State hospital supervisor, Norvell Tucker, went on trial before State Employment Commissioner Harry C. Jones today on charges resulting from the fatal beating of a patient at the Spring Grove State Hospital for the Insane.

Tucker was specifically charged by the Spring Grove administration with failure to report to a physician the confinement of the patient, Henry Baumgartner.

The Post Radio Time-Table

Thursday, Nov. 17 — Washington — Eastern Standard Time.

	WMAL 476M—630KC	WRC 316M—950KC	WOL 229M—1,230KC	WJSV 206M—1,460KC
6:00	.....	Gordon Hittenmark	Art Brown	.....	6:00
6:15	.....	" "	" "	.....	6:15
6:30	Today's Prelude	" "	" "	.....	6:30
6:45	" "	" "	" "	.....	6:45
7:00	" "	" "	" "	Arthur Godfrey	7:00
7:15	" "	" "	" "	" "	7:15
7:30	PDS Presents	" "	News	" "	7:30
7:45	" "	" "	Art Brown	" "	7:45
8:00	" "	News	" "	News	8:00
8:15	" "	Gordon Hittenmark	" "	Arthur Godfrey	8:15
8:30	Earl Godwin	" "	News	Magic Carpet	8:30
8:45	Calling All Stars	" "	Art Brown	Arthur Godfrey	8:45
9:00	Interlude	News	" "	" "	9:00
9:15	Breakfast Club	Mary Mason	" "	" "	9:15
9:30	Gospel Singer	" "	Waltz Themes	W. Make News	9:30
9:45	Breakfast Club	" "	News; Police	Bach. Children	9:45
10:00	St. of the Month	Mrs. Wiggs	Famous Farmers	P. Kitty Kelly	10:00
10:15	Josh Higgins	John's Other Wife	H. S. Uncle Sam	Myrt and Marge	10:15
10:30	Ranch Boys	Just Plain Bill	Traffic Court	Hilltop House	10:30
10:45	Timely Garden	Woman in White	Singing Strings	Stepmother	10:45
11:00	Mary Marlin	David Harum	Montana Meechy	Mary L. Taylor	11:00
11:15	Vic and Sade	Lorenzo Jones	Musical Potpourri	Rhy. & Romance	11:15
11:30	Vagabonds	Widow Brown	Get Thin to Music	Big Sister	11:30
11:45	Originalities	Tropical Moods	C'munity Calendar	R. Life Stories	11:45

AFTERNOON PROGRAMS.

12:00	Southernaires	News	Luncheon Music	Edith Kaye	12:00
12:15	News	The O'Neills	News	Nancy James	12:15
12:30	National	Devotions	Organ Recital	Romance	12:30
12:45	Farm and	Tropical Tunes	Richardson's Or.	O. Gal Sunday	12:45
1:00	Home Hour	C. Chest Luncheon	Happy Gang	Goldbergs	1:00
1:15	Farm Radio News	Escorts & Betty	Crosby's Record	Life	1:15
1:30	P. Take Charge	Encores	Tony Wakeman	Road of Life	1:30
1:45	Rakov's Orch.	Happy Gilmans	" "	Day Is Ours	1:45
2:00	Social Science	Betty and Bob	" "	Aladdin's Kitch.	2:00
2:15	" "	Grimm's Daughter	Girl From Maine	Poetic Strings	2:15
2:30	Opera Selections	Valiant Lady	Tony Wakeman	Am. School	2:30
2:45	" "	Church Hymns	" "	of the Air	2:45
3:00	G. Slam Revue	Mary Marlin	News	Sen. Barten	3:00
3:15	" " "	Ma Perkins	Tony Wakeman	K. Wheeler	3:15
3:30	Hoosier Hop	Young's Family	" "	Arch	3:30
3:45	Bet. Book-ends	Guiding Light	" "	McDonald's	3:45
4:00	Club Matinee	Backstage Wife	" "	Grab Bag	4:00
4:15	" "	Stella Dallas	" "	" " "	4:15
4:30	" "	Vic & Sade	" "	" " "	4:30
4:45	News	Girl Alone	" "	" " "	4:45
5:00	Tune Types	Dick Tracy	Evening Shadows	Tonic Tunes	5:00
5:15	Glenn Darwin	Y. Family & Mine	Jimmy Scribner	" "	5:15
5:30	Don Winslow	J. Armstrong	Cocktail Capers	" "	5:30
5:45	Tom Mix	Orphan Annie	" "	Four Notes	5:45

EVENING PROGRAMS.

6:00	Tarheel Tattler	News	Sports Resume	News	6:00
6:15	News	Music	Lee & Mickey	Howie Wing	6:15
6:30	Incidentally	Football News	Walter Compton	Mus. Moments	6:30
6:45	Lowell Thomas	Rainbow Rhythm	Rodie Harris	Crossroads Hall	6:45
7:00	Easy Aces	Amos 'n' Andy	Fulton Lewis, Jr.	Arch McDonald	7:00
7:15	Mr. Keen	Vocal Varieties	Variety Program	To be ann.	7:15
7:30	Quiz of Two Cities	Dreams Come True	Believe It	Joe Penner	7:30
7:45	" " "		F. Waller Records	" "	7:45
8:00	America on	Rudy Vallee	Green Hornet	Kate Smith	8:00
8:15	Wheels	" "	" "	" "	8:15
8:30	Kolisch Quartet	" "	Hollywood Quiz	" "	8:30
8:45	" "	" "	" "	" "	8:45
9:00	Philharmonic	Good News of	Popular Medley	Maj. Bowes'	9:00
9:15	Concert	1939	News & Music	Amateur Hour	9:15
9:30	America's	" "	Want a	" "	9:30
9:45	Town Meeting	" "	Touchdown	" "	9:45
10:00	" "	Music Hall	Concert Revue	Columbia	10:00
10:15	" "	" "	" "	Workshop	10:15
10:30	People 1	" "	Dance Orchestra	Americans	10:30
10:45	Have Known	" "	" "	at Work	10:45
11:00	News	News	News—Music	News	11:00
11:15	Music as You	Modern	H. Holme's Orch.	Safety Quiz	11:15
11:30	Desire It	Music	C. McCoy's	Calloway's	11:30
11:45	" " "	Maestros	Orchestra	Orchestra	11:45
12:00	Night Watchman	Jan Savitt's	Goodman's Orch.	S. Kaye's	12:00
12:15	(Until 2 a. m.)	Orchestra	" " "	Orchestra	12:15
12:30		E. Deutsch's	J. Garber's	Osborne's	12:30
12:45		Orchestra	Orchestra	Orchestra	12:45
1:00		Sign off	T. Tucker's	Weather	1:00
1:15			" " "	Forecasts	1:15
1:30			Dance Music	Sign Off	1:30
1:45			" "		1:45
2:00	Sign off		Sign Off		2:00

Army Studies Restrictions for Flying Officers

Caused by Deaths Arnold Weighs Plan Age Limit Hinted

By Barry Sullivan.

Restriction of flying duty for high-ranking officers of proven ability as pilots is being considered by the Air Corps to prevent further deaths among middle-aged commissioned avaitors, it was learned yesterday.

An investigation ordered by Maj. Gen. Harry H. Arnold, chief of the Air Corps, is expected to result in the announcement of a policy under which officers found unfit for pilot duty would be forbidden to operate planes, although they would still continue to command flights on which younger men were at the controls.

While the problem of permitting men of mature years to fly has long been recognized, the recent deaths in plane crashes of Maj. Gen. Oscar Westover, recent chief of the Air Corps, and Col. Leslie MacDill has emphasized that efforts must be made at once to prevent such accidents.

The Air Corps is loath to set an arbitrary age above which officers would be grounded, but it also recognizes that younger pilots with quicker reaction are better fitted for the operation of planes, while older men enjoying the benefit of flying experience should remain in executive control of large planes and mass flights.

Toll Heaviest in Elder Class

Another factor which is being taken into account is the knowledge that many middle-aged officers who have had much active flying experience are still capable pilots and well acquainted with newer types of aircraft.

The accident toll seems to have been heaviest among officers serving in administrative posts where the pressure of their duties have prevented them from engaging continuously in flying. This condition is found to be especially true here in the office of the chief of Air Corps where officers are constantly unable to find sufficient time to get flight training.

Existing regulations require that officers engage in four hours of flying per month to receive their flight allowance which is equal to 50 per cent of their base pay.

Many of them are convinced that the required flying is entirely insufficient to maintain their efficiency but executive duties make attainment even of this low average extremely difficult.

On the other hand, if flying were restricted to men below a certain age the Army would soon be deprived of some of its best flyers. While many of the outstanding aviators are still below the most frequently mentioned age of 45 years, many of them are 40. Included in this group are Col. Roberts Olds, commander of the flight last February of six Flying Fortresses to Buenos Aires; Maj. Harold H. George, Harold L. George, Vincent J. Meloy and C. V. Haynes, who accompanied him, and Maj. Lowell H. Smith, who commanded the Army round-the-world flight of 1923.

All of these officers were selected for their important details because of their outstanding abilities as flyers. An examination of their records reveals that they have been largely on flying duty throughout their careers and only occasionally assigned to "swivel chair" jobs. Their experience and present standing lends weight to the Air Corps proverb that the "best preventative for plane accidents is flying."

In the future, it is highly probable that Air Corps service will be segregated in the higher ranks into two channels. Some ranking officers will be kept constantly on duty in the field and actively engaged in flying while others, showing administrative and executive skill, will direct their efforts to Air Corps duties not actively concerned with the handling of planes.

Thief Makes Off With Poor Stamps, Leaves Rare Ones

Washington philatelists declared themselves licked yesterday over the disappearance of a sheet of Belgium charity stamps from a display frame in the Postal Telegraph office on New York avenue.

The frame was placed there in observance of National Philatelic Week, now in progress. Someone, the philatelists said, lifted the back from the frame, removed the sheet, and then placed the philatelist's calendar of events over the glass front, in what the stamp collectors called a stupid attempt to cover up the crime.

Whoever did it took stamps of very little value, it was said. They overlooked some "very valuable" first-class airmail covers nearby.

Cavalry Is Subject

Maj. Gen. John K. Herr, chief of Cavalry, will address District reserve officers on "The Role of Cavalry" at 8 tonight in Room 3616, Munitions Building.

BRYSON RASH CALLS FOR WASHINGTON'S SMARTEST PEOPLE

D. C. Leads, 3-1, in "Quiz of Two Cities"

Thrilling Inter-City Word Battle Tonight at 7:30; WMAL-WFBR

As Washington took a 3-to-1 lead over Baltimore in "The Quiz of Two Cities," radio's most thrilling word battle, Bryson Rash issued a call for the District's smartest people to enter the contest. He stressed the fact that Baltimore was trailing in points only 398 1-3 to 407 1-2.

Baltimore Promises Battle.

In Baltimore Henry Hickman, WFBR quizzer, was promising a real battle in tonight's contest. "Baltimore people are smarter and we'll prove it," he challenged as he issued a call for the Maryland city's smartest men and women.

Experts, Listeners Praise Show.

Both radio experts and the listeners have joined in calling the "Quiz of Two Cities" one of radio's most thrilling programs. It has drama, laughs, everything! Cheer your team to victory tonight at 7:30, WMAL-WFBR. The Gunther Brewing Company of Baltimore.

Grin and Bear It — By Lichty

"All my life I've dreamed about this moment—when my name changes from Schnitzenwurstlich to Smith!"

If you're thinking about taking up skiing, don't miss Weare Holbrook's humorous article in Section VI in Sunday's Post.

Turkey Dinner Today

Members of Federal Chapter, No. 38, Order of Eastern Star, will eat a turkey dinner today at 5 p. m. at Almas Temple, Thirteenth and K streets northwest.

Policeman Gives Blood for Sister Of Fellow-Officer

Police Lieut. Horace Lineberg was selected from 22 volunteers yesterday to give blood to Mrs. Lena English, 36, sister of Eighth Precinct Policeman George R. Douglas.

Mrs. English is dangerously ill at Providence Hospital, and yesterday Douglas solicited blood from his fellow policemen.

Nearly a quart of blood was taken from Lieut. Lineberg. Another transfusion will be given the woman today. Her condition last night was said to be slightly improved.

Meeting to Hear Plans on Suffrage

Plans which the District of Columbia Suffrage Association will use to "get action from Congress" on its aims for votes for Washington will feature the meeting of the organization at the District Building tomorrow night.

Wilbur S. Finch, president, declared yesterday that sentiment in favor of District suffrage grew throughout the summer.

Businessmen to Lunch

Members of the Central Business Association will gather for a turkey and cranberry luncheon today at 12:30 p. m. at the New Colonial Hotel. A style show will follow.

For Better RADIO SERVICE Phone District 4700 STAR RADIO CO. 4 Stores to Serve You

• DIstrict 7200

Kann's "The Avenue"—7th, 8th and D Sts.

GLAMOUR at A Moderate Price!

Crush-Resistant RAYON VELVETS

In Shorter Women's Sizes

$6.66

—Here's a value you busy women with club luncheons, bridge parties, theater dates and so on in the offing will appreciate no end! Charming rayon velvets styled with youth and grace to flatter your figure . . . in strikingly lovely jewel colors to "do things" for your eyes and hair! Amethyst, emerald, sapphire, onyx black and plum. Sizes for shorter women only.

Kann's—Second Floor

Stock Up NOW and SAVE!

Regular 79c "Monotop" Hosiery 59c pr.

—Beautifully sheer, clear hose that wear surprisingly well because they've stretchy tops that absorb garter strain. Sizes 8½ to 10 in mist beige, charm beige, praline, tile beige, Havana tan.

Kann's—Street Floor

Glamorous Rayon Satin BLOUSES

$3.99

—A provocative charmer you won't be able to resist, once you lay eyes upon it! Lusciously soft rayon satin with tiny tucked yoke, short sleeves and baby buttons. Wide draped effect waist band. In white, baby pastels and black. Sizes 32 to 38.

Sports Shop—Second Floor

Featuring Your New Naturalizers... In CRUSHED KID

"JANE"—Instep Strap Pump in black or wine.

"CELESTE" — Slipon Pump with the new Dutch Boy heels. Black or beaver brown.

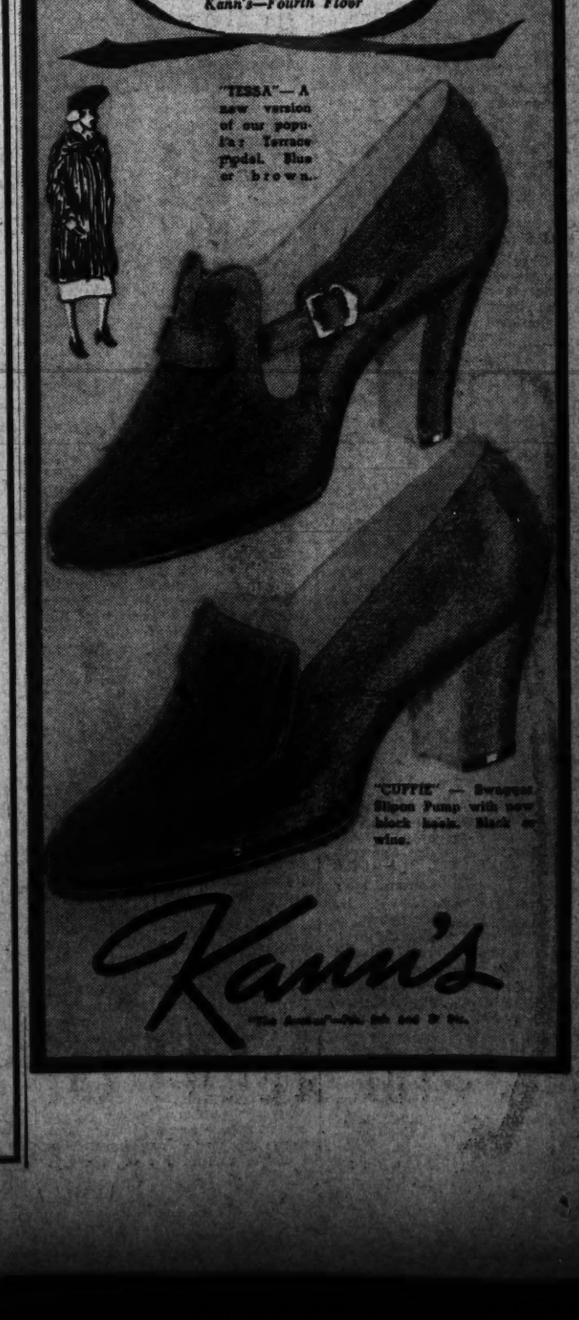
EXCLUSIVELY at KANN'S

$6.50 pr.

—A stunning new leather with a dulled crushed effect that is very flattering to the foot . . . soft and supple as a kid glove . . . yet sturdy and durable for rough weather! Four lovely styles sketched, all with the noted Naturalizer three-way fit . . . no gap at the side, no slip at the heel, no pinch at the toes.

Don't Spend Your Life Two Feet From Happiness—Wear Naturalizers for Comfort!

Kann's—Fourth Floor



"TESSA"—A new version of our popular Terrace Pedal. Blue or brown.

"CUFFIE" — Sweeping Slipon Pump with new block heels. Black or wine.

Kann's "The Avenue"—7th, 8th and D Sts.

Mary Haworth's Mail

Dependent on Married Son for Support, Widow Has 'Daughter-in-Law Problem;' Asks How to Meet It

DEAR MARY HAWORTH: You often hear from persons having mother-in-law problems, but I have a daughter-in-law problem. When my husband died, my daughter, my two sons and I were left practically penniless as a result of his last long illness. My sons found employment and we lived happily together until a few years ago, when they married. The younger son moved away from home with his wife, leaving my daughter and me dependent on my older son and his wife for support—until such time as my daughter, who is now 16, is old enough to find work.

We are all living together in the house which my husband left me. Now, here is the problem. At times, my son's wife is very nice; but at other times she is unbearable. She is forever taking advantage of the fact that we are dependent upon her husband for support. I do all the housework and cooking and never get so much as a word of thanks.

She has refused to let my daughter entertain in our home, at an age when she should entertain most. She shows in mean, petty ways that she dislikes both my daughter and me. I think my son realizes what is happening, but naturally a wife comes first. What should I do?

MRS. A. B. D.

Business-Like Remedy

DEAR MRS. A. B. D.: Nothing is to be gained in this situation by deploring and resenting your daughter-in-law's alleged disagreeable attitude. The intelligent thing to do is to bring a business-like approach to the problem. Since the house is yours by inheritance, and since you feel you must look to your son for a maintenance income, why not work out an arrangement whereby he and his wife are paying guests in the home; or lessees of a certain portion of the house, who pay—over and above their rent—for their two or three meals a day. You would be mistress of your own home under such an arrangement—or of such portion of it, at least, as you saw fit to reserve for yourself and your daughter—and you would have money of your own to spend. You would be delivered from the wretched status of dependent relative.

Even in the existing set-up, your daughter-in-law is without authority to forbid your daughter to entertain. After all, the house is yours; and since you assume the duties of housekeeper and maid-of-all work therein, you are entitled to a reasonable financial return for such efforts, in addition to that board-and-keep which is always supplied a resident housekeeper. In waiving such a salary, surely you earn the right to entertain in your own or your daughter's name.

Of course, a better solution of the problem might be to assert complete independence of your son's largesse, and become self-sustaining by running your home on a paying basis, by renting out rooms and providing meals to resident guests. Or it might be possible to divide the house into light-housekeeping apartments for bachelor girls. Still another idea might be to lease the house to your son, find outside employment for yourself, and out of your rental income and earnings pay board and room for yourself and daughter to your landlord-son.

The present friction has its origin largely in the undefined status of everyone involved in the vague arrangement. No one knows what his responsibilities, obligations and privileges are. And while, as I have said, your daughter-in-law is, actually, without authority to forbid your daughter social privileges, nevertheless it is not easy for her to live in a home in which she is so largely without well-defined authority. It is scarcely to be wondered at, if she is somewhat "unbearable" at times. It is only natural that she should resent having to share her husband, and his earnings, with his dependent mother and sister. Every young wife is entitled to a home of her own, apart from her in-laws, and is bound to be a miserable and moody if denied this minimum privilege.

With your sons only recently married, and your daughter still in her teens, you are probably not older than 50, and may be some years younger. If so, you are making a grave mistake in settling down on your children for support. For one thing, in so doing you are merely plotting continued unhappiness for yourself; and for another thing, you haven't the right to deny those children opportunity to lead normal lives of their own, free from matenal parasitism. Instead of regarding yourself as a martyr for muddling along in thankless job of unpaid housework, you should be devoting your energies to the task of creating a place for yourself in the business world, a place that will make you financially self-sustaining and socially self respecting.

M. H.

Today's Menu

By Alice Clayton,
Post Food Editor.

BREAKFAST

Kadota figs
Creamed chipped beef and scrambled eggs
Braided coffee ring topped with honey
Hot coffee Milk for children

LUNCHEON

Green split pea soup
Croutons
Fresh chopped celery and green pepper salad
Hot cross buns
Cider jelly
Chocolate soda

DINNER

Chilled prune juice—Ham souffle (use last night's leftover meat)
Mashed sweet potatoes
Buttered wax beans
Peanut muffins Lemon butter
Endive and chicory salad
Roquefort dressing
Criss cross cranberry pie
Demitasse

CRISS-CROSS CRANBERRY PIE

Chop 4 cups of cranberries lightly with the side of a spoon. Add the following ingredients and blend in quickly: 1½ cups of granulated sugar, 2 tablespoons of flour, ½ teaspoon of cinnamon, ¼ teaspoon of nutmeg, 3 tablespoons of butter, 1 tablespoon of lemon juice, ¼ teaspoon of salt and 2 tablespoons of orange juice. Pour into a crust-lined pie pan. Arrange pastry strips, criss cross fashion on top of the berries. Bake for 10 minutes in a hot oven. Reduce heat and bake for 35 minutes in a moderate oven. Serve warm or cold.

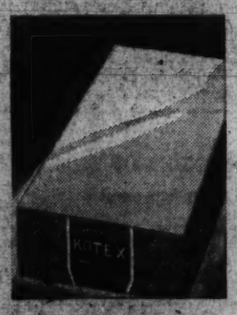
British Influence In Christmas Cards

This year's Christmas cards are going quite British, with "Wedgwood" motifs among the season's newest contributions to the demand for something smartly out of the ordinary. Many of the cards show the familiar Wedgwood blue as the background for repousse designs in white, a distinctly new silhouette treatment. Other cards of the Wedgwood type use the more unusual, but to the connoisseur more artistic, muted green, or depart from tradition by a Wedgwood treatment against a background of bright red.

Kotex "Special" VAL-U-BOX

$1.00

Box of 64 Napkins



Wondersoft Kotex in the Val-U-Box—convenient to store, fits easily on your closet shelf. Economical to buy.

Toiletries—Main Floor

MAIL ORDER COUPON
The Hecht Co., F Street at Seventh, Washington, D. C.
Please send me.....boxes of the new VAL-U-BOX Kotex at $1.
NAME .....
STREET ADDRESS .....
CITY .....STATE.....
CHARGE.....C. O. D.....MONEY ORDER ENCLOSED.....

THE HECHT CO.
F STREET AT SEVENTH — NATIONAL 5100

Prophecy of Exotic Style Trend

Katharine Cornell, as an ancient Hebraic queen, slithers into sinuous draperies and jewels.
The tower of Babel and an unashamed ice bag inspired these "Herod And Mariamne" chapeaux.
Transition of B.C. draperies to a 20th century tea gown, below. Sleeve and tunic treatment are identical as are the basic lines of girdle and cape.
Sketched by Marshall Adams

Your Figure

Ballet Dancer Corrects Knock Knees

Used to Wear Brace
Strengthened Muscles
Developed Contours

By Ida Jean Kain.

ONE OF the world's leading dancers used to have knock knees, flat feet and spindly legs and her metamorphosis will kindle the spark of hope in the heart of any girl who is less than perfectly satisfied with her extremities.

Watching Alicia Markova perform in her role as the ballerina of the Ballet Russe of Monte Carlo it seems impossible that anything could ever have been wrong with her legs. But she says that at the age of 9 her legs were "practically match sticks and I was so knock kneed that the doctor told me I would have to wear a brace on each leg. Then he relented and said we might try ballet as a means of straightening the legs by strengthening the muscles."

Apparently it worked, for today Miss Markova is not only famous for her dancing, but she is also credited with having a lovely pair of legs.

As far as this dance star is concerned, ballet is the ideal way of correcting any leg defect, but as the average person is barred from such an extensive program, I asked her to give some of the most effective dance steps in the form of exercises to develop lovelier leg contours and strengthen the arch of the foot. She complied:

POSITION: Stand with the heels together and the toes turned out at the sides so that the feet are as nearly as possible in the same straight line. Heels and toes are on the floor.

MOVEMENT: Slowly lower the body until you are in a squatting position and then rise again, coming up on the toes.

The next exercise is more difficult, but it is, Miss Markova promises, a means of correcting knock knees:

POSITION: Stand with the toes of both feet turned straight out at the sides, but with the feet together, one in front of the other, so that the inner border of one foot is against the outer border of the other. You won't be able to do this at first, but try and keep trying.

MOVEMENT: Bend the knees slightly and give a little spring into the air, at the same time reversing the position of the feet so that the foot which has been in back is brought forward. Try to land in the position described at the beginning of the exercise.

The last exercise strengthens the muscles of the feet and legs and . . . it's slimming!

POSITION: Stand about as you were in the first exercise, heels together, toes straight out at the sides.

MOVEMENT: Stretch arms high in the air and, still holding the same position with the feet, bend over and touch the hands to the floor in front.

BALANCED REDUCING MENU

BREAKFAST	CALORIES
Orange juice, ½ glass	80
Soft boiled egg, 1	75
Whole wheat toast, 1 slice	75
Butter, 1 pat, ¼ in. thick	80
Coffee, clear
	250
LUNCHEON
Split pea soup, 1 cup	135
Salted crackers, 2 double	80
Stuffed tomato salad	75
Fruit	80
	310
DINNER
Tomato juice cocktail	25
*Beef hash, 1 cup	350
String beans, ½ cup	15
Baked apple, juice	200
Glass of skim milk	80
	670
TOTAL CALORIES FOR THE DAY	1,230

*Made with leftover beef roast, potatoes, carrots.

Barbaric Costume Trend Challenges Present Victorianism

Katharine Cornell's Gowns May Start Reaction
Oriental Splendor in Her Stage Ensembles
Portrays Ancient Queen in Colorful Apparel

By Marshall Adams,
The Post Fashion Editor.

BARBARIC Orientalism seems a far cry at the moment from the hoops and panties that fashion has recently revived. After having seen and fingered the resplendent first century fabrics worn so effectively by Katharine Cornell this week in "Herod and Mariamne," it seems possible—even probable—to this reporter that sweet Victorian fashions may give way to the lushness of Near East styles.

The subtle savagery of the year 1 B. C. has been captured by Valentina, exotic Russian couurrier who created the costumes worn by Miss Cornell and who has been the sponsor of many former fashion trends. Nor is this the first time that Miss Cornell has influenced public opinion of the style world. Last season, her "Wingless Victory," with its tropical background of scanty saronge, preceeded Nation-wide avalanche of native beach-wear and play clothes.

In her plum taffeta dressing robe Miss Cornell, at the conclusion of her performance as Mariamne, discussed the colorful costumes that had aided her in her inspiring characterization.

Color and Line Stressed

"I have always been responsive to charm of line and color," she said, "as she removed Mariamne's false lashes and the 'Mother Church shrouds' as she dubbed the gray robes worn in her last act. Being true to the theater, I'd feel like a traitor if I preferred my present costumes to those I wore as Joan of Arc or as Juliet. I personally have little time to wear anything but shirtwaists and skirts, but my costumes in the play would create elegant tea gowns if I had the time to wear such apparel.

"The fluid draperies of the period portrayed, however, are divine to alither around in. Their classicism is ageless; so much so that it seems possible they may replace the more insipid quaintness that we are enraptured with at present. Naturally, I'm not prophesying that this season's fashions will make a complete about face toward the alien savagery of the gowns of ancient Palestine. Usually, however, when an audience senses exotic beauty in stage costumes, designers at large feel their interest and do something about it."

Oriental Jewels

"The fabrics of ancient Jerusalem have been well duplicated," she remarked as she showed her costumes. And they had, for across metallic bands of persimmon red silk on one gown, rode tiny spearsmen; another of blood red velvet bore the same brilliant color that might have glowed for the bride of a Herold.

The fact that Orientalism of rich jewels and colors is flattering might well create for them a return to fashion favor next year. Miss Cornell's stage jewels were exotic, bizarre in design and deep in hue. Her peaked hats, twisted turbans, veiled pill boxes and layer-caked toques bore the same savagery of detail and humor. Their colors were strangely exciting against Miss Cornell's ochre-tinted skin, scarlet lips and gray-black hair. These same colors would be becoming to any woman of her coloring. Sulphurous yellows complemented burnt oranges. Gold sparkled wantonly against bittersweet. Sea-green pleated drapery fused with sky blue, absinthe green with silver. These flaunting tones seemed interesting and seductive in contrast to the mauves and violets of this season.

A Woman's New York

By Alice Hughes.

WE WHO GO down to the sea to meet ships are a hard-poached lot—especially the young men with pencils and camera. We have put up with the unpredictable antics of all sorts of high-class visitors from the haughty and vulgar didoes of empty-skulled movie queens and heiresses to the unaffected charm and approachability of truly great men and women. Our hides are thicker than elephant fuzz. We believe no one is any good until proved otherwise. Thus the beautiful Leni Riefenstahl, Mr. Hitler's movie boss, was in a very hot spot when she sailed in on the Europa. And she jumped off it magnificently. Her technique was exquisite!

ALICE HUGHES

Leni (for short) is really beautiful—both in face and figure. Gossips say she once danced in a cafe. Her smiling good looks gave her an edge with the reporters at once. Obviously she was faced with some brutal in-the-teeth questions. Was she the Boss' cutie-face? How about her race? She met them all with smiling denials, instead of doing the haughty sneer. The lens-lads loved her at the snap of a shutter. She was a tremendous hit instead of the very possible cause of migraine.

I learned that the German Fuehrer first took a liking to her, or perhaps had an old-time "movie crush," when he saw her in the film, "Blue Light," in 1932. Oddly, I saw that picture in Berlin in the spring of that year. Maybe Mr. Hitler was in the next seat. I didn't notice anything. Now, says Leni, she just takes movie orders from him, and knows him no better than many others.

GIRLS ABOUT TOWN—Orson Welles, the young genius who scared the Nation, spoke to the ladies of the Junior League at luncheon the other day. It was one of Orson's quiet days, and not a single Junior Leaguer choked on her caviar . . . A half million people saw a funeral procession here the other day. Laudatory words were spoken by governors and mayors. No, it wasn't a cafe society glamour girl, or a scion of the Astorbilts. It was one of the first citizens of the lower East Side, an immigrant from Russia named Baruch Charney Vladeck, who had risen to high place in the city's Jewish press and a seat in our city council. I've never seen a more impressive spectacle than that outpouring of simple folk. Such a thing simply obliterates New York's glittering trivia.

Appetite Lack Should Not Be Disregarded

Causes Underweight
Related to Nerves
Psychic Treatment

By Logan Clendening, M. D.

LACK OF APPETITE is called "anorexia" by the doctors. Only those who are afflicted by it realize how serious it may be. The happy optimist, who is always hungry and can't pass the icebox without a pang, may have some serious days ahead of him when his weight jumps up above 200, but at least he is happy and is having a good time.

The various grades of lack of appetite may range from a general lack of interest in food to a very serious disease called anorexia nervosa. Underweight people usually have small appetites and that is the cause of their underweight. There is a popular theory that underweight people are great hands at the table, but that is seldom the case. If the actual amount of food that underweights and overweights eat is weighed and measured, it will be found that the overweights are heavy because they eat too much and the underweights are thin because they don't eat enough.

Anorexia Nervosa

But the problem of the thin person who has no interest in food, but who manages to force down a little every meal, is as nothing to the cases—fortunately rare—of anorexia nervosa.

These people, usually adolescent girls with unstable emotional systems, have not only a want of desire for food, but a morbid averson to eating. They are intelligent and highly sensitive, and some sort of emotional conflict usually starts them off. They literally hardly eat at all and finally become so thin and emaciated that they are in actual danger of death from starvation.

One such typical case was in a girl 15 years old. Suddenly her family noticed she ate or drank hardly anything. She went down in a few weeks from 75 pounds to almost 50. She said she didn't want to eat because she had pains in the stomach following the intake of food.

Revealed Nothing

Examination, however, revealed nothing the matter with the stomach. There were indications of disorder in the endocrine glands and a diagnosis of anorexia nervosa was made.

A long series of interviews revealed the situation that she did not like two sisters who lived at home and got on her nerves by teasing her. Her mother also worried her by fussing about her.

Such unfortunates must be treated partly by mental encouragement. She was persuaded to eat more and more food at each meal, and attendants talked her out of the idea that the food caused abdominal distress.

At the same time, administration of some of the ductless glands, particularly thyroid extract, was helpful.

The Gentler Sex

By Malvina Lindsay

Paying the Piper

Yes, you really paid too much for the dress. You think guiltily of all the other places that the money is needed—oh well, maybe you can make it up some way. That's it! You'll pinch on everything right to be done from now on. Save every penny.

Let's see now. You were going to get an oil manicure—oh well, you'll just get a plain one and save 15 cents. Then you can go to that stocking sale and buy three pairs for $2.85—you can use them later on—and that'll save another 15 cents. Why, that's 30 cents right there!

Then you had intended going home in a taxicab with your bundles. Why, you'll just go home on the bus. That's another 15 cents. And then you can get a can of that 17-cent talcum powder that was advertised—it's really just as good as the 25-cent—and there'll be 8 cents. Then there's that soap sale—you can save 6 cents on three cakes. Let's see—14 and 30 and 15—why, that's 59 cents already!

Oh, there are a lot of little ways . . . . you can get some penny postals to write the family on, and you'll be carefull to pick all the pins off the floor, and to save the string that comes off bundles, and you can save those coupons you get at the grocery store and maybe get some silverware to give as Christmas presents.

You can save a lot, too, on food—you'll cut out all the cokes and sodas, and you'll just stop at a drug store counter now and get a sandwich and a cup of coffee for lunch. Still—those sandwiches are always so thick. And it would be nice to have a good bowl of soup in a tearoom . . . and maybe a salad. Oh well, you might as well get yourself a fairly good lunch. You've got to keep up your strength . . . and then maybe you might as well go home in a taxicab . . . this time. If you get too tired it makes wrinkles . . . and you don't want to look like a hag in your new dress.

Besides, it really doesn't pay in the end not to take care of yourself. After all, that's your first duty. And anyway—why maybe some extra money might come in . . . in time . . . from somewhere. It's no use to be too tight.

The Free Soul

I do not care what people think
Or say of me.
That's why I wear this funny hat,
That all may see.

I am determined all shall know
I'm not a worm.
That's why I say such shocking things,
To make them squirm.

I cannot see why one should prize
The world's opinion,
That's why I thumb my nose to prove
I am no minion.

There's Always Something

You no sooner get the Hallowe'en debris swept out of the house than you have to begin worrying about how much turkey is going to cost and whether you will have Uncle Buck and Aunt Ida with their old-fashioned notions or Cousin Monty and Cousin Bess with their bunch of brats.

You no sooner get caught up with sending clever little notes and picture postcards to all the people who were nice to you on your vacation than the Christmas card situation looms on the horizon.

You no sooner begin to pick up the paper without fearing an immediate declaration of war, than you have a presentiment that the new spring hats will be appearing in the advertisements.

Educator Lauds College Interest in Marriage Course

COLLEGE students' avid interest in love, marriage and family life, as evidenced by the thousands of boys and girls registered in college courses in subjects pertaining to sex, will reduce the divorce rate, according to Dr. M. A. Bigelow, of New York, who recently made a survey of youth's opinion on love and marital problems.

"There never was a time," said Dr. Bigelow, "when students were so keen for information that would prepare them for happiness in family life. And more students would take the courses if they were less formal and scientific about sex questions, the mother-in-law problem or the dilemma of the loveless woman. When professors work courses in for credit, they make it so scientific that it doesn't help to solve any personal problem."

NEW CENTER MARKET
5th St. Between K & L N.W.

VARIETY ECONOMY Convenience

"A Shopping City Under One Roof"

FREE PARKING

The new Jelleff's
1214-1220 F STREET

Big doings! Hundreds to choose from! But hurry for—

$10.95 and $12.95 DRESSES

New as can be—bright with latest fashion ideas.

TAILORED Dresses—
AFTERNOON Dresses—
EVENING Dresses—
Your Choice—

$5

MISSES! Try on these—Sizes 12 to18.

Bright Wools, long sleeved, braided, jacketed.....$5
Sparkling-new with nailheads, metallic bodices.....$5
Stud-tailored and softly tailored rayon crepes.....$5
Dual-role dresses with little jackets, boleros.....$5
Corseted waist flared or dirndl-skirt frocks.....$5
Dreamy dancing rayon laces, misty rayon chiffons.....$5
Empire beauties, high-bosomed, square necklined.....$5
Evening Boleros over rayon crepes and satins.....$5

WOMEN! Sizes include 36 to 44, 16½ to 24½

Brilliant nailhead or rhinestone detailing.....$5
Afternoon charm—rayon laces, crepes with lace insertions....$5
Slim, long sleeves, also short and bracelet length.....$5
Dinner Dresses beaded, marquisette sleeved.....$5

JUNIORS! $10.95 Dresses $5

Woolies! Sheer rabbit-hair-wool-and-rayon, lastex waisted, brilliant colored.....$5
Beaded Girdles on afternoon blacks.....$5
Lastex-shirred lumberjackets, bodices.....$5
Tucks are tops on wools, rayon crepes.....$5
Great Glitter of sequins, nailheads.....$5
Zippy Colors, brightest we could find.....$5

Of course mere words can scarcely tell the story of an Event like this!—

Jelleff's Fourth Floor Dress Shops.

Capital Society Turns Out to See Ballet Russe de Monte Carlo

Large Throng Crowds Constitution Hall
National Symphony Orchestra Plays
Colorful Costumes Win Praise

A large audience turned out at Constitution Hall last evening to see the first of two performances by the Ballet Russe de Monte Carlo, accompanied by the National Symphony Orchestra.

The troupe has taken New York by storm this winter, and the Metropolitan Opera House was thronged at each performance with the ermine-coated, silk-hatted upper crust. Last night's audience did not seem quite as gala but made up in enthusiasm. Quite a few of the occupants of the boxes and orchestra hadn't chosen to dress. Anyway, the breath-taking beauty of the ballet costumes, with their lime greens, coral pinks and grays, made even the loveliest evening dress seem just a little dusty and dull.

Mrs. F. A. Keek Entertains Party

Mrs. Frederick A. Keep entertained at a small dinner last evening, later taking her guests on to the ballet. They occupied the box of her sister, Miss Mabel Boardman. In the party were Peruvian Ambassador Manuel de Freyre y Santander, Mr. and Mrs. George Angus Garrett, the latter in a black crepe frock with blue sequins on the bodice; Mrs. Truxtun Beale, looking distinguished in an olive green gown, beautifully draped with long sleeves, and Keith Officer, Australian Counselor of the British Embassy.

Mr. and Mrs. Keith Merrill were others who occupied a box, but most of those who regularly appear in them on symphony nights were absent last evening.

The Spanish Ambassador and Senora de los Rios abandoned their usual box to occupy seats in the orchestra, which they shifted once or twice in order to get a better view. Senora de los Rios wore a long black gown with gold embroidery on the sleeves and a black velvet wrap with a triangular ermine collar.

Myers Family Turns Out

Mrs. George Hewitt Myers, whose ensemble was topped off with fox furs, was accompanied by her two sons-in-laws and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. John Rowland Hill and Lieut. and Mrs. John Pugh. Mrs. Hill wore an olive green satin frock, trimmed with tiny green buttons. Mrs. Pugh hid her gown under a mink coat most of the evening.

The Second Secretary of the Argentine Embassy and Senora de Zwerbuhler chatted during intermission with Miss Mary Louise Marsh, who wore a tremendous silver fox cape. The former Margot Garrett was in black velvet trimmed with red.

Princess Ourusoff looked like a ballet figure herself, in a sweeping red velvet evening wrap topped by her blonde hair. Mrs. C. Mathews Dick, who was accompanied by Mr. Dick, was a striking symphony in black and white, her black gown trimmed with a three-quarter length gown of monkey fur.

eWaring a red gown and a brief coat, Miss Nancy Brereton was accompanied by Denys Smith. Another twosome were Miss Bettie Hardie, in black with a skunk coat, and the Marquis Benedetto Capomazza. Elizabeth Shouse, in a blue frock and small cerise pillbox hat, was escorted by Charles Ritchie, of the Canadian legation.

Others in the company were Michael Straight, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Southgate, the latter wearing a long black velvet wrap over her frock; Mrs. Nathan Wyeth, Commander and Mrs. Atherton Macondray, Mrs. Theodore Wilkinson with her debutante daughter, Ann Wilkinson; Mrs. William T. Mann with Donald Downs, and many other members of society.

Dinner for a Dozen Given by Counselor And Mme. Babes

The Counselor of the Rumanian Legation and Mme. Mircea Victor Babes entertained at dinner last evening in their apartment at the Westchester. Covers were laid for 12.

Guests there were the Counselor of the Argentine Embassy and Senora de Ghiraldo; the Military Attache of the French Embassy and Mme. Lombard; Rafal Lepkowski, Second Secretary of the Polish Embassy; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Green, of the State Department; Mme. Gustav Orlicz-Dreszer, and Dr. and Mrs. Clarence Lee Miller.

Jean Wolfe Wed To Mr. Shannon

In a candlelight setting, Miss Jean Wolfe, daughter of Maj. and Mrs. Stanley Lloyd Wolfe, of Chevy Chase, was married last evening to William Edward Shannon 3d, of Washington, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert T. Shannon. The ceremony took place at the Chevy Chase Presbyterian Church, the Rev. J. Hillman Hollister officiating.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a white satin gown with a draped cowl neck and a tulle veil held with a spray of orange blossoms in her hair. She carried a shower bouquet of gardenias and lilies of the valley.

Miss Betty Murphy, the maid of honor, was attired in gold moire fashioned with a circular skirt over hoops. She wore a court plume in her hair and carried bronze chrysanthemums. The other attendans, who were similarly dressed in light green moire, were the Misses Lou Shannon, sister of the bridegroom; Sallie Archer, Mary Lee Shanks and Margaret Lum, cousin of the bride. They carried yellow chrysanthemums.

C. A. Slater, jr., was best man, and the ushers were Arnold Freshman, John Holzburg, Busey Howard, jr., Page Cornwell, Wilbur Garrett and E. Charlton Graves.

A reception for members of the family at the home of Maj. and Mrs. Wolfe followed the ceremony. Mrs. Wolfe wore a black lace gown trimmed with sequins, and Mrs. Shannon was in plum-colored velvet. Each wore an orchid corsage.

When Mr. and Mrs. Shannon left for their wedding trip, the bride was wearing a two-piece suit of teal blue trimmed in beaver, and a hat to match.

Mrs. Miller Sails For Son's Wedding

Mrs. Carroll Miller, sister of Senator Joseph F. Guffey, and Mrs. Jessie Reeve, sister of Mr. Miller, sailed at midnight last night on the S. S. Washington for France.

They expect to spend a few days in Paris before going to England to the wedding of the Millers' son, William Gardner Miller 3d, of Paris and New York, and Miss Mollie Hornsby, elder daughter of Sir Bertram and Lady Hornsby, of the Old Rectory, Ifield, Crawley, in Sussex.

The wedding will take places on December 10 at the family church in Ifield.

Mr. Miller and his bride, after a short tour on the continent, will reside in Paris until their return to New York in the late spring.

The Millers' elder son, Carroll Miller, jr., was married last October 15.

Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Corns Stop Briefly Here

Mr. and Mrs. Orja Glenwood Corns, jr., who arrived last evening at the Shoreham Hotel, will be in the Capital until today or tomorrow before going on to New York, where they will make their home.

Raymond Massey In Bridal Party

Raymond Massey, who is portraying Abraham Lincoln on Broadway in Robert Sherwood's play, "Abraham Lincoln in Illinois," took on a new role Sunday evening.

He served as best man at the wedding in New York of Miss Ludmilla Aissa Alihan to Dr. Bertram Cecil Eskell. The ceremony was performed at the Russian Orthodox Church of Christ the Savior by Archbishop Arseny of Canada and the Rev. Vassili Kourdumoff.

Married Yesterday

Hessler Studios.

Mrs. Allan Elliott Walker, jr., who, before her wedding yesterday, was Miss Katherine Braxton Hall. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Carter Hall, of Washington. Dr. Walker is the son of Mrs. Allan Walker, also of this city, and the late Mr. Walker

Mary Jane Pelley, to Be Bride Saturday, Honored at Luncheon

Mrs. George Allen Hostess at Fete
Attendants for Wedding Are Guests
Wives of Notables in Company

Miss Mary Jane Pelley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Pelley, whose marriage to Willem Dirkse-van-Schalkwyk will take place Saturday, was guest of honor at a luncheon given yesterday by Mrs. George E. Allen.

The party took place in the Pan American room at the Mayflower Hotel. Receiving her guests in the adjoining room, where cocktails were served, Mrs. Allen wore a frock of blue lame made on simple lines and set off with a natty black hat of Russian design.

Standing with the hostess to greet the guests was Miss Pelley, in a smart black frock embellished with silver fox, and a small black hat, trimmed in red. Mrs. Pelley was in an all-black costume.

The oval table, centering the Pan American room, was decorated with white chrysanthemums. Among the 24 who attended the party were Miss Pelley's matron of honor, Mrs. William Henry Sills, of Chicago, and several of her friends who will be attendants, including Miss Jean Gross and Mrs. Murray Borden, of Washington; Mrs. Margaret Miller and Miss Elizabeth Campbell, both of Sewickley, Pa., and Mrs. Frank V. Jammett, of Englewood, N. J.

Other guests at the luncheon were Mrs. Arthur Vandenberg, Signora Coppola, wife of the Air and Military Attache of the Italian Embassy; Mrs. Stephen Early, Mrs. John Oliver La Gorce, Mrs. J. Fred Essary, Mrs. John O. Herrick, Mrs. Louis G. Caldwell, Mrs. George Holmes, Mrs. Michael Keane, mother of the hostess; Mrs. Robert Moran and Mrs. Abner Drury.

Mr. Frauenheim's Recital Here Dec. 6

Mme. Pelenyi, Mme. Prochnik, Senator and Mrs. Joseph Guffey and Mrs. Roberts Woods Bliss head the patron list, and Mr. and Mrs. Gene Tunney head the list of out-of-town guests coming here specially for the piano recital of Norman Frauenheim at the Sulgrave Club on Tuesday, December 6.

Mr. Frauenheim, who made his professional debut in 1925 at a command performance for the Infanta Isabella of Spain, in Madrid, has a long line of professional triumphs as his record.

Other patrons and patronesses for the program here are Mrs. Ann Archbold, Mrs. Demarest Lloyd, Mrs. George Hewitt Myers, Mrs. Ernest Frederick Farrington, Hon. and Mrs. Justin W. Macklin, Mrs. George Van Horn Moseley, Mrs. Chester C. Bolton, Mr. and Mrs. Duncan Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Allen, Miss Alice J. Clapp, William K. Ryan and Miss Frances Sortwell.

Bakers Hosts at Dinner For Officers and Wives

Maj. Gen. Walter C. Baker, chief of the Chemical Warfare Service, U. S. A., and Mrs. Baker entertained at dinner last evening at the Kennedy-Warren, where they live.

Guests were the officers of the Chemical Warfare, who are stationed in Washington, and their wives.

Mrs. George Garrett Will Entertain Preceding Concert

Mrs. George Angus Garrett will entertain at luncheon today, taking her guests on later to the concert given at Mrs. Joseph Leiter's home for the benefit of the Georgetown Visitation convent. Guests at the luncheon will include the French Ambassador, Count Rene Doynel de Saint Quentin; Keith Officer of the British Embassy, Mr. and Mrs. Dwight F. Davis, Mrs. Lawrence Townsend, Mrs. Leiter, Mrs. Charles Mitchell, house guest of Mrs. Leiter and former president of the Georgetown Visitation Convent Alumnae Association; Dr. Hans Kindler, and Mrs. John R. Williams.

This evening, Mrs. Mitchell will be the honor guest at a small dinner given by Mrs. Williams.

The concert, scheduled for 4:30 o'clock will feature Arnold Belnick, 13-year-old violinist, and proceeds will go toward the fund used annually by the Georgetown Visitation Convent Alumnae Association, of which Mrs. Leiter is president, for improvements at the school.

Among the last minute subscribers for the musicale are Mrs. Paul Bastedo, Mrs. Truxtun Beale, Mrs. Davenport White, Mrs. Ralph Worthington, Mrs. Alden Ludlow, president of the Georgetown Visitation Alumnae Chapter of New York; Mrs. Charles Sewell Thomas, of Denver; Mrs. Howard Augustine Vilstach, of Pittsburgh; Mrs. C. V. G. Clark, Miss Sarah Agnes Fleming, William Ryan, Mrs. Harry H. Kerr and Mrs. G. E. Routh.

Miss Dorothy Dean Engaged to Marry

Mr. and Mrs. James Madison Dean announces the engagement of their daughter, Dorothy Ellen Dean, to Dr. David Franklin Lady, son of Dr. and Mrs. George Webster Lady, of this city.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Wilson Teachers College, where she was president of the Twnty Club and was elected to Kapp Delta Pi, national honorary fraternity. At present she is teaching in Washington.

Dr. Lady is a graduate of Georgetown University and a member of Psi Omega dental fraternity. He completed his undergraduate studies at George Washington University, where he was a member of Kappa Sigma fraternity. He is now practising dentistry here. The marriage will take place December 10 in the Metropolitan Baptist Church.

Katherine Hall Becomes Wife Of Dr. Walker

Canon Lucas Officiates
Ceremony in Her Home
To Live in Capital

A wedding of interest to residential society took place yesterday at 4 o'clock Miss Katherine Braxton Hall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Carter Hall, of 1821 Twenty-third street, was married to Dr. Allan Elliott Walker, jr., son of Mrs. Allan Walker, of 1808 Connecticut avenue, and the late Mr. Walker.

The ceremony took place at the home of the bride's parents, with Canon Albert Lucas and the Rev. Peyton Williams officiating. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a simply made gown of heavy white satin, with a tulle veil attached to a Juliet cap trimmed with pearls. She carried white orchids.

Sisters Are Attendants

Her sister, Mrs. James Carey 3d, was one matron of honor and another sister, Mrs. William Laird Dunlop 3d, served as the other matron of honor. The former wore a pink satin gown and Mrs. Dunlop was gowned in blue faille silk. Both carried bouquets of gardenias.

Albert W. Walker, brother of the bridegroom, served as best man.

Reception After The Ceremony

A small reception followed the ceremony. After a wedding trip, the couple will reside in Washington. The bride attended Holton-Arms School and made her debut here several years ago. Dr. Walker attended the University of Virginia.

Among out-of-town guests at the wedding were Mrs. E. W. Griggs, grandmother of the bride, and her aunt, Mrs. Jessie Anderton, of Petersburg, Va.; Mrs. J. W. Beach, of Hartford, Conn., a cousin of the bride, and the bridegroom's brother-in-law and sister, Capt. and Mrs. Charles A. Dunn, of New York.

Leighs Fete Betty Fischer

About 50 members of the younger set gathered yesterday afternoon at "Ranleigh," the Virginia home of Mr. and Mrs. Randolph Leigh at a party for Miss Betty Fischer, daughter of Mrs. Dulin Cornwell and Commander H. E. Fischer.

Mrs. Leigh went to school with Mrs. Cornwell, and the two families are close friends. Miss Fischer, who was graduated last June from Holton Arms, will have no formal coming-out party this year, but will be included in the debutante festivities.

Assisting the hostess yesterday were her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Thacher Winslow. The guest of honor wore a silver lame dress with a corsage of orchids and Mrs. Leigh was attired in soft rose crepe. Mrs. Winslow wore a wine-colored velvet frock with collar and cuffs of old lace.

Dr. and Mrs. W. Calhoun Stirling, who will entertain at a party Wednesday, ovember 30, for Miss Fischer, were present yesterday. Others included the Misses Jacqueline Meredith, Margaret and Claire Cotter, Peggy Townsend, Nancy Hoskinson and Doris Becker, all debutantes of the season, and Samuel Biddle, William Blum, Jock Merriam, Humphrey Daniels, Clarence Dodge, jr., and many others.

Pageant Dance Set for Nov. 25

The Winterhalter Pageant, named for Franz Winterhalter, the most fashionable portrait painter of the "age of crinoline," will be revived as a feature of the Ball of Nations to be held at the Mayflower on Friday evening, November 25.

It was Franz Winterhalter who painted the famous portrait of Queen Victoria wearing the blue ribbon of the Order of the Garter about her shoulders, and in the dance to be presented at the ball, the lovely ladies will wear low cut dresses with hooped skirts, the blue ribbon of the order about their shoulders. They and their partners will go through the steps of the round waltz, so popular a century ago, which caused a lifted eyebrow when first presented at Buckingham Palace, and which today is again gaining popularity.

Miss Helen Davis, chairman of the ball entertainment committee, is arranging other charming dances, a four-some Scottish reel with William Acker as the piper; reels and square dances. Dr. Roberto Mendoza, first secretary of the Cuban Embassy, will lead the Latin-American number with Mrs. George Grant Mason, jr.

Tea and Supper to Honor Margaret Townsend

Miss Margaret Townsend will be the guest of honor at a supper party given by Mr. and Mrs. Walter R. Tuckerman at their home Tuxeden in Bethesda, on Sunday evening.

The supper will follow a tea that afternoon, when about a hundred of the younger set have been invited from half after four until six, to meet Miss Townsend and Mrs. Tuckerman's house guests, Mrs. Caleb Cresson, of Oakland Hall, Pa., her daughters, Miss Helen Penn Cresson and Miss Emily Vaux Cresson and John Newhall, of Philadelphia.

Miss Carr Returns

Miss Grace L. Carr returned to Washington by airplane yesterday after a brief trip through the South. She visited friends in Raleigh, N. C., and also stopped off at Meredith College.

About The Town

With Dudley Harmon

DUDLEY HARMON

LAST YEAR the average Washington deb, unlike her New York sister, was much less interested in glamour than in sports and good times which did not center about night clubs. This year many more of those coming out seem to favor the long bob versus the up hair-do; the chubby wrap, a slough, and all the other characteristics which are the stock in trade of the much publicized Manhattan deb.

At a small cocktail party given yesterday for debutante Betty Myers (who, by the way, neither slouches nor looks glamorously unhealthy), we noted that most of the young people present favored the long bob. Practically all of them wore the new short fur wraps, too.

SEEN HERE AND THERE: Mrs. Howard Meyers, mother of the young guest of honor, pouring tea; her pretty daughter, in a gold sequin jacket over a black skirt; Peggy Townsend and Eleanor Meem, who area lways together—the former wore a becoming wine colored frock and hat with a fur jacket, and Miss Meem topped off her ensemble with a smart black hat tipped over one eye; Miss Nancy Hoskinson, also in black; Edith Corbin, recently returned from Honolulu, wearing a hat smothered in ostrich feathers.

Also Lieut. Stuart Blue and William Sprague, who felt like dressing up so caused a sensation by arriving in cutaways; Jacques de Their, Michal Budny and Manuel Trucco among the diplomats; Dorsey Fischer, Frederick Nichols, Nancy Ordway, Diana Rowland, Donald Downs, just back from Europe, and several others.

Miss Meyers will be presented at a tea December 3 at which her mother and her aunt, Mrs. Isaac T. Mann, will be hosts.

WE PASS ALONG the following anecdote which has just reached our ears: Thomas Leiter was anxious to transport some champagne down from Washington to Warrenton for the dance he gave last Saturday at the North Wales Club. He went out to get one of the family cars, and much to his disgust, as he was in a hurry to load the champagne, he found each and every one of them in use. So he rushed out and bought himself another one.

NEWBOLD NOYES will leave tomorrow to join Mrs. Noyes in New York, where she has been for several days. They will attend the Harvard-Yale game in New Haven on Saturday . . . Nancy Newbold and her future husband, John Morris Legendre, will make their home in North Carolina, where they are building a house.

MRS. HENRY REA will arrive on Tuesday from her home in Sewickley for her annual visit to Washington. As usual, she will stay at the Sulgrave Club, where she will entertain at a luncheon on Wednesday, December 7, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Norman H. Davis.

Mrs. Rea is the founder of the Gray Ladies, a group of volunteer nurses whom she organized in 1918 to take care of the soldiers at Walter Reed Hospital. Since then they have grown to a national organization who help the sick in both Government and civilian hospitals all over the country. Prominent Washington women who are very much interested in the group include Representative Edith Nourse Rogers, one of the original Gray Ladies, and Mrs. Eldridge Jordan, who spends many hours each week out at Walter Reed.

MARY WELLS and Rudolph Kauffmann II, who will be married November 26, will make their home after January 1 at 1239 Thirty-first street. Their wedding will take place at 4 o'clock at Epiphany Church and will be followed by a reception.

Miss Crory Wears Ivory Satin At Wedding to M. V. O'Connell, jr.

Ceremony Held at Immaculate Conception
Mrs. Richard Finn Is Matron of Honor
Bridegroom's Brother Is Best Man

Wearing an ivory satin gown made with a full skirt, Miss Frances Stasia Crory became the bride yesterday morning of Maurice Vincent O'Connell, jr. The ceremony took place at the Church of the Immaculate Conception with the Rev. Louis F. Miltonberger, of St. Martin's Church, officiating. He was assisted by the Rev. John K. Cartwright.

Miss Crory, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur James Crory, was given in marriage by her father. Her tulle veil was draped from a coronet of old lace and orange blossoms and she carried a bouquet of bride roses and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. Richard Finn was her sister's matron of honor, and Miss Helene Gilliaert, the bride's cousin, served as maid of honor. Mrs. Finn was in violet-colored satin, and Miss Gilliaert wore a dress of orchid satin made on similar lines. Both wore tiny hats of flowers and had bouquets of yellow and cream-colored chrysanthemums.

The bridesmaids, all of whom wore cream-colored satin accented with wood violet velvet and carried orchid chrysanthemums, included Miss Catherine Murphy, Miss Agnes Townsend, Miss Loretta Driscoll and Mrs. William Nelson, former classmates of the bride.

Raymond J. O'Connell was his brother's best man and the ushers were Christopher J. Murphy, jr., Edward Fitzgerald, John Pallas and William J. Nelson, of Washington; Chester F. Bernard, of Boston, and Richard Finn, of Philadelphia.

Immediately after a wedding breakfast at the Admiral, the couple left on their honeymoon. On their return they will live at 4044 Seventh street.

Mrs. O'Connell is an alumna of Immaculate Conception Academy and Columbus University. The bridegroom, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. M. V. O'Connell, received his education at St. Martin's School and at Roosevelt High School.

Lindsays at Party

The British Ambassador and Lady Lindsay were among the guests at the cocktail party given yesterday at the Shoreham by the members of the British and Canadian trade delegation. Also present were the Secretary of Commerce and Mrs. Daniel C. Roper.

Sra. de Recinos Is Hostess to Mme. de Medina

Senora de Recinos, wife of the Minister from Guatemala, entertained at a luncheon yesterday in honor of Senora Eduardo de Medina, wife of the Foreign Minister of Bolivia, who is visiting her. She will sail next week for Lima, where Senor de Medina will be a delegate to the Inter-American Conference.

Guests yesterday were Senora de Lopez, wife of the Columbian Ambassador; Senora de Pastoriza, wife of the Dominican Minister; Senora de Baron, wife of the Minister-Counselor of the Cuban Embassy; Senora de Ghiraldo, whose husband is Counselor of the Argentine Embassy; Senora de Viteri, Mrs. Charles B. Drake, Mrs. Thomas C. Dawson, Mrs. Fred Britten, Mrs. Preston McGoodwin, Mrs. Tomas Cajigas, Mrs. Jorge E. Boyd and Mrs. J. J. Mack.

Newly-Wedded Selines To Live in Chevy Chase

Mr. and Mrs. Caspar R. Seline, who were married last Thursday afternoon, will make their home at 3336 Quesada street, Chevy Chase, after a brief wedding trip.

The bride is the former Miss Thelma E. Falcone, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Valention Falcone, of Washington, and Mr. Seline is the son of Mrs. C. C Seline, of Minnesota. Their marriage took place in the Church of the Covenant, the Rev. Albert J. McCartney officiating.

Mrs. Seline wore a teal blue crepe dress with matching accessories and a corsage of yellow roses. Miss Elizabeth S. Kahler was maid of honor and Kenneth Bickel was best man.

Debut Pleasant 'Racket,' Says Roosevelt Niece

Finds Hers Exciting
To Bow at White House
Likes Milder Sports

By Beth Campbell,
Associated Press.

A lively Eleanor Roosevelt still in her teens is excited over the prospect of her December debut party—the first White House "coming out" party in 28 years.

Like her aunt—the First Lady—for whom she was named, this Eleanor is tall and lithe. She's enthusiastic, too, and frank.

"Don't ask me what I think about debuts in general just now," she begged in a letter from Dedham, Mass. "I've been licking stamps."

But she added: "It's a racket, but an extremely pleasant one." And she put exclamation marks after her "yes', in saying she was excited about her White House party December 27.

Also to Bow In Boston

Eleanor is the daughter of Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt's brother, Hall. Her first introduction to society will be on Thanksgiving Day, when her mother and stepfather, Mr. and Mrs. John Cutler, give a tea for her in Boston. The next day she will receive with other Capital debutantes at the annual Black and White Ball in Washington.

Eleanor is the sort of a brown-eyed girl who wears her brown hair "the way it finds itself when I wake up in the morning."

She likes walking with her dog, riding her English bicycle, listening to phonograph records, making things with her hands, and collecting small bronze animals. But she rides, swims, dances and plays tennis—no golf or bridge.

She disclaims any process at the rougher outdoor sports in which her famous great-uncle, President Theodore Roosevelt, excelled.

Fond of the Milder Sports

"I wander happily about the woods with an empty gun," she confessed, "and I fish without true fishermen's patience—so I'm not a dangerous enemy to game."

In the Boston schools she has attended, Eleanor has been called "Ellie." Her favorite subjects have been art and modern history, the things she hopes to major in when she goes on to school. "Where? I don't know. The Good Earth."

Born in Schenectady, N. Y., she has lived principally in Boston. But she has visited the White House several times in the spring and at Christmas, since her aunt Eleanor moved there.

The Bornsteins Fete Son and His Bride

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Bornstein, who are now on a wedding trip through the East, were guests of honor at a cocktail party Sunday afternoon, given by Mr. and Mrs. William Bornstein, of Takoma Park, parents of the bridegroom. Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Bornstein were married November 6 in Bethlehem, Pa.

The bride before her marriage was Miss Ethel Goldberg. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Goldberg, of Bethlehem. She is a graduate of the Moravian Seminary and College for Women. Mr. Bornstein attended Lehigh University.

Hosmers Return North After Capital Visit

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Hosmer have just returned to their home in Springfield, Mass., after a brief visit with Mrs. Hosmer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. King Cornwell on Lamont street here.

Mrs. Hosmer, the former Miss Barbara Cornwell, and Mr. Hosmer were married the ninth of last September in St. Anns-by-the-Sea, in Kennebunkport, Me.

Millers at Dinner

Justice Justin Miller and Mrs. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Blair and Dean and Mrs. C. W. Leaphart were guests last evening at a dinner given by Ernest E. Danly, special assistant to the Attorney General, and Mrs. Danly.

SAVE TODAY!

a large collection of new Fall and Winter

DRESSES - COATS COSTUMES

Reduced!

20% to 50%

Street, afternoon, dinner and evening dresses, 3-piece wardrobe suits, dress and coat costumes, luxuriously furred dress and sport coats. Sizes for women, misses, and little women. (All one-of-a-kind.)

Erlebacher

1210 F ST. N.W.

The Integrity of the Store from which you buy is of Importance.

Julius Garfinkel & Company

FOR THE REMAINDER OF THIS WEEK ONLY

we present

ANTOINE de PARIS

INTRODUCTORY SETS OF FAMOUS COSMETICS REMARKABLE VALUES AT

$2.75 each set

An opportunity to try the Antoine cosmetics at an unusual saving. The lovely package contains five Antoine skin essentials . . . cleansing cream, nourishing cream, foundation cream, skin tonic and make-up remover . . . and you may choose the right combination for dry, normal or oily skin.

Miss Helen Beavers, Antoine's special consultant, will be in our Toiletries Department all week to advise you on your beauty needs and problems. We invite you cordially to consult with her.

F at Fourteenth

City Club Celebrates Birthday

Organization Is 19
Growing Rapidly
Afternoon Tea Held
Show in Evening

By Jessie Ash Arndt,
The Post Club Editor.

The Women's City Club celebrated its nineteenth birthday yesterday with its founder, Judge Mary O'Toole, among the past presidents who received. Nearly 100 attended the reception and tea in the afternoon and many returned in the evening to be joined by other members for the Gay 90's program which was presented.

Miss Marjorie Webster, president of the club—which has grown recently at the rate of 20 new members a month—headed the receiving line in the afternoon. Past presidents, in addition to Judge O'Toole, who were with her, included Dr. A. Frances Foye, Mrs. Lyman B. Sworm stedt, Dean Grace Hays Riley and Mrs. William Lee Corbin. Special guests were Mrs. Jewell WK. Swofford Mrs. Laura Bradley and Mrs. George B. Eastment.

The tea tables were arranged in the music room, with centerpieces of autumn leaves and chrysanthemums. Mrs. Grattan Kerans and Miss Pearl Jencks poured and there was music by Mrs. Evangeline Tulley, soprano, accompanied By Izant Couch.

Some of those who were present in the afternoon remained at the clubhouse for dinner and others hurried home in order to return again in the evening. Mrs. Swormstedt was a leader in the Gay 90's skit and others who took part were Miss Thelma Schmidt, Mrs. Gladys B. Middlemiss, the Misses Marjorie Marshall, Bess Hough, Margaret Denham, Beth Sands, Nell Price and Mrs. McMullin.

Following the skit there was the usual ceremony of opening gifts for the club, which are always brought on its anniversary. Among them was a handsome lamp for the board room. Others included linens, pictures, other useful articles and gifts of money.

Donation Day At Chevy Chase

There was also a donation day at the meeting of the Woman's Club of Chevy Chase yesterday, but this was for the Montgomery County Hospital rather than for the club.

The guest speaker was Charles Moylan, of Baltimore, who came at the last minute at the request of Gov.-elect Herbert O'Conor, who was scheduled to address the club, but found Tuesday evening he would be unable to do so. There was a large attendance both at the luncheon and afternoon program. There were vocal solos by Miss Celestine Adams, accompanied by Clara Bernheimer.

Announcement was made of the semiannual meeting of the Montgomery County Federation of Women's Clubs, Monday, November 28, at the Chevy Chase Club, at 10 a. m. A committee of Chevy Chase women, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Herbert M. Eaton, will serve luncheon, and the money raised will be donated to the nurses' home of the Montgomery County Hospital.

November 25, there will be a card party and tea sponsored by the art section under Mrs. Henry DeCoursey Arams, for the benefit of the section's craft classes. Tonight, the drama section will sponsor the Benda Masks, with the Marion Crace Dancers participating in the program and wearing the masks. Mrs. Arthur T. Davenport is drama chairman.

Reba Barret Circle Protests on Trees

Another meeting yesterday was that of the Reba Barrett Circle of the Florence Crittenton Home, with Mrs. Ernest Humphry Daniel, president of the D. C. Federation of Women's Clubs. Its patroness, Mrs. Reba Barrett Smith, was among the 50 members and guests present. The circle of which Mrs. Mary Lamont White is president, joined other groups in the District in protest against sacrificing the Japanese cherry trees to make way for the Jeffereson Memorial.

Coast Guard Women Meet

Post Staff Photo

Mrs. Henry Morgenthau, jr. (left), who was guest of honor at a luncheon given yesterday at the Shoreham Hotel by the League of Coast Guard Women, photographed as she chats with Mrs. Russell R. Waesche, wife of Rear Admiral Waesche, commandant of the United States Coast Guard. The luncheon followed the opening business meeting of the league's session here

Madame Chairman

By Suzanne.

MARY PICKFORD yesterday bought the first sheet of equal rights seals, to be used in the National Woman's Party campaign for the passage of the equal rights amendment. "Equal Status for Men and Women Will Balance Our Constitution" they read and have a Statue of Liberty, holding the torch in one hand and in the other a balance, with the figure of a woman in one scale and that of a man in the other.

Miss Pickford purchased the seals from Miss Alma Lutz, of Boston, national chairman of the seal campaign. With Miss Lutz were Mrs. Marie Moore Forrest, chairman ofthe D. C. branch of the party, and Mrs. Vera Johnson, chairman of the Government Workers' Council.

CHILDREN of Maj. Charles M. Stedman Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, of which Mrs. Rosa Lee Wood is director, will have their fall dance Saturday night at Confederate Memorial Hall, 1322 Vermont avenue, from 8:30 to 11:30.

MEMBERS of Electa Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, recently presented a play on the life of Queen Vashti, written by Past Grand Patron Walter L. Folwer. In the cast were Mrs. Ardah Hennings, Mrs. Florence Fowler, Mrs. Lyda Davis, Mrs. Miranda Hodge, Mrs. Isabelle Clarke, Miss Helen Yeager, F. Tracy Campbell, William Tucker, Norman Murphy and Frank Hodge. Mrs. Ethel Scantlebury, Aurelia Birmingham and James V. Dies provided the musical numbers.

SORORITIES ARE BUSY as usual this week with meetings and parties. Chi Omega of George Washington University last night entertained pledges at Hotel Twenty-four Hundred, with Betty Hutto in charge of the program. . . . Saturday Theta Alpha Chi, national high school sorority celebrates its twenty-ninth anniversary with a banquet and dance at the Mayflower. Betty Jones, president of Alpha Chapter and grand vice regent, is chairman of the committee and also a speaker. . . . Kappa Phi Epsilon Law Sorority will have its regular meeting this Saturday afternoon instead of the usual second Saturday. There will be election of Alpha Chapter officers, with Mary Passerini and Mrs. Estella Baldwin nominees for the presidency . . . Recently-installed Delta Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi Sorority, at its meeting Tuesday night, inducted new officers, headed by Thelma Nunnally, president . . . Phi Delta Alpha, an alumnae group of graduates of public schools, last night held its annual banquet at the Carlton Hotel . . . Beta Chapter, Phi Delta Women's Legal Fraternity, holds its annual dance at the Washington College of Law, 2000 G street, Saturday evening.

MRS. DAVID D. CALDWELL, newly elected president of the State Officers' Club, of the District of Columbia, Daughters of the American Revolution, will be hostess to the new officers and board of directors at luncheon today at the Rixey Mansion Inn, Country Club Hills, Va. Mrs. Caldwell's guests will include the club's newly elected officers, Mrs. Catherine B. Strong, first vice president; Mrs. Donald M. Earll, second vice president; Mrs. William H. Wagner, chaplain; Mrs. Roy C. Bowker, recording secretary; Mrs. Clyde B. Hamblin, corresponding secretary; Mrs. William H. Harper, treasurer, and the board of directors, composed of Mrs. William B. Sinnott, Mrs. Thomas H. Seay, Mrs. W. W. Lemmond, Miss Margaret E. Naylor and Miss Mary J. Edmands. Miss Mary J. Edmands. Miss Lillian Chenoweth, State regent, D. C., D. A. R.; Mrs. Howard L. Hodgkins, honorary vice president general from the District and founder of the club, and Mrs. Richard E. Claughton, retiring club's president, will be the special guests of honor.

Home Economists Precede Session Here With Dinner

A small dinner preceded the opening fall session of the executive committee of the American Home Economics Association last night at the Wardman Park Hotel.

Out-of-town members who attended were Mrs. Helen Judy Bond, president of the association, New York; Miss Dorothy Dickins, State College, Miss.; Miss Mildred Horton, College Station, Tex.; Miss Mabel McBain, Houston, Tex; Mrs. Ruth D. Morley, Amherst, Mass.; Miss Margie Thompson, Lansing, Mich.; Miss Clara Tucker, Denton, Tex.; Miss Isabel N. Young, New York; Mrs. Millicent Yackey Taylor, Chester, Pa.

Sessions will be held today and tomorrow. Mrs. Katherine McFarland Ansley, executive secretary of the association, is in charge of all arrangements. She is connected with the District of Columbia office of the American Home Economics Association.

Women Invited To Affair for Mrs. Musser

At the Cosmos Club She Will Go to Lima Will Discuss Conference

The Peolples Mandate Committee has invited leaders of women's groups interested in the Mandate campaign to meet Mrs. Burton W. Musser, of Salt Lake City at luncheon, at luncheon at the Cosmos Club next Monday. Mrs. Musser, who is a member of the Mandate Committee, has been appointed by the President on the official United States delegation to the Pan American Conferance which opens in Lima on December 9.

At the luncheon Mrs. Musser will discuss the plans for the conference and the leaders of the various organizations will have an opportunity to talk with her about the measures in which the Mandate Committee is particularly interested.

Mrs. Musser was a member of the United States delegation to the Inter-American Peace Conference in Buenos Aires in 1936, where she and Representative Caroline O'Day made formal presentation of over a million signatures to the Peoples Mandate. Mrs. Russell also led the Mandate delegation which last year made a 17,000-mile air tour of South and Central America in support of the Buenos Aires peace treaties.

Among those who will attend the luncheon are Miss Mabel Vernon, who will head the Mandate delegation to the Lima conference, Mrs. Robert Olesen, Mrs. John Donaldson, Miss Helen Parkins, of the American Association of University Women; Mrs. Ernest Daniel and Mrs. Lloyd Biddle, of the District Federation of Women's Clubs; Mrs. E. E. Danly, of the Young Women's Christian Associatin; Mrs. Agnes Newman and Miss Ella Werner, of the Soroptimists; Mrs. Frank Linzel, Women's Council of the Washington Federation of Churches; Mrs. William H. King, Miss Edith Goode, Mrs. Louis Jay Heath, Mrs. Howard Leroy; Mrs. Raymond Clapper, Miss Gertrude Crocker, Miss Mary Moss Wellborn, Miss Ada Mary Foster, all officers of the Mandate Committee, and Miss Joan Drake, of Santa Barbara, who will be a member of the Mandate delegation to Lima.

Women Voters Launch Campaign For 'Democracy'

After sessions centering on the challenge of the post-Munich world, the board of the National League of Women Voters today launched a Nation-wide expansion program, its objective "more citizens who fulfill the responsibility o living in a democracy."

"From the time of the Munich agreement, the Americas have been left pretty much to keep the torch of democracy alive," said Miss Marguerite M. Wells, president. "The United States has not stepped out front—it has been forced out front.

"What does that mean to the League of Women Voters? Simply this—the league is a very tsrong group that has long since served its apprenticeship in effective democracy, and is now ready and prepared to go out and do more about democracy.

The board appointed Mrs. George Gellhorn, of St. Louis Mo., a woman's leader ever since the days before women suffrage was won, as chairman of the campaign.

"Our purpose is peace-time patriotism," said Mrs. Gellhorn. "To make democracy as exciting for young people as the all-powerful state is made in totalitarian countries; to lead the older citizen to appreciate his privileges and the moving power of his opinio and his vote to safeguard his freedom."

Working For Washington

* * * *

Mrs. Charles Trussell Spurs P.-T. A.'s Aims

Good Citizenship Stressed by Her
She Doubts One Can Learn That Too Early
Wants Children to Respect Rights of Others

By Christine Sadler.

While children are still in school before their lives are molded into set patterns is the best time to teach them citizenship, in the opinion of Mrs. Charles P. Trussell, who heads the citizenship committee of the District Congress of Parents and Teachers.

Good citizenship to Mrs. Trussell means essentially a respect for rights of others, and she doubts that one can begin learning that too early.

"If a child is taught the rights of others in school, rights of the other pupils and of others in his neighborhood, it is likely that he will continue to follow that pattern," she says.

Although patriotism is one of the attributes of good citizenship, it is theaim of Mrs. Trussell and the committees working with her in the various P.-T.A. units of Washington to stress the need for teaching along with it "tolerance and a lack of prejudice."

Further Patriotic Programs in Schools

To further patriotic ideals, the citizenship committees see to it that each school has a copy of the Constitution and the Declaration of Independence. They sponsor programs, work in co-operation with Junior American groups and the Americanization School, and co-operate with citizens' associations in the neighborhood.

Their work is not aimed solely at chidren, for they fee that one "needs to keep earning it."

"On rainy days, for instance, when parents come for their children, park in spots where it says "No Parking," honk their horns and tie up traffic generay, we sometimes know the co-operation is not a it shoud be. As parents we have much to remember, if we want the chid's training to be effective," Mrs. Truesse says.

Is Native of District of Columbia

Mrs. Trussell was born in the District of Columbia and still lives in the home where she spent her childhood. It is on Western avenue, in Chevy Chase. She attended Janney School, where her two sons were later pupils and where, last year, she was president of the Parent-Teacher Association. This is her first year as chairman of a District-wide committee. She is one of the wives of the District who entered P.-T. A. work "with misgixings as to what it would be like" and was surprised to find that she rather liked it.' In addition to her P.-T. A. activities, she works one day a week for the roving library of her neighborhood and finds time to be program chairman for her soorrity and attend meetings of the Dorothy Hancock Chapter of the D. A. R. Her husband is Washington correspondent for the Baltimore Sun.

Women Hear Malvina Lindsay

Women are the Charlie Chaplins of life, members of the District of Columbia League of Pen Women were told yesterday by Malvina Lindsay, editor of the Woman's Page of The Post and author of "The Gentler Sex."

Speaking at the Pen Women's weekly fellowship tea at the Grafton,n she discussed wome fro mthe standpoint of an editor and columnist whose work deals with them and their foibles. "Women are funnier than men," said Miss Lindsay, "because of their petty frustrations and their constant effort to do things right and to be beautiful and noble. They are more dissatisfied with themselves than are men and they cherish eternal hope of tomorrow.

This hope that things will be better and effort to make them so has also made women the preservers of civilization, she said.

Miss Lindsay, while pointing out the amusing contrasts which made women funny, also stressed their nobility and explained that in writing about them she was lauding with them rather than at them.

Mrs. Harold Moulton was honor guest at the tea and Mrs. H. Lyle Campbell, hostess.

Clara Isabelle Boone, fashionist, will have a showing of fashion sketches, exhibiting original designs in wraps, dinner gowns and formals as well as street clothes, in the studio of the league at the Grafton from November 18 through November 30. A few sketch copies of gowns of the Duchess of Windsor also will be included.

Mrs. Boone will be present and the exhibit will be open to the public on November 18 and 23, from 3 to 5 p. m., and November 25 and 28 from 1:30 to 3:30. She will be hostess at the art tea, Sunday, November 20, from 4 to 6.

Those who will pour are: Mme. Marc Peter, Mrs. William Doak, Mrs. Frank Mondell, Mrs. Flora McGill Keefer, Mrs. Harvey W. Wiley, and Mrs. Riley Moore.

Others assisting will be: Miss Marshall Adams, Mrs. Minnie L. Briggs, Mrs. Harriet Hawkins Chambers, Miss Mama Hennessey, Mrs. Florence Nebecker, and Mrs. Nell Streigel of Phoenix, Ariz.

Food, Apron Sale Today At House of Mercy

Mrs. Walter R. Tuckerman, president, assisted by the members of the board of directors of the House of Mercy, will officiate at the annual food and apron sale, which will be held at the institution on Klingle road from 11 to 6 o'clock today.

As part of the upkeep program, the House has specialized in making uniforms and aprons. Many Washington's leading families have for the past 25 years purchased all of their maid's uniforms and tea aprons there.

Tea will be served from 4 o'clock on. At the tea table will be Mrs. Ze Barney Phillips, wife of the chaplain of the Senate, Mrs. Henry Lockwood, Mrs. James Millholland, Mrs. Henry Morris and Mrs. William Sowers, who is in charge of the cake table.

St. Joseph Alumnae Plan Bingo Tomorrow

A bingo and card party will be given by the Washington Chapter of the Alumnae of St. Joseph's College, Emmittsburg, Md., tomorrow night, at 4107 Connecticut avenue northwest at 8 p. m., with Mrs. Peter Faerber as general chairman. The party is for the benefit of the library fund of St. Joseph's College and is open to the public.

Mrs. Faerber is assisted by Mrs. Frances Golibart, chairman of refreshments; Miss Honor Keane, games; Mrs. Edward Talbott, tables; Mrs. Francis O'Reilly, prizes; Miss Mary Martha Golibart, tickets, and Miss Margaret McKiever, publicity.

The officers of the Washington Chapter include: Miss Mary Columbus, regent; Mrs. Walter Distler, vice regent; Miss Mary Martha Golibart, secretary, and Mrs. Dwight Bracken, treasurer.

Secretarial Students Plan Dance Tomorrow

Students and alumni of the Washington School for Secretaries are planning a dance at the Carlton tomorrow night, and have selected Miss Bernice Wyman, daughter of Dr. Dr. W. W. Wyman, as chairman of the committee on arrangements.

Miss Wyman will be assisted by Miss Kathryne Sanford, of Greenville, S. C.; Miss Maryman Sears and Miss Mary Ellan Hopkins, of this city; Miss Betty Lou Harrison, of Hyattsville, and Fred Hosey, of Cumberland, Md.

Mrs. Dunbar Returns

Mrs. Saidie Orr Dunbar, president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, has returned from a Southern speaking trip on which she was the guest of honor and principal speaker at the conventions of the State Federations of Women's Clubs in Mississippi, Louisiana and Texas.

STEINWAY PIANINO
An exquisitely beautiful piano of console type and astonishing tone. See, hear, play it. $550
DROOP'S • 1300 G

P. N.
Practical
Front
There is no other corset like Practical Front. Its patented inner-vest construction suppresses large abdomen without pressure, lifts and supports in comfort. This blush pink brocade model controls thighs and flesh above the waist at sides and back . . . yet gives with elastic inserts.
$5
The Palais Royal
G Street at Eleventh
District 4400

BEST & CO.
4433 CONNECTICUT AVE., N.W., NEAR ALBEMARLE ST. Emerson 7700

A Best Specialty

THE GRACE ASHLEY SHIRTWAIST DRESS WITH REMOVABLE STUDS

RAYON ALPACA
in green, rust, wine, stone blue with "Jewel" pin and studs
25.00

LIGHT WOOL
in aqua, powder blue or rose
19.95

DESIGNED by a young woman of talent and good taste, this little dress has become the favorite of smart women from coast to coast. It has simplicity, youth, comfort. It's appropriate for any occasion — from business to "don't dress" evenings. Have it in several fabrics, several colors; change its appearance with different sets of studs. Sizes 14 to 20.

The Grace Ashley dress also comes in women's sizes — various colors and fabrics.

EASY PARKING SPACE

Bedtime Stories

By Thornton W. Burgess.

The Racketeers

The rights of others, it is clear,
Mean nothing to the racketeer.
—Old Mother Nature.

When Robber the Rat and Mrs. Robber and their children moved from Farmer Brown's barn over to Aunt Sally's to live because Farmer Brown had made his barn unsafe for them they were few in number. There they disovered the Woodhouse Night Club where Aunt Sally welcomed the Coons and Skunks who were nightly visitors to partake of the good things she generously provided. Here was food in abundance to be obtained easily. That it was not intended for them made no difference to the Rats. Robber the Rat is a thief and the son of a thief and his children are like him. They are racketeers, living on the industry of others, outlaws and outcasts and glorying in the fact.

Now among many of the people who wear fur plenty of food easily obtained often means large families. This is especially true among Rats and Mice. So it wasn't long before Aunt Sally became aware that these four-legged racketeers were threatening to "eat her out of house and home" as she expressed it. They were living in the barn, under the woodhouse and even between the walls of her house. You see somehow in the strange way that news travels word of the good and easy living there had reached other Rats and they had promptly joined Robber and his family. And now there were many young rats.

"My land, I don't know what I'm going to do!" complained Aunt Sally to Farmer Brown's boy. "They are regular gangsters, those Rats are. They are dirty. They get bolder every day. They come out in broad daylight now. They are not content with stealing the food I put out for the Coons and Skunks and my Cat but have gnawed their way into my pantry and no food is safe from them unless it is in tin or glass with a cover. I don't know what I am to do. The only time Bobby Coon and Jimmy Skunk get anything at all is when I am sitting out there in the woodhouse with them. I used to leave the pans filled so that they could come in during the night and be sure of a meal but I can't do that any more. The minute those Coons and Skunks leave and my back is turned those Rats clean those dishes out."

They stole the seeds that Aunt Sally put out for the Birds

"I had supposed that the Coons and Skunks would keep the Rats away, being their natural enemies," said Farmer Brown's boy. "I guess it must be that you feed them so well that they are never hungry enough to want a Rat and the Rats know it. I guess you will have to do a little trapping, Aunt Sally."

"Huh!" exclaimed Aunt Sally. "That is easier said than done. If there is anything about traps that those critters don't know I don't know it myself. I don't believe that there are any smarter critters anywhere in the world than Rats. It is easy to say trap them but how are you going to do it if they won't go into the traps? Tell me that, Tommy."

Of course, Tommy couldn't. "Have you tried poison?" he asked.

Aunt Sally shook her head vigorously. I don't dare to," said she. "Bobby Coon or Jimmy Skunk might get hold of it and I never could forgive myself if that happened."

"It would have to be put out in such a way that none but a Rat could get it and that could be done, but I don't like the idea of using it," replied Tommy. "I know something about Rats and I will come over and see if I can get rid of them for you," he added.

Of course Aunt Sally was quite willing and Tommy went home for more traps to add to those Aunt Sally had.

Meanwhile Robber and the rest of the racketeers were doing just about as they pleased. They stole the seeds that Aunt Sally put out for the birds. They even invaded the kitchen in the middle of the day and were brazenly bold about it so that Aunt Sally became a little afraid of them. But their very boldness was likely to be the undoing of at least some of them. The over-bold in time became careless and not even the most successful racketeer can afford to become careless.

Copyright, 1938, By T. W. Burgess.

Brooks
1109 G Street

"TWO-TIMER"
short by day long by night
14.95
a big fashion hit with JUNIORS

A dress that changes in a flash from a charming daytime costume to a graceful dinner gown . . . thanks to its EXTRA evening length skirt, which zips up the side in a second. Rich rayon crepe in black or king's blue . . . with a wide gold-embroidered girdle. Junior sizes, 9 to 15.

JUNIOR COLONY FOURTH FLOOR

PARTIES . . . made-to-order!
We invite your early inspection of our facilities for parties, large or small, formal or informal. They include a large and small ballroom, Salon, Palm Room and new cocktail Lounge Riviera. Our experience is at your disposal in planning music, refreshments and decorations. Call Columbia 7200.
HOTEL 2400 SIXTEENTH
F. C. Minnick, Manager

Personal Christmas Cards

Designs and sentiments of striking individuality comprise our showing of Christmas cards for this year. Let us show you how attractively your name can be imprinted from our special types or from your engraved plate. Make your selection now—leisurely, rather than in the busy days to follow—from the most varied array of cards to be found in Washington.

BREWOOD
Engravers and Stationers
1217 G STREET

The Federal Diary

By Scott Hart.

THE international situation is causing the Navy Department to tone down its news agencies, which is exactly what went on in most Federal departments in the weeks preceding the recent election, when they shut up like clams (most of them) for fear of getting off base in a crucial time . . . The Mint officials were very much pleased with the design and general appearance of the new Jefferson nickel (which appeared here yesterday), and if there was any qualm at all it was on how the public might react to a coin with a building on it.

And the Mint officials here didn't get any of the coins in advance to show off to their friends; they got their nickels in the usual course of distribution . . . You may be interested to watch for Jefferson coins that have the letters "S" or "D" by the side of the building (the Monticello mansion) . . . These would indicate that the coins came through in somebody's pockets from the West, and were minted either in San Francisco or Denver . . . Those in hand here now have no letter, because they were made at the Philadelphia Mint, which never has used a by line.

PEOPLE WHO serve the public from Federal buildings declare themselves in a quandary when questions come about how many Republicans, and who, gained seats in the House and Senate in the recent election . . . And several other professional questions answerers have bungled the same, as witness the well-known question and answer box on the radio Tuesday night . . . Why don't inquirers call the Republican national headquarters; they love to tell the story . . . And besides, it's a cruelty to ask Administration information services such a question.

Civil Service Commissioner Lucille Foster McMillin told a local journalism class yesterday that lack of professional training is a big handicap to women in Federal service; also that the typewriter has opened the door of opportunity for them . . . Washington Chapter, No. 1, Association of Non-Classified Federal Employes, meets tonight at 8:15 in the Lafayette Hotel . . . And this growing organization finds itself in the center of interest now.

The members are being told: "You are either to be included within the scope of the classified service extension order of June 24, 1938—or you are not. If you are, you will be interested to know that the executive order will apply only as long as the President of the United States desires to have it to . . . Only by legislation can the executive order be made permanent." The idea is to present safeguards on behalf of non-classified employes. "After they have been safeguarded, it is probable, after a referendum, that this group will become the Association of Classified Federal Employes . . ."

W. L. STURDEVANT, director of information for the TVA, enlightened the Congressional investigating committee this week as follows: Increasing experience in handling the thousands of requests for information on the authority's diverse activities, together with "a more efficient and compact organizational setup, have enabled the information office to reduce its expenditures each year since 1936 . . . To date, TVA's information office has handled nearly 150,000 mail requests for information. The office has prepared and published 1,608,900 copies of pamphlets at an average cost of .032 cents per booklet, with resultant income of $52,262 to the Government Printing Office . . . The office has prepared and circulated eight films dealing with the authority's work. At the close of the last fiscal year more than 500,000 persons had viewed one or more of these films and an additional 1,000,000 persons had visited TVA exhibits at national expositions where the films were shown.

Don't smoke as you walk down fifth wing of the sixth floor of the South Agricultural Building. That's the location of the current turkey tests, where the tukey testing is in progress—and a whiff of cigarette smoke would upset the olfactory balances—a whiff of cigar or pipe smoke would ruin matters for a week.

NOTES: The first annual dinner dance sponsored by Local 12, U. F. W. A. affiliate in the Lebor Department, will be held Saturday evening at the Gingham Club. Officials of the department will be there . . . Carroll R. Daugherty, chief economist, Wage-Hour Division, will address employes of the department at a meeting called by U. F. W. A. Local 12, at 8:15 o'clock this evening, in the Interstate Commerce Commission hearing room. Daugherty is the author of numerous texts on labor problems. He will discuss some of the aspects of the wage-hour law . . . The West Virginia State Society will hold its second meeting of the fall season at 8:30 o'clock this evening, in the Raleigh Hotel ballroom. Officers will be elected for 1939. Dancing will be from 10 to 1.

Personal To Fat Girls

Now you can slim down your face and figure without strict dieting or back-breaking exercises. Just eat sensibly and take 4 Marmola Prescription Tablets a day, according to the directions, until you have lost enough fat — then stop.

Marmola Prescription Tablets have been sold to the public for more than thirty years. More than twenty million boxes have been distributed during that period.

Marmola is not intended as a cure-all for all ailments. This advertisement is intended only for fat persons who are normal and healthy otherwise and whose fatness is caused by hypo-thyroidism with accompanying subnormal metabolic rates. No other representation is made as to this treatment except under these conditions and according to the dosage as recommended.

We do not make any diagnosis as that is the function of your physician, who must be consulted for that purpose. The complete formula is included in every package. Start with Marmola today and win the slender trim figure that is rightfully yours.

Fairfax Man, Voter 12 Years, Found Non-Citizen of U. S.

Post Staff Photo.

Salvator (Sam) Savia, Fairfax barber, is shown in action

Sam Savia Always Paid His Poll Tax Got First 'Call' to Ballot Box in 1926 Nobody Objected Until 'Hot' Local Election

For 15 years Salvator (Sam) Savia, Fairfax County barber, has been paying poll taxes to the State of Virginia, keeping the receipts in the little drawer just below the shaving mugs. For the last 12 years of that time he has been voting the straight Democratic ticket, just like most of his neighbors.

Then on Tuesday somebody challenged Sam's vote—on grounds that he is not an American citizen.

"That's right," Sam declared yesterday. "My papers have not gone through yet and I have to wait for another term of court to open in Alexandria. It may be the first of the year before I am taken in."

He Doesn't Understand

But Sam still does not see "why the Government has been charging me all this tax and now does not let me vote."

Some of his neighbors in the little town of Vienna, however, are sure they understand the situation.

"This is the first time we ever had such a hot election. Some of us wanted to put through water and sewers for Vienna. The government was going to let us have $83,000 toward it. Sam was on our side. If he had been on the other side I bet nobody would have thought about challenging him," declared one of the Vienna citizens who ran into the barbershop yesterday afternoon to leave "Manual of the United States,"—so that Sam can concentrate on getting ready for his final examination in Americanism.

He Won't "Make a Fuss"

"Me, no, I will not make a fuss or anything. Enemies are worse to have than friends. I'll take the friends," Sam declared. "But they've been sending me literature from Richmond all along. I've been voting on everything. I could have voted for Al Smith, except I didn't get to the election. I voted for Roosevelt every time, though."

If Sam does not become a bona fide citizen of the United States before December 8 another complication will enter his life; for on that date his oldest son will be 21. "I think the law is that if I'm a citizen before he's 21, he's a citizen, too. If later than that he will need the citizenship papers himself.

"But he knows all the things I have had to learn from the manual. It won't take him so long. I started almost three years ago myself." Sam said.

Sam was born in Italy, but in 1907 he moved to the Argentine. He came to the United States in 1920, to Vienna in 1922. In 1923 he registered and paid his first poll tax. In 1926 he received his "first call to come and vote because I had been here long enough."

He is the father of three sons and two daughters, and he is "for progressive things that will make the town better—like sewers and water."

Witchcraft Killers Sentenced to Life

Houghton, Mich., Nov. 16 (AP).—Wilfred Pichette, 35-year-old laborer of nearby Dollar Bay, and his wife pleaded guilty in Circuit Court today to charges of first-degree murder for the "witchcraft" slaying October 22 of Marian Doyle, their 20-year-old housekeeper.

Sentence of life imprisonment is mandatory.

Both admitted they beat Miss Doyle to death because Pichette believed the housekeeper "possessed of the devil."

Transportation Asked For Blind to Show

A call for transportation for blind persons to the midnight preview of "The Citadel," to be given at Loew's Capitol on Thanksgiving eve for benefit of the National Library of the Blind, was voiced yesterday by the committee of volunteers in charge.

A number of blind persons have been furnished tickets, but transportation is lacking, it was said. Persons planning to attend the preview who will volunteer to take one or more blind persons should call Republic 2838.

'It Does Not Stop At the Synagogues'

New York, Nov. 16 (AP).—Frank Ritchie, executive director of the American Committee for Christian German refugees, said in a formal statement today the German Nazi "persecution does not stop at the synagogues." He estimated that perhaps half of those involved were Christians.

Miss Nell Ziff, national president of Junior Hadassah, Jewish organization, announced that delegates to the organization's Pittsburgh convention next week would be asked to authorize Junior Hadassah units in 41 States to take leadership in a boycott of German-made goods.

IF YOU FEEL SUNK
Read this and cheer up

Are you so blue that life is no longer worth living? Do you cry easily? Do you feel low, mean, depressed—just absolutely SUNK?

Then here's good news for you in case you need a good general system tonic—Just take famous Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Let its wholesome herbs and roots help Nature build up more physical resistance and tone up your system, so that it can more easily throw off the "blues" and give more energy to enjoy life.

MILLIONS of women have depended upon this Compound and have passed the word along to friends and neighbors, and to their children.

Why not take Pinkham's Compound and so "smiling thru"?

Doctor Planned Torture Coolly, Court Is Told

Thought Wife Ravished Asked Aid in Revenge Pliers Used in Deed

By the Associated Press.

Olympia, Wash., Nov. 16.—Prosecution witnesses testified today that Dr. Kent W. Berry, 50, planned patiently and in detail the kidnaping and torture of Irving Baker, former Coast Guard officer whom the society physician accused of ravishing pretty 27-year-old Mrs. Berry.

Chris Harriage, who testified he rejected an invitation by Dr. Berry to participate in Baker's abduction last August, said the physician claimed he had "fixed" State and county authorities so there would be no prosecution.

Dr. Berry and three others are on trial, accused of kidnaping and assault, a charge carrying maximum punishment of death. Prosecutor Smith Troy did not ask the death penalty, but several prospective jurors were rejected by the State after they said they objected to capital punishment.

Harriage and Albert Beaulieu testified they met July 11 with Berry and William McAloon, a codefendant, at Berry's request. They said the physician asked them to help "beat up" Baker in revenge for what Dr. Berry said was an attack upon Mrs. Berry after a July 4 house party.

Harriage testified Dr. Berry quoted his wife as saying Baker, an automobile salesman, "mauled her around . . . bruised her and finally raped her."

What's Going On And Where

Breakfasts

Credit Women of Washington, Willard Hotel, 8 a. m.

Luncheons

Community Chest Campaign, Willard Hotel, 12:30 p. m.

Beta Theta Pi, Hotel Burlington, 12:30 p. m.

North Washington Lions Club, Kenesaw Cafe, Sixteenth and Irving streets northwest, 12:14 p. m.

Alexander Bell, Hotel Hamilton, 12:30 p. m.

Hospital Presidents, Hotel Hamilton, 1 p. m.

Kiwanis Club, Mayflower Hotel, 12:30 p. m.

Junior Board of Commerce, Hotel Annapolis, 12:15 p. m.

Cosmopolitan Club, Carlton Hotel, 12:30 p. m.

Dinners

Federation of Business Men's Associations, Hotel Hamilton, 6:30 p. m.

Lido Civic Club, Mayflower Hotel, 7 p. m.

American Society of Agronomy, Mayflower Hotel, 7 p. m.

Sacred Heart Alumni, Mayflower Hotel, 8 p. m.

Traffic Club of Washington, Mayflower Hotel, 7 p. m.

Buffet Supper, D. C. Pharmaceutical Association, Wardman Park Hotel, 7 p. m.

Meetings

Convention Atlantic Deeper Waterways Association, Willard Hotel, 10 a. m. and 2 p. m.

Thirteen Club, Willard Hotel, 8 p. m.

Agronomy and Soil Science Society, Mayflower Hotel, 10 a. m.

American Society of Agronomy, Mayflower Hotel, 1:30 p. m.

League of Laymen's Retreats, Mayflower Hotel, 8 p. m.

Washington Academy of Sciences, Cosmos Club, 8:15 p. m.

Free Lance Writers, Shoreham Hotel, 8 p. m.

West Virginia State Society, Hotel Raleigh, 8:30 p. m.

American Home Economics Association, Wardman Park Hotel, All Day.

Dances

Alabama Society, Willard Hotel, 9 p. m.

Kappa Delta Sorority, Roger Smith Hotel, 9 p. m.

North Carolina State Society, Shoreham Hotel, 9:30 p. m.

Massachusetts State Society, Wardman Park Hotel, 9:30 p. m.

Lecture

Judge Oscar R. Luhring, D. C. Bar Association, Mayflower Hotel, 8 p. m.

Indictment Follows Check Paid for Liquor

Richards Faces Trial 34 Other True Bills 3 Are for Deaths

The grand jury yesterday returned 35 indictments including one charging Blaine R. Richards, jr., 22-year-old man about town and night club habitue, with obtaining money under false pretenses.

Richards was arrested several weeks ago for passing a bad check for $350 in a liquor store on Pennsylvania avenue, where he paid a liquor bill of $77.97.

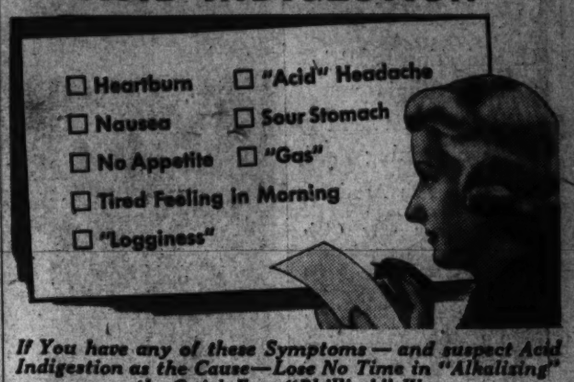
Raleigh L. Morton, 22, colored, was indicted for manslaughter on a charge of hitting his father with a brickbat in the triangular park at Virginia avenue and I street southeast, on October 18.

Jordain Knight, 25, colored, was indicted for second degree murder for the alleged killing of Andrew Walton, 24, at 133 Pierce street court northwest, October 22.

John E. Higginbothan, 38, colored, was indicted on a charge of first degree murder for the shooting of Emanuel A. Bell, 32, colored, in the rear of 629 Marion court northwest.

John R. Campbell, 23, colored, was indicted for escaping from the custody of a guard of the Washington Asylum and Jail on July 4.

CHECK YOURSELF
FOR THESE COMMON SIGNS OF ACID INDIGESTION



If You have any of these Symptoms — and suspect Acid Indigestion as the Cause—Lose No Time in "Alkalizing" the Quick Easy "Phillips'" Way

Don't be alarmed if you get a few "score" on the above symptoms — and suspect over-acidity as the cause. For now there is a way to relieve "acid indigestion" — with almost incredible speed — a way that is simple to do — and costs but a few pennies.

What you do is take 2 teaspoonfuls of Phillips' Milk of Magnesia 30 minutes after meals. OR—take 2 Phillips' Milk of Magnesia Tablets, the exact equivalent.

Results are amazing. Often you get relief in a few minutes. Nausea and upset distress disappear. It produces no gas to embarrass you and offend others.

Try it — you'll be glad you did. Get a bottle of liquid Phillips' Milk of Magnesia for home use and a box of Phillips' Milk of Magnesia Tablets to carry with you. But — see that any box or bottle you accept is clearly marked "Phillips'" Milk of Magnesia.

PHILLIPS' Milk of Magnesia

Post Advertising Brings Results

Lansburgh's

SEVENTH, EIGHTH and E STREETS District 7575

TODAY—Your Last Chance to SHOP and SAVE in

FOUNDERS DAYS

Large Reserve Stocks Brought Forward for Today's Shoppers

- Our Last Storewide Sale before Christmas—Take Advantage of it.
- Every one of our 75 Depts. (including the Basement) offers fresh, new, seasonable merchandise.
- It's a rare chance to purchase all your Christmas gifts at real savings.
- Use Credit Coupons to Budget Purchases. Inquire Credit Office, Sixth Floor.
- Sorry—No Mail or Phone Orders on Founders' Days items.

STORE OPENS 9:30—COME EARLY!

SECTION II | Local News Sports

The Washington Post

Financial Classified | SECTION II

* WASHINGTON: THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 17, 1938 17

Over the Coffee

By Harlan Miller

My spy in London reports that Lady Astor has been getting jealous and fed up at all the admiring talk about the marvelous Mrs. Ambassador Joe Kennedy and her nine children.

"Blyme," said Lady Astor, in a perfect pet, "I get around a bit myself, and I have five children, and me a Protestant!"

• • • •

Commissioner Moyle . . . stalwart

Maybe the Army is being mechanized, but its travel orders are still cluttered with cartilaginous words like "thereat" and "above-mentioned." . . . Also, when a fine, trustworthy officer like Maj. John Hodge, of the General Staff, gets a day off the War Department feels it has to issue a printed order signed by order of the Secretary of War himself.

• • • •

CAPITAL CAVIAR: Oldest bureau chief at 80, Commissioner James Moyle, of the Bureau of Customs, is the most miraculously stalwart official in the Capital, fit as a fullback, with a wrestler's torso, beard and all; he's the gent you have to thank for the smaller-size paper money.

Just thought of it one afternoon when he was Assistant Secretary of the Treasury, and walked across the street to talk it over with a banker. (The b. w. says she can't remember the big dollar bills; but I suspect she never stopped to measure 'em.) Please get it straight; he had nothing to do with the 59-cent dollar; he's a devout Mormon.

"—she snooted the tourists"

Within a hundred miles of Washington there are scores of historic homes you can pry into, at 25 cents and up. Most are worth it, but some Ohio tourists were vexed the other day when, after paying $1.10 a head to peer into some ancient rooms down in tidewater Virginia, the aristocratic chatelaine snooted 'em and wouldn't let 'em see the bedrooms. And that's what a Western tourist pays his money for, to see the bedrooms.

• • • •

At an outdoor function one rainy day recently President Roosevelt once again ran into one of his millionaire friends who had to be there too, and looked even wetter than the President, who merely grinned at him.

"Who's soaking the rich now?" asked Mr. Roosevelt.

• • • •

When Harold Ickes phones the White House to find out if anyone's running for a third term, the phone call costs the Government exactly 1 cent, no more, no less, besides $2 a month for each trunk line. The Government uses over 1,300 phones* in the Capital and is the biggest single customer of A. T. & T., helping substantially to roll up that $9 dividend. Some officials won't let a clerk use an office phone to call up his girl, but most of 'em are in favor of love.

(*Only 1,300 phones can be talked over at one time, but there are several thousand additional extensions and instruments.)

"—like a Belasco stage set"

You really ought to see the gorgeous office where Edgar Hoover fights interstate crime day and night. I don't know whether Mrs. Delano Robbins, the Government's interior decorator, fixed it up for him, but it's a dandy. As you walk across the big anteroom, all decorated with boxing gloves and Indian clubs, there's Mr. Hoover's desk, dead ahead, with several bowls of cactus and flowers, framed through an open double door.

• • • •

Tall reflector lamps throw illumination upward on the paintings on the wall, giving a faint effect of footlights. There's a sizable switchboard at his left, through which he can funnel a dozen G-men into a plane quicker than you can say Dillinger. But the only time his phone rang while I sat there (hoping for a big break) he merely said crisply "I'm occupied" and hung up.

• • • •

Conversationally, Mr. Hoover is quicker on the trigger than most bureau chiefs, who usually stop and ponder . . . Also, he's one of the Government's best-dressed men and is reputed to pay $125 for his suits; and his manner is that of a $50,000-a-year executive, which he'd undoubtedly be worth to several big corporations . . . Like Houdini, the magician, he doesn't try to surround his profession with mystery; the solution sounds simple as a midshipman's love letter, the way he tells it . . . So far as I can see, he has only one weakness; he likes to handcuff himself to dangerous criminals, just to lull 'em into thinking they're his pals.

Copyright, 1938, Washington Post and Publishers Syndicate.

Lido Club Will Hear Carusi on Criminology

Findings of the conference of the International Congress of Criminology held recently in Rome, Italy, will be outlined to the Lido Civic Club tonight at 7:15 o'clock by Ugo Carusi, executive assistant to Attorney General Homer S. Cummings, at the Mayflower Hotel.

Carusi, who was sent to the conference by the Department of Justice, will be honor guest at a dinner given by the club.

A Preview of 'Western Night' at Western High School

Post Staff Photos.

Tomorrow night will be "Western Night" at Western High School, where students will present a musical program in the auditorium and the student publication, "The Breeze," will stage vaudeville acts. Shown in rehearsal for the program are (left) Jackie Smith, a dancer; a quartet (center) comprising Richard Rogers (left), Frances Mehaffey, Nancy Ould and Stuart Vaile, with Louise Michael at the piano, and (right) Betty Jeans, who puts her performing dog, Mitzie, through her act. Mitzie is under contract to a movie studio

State 'G-Men' Created for Major Crimes

Special Va. Bureau Will Aid Localities
Picked Men in Setup
Sergt. Cowan Is Head

By the Associated Press.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 16.—Col. Marion S. Battle, director of the State Division of Motor Vehicles, today announced the creation of a special bureau of criminal investigation within the State police, which will co-operate with the localities in the investigation of major crimes and auto theft complaints.

The bureau will be under the supervision of Maj. R. P. Bishop, Battle's administrative assistant, but will be headed by State Police Sergt. James R. Cowan, jr. Cowan will have the title of special investigator and will fill the vacancy left in the police department by the death of Larkin P. Glazebrook. His main duties, however, will be in assisting the under-policed localities in working on major crimes in addition to the stolen car investigations.

Sergt. Cowan will assume his duties Monday after completion of his course of study at the National Police Academy at Washington. He will be stationed at Richmond but will be on call to any section of the State.

The new bureau will have at its disposal the technical laboratories at the University of Richmond, Maj. Bishop disclosed. He said Dr. F. W. Boatwright, president of the university, had consented to use of equipment such as microscopes, ultra-violet ray lamps and a quartz spectroscope.

Prof. C. L. Albright, of the university faculty, will make any necessary tests for the police and will be prepared to testify as an expert in court. Thomas B. Gresham, of Charlottesville who has made an extensive study of guns and ballistics, is prepared to serve the bureau similarly, Bishop said.

He disclosed further that the initial setup of the new bureau calls for the transfer of four or five troopers to the Richmond area, where they would be on call at any time. These troopers are picked men, Bishop said, who have made special investigation work their hobbies.

Maj. Bishop made it plain that it would take at least three years to build up the bureau to the needs of the State, adding:

"We have a nucleus for the bureau now, and we will have to grow within our means until the bureau is completed."

Couple Wed 55 Years Honored at Dinner

Winchester, Va., Nov. 16.—Mr and Mrs. Philip Shade, married for 55 years, were the guests of honor at a dinner last night at the home of their son, Walter M. Shade, of this city.

Mr. Shade claims he hasn't missed voting in a regular or special election or primary since 1884, and that he has never failed, in 45 years, to visit Winchester to secure the poll books and to return the ballots for Ashton's precinct, of which he is an official.

Auto Heaters
CHOICE OF 50 MODELS

Trade In Your Old Heater
We'll pay top prices for your old heater regardless of its condition.

NO MONEY DOWN—EASIEST PAYMENTS
★ Arvin ★ Holmes ★ Trojan-Aire
★ Comfort ★ Eureka ★ Atlas
Manhattan Auto & Radio Co.
1706 Seventh St. N.W.

Committee Named to Streamline Curriculum of D. C. Schools

Will Draft Program of Modern Studies To Be Articulated by Grades Group
Board Protests Proximity of Liquor Shops

Groundwork for a vast program of curriculum revision in District schools was put down yesterday as the District Board of Education appointed committees to draft a foundation upon which the program can be developed to meet present-day needs of school children.

Actual work of revising courses offered in the schools, however, will await action of the committees in coordinating relationships between the four levels of education—elementary, junior high, senior high and vocational—in order that it can be determined what aims each level shall strive to fulfill, it was said.

This work of coordination will be in the hands of an articulation committee of members of the Board of Education, school officers and citizens under the chairmanship of Dr. Charles W. Holmes, assistant superintendent of schools in charge of junior high schools.

Long Task Predicted

A steering committee, composed of board members, school officers and teachers, will work with the articulation committee and will direct the course of officers and teachers in actual curriculum revision.

"This foundation work will be carried out over a period of a year, or probably more," Dr. Holmes said. "It must first be determined what the aims and methods of each level of education shall be before we can get to the work of revising courses of study."

Several parent-teacher associations have conducted recent forums on changing school curriculum, pointing out courses of study need "streamlining" in tempo with changing times of today.

A report on progress of the WPA project providing visiting teachers for shut-in children and a report urging high school education for crippled children at the Langdon School for Crippled Children were submitted to the board for study.

R. L. Haycock, first assistant superintendent of schools in charge of divisions one through nine, and A. K. Savoy, assistant superintendent in charge of divisions 10 through 13, reported that instruction under the WPA project is being provided for 100 children in Children's, Freedmen's and Gallinger Hospitals, and that instruction is provided for 233 children in their homes.

Mrs. Henry Grattan Doyle, president of the board, and head of the special board's advisory committee on handicapped children, submitted a report recommending a class for crippled children graduated from Langdon School be established in Langley Junior High School.

Doubles Advantages

This plan would give both junior and senior high school advantages for the handicapped children who heretofore have been denied higher education, it was said.

The board was called upon to withdraw its objection of two years standing with the A. B. C. Board which has prevented granting of a Class "C" liquor license to Leo J. Rossiter, whose place of business at 4132-34 Georgia avenue northwest is in the vicinity of the Petworth School and the Macfarland Junior High School.

Attorney George A. Horning, appearing for Rossiter, presented the Board of Education members with a petition signed by 500 residents of the Petworth area on Georgia avenue requesting that the liquor license be granted.

Horning presented pictures of a half dozen other schools in Washington taken from angles which showed liquor stores in close proximity. He said licenses similar to the one sought had been granted without protest from the board despite the fact that often as many as ten were allowed to enter school areas.

Ask for Data

Robert A. Maurer, vice president of the board, said he "didn't realize so many liquor licenses had been creeping up on our schools" after examining lists of licensed establishments. The board adopted a resolution insisting that the Alcoholic Board of Control furnish its members hereafter with every liquor license application presented which calls for location in a school area. The ABC board is to hold a hearing on Rossiter's application today at 2 p. m.

Reimbursement to the District of $71,354 from the Federal Government for the assessed value of land and buildings of the Briggs School, vacated to make room for the new War Department building, was reported by Dr. Ballou. The funds will go into the unexpended balance of the District funds for this year, it was said.

Teacher's has always been good Scotch. Nothing will ever change it.

SOLE U. S. AGENTS, Schieffelin & Co., NEW YORK CITY - IMPORTERS SINCE 1794

Representatives for District of Columbia:
REITZELL & CO., INC.
1337 New York Avenue N.W., Washington, D. C.

Schools Win Approval on Hospital Site

For Teachers' Training
Budget Gives $40,000
To Cost One Million

A new District teacher-training school to be erected on the site of the old Tuberculosis Hospital, Thirteenth and Upshur streets northwest, has the support of the District Commissioners, it was revealed yesterday.

For more than a year after the hospital was closed the schools, health and playgrounds campaigned to convince the commissioners the site would be best suited for a normal school, health department or playground.

Yesterday it was disclosed the commissioners had requested $40,000 in the 1940 budget for a new Wilson Teachers' College to replace the antiquated and once-condemned building now used at Eleventh and Harvard streets northwest.

Health Officer George C. Ruhland sought the grounds for a temporary health department headquarters pending completion of the new Municipal Center development.

The entire cost of the new teachers college would be near $1,000,000.

Capt. Wooding, Oldest Mayor, Is Dead at 94

In Office 46 Years
Last Danville Gray
In Major Battles

Special Dispatch to The Post

Danville, Va., Nov. 16.—Death today ended the notable career of Mayor Harry Wooding, who had served as the city's chief executive for the past 46 years.

The end came peacefully at 1 o'clock this afternoon at his home to which he had been confined since midsummer. His strength had been ebbing since he attended the Gettysburg celebration in July. His condition became alarming two weeks ago when a faltering heart complicated his impairment.

Capt. Wooding was 94 and the last of Gen. Robert E. Lee's veterans in Danville. He fought the duration of the Civil War under J. E. B. Stuart, appearing in many of the major campaigns including the battles of Bull Run and Gettysburg. His recipe of health and longevity was "a placid mind, a refusal to let things worry me and a capacity to make friends with the newer generation."

At the age of 85 he slipped on ice and injured his leg, declining medical aid with the boast he had not required the services of a physician for 40 years.

Mayor Wooding was born here on April 27, 1844, the son of William H. Wooding and Mrs. Jane W. Grasty Wooding, both of pioneer Pittsylvania County stock. He lived here his entire life with the exception of his Civil War service.

He was both in age and point of service the oldest mayor in the United States.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. J. Overton Boatwright and Mrs. Empsy Wooding Spencer. His wife, who was Miss Ella Coleman, died several years ago and more recently a son, Harry Wooding, jr., died of a heart attack.

Where to Dine
IN AND AROUND WASHINGTON

EMBASSY
RESTAURANT
928 14th St. N.W.
Next to Ambassador Hotel
GET ACQUAINTED with this delightful, centrally located dining room. Special Luncheons from 25c. Special Platters, 50c. Dinner, 60c and 75c. Four Native Hawaiians Entertain Nightly 9-3 A. M.

HAY-ADAMS HOUSE
16th and H Sts. N.W.
COMPLETELY AIR CONDITIONED
Hammond organ during dinner in the beautiful Tudor Room, from 6 to 9. Played by Larry Hendrick.
Full course dinner from $1.25.

RESTAURANT
MADRILLON
Washington Building (2nd Floor)
15th & N. Y. Ave. DI. 4561
SPECIAL FOR TONIGHT!
DINNER $1.00
This is our regular $1.50 Dinner, served every Thursday night for $1.00.

Old Vienna Restaurant
824 14th Street
DELICIOUS IS THE VERDICT
For Our Club Luncheons (from 35c) and Dinners (from 55c)
Finest Mixed Drinks at Popular Prices
Personal Direction of S. Fried, former manager of Army-Navy Club

TRANS-LUX hourglass
14th & H Sts. N.W.
OPEN 11 A. M. TO CLOSING
TRY A REAL TREAT —OUR DOLLAR DINNER

VENEZIA
FRANK FENWICK
1334 Conn. Ave.—Off Dupont Circle
"A PLACE FOR MEETING AS WELL AS EATING"
A Large Assortment of Quality Food Served All Day Until 9 P. M. All Our Pies, Pastries, Cakes and Rolls Are Made in Our Kitchen Daily.
DINNERS FROM 55c

FOR TASTY AND INTERESTING PLACES TO DINE read this column in the Main News Section every Sunday and on the First Page, Second Section, every Thursday.

3-LINE POST WANT AD SELLS REFRIGERATOR FOR $29.50

Just as the District Electric Co. found a market for this refrigerator

REFRIGERATOR, Majestic, late model, guaranteed. Special, 129.50, terms. Dist. Elec. Co., No. 1 Dupont Circle, DU. 5900.

through the Miscellaneous For Sale column in The Post, so can you find prospects for your furniture, toys, jewelry. You'll find they reach the people who have the money to spend. Call Miss Mack,—NAtional 4200.

Nice Praised By O'Conor After Parley

Called Co-operative
Their First Meeting
Harmony Reigns
Budget Is Topic

By the Associated Press.

Baltimore, Nov. 16.—A spirit of joy and harmony prevailed today at the first official meeting between Gov. Harry W. Nice and Gov.-elect Herbert R. O'Conor.

O'Conor, rushing to wind up affairs in the attorney general's office before leaving at the end of the week for a vacation, conferred with the Governor for an hour in the latter's offices here in what he said was "just a friendly chat."

The incoming Governor had nothing but praise for the outgoing Governor's "complete and friendly cooperation."

"Gov. Nice cleared the way for me and made available all the records and figures I want," said O'Conor, whose major problem before taking office January 11 is to complete a budget and round out a new fiscal program for presentation to the 1939 Legislature.

"He (the Governor) has every desire to assist me," O'Conor continued. "We talked specifically about fiscal matters and the next State budget."

Gov. Nice added that he and his successor had "gone over the daily routine of a Governor's life."

Prior to the meeting, which was private, the Governor reiterated previous assertions that "I am going to do everything in my power to help him—and I mean it."

"We're not opponents in a political campaign now," he asserted. "He will be Governor. I will shortly be a private citizen interested more than ordinarily in the affairs of the State.

"No decent citizen could do less than help the head of his government, faced as he is with matters of serious import."

Stamp Fans Invited To See Printing Process

Stamp collectors and their friends are invited to visit the Bureau of Engraving and Printing at 8 o'clock tonight, when through the courtesy of Director Alvin W. Hall the process of stamp printing will be demonstrated. This is in honor of National Philatelic Week.

FREE DELIVERY WO. 4400 Open Evgs till 10:00
J. B. Spunds MARKET
3422-26 CONNECTICUT AVE.

Scotch Sale!
IMPORTED Greer's
O. V. H. SCOTCH $1.99 Fifth
As fine a Scotch as you have ever had at prices up to $3.00. Round, smooth. Blended and bottled in Scotland. 86.8 proof.
By the case, $23.75

Heatherdew Scotch, 86 Proof $2.88 Fifth
Spund's Liqueur Scotch.... $2.98 Fifth
86 Proof, 12 Years Old
Carlyle Vat ..... $2.69 Fifth
86 Proof, 12 Years Old
McGallum's SCOTCH ..... $2.59 Fifth
86 Proof

IMPORTED
CALEM TAWNY PORT
A fine full bodied wine that is bottled in Portugal. 20% alcohol by volume. $1.19 Fifth

IMPORTED
PALE DRY SHERRY
A. Ruiz y Hermanos from Jerez, Spain. 21% alcohol by volume. $1.49 FIFTH $16.85 buy the case.

SPUND'S UPTOWN STRAIGHT WHISKIES
RYE BY THE BALTO. PURE RYE DISTILLING CO. BOURBON —Distilled in Bardstown, Ky.
2 Years Old—3 Years Old
$1.39 QUART 90 Proof $1.69 QUART

IMPORTED WINES
From Bordeaux
Graves, Medoc, Sauternes, St. Julien, Haut Sauterne. 89c Fifth
$9.50 buy the case.

IMPORTED
Fine Champagne COGNAC
15 YEARS OLD
Never sold elsewhere at this low price. 84 proof. $1.99 Fifth

THESE PRICES ON THURSDAY — FRIDAY — SATURDAY

Large, White
MUSHROOMS
Each one—Luscious Savory Delicious 29c lb.

SWIFT'S PREMIUM
HAM
Delicious Average Weight 10 to 11 pounds 25c lb.

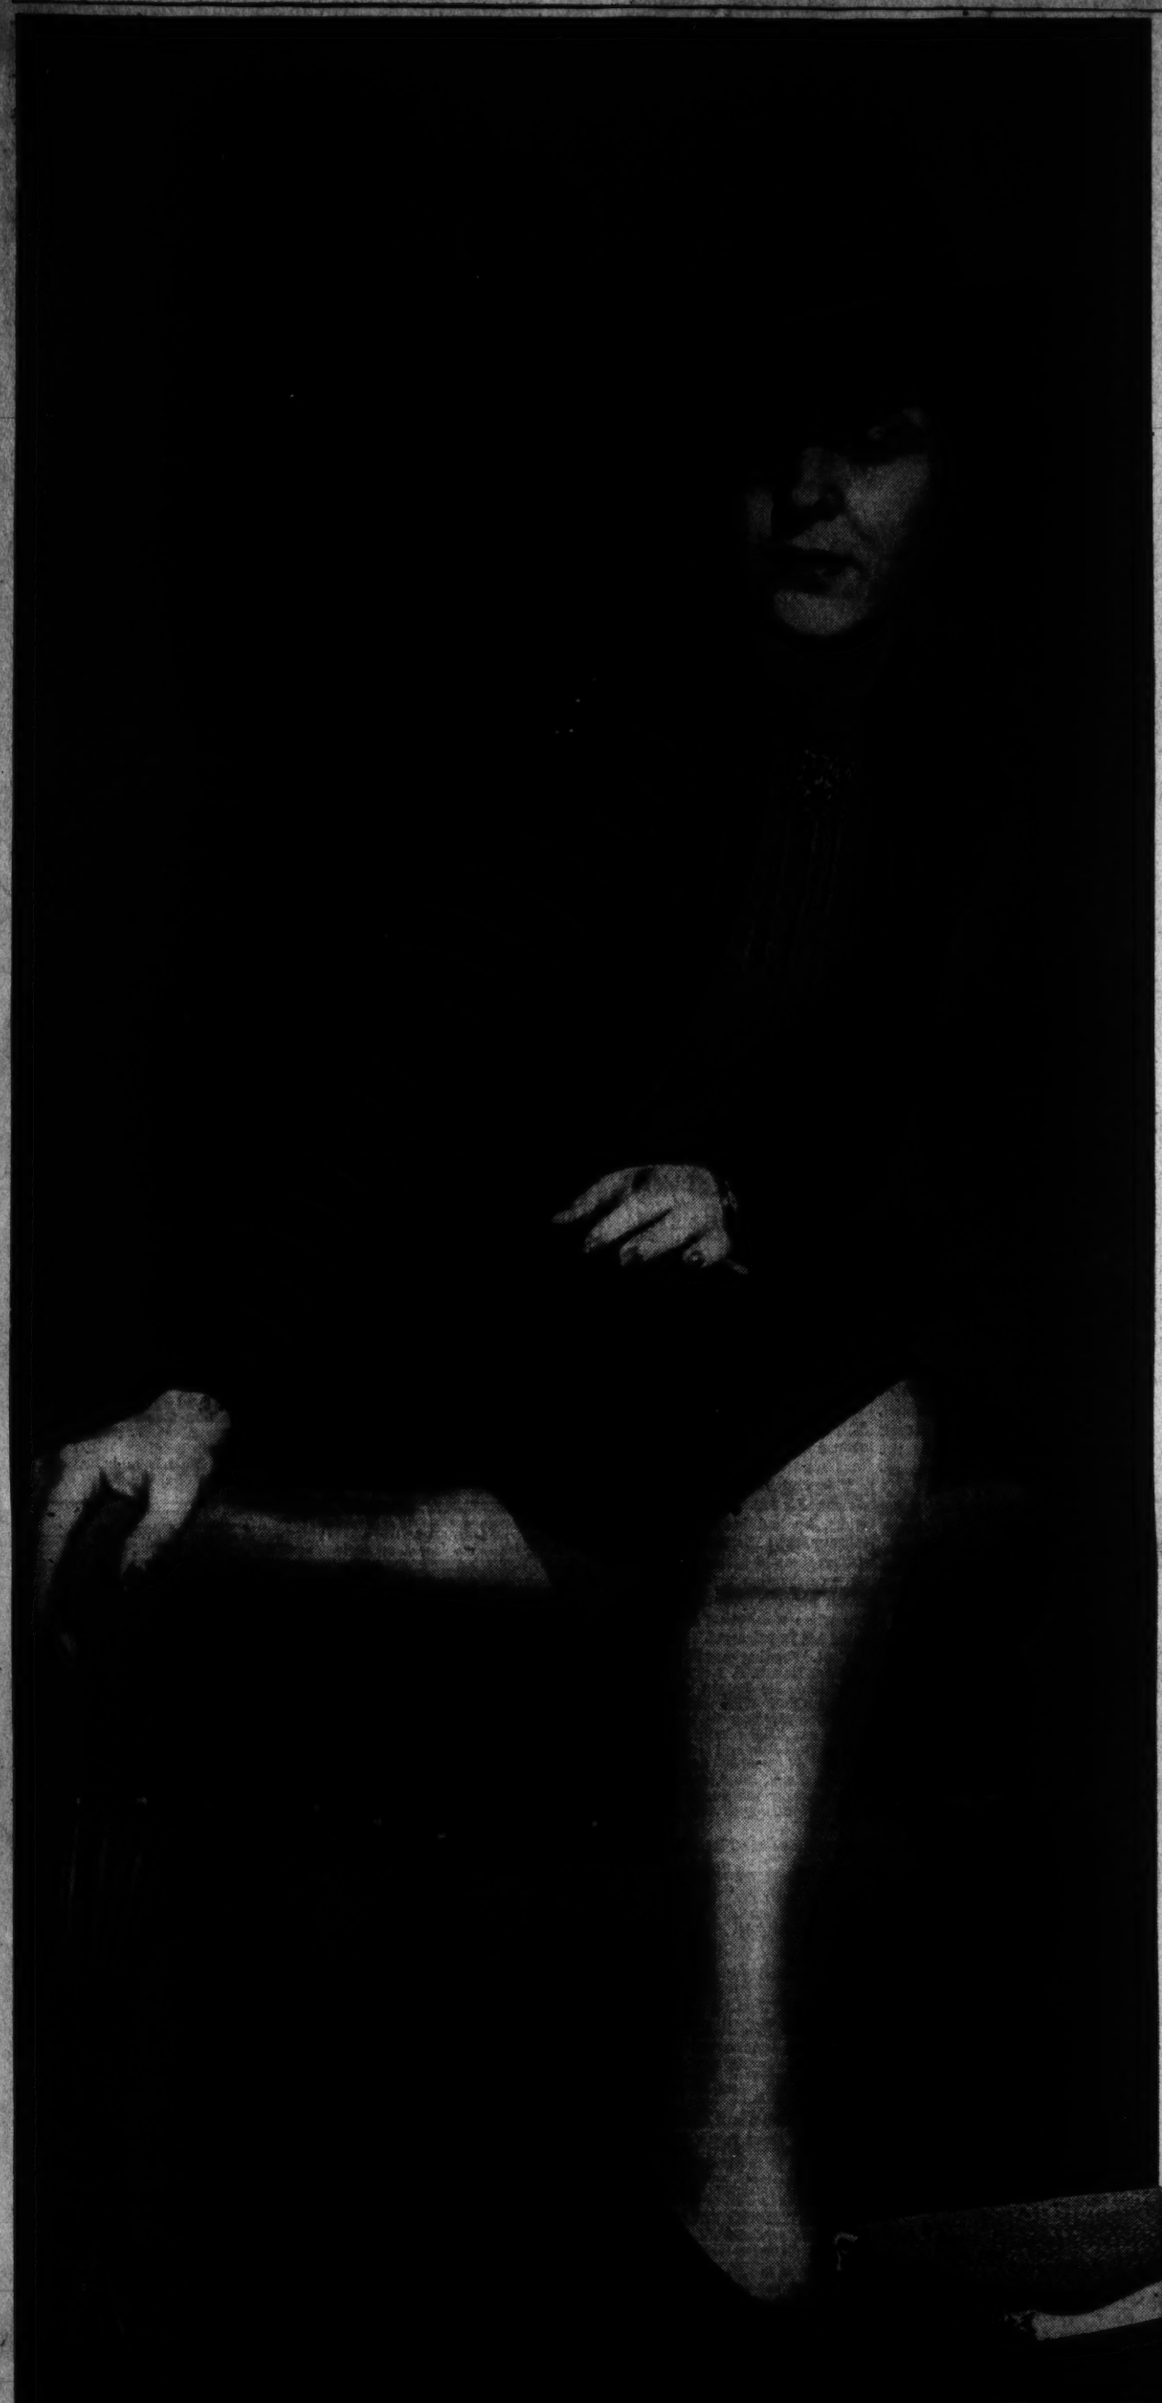
OUR OWN KILLED
TURKEYS 35c lb.
Phone your Thanksgiving order in today! . . . a turkey from Spund's means not only "SELECTED TURKEY" . . . it means also, "Low Prices."

CRANBERRIES ..... 20c pound
CELERY, large ..... 10c bunch
CHESTNUTS ..... 2 pounds 25c
OLIVES ..... 15c jar
MIXED NUTS ..... 23c pound

OUR OWN KILLED
FRYING CHICKENS
average weight 2½ to 3¼ pounds lb. 28c

LONG ISLAND
DUCKLINGS
at Spund's Special low price. lb. 21c

FREE PARKING on lot in back of Spunds



IT'S hard work . . . this thing of trudging streets and ringing doorbells . . . asking help for Washington's unfortunate and needy.

★ ★ ★ ★ ★

And yet thousands of men and women do this job each year . . . volunteer their services . . . give unselfishly of their time and effort to make possible the vital work of your Community Chest.

★ ★ ★ ★ ★

Yes . . . you can turn these people down, when they call to get your contribution. You can refuse them if you like . . . because Community Chest gifts are voluntary gifts, and conscience plays the major role in giving.

★ ★ ★ ★ ★

You can dodge all this if you like. But there's one thing you CAN'T get away from . . . and that is your individual responsibility toward the fifty-seven agencies of your Community Chest . . . the fifty-seven HUMAN SERVICE STATIONS that can only function if you provide the funds.

★ ★ ★ ★ ★

Money is needed to carry on this work . . . and your Volunteer Chest Workers are out to GET THAT MONEY . . . not for themselves, because they receive no reward or compensation. They're working for social decency, civic mercy and humanity. Give generously if you can . . . Give moderately if you must . . . but give!

★ ★ ★ ★ ★

And while you're at it give the volunteer worker a great big hand . . . a great big smile . . . a cordial welcome . . . a friendly reception . . . in every office, in every home.

Give a Hand-UP Not a Hand-OUT

GIVE THRU YOUR COMMUNITY CHEST

THESE 57 ORGANIZATIONS SHARE IN THE COMMUNITY CHEST CAMPAIGN

Blue and Rubber Fund—D. C. Congress of Parents & Teachers.
D. C. Rehabilitation Department—Disabled American Veterans.
Conference of Suburban Social Welfare Organizations.
Jewish Social Service Agency.
Salvation Army.
Washington Heart Association.

St. Joseph's Home and School.
Twelfth Street Branch—Y. M. C. A.
Council of Social Agencies.
Holiday House—Girls' Friendly Society.
Summer Outings Committee.
Jewish Foster Home.
Girl Scouts of D. C.
Child Welfare Society.

Children's Country Home.
Jewish Community Center.
Boys' Club of Washington, Central, Southeast, Northeast and Georgetown Branches.
Health Security Administration (Formerly Central Admitting Bureau for Hospitals).

Washington Society for the Hard of Hearing.
Hospitalization Fund.
Hebrew Home for the Aged.
Episcopal Home for Children.
Barnard Neighborhood House.
Friendship House.

Southeast House—Washington Welfare Association.
Young Men's Christian Association.
St. Anna's Home.
Washington Home for Foundlings.
St. Rose's Technical School.
Juanita K. Nye Council House.
Shoe and Rubber Fund—Federation of Parent-Teacher Associations.

Children's Protective Association (Formerly Juvenile Protective Association).
Instructive Visiting Nurse Society.
Washington Housing Association.
Department of Social Welfare—Washington Federation of Churches.
Local Aid Bureau.

Family Service Association.
Florence Crittenton Home.
Travelers Aid Society.
Northwest Settlement House.
Georgetown Children's Home.
Stoddard Baptist Old Folks Home.
Catholic Charities.
Social Service Exchange.

St. Vincent's Home and School.
Social Hygiene Society.
Southeast Community Home.
St. Ann's Infant Asylum.
Phyllis Wheatley Y. W. C. A.
Boy Scouts of America—National Capital Area Council.
Young Women's Christian Association.

Welfare Department—American Legion.
Washington Animal Rescue League.
Christ Child Settlement House.
Washington Institute of Mental Hygiene, Child Guidance Clinic and Life Adjustment Center.
Christ Child Fresh Air Farm for Convalescent Children.

THIS PAGE CONTRIBUTED BY THE NEWSPAPER PUBLISHERS OF WASHINGTON—AT NO COST TO THE COMMUNITY CHEST

Gunboat Versus Plane in China; Governor-Elect Goes Hunting

The Post is the only daily morning paper in Washington with A. P. WIREPHOTO Service.

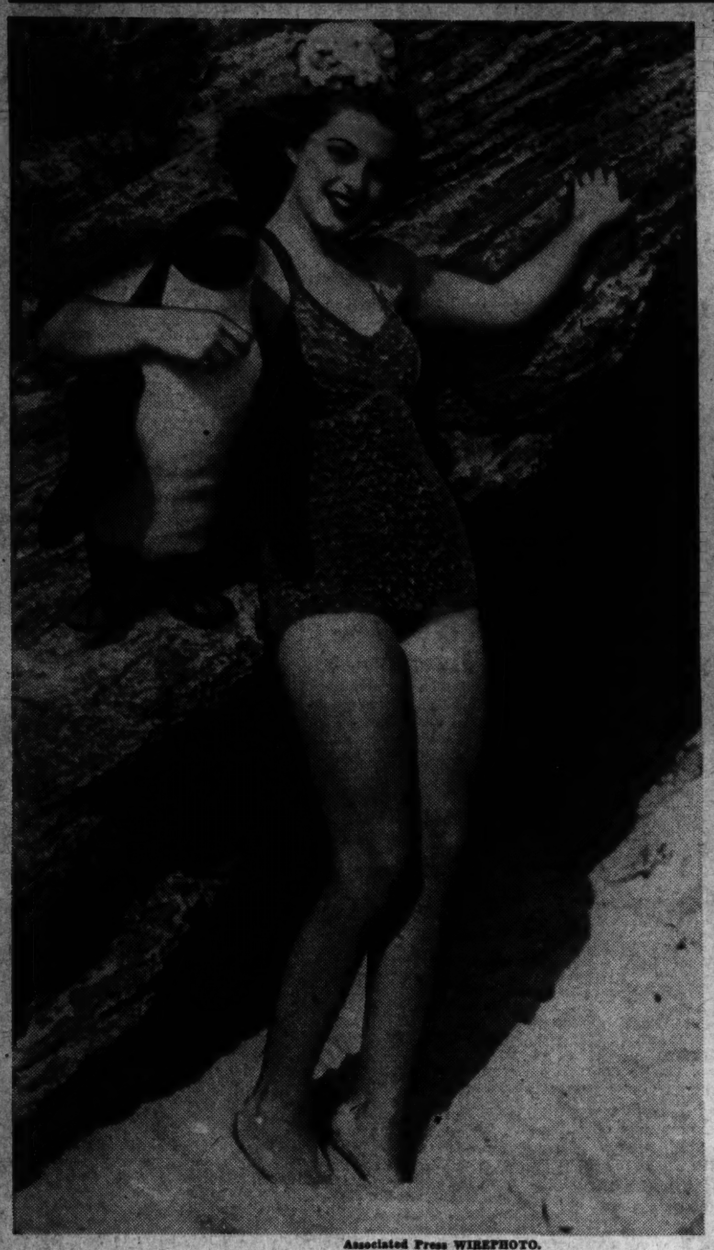
Associated Press WIREPHOTO.

Only the Debris Remains

Debris—the remains of what was a Chinese gunboat operating on the Yangtze River—is all that is left after a battle between the boat and Japanese warplanes. Japanese finished the destruction by planting a few bombs aboard the grounded craft, and are shown climbing over the result.

Gets Three Birds With One Shot

Arthur James, Pennsylvania's G. O. P. Governor-elect, levels his gun eye on a flock of ducks near Mineola, Tex., as his boatman, known only as "Mouse," stands by for good luck. It worked. The Governor got three mallards with one burst of gunfire.



Associated Press WIREPHOTO.

Washingtonian at Bermuda

Among the members of the international colony at Bermuda who have adopted the beach penguin fad is Mrs. Theodore Garnett, the former Frances Wells, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carveth Wells, of Washington. She wears an oleander in her hair.

Post Staff Photo.

Businessmen Meet at Friendship House

The American Businessmen's Club met yesterday at Friendship House and broadcast following a tour and luncheon. Shown (in rear) are J. L. Rowland (left), chairman of the club's "Big Brother Committee," and Z. D. Blackistone, secretary; (front, from left) P. S. Anderson, president; Lydia Burklin, head worker at the house; Announcer Art Godfrey, and J. C. Monaghan, the club's district governor.

Associated Press WIREPHOTO.

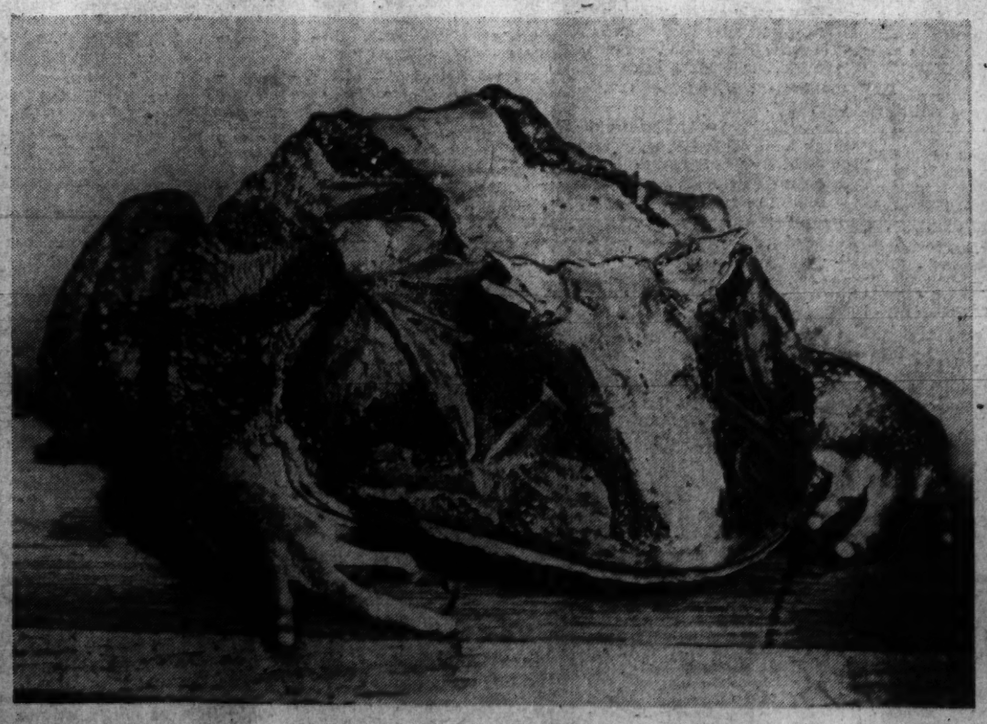
New Lord Mayor

At right—Sir Frank Bowater, London's new lord mayor, is shown framed by a window of his elaborate carriage as he left for the Lord Mayor's Show.

Post Staff Photo

Annual Classic

At left—H. L. Shrader, senior extension poultry specialist for the Department of Agriculture, is shown as volunteer turkey-carver. He slices a turkey which other specialists will eat to determine its succulence, etc. It's routine work.



Post Staff Photo

Brazilian Guest

Above—This full-grown Brazilian horned frog, which arrived at the Zoo yesterday, can be as tough as he appears. He is one of the few frogs with teeth and his bite is venomous. He is believed to be the only adult of his kind in the United States.

Post Staff Photo

Celery Queen

At right—Iris Parrish easily could be the celery queen as she poses with stalks for the fifth annual turkey dinner to be given tomorrow night by the National Women's Relief Society of the Mormon Church. The celery was raised as a Mormon project in Utah.

2 D.C. Women Win $6,754 Double at Bowie

Sports | The Washington Post | Sports

20 WASHINGTON: THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 17, 1938 ****

Daily Double Winners . . . And Here's First Half of $6,754 Payoff

Mrs. Ethel Dwyer (left) and Miss Helen O'Brien, both of Washington, held the only ticket

Charles F. (No. 1) leads Sir Mowlee (No. 5) to the wire to win the opening race at Bowie yesterday, for the first half of the record daily double

Each Invests $1 in Only Ticket Sold

Just Played Hunch Liked 19 Combination Price Sets Record Honey Cloud Victor

Races

Continued from Page 1.

be placed on certain combinations. Dwyer said he understood the winnings would go to the friend.

The Dwyers have two children, Ethel May, 6, and Mary Ellen, 3. They were left with a sister, Mrs. George Duval, at 4425 Garrison street northwest, while their mother attended the races.

That the daily double would be a large one was foreshadowed when Charles F., a field horse, won the first race. He paid $19.10 mutuel only because he was grouped in the betting with two other horses. However, under the rules, he was an individual in the daily double. When the possible payoffs, depending on the winner of the second race, were figured it was found that only 51 tickets were still in action. The prices ranged from $422.10 for 16 persons' pasteboards on Wrenace to single tickets on Counter Pass, Sun Sweep and James Boy. James Boy was the winner of the second heat for the twin wager. A champion at Marlboro last summer, he had been beaten off badly in his big time starts. However, today he was a running horse through the stretch and he led Moon Harvest and Counter Pass to the wire.

James Boy, owned by Mrs. A. A. Gray and trained by Charlie Beal, of Washington, trailed the field for more than a half a mile, having only one horse behind him as the field entered the stretch. He found racing room on the inside and fairly flew over horses to get to the front and was opening a gap at the finish. Straight bettors collected $80.60.

Honey Cloud Wins

While the daily double was the high point of the afternoon from a monetary standpoint, the feature race was a hotly contested battle worthy of its position on the program.

Victory went to Mrs. A. J. Abel's Honey Cloud, one of the sharpest horses now in training in Maryland.

The big High Cloud gelding, claimed by former jockey "Whitey" Abel last year and which spent the spring and summer on the farm of Alan Clark in nearby Maryland, showed a powerful effort in leading twelve of the best sprinters hereabouts to the wire.

Despite brilliant past performances, Honey Cloud had only a scattered backing and paid a $13.00 mutuel. His time of 1:12 3-5 was creditable over this track.

Honey Cloud was well handled by Jockey M. Peters and passed the finish line, "going away" by two lengths. Clingendaal, half of the A. C. Compton entry, was second, gaining the position in a photo finish with Rye Beach and Conquer.

Rye Beach, from the Millsdale Stable, was first to show in front, Honey Cloud was close up with Sun Egret third and the others strung out for a furlong. Among those farthest back was Conquer, winner of five straight before his defeat today.

Rye Beach continued to lead the way as the field swung for the stretch but Peters turned Honey Cloud loose at this point and the gelding forged to the front. Conquer, off poorly, had come from far back to get into fourth place.

The parade of long shots that marked the opening of this track continued right up to the final race. In the seventh event, Caught, a onetime steeplechase horse, led Spring Meadow and San Antioca to the wire to pay $20.90.

In the sixth race, the payoff was even better. Chief Evergreen found the soft track to his liking and awake to score over Scatter Brain and Some Boy. Chief Evergreen paid $49.60.

This Morning

With Shirley Povich

Griff Plots Raid

The deep silence that is emanating from the little stucco parapet that Clark Griffith calls his office is not to be construed as idleness within. The boss man of the Nats is busily plotting what he hopes will be a raid on the major league market three weeks hence.

POVICH.

When the big league club owners assemble at New York in December for the annual palavering and trading session, Mr. Griffith will be in a trading mood. He will be in a trading mood because he believes that, with the proper replacements, he can make of the 1939 Nats a pennant contender.

The objects of his desires will be, primarily, pitchers, although he would not look down his nose at the correct type of outfielders or a catcher. And he will not go into the meeting exactly empty-handed. The entire roster of his club with the exception of Buddy Myer, Buddy Lewis, George Case, and Joe Krakauskas is labeled for trading material.

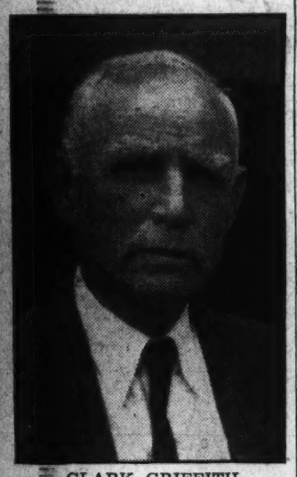
Griffith will be holding a powerful hand when he offers Cecil Travis as a lure. He will part with Travis only for a fitting consideration and that, to Griffith, means at least two ranking pitchers. Travis, a .335 hitter last season, fifth in the league, is the most attractive trading material the Nats have possessed in a decade.

Tigers Eye Cecil

The Detroit Tigers have admitted an avid interest in Travis, whom they hope to convert into a third baseman if they cannot use him as a shortstop. They are high on him and that, to Griffith, means that they might part with Tommy Bridges and another pitcher.

The Nats' owner, beyond declaring that he will trade any Washington player if he can make an advantageous deal, has not yet admitted that Travis is on the block, but he tipped his hand when he drafted Shortstop Johnny Gelbert from Toledo. Gelbert, a superior fielder, does not compare with Travis in the batting averages, but in the runs-driven-in department he has a distinct edge.

The trade which Griffith is generally expected to make—a deal involving Zeke Bonura—is not apt to materialize. Despite Bonura's disappointing season, the Nats' owner has not yet given up on the big fellow. He blames Bonura's sluggish early season play on his failure to go into spring training early and can point to the last six weeks of the 1938 season when Bonura was hitting .400 and playing the best ball on the Washington Club.



CLARK GRIFFITH

Sees Comeback

Bonura was acquired by the Nats last spring because he appeared to be the type of slugger that the team required. There wasn't a powerhouse hitter on the club. Griffith is willing to gamble on Bonura another year. He is willing to overlook any of big Zeke's shortcomings as a fielder in the hope that Bonura will stage a comeback at bat.

It is not difficult to understand that Buddy Myer, Buddy Lewis, Joe Krakauskas and George Case are not labeled trading material by Griffith. Myer hit an impressive .339 last season and showed all his former efficiency afield. Lewis, despite a poor year in the field, hit .294 and is solidly in the esteem of the Nats' bosses. Krakauskas is Washington's lone hope of producing an outstanding young pitcher for 1939, and Case, with his speed and .300 batting average, is the bet of Griffith.

Next to his pitching, it is his outfield that concerns Griffith chiefly. His outfield line-up as it stands is very tentative. One more proven performer and he would breathe more easily. His outfield plans for 1939 are constructed chiefly on hope—hope that George Case and Taft Wright are not flashes in the pan, and hope that Bobby Estallela has finally arrived.

Simmons Non Grata

There are, of course, Al Simmons and Johnny Stone, but the extent to which they can be counted on is doubtful. Simmons is non grata with Griffith following their spats as an aftermath of Simmons' threats against Washington fans, and Griffith would cheerfully release him at the waiver price or little more. Anyway, he wants to rebuild with younger talent. Stone will have been out of the game for a year and the degree in which he can stage a come-back is at best doubtful.

Taft Wright's batting average of

See POVICH, Page 22, Col. 5.

General Pin Strike Held Unlikely

All Alleys Working 2 'Strikes' Settled 19 Places Affected Managers in Meeting

By Merrell W. Whittlesey.

Washington's vast army of bowlers was untroubled by a threatened strike of pinboys last night as Managers Bill Wood and Eddie Espey, at Lucky Strike and Chevy Chase, respectively, the only alleys where the pinboys took action, had the situation well in hand.

Wood imported boys from Baltimore and borrowed from other plants to put the 58 alleys in the Fourteenth street plant in operation, and said he would keep the present boys until the ones that had walked out came back, permanently if necessary.

Espey, manager of the new Chevy Chase center, had a few boys walk out early in the evening, but later said the boys were "all right" and every alley was working.

Otherwise, managers of the 19 pin establishments in the city and vicinity, reached by The Post, reported no trouble, anticipated none, and apparently the walkout would be confined to the Tuesday night strike at Lucky Strike.

The Bowling Alley Operators met yesterday afternoon and decided to pay the boys 4 cents per game on Sundays and the standard 3 cents during the week. The Lucky Strike le aders ask four cents per game, daily. Bill Wood, president, precided at the meeting

Charles Bell, manager of the huge Convention Hall plant, said the boys met with him and would stick with him 100 per cent. Beryl English, Columbia owner, allowed one of the striking Lucky Strike pinmen to talk with his pin boys and they said nothing doing as far as a walkout was concerned.

Hugh Arbaugh, owner of the largest suburban plant, in Silver Spring, had no trouble whatsoever yesterday but said "no telling what will happen when an organizer gets among the boys."

But as a group the operators and owners seemed satisfied, as were the boys. A few of the plants are already paying the boys 4 cents per game throughout the week.

The general roundup of the city's pin plants:

ARCADE—"No trouble at all among the boys, and none expected," said Paul Harrison.

BETHESDA—Manager Claude Orondorfi said as far as the Bethesda alleys were concerned the trouble was confined to the other plants.

CAPITAL HILL—Only four al-

See BOWE, Page 23, Column 4.

Associated Press WIREPHOTOS.

James Boy (No. 9) beats Moon Harvest (No. 12) in the second race to complete the double, a happy event for the two District of Columbia women

Bullis Prep Plays Devitt

Game Is Tomorrow At Silver Spring Rivalry Is Intense

Washington's own version of the Army-Navy struggle will be staged on Friday afternoon at Sligo Field in Silver Spring when Devitt and Bullis clash for the prep title of the city. Since both teams boast fine elevens, a keenly contested struggle is anticipated.

Devitt won last year's spirited game, 9-6, by virtue of Lee Fones' last quarter placement field goal. Of last year's winning team, Devitt has left Co-Captains Whitey Crawford and Bill Richards, Mort Walker, Art Farquhar and Herb Farnesworth. These boys will endeavor to make it two straight over their bitterest rivals.

On the strength of their seasonal records, it is Bullis who will be installed as favorites. Devitt, while blessed with fine material, has failed to click so well as was expected, and unless a radical change in the caliber of their play is effected will lose to the hard-hitting Bullis aggregation.

The rivalry between the two schools, always tense, has been more heated than ever this year. Hundreds of alumni from both institutions will be on hand for Friday's renewal of this natural athletic enmity.

Powell Gridmen Win

Powell defeated Roosevelt in a senior Community Center League touch football tournament game yesterday at Roosevelt by a score of 32-18. Pat Hurley and Burt Fperling starred for the winners.

Grout and Picard Tie Armour, Cruickshank With 132 at Pinehurst

Hershey Pro Holes Final 15-Ft. Putt Feat Brings About Deadlock Mid-South Pro Tourney Ends

By the Associated Press.

Pinehurst, N. C., Nov. 16.—A 15-foot putt by Henry Picard, of Hershey, Pa., on the last green gave him and Jack Grout a 132 tie with Tommy Armour, of Chicago, Ill., and Boca Raton, Fla., and Bobby Cruickshank, of Richmond, Va., today in the 36-hole mid-South pro-pro best ball golf tournament.

Armour and Cruickshank, despite par-shattering play yesterday and today, were deadlock victims throughout the tournament.

Among early finishers, the sparkling twosome yesterday turned in a 66, 6 under par, only to have it tied later by Johnny Bulla, of Chicago, and Clayton Heafner, of Greensboro, N. C.

So forthwith, the Armour-Cruickshank team duplicated today with an eagle, a string of birdies and no over-par counts to set a 66, 66—132 mark for late finishers.

Back in 65

Picard and Grout finished yesterday in 67, but came back today with a 65 on the par 72 course to knot the count.

For their efforts Armour, Cruickshank, Picard and Grout received $175 each.

Felix Serafin, of Clarks Summit, Pa., and Terle Johnson, of Norristown, Pa., tied Jim Turnesa, of Elmsford, N. Y., and Jack Patroni, of Shawnee, Pa., with 133s to collect $70 each. Last to finish in the money were Sammy Byrd, of Ardmore, Pa., and E. J. (Dutch) Harrison, of Little Rock, Ark. They were awarded $50 each.

Finishing just outside the money with scores of 135 were such shotmakers as Willie Klein, of Long Island, and Billy Burke, of Cleveland; Dick Metz, of Chicago, and Gene Sarazen, of Brookfield Center, Conn., and Ed Oliver, of Wilmington, Del., and Frank Walsh, of Bretton Woods, N. H.

Johnny Bulla and Clayton Heafner took a 71 for a 137.

Picard counted an eagle, a deuce and a birdie in his twosome's blazing comeback, and Grout turned in four birdies.

Armour played a second shot with a driver off the fairway on the 478-yard fourth hole to drop the ball within inches of the cup and holed it on the next shot for an eagle 3. He also score a birdie at the thirteenth.

Cruickshank contributed birdies at the fifth, fourteenth and seventeenth.

Picard scored a birdie three at the second, an eagle three with an 8-foot putt at the fifth and then a deuce at the next green with an 18-footer.

Need Par to Tie

Grout's sharpshooting started on the back nine.

Late in the day Jim Turnesa and Jack Patroni came to the home green needing only a par four for a 65 and total of 132 to put them in a first-place tie. But after each got off good drives, both second shots were bunkered and two fives resulted.

The individual mid-South 36-hole

See GOLF, Page 23, Column 3.

Walper and Poe Finish With 138

Pinehurst, N. C., Nov. 16.—Leo Walper, of Washington, D. C., and his partner, Henry C. Poe, of Durham, N. C., finished with an aggregate of 138 in the 36-hole mid-South professional best ball golf tournament, the second half of which was played here today. They carded 69 yesterday and duplicated this figure today.

Utah Has Dream Coach

He Has Dream Job No Alumni Worries Has 5-Year Contract

By the Associated Press.

Salt Lake City, Nov. 16.—To the harried-looking, fedora-twisting men who purvey football to Saturday's crowds, Ike Armstrong, of Utah, must be the coaches' "dream coach."

Ike, tanned, tough and 40, doesn't live in fear of alumni agitation. Come thick, come thin years with the Ute football team, Ike lives an almost idyllic life—for a football coach.

His present season at Utah is his fourteenth. He's become almost as permanent a figure in Utah's capital as Brigham Young's statue.

Despite the fact his team lost two conference games last year, his contract was renewed for five years.

He came here in 1924 after two years of freshman and assistant varsity coaching at his alma mater, Drake University.

Ike's content at Utah—member of the Big Seven Conference, smallest of the so-called major football leagues.

The nattily dressed coach explains his success like this:

"I've never had a really bad season. In my 14 years here I've never lost more than two games a season. I've had seven championship teams."

Ike never cries, and neither do the students or alumni.

If Utah, undefeated but tied twice this season, defeats the University of Wyoming at Laramie Saturday, Ike will have another championship scalp.

Utah isn't a razzle-dazzle, bag-full-of-tricks team. It mixes straight football with a few laterals and passes."

Archibald May Defend Title Here

Against Leo Rodak Foster Backs Match To See Joe's Manager Plans a Conference

Prospect of a title bout early next spring in Washington between Joey Archibald, world's featherweight champion in the eyes of the New York State Boxing Commission, and Leo Rodak, the No. 1 challenger of the National Boxing Association, appeared bright, it developed yesterday.

ARCHIBALD

Edward C. Foster, N. B. A. executive, in town the last few days and a spectator at last Monday's fights here, went on record as saying that he would bend all of his efforts to help Washington land this bout.

Archibald meets Paul (Tennessee) Lee in a 10-round over-the-weight match next Monday night at Turner's Arena, and the match will mark Joey's first since he whipped Mike Belloise in New York in 15 blistering rounds to win the world's championship.

Foster, who has been invited by the fistic form of Turner and Ahearn to attend the Archibald-Lee brawl, stated that he thought Joey deserved to be recognized as undisputed world's champion. Foster hails from Providence, R. I., which is Joey's home town, and the N. B. A. executive, without mincing words, declcared that if Archibald and Rodak are to meet—"Washington should be the place—and I'm going to do everything in my power to see that you get that championship match here."

Showing interest in the young featherweight ruler, Foster further said:

"Joey was banished from Providence rings for roughing it up with Tony Dupre. He came to Washington, was content to fight first in a preliminary role. He has not been beaten since he left Providence in April of 1937, and I imagine Joey must thank me for setting him down that night in Providence. Joey has beaten all the good feathers.

"The first chance I have to talk to Al Weill, Archibald's manager, I'm going to have him promise that he will give that match to Washington, where it rightfully belongs. This seems to be a featherweight town."

In the meantime Ahearn is keeping his eyes open, and will try and tie up Weill for a contract for such a match. Nat Lewis, Rodak's manager, already has promised Ahearn he would agree to such a match in Washington.

Cumberland Cage Team Practicing

Special Dispatch to The Post.

Cumberland, Md., Nov. 16.—The Cumberland Dragons, who think nothing of playing from 50 to 70 games a season, are back on the court practicing for their fifth straight basketball campaign, according to Manager Pershing Rohrer.

The Dragons, who won 40 of 57 games last year, will open Thanksgiving Day by opposing Hancock's fast independent quint at Hancock. On the Saturday after Thanksgiving, Windber will be met at Windber, Pa.

Most of the veterans are back, including Dick Bruce and Junior Kennell, forwards; Chick Cubbage, center, and Dick Hosey and Harry Bowman, guards.

Record Golf Drive! Travels 130 Miles

Annapolis, Md., Nov. 16.—Capt. R. Hammond Elliott, U. S. A. (retired), topped all driving records for local golfers today, when his ball from the Naval Academy links landed in the body of a truck on its way to Philadelphia, 130 miles away. The driver of the truck failed to take note of the ball and rolled on his way to the Quaker City.

Fine Fair Sports

San Francisco, Nov. 16.—A big outdoor stadium, indoor arena for polo, soccer and fights, and an auditorium for fencing, wrestling and other sports will be available on Treasure Island for the 1939 California World's Fair.

80 Tons of Ice

San Francisco, Nov. 16.—Eighty tons of pulverized ice will be tossed on a 480-foot runway for the International ski jumping championship starting opening day, February 18, at the 1939 California World's Fair.

Army Eleven Invades Annapolis! It's Only 'Masquerading' B Squad

Special Dispatch to The Post.

Annapolis, Md., Nov. 16.—An Army football team invaded Thompson Stadium as the Navy varsity began its practice session this afternoon. But it was only a group of the Navy "B' s'quad, clad in Army jerseys and bearing the numbers and names of the Army players. The "B" squad has been coached by Frank Foster, chief scout against the Army, in the plays of the West Pointers and will be used to strengthen the Navy's defense the rest of this week and next week until the squad leaves for the game.

The members of the "Army" team were clad in the jerseys of that branch of the service, which fell to the Navy as spoils of war after the victory of 1936. It may be noted that the Army has a still later supply of Navy jerseys won last year which it can use in a similar way if it wishes, and is probably doing so.

The players of the local Army team were chosen, as far as practicable on account of similar physiques and playing actions to their West Point prototypes. For instance, Woody Wilson and "Huey" Long, the fine Army carriers and passers, were represented by Earl Rowse and Ralph Mann, respectively, with Schwenk and Arthur Fronczak, robust middies, as their representatives, while Damon Cooper and John Beard were at the ends of Riggs Sullivan and Jack Dobson.

Rowse and Mann, who have done some good passing in the B Squad games, will be a pair of hard worked lads during the next few days, as the Navy against the adept passing of Wilson and Long, has a harder job than in taking care of the passes of Syd Luckman, Columbia hurling ace, last Saturday; for this reason, Harold Hansen, the big boy who did such good defensive work in the Columbia game, may get in a lot of playing against the Army. Incidentally, his home is in South Philadelphia, near the Municipal Stadium.

Allen Feldmeier, change guard, returned to the field this afternoon, as Frank Blaha, one of the blocking backs, did yesterday. Cliff Lens, the 200-opund line-smashing back, who has a Charley horse, is now the only absentee. It has been thought better to give the big fellow a complete rest and he may not reappear until Monday. However, he is expected to be in fine fettle by that time.

Redskins' Sprint Title Is Won by Ed Justice

The fastest man on the Redskins? He's Ed Justice, blocking back, and he proved it yesterday in a series of sprints at Griffith Stadium.

Over a distance of 60 yards he outstripped his Redskin colleagues.

Ces were held to determine the Washington team's representatives in a series of competitions to be staged before the Redskins-Richmond Arrows game at Richmond on Sunday.

Second and third to Justice were a pair of substitute Redskin ends—lanky Bob Masterson and Bob McChesney. They will comprise the Washington trio which will compete against the Richmond players in the dashes.

All Redskins with the exception of Andy Farkas, who is idle with a bruised foot, and Carley Malone, who is suffering from a leg injury, competed. George Karamatic, fleet fullback, eliminated himself by falling at the start.

Place-kicking and forward passing are also on the exhibition program at Richmond. Trials will be held this morning at Griffith Stadium to determine the Redskins' two best place-kickers and their (---s best passers.

Redskin headquarters yesterday announced that the 50-yard line tickets for the game at Richmond are available at the Redskin offices.

Players, Fans Riot as Ole Miss Beats Arkansas

Hunting

By Bill Ackerman

Henry P. Davis, secretary of the American Wildlife Institute, as guest columnist, answers several wildfowl questions of more than passing interest. Conservationist-sportsman-national field trial judge-and author. His latest book, The Stranger, we are awaiting with considerable interest.

By Henry P. Davis,
(Secretary of the American Wildlife Institute.)

"Are the ducks really coming back?" is the question most often asked, right now, of the American Wildlife Institute.

DAVIS

"If so, what is bringing them back?" perhaps ranks as the No. 2 current query popped at our experts.

To answer question No. 1 in less than a few words, the reply is "Yes," but the query merits more of an answer than that.

Since the extension of the duck shooting from 30 to 45 days, and it was this extension that is largely responsible for the great interest being shown in the birds at this time, figures have been flung about rather indiscriminately. For instance, it has been printed as gospel fact that the number of ducks has increased from so many millions, thousands and thousands and even hundreds to so many more millions, thousands and hundreds.

Such exact figures are, on the face of it, ridiculous. There is no way i nthe world of coutning the actual number of ducks in this country—or any other country. Although it cannot be stated with mathematical precision that there are so many more ducks this season than last year, all signs indicate that the number is larger.

From every hand come reports that there are more. As long ago as one year this week Dr. Ira N. Gabrielson, chief of the United States Bureau of Biological Survey, was proclaiming the ducks are coming back, from coast to coast over a radio program arranged by our organization.

"The waterfowl restoration program is working," said Gabrielson in his role of prophet. "In 1934 there was no appreciable increase in the number of birds. For a time the future of the waterfowl hung in the balance like that of a sick man at the crisis of a fever. Then in 1935, and again in 1936, there was a slight, but definite, turn for the better.

"Our men in the field, who literally live with the waterfowl from one year to the next, began sending cautious and conservative reports of more birds than they had found the year before. Many of them found it hard to believe their own eyes at first. They couldn't convince themselves, after all these long years when ducks had steadily gone from bad to wohse, that the situation was actually improving. But it was improving."

The year 1937 brought even further proof to Dr. Gabrielson that the ducks were coming back and it was consideration of these conditions as long as one year ago, that prompted the Biological Survey to lengthen the season in 1938.

What brought about the increase? The reasons are few and simple. Nature herself played a leading role by providing rain which made northern breeding grounds ideal places for mama and papa duck to raise young last summer. The establishment of Federal waterfowl refuges, which are strategically located to provide resting places for ducks wearied by long migration flights did much to aid in the restoration of the birds. Increased protection during the lean years played a role in the return of the duck.

Then, too, research, the development of scientific knowledge to cope with the many troubles that beset the ducks, played a most important part. It provided most of the ammunition for the battle against further decreases in the duck supply. I am proud to say that much of this research was carried on at the nine co-operative wildlife research, demonstration and management units supported by the American Wildlife Institute at nine widely scattered land-grant colleges.

So much for the two most often asked questions. Now to others of almost equal interest. One, in particular, is frequently brought up. It comes from those who ask if the extended season will decrease the number of ducks returning to breeding grounds next spring. The answer is, according to the best authority, "No."

It is not generally believed that the extended season will result in greater takes. It is pointed out that when a 30 day season is set, the most avid duck hunters are inclined to spend every legal hour of each open day at their sport. In other words, during a short season, sportsmen are reluctant to pass up one day's shooting. With the extended season it is felt that many of these sportsmen who formerly felt impelled to grasp each fleeting moment at their sport by taking a full bag every day, will scatter their fire, to coin a simile.

It is felt that with 45 days of shooting available, these avid sportsmen will take to the blinds not every day during the season, but at their own convenience. Thus, many of them will actually get in far fewer days of shooting during the extended season than they did when allowed only 30 days for the pursuit of their favorite sport.

This year particularly the duck take will not be increased and here an unforseen occurrence takes the credit. That unforseen occurrence is Bluebird, or very mild, weather. Because of the Bluebird weather, the ducks have not migrated South as early as

See ACKERMAN, Page 22, Col. 2.

Riot Breaks As Ole Miss Wins, 20-14

Defeats Arkansas Fists Fly Freely Tackle Starts Fight Police Halt Battle

Crump Stadium, Memphis, Tenn., Nov. 16 (U.P.).—Mississippi deefated Arkansas, 20 to 14, today in an intersectional football game which ended in a free-for-all with players of both teams and hundreds of spectators slugging with fists on the gridiron.

The general fight started when Arkansas players swarmed over to the Mississippi bench immediately after the final whistle. Several players of both teams were knocked down and hundreds of spectators ran onto the field and joined in the melee.

Bad feeling had developed among the players in the fourth period when Zack Smith, Arkansas end, was knocked unconscious by a hard tackle. He was taken to Baptist Hospital in an ambulance. Physicians said he had not been injurde seriously and X-ray pictures showed no sigs of skull or neck fractures.

Policemen on duty at the game restored order after the fighting had been in progress for about ten minutes.

The game was an offensive duel in which the Mississippi Rebels, led by Backs Parker Hall and Bill Schneller, outscored the Arkansas Razorbacks with thrusts through the air and around the ends.

In the last period Schneller intercepted an Arkansas pass and ran 40 yards for the final score, thumbing his nose at Razorback players as he outdistanced them.

Mississippi scored first on a sustained drive of 77 yards. Hall circled end for 23 yards and passed to Whittington for 18. Line plays failed and Hall threw a 20-yard pass to Murphy who dashed for a touchdown.

Arkansas scored both its touchdowns in the second period. Gloyd Lyon, a back, sparked an Arkansas advance of 40 yards to the Mississippi 2-yard line from where he plunged over guard for the marker. A few minutes later Lyon passed 23 yards to Zack Smith who sprinted 50 more for a touchdown.

The Mississippians scored in the third period on a pass from Hall to Ward for 18 yards.

Mississippi.	Position.	Arkansas.
Ward	L.E.	Britt
Hart	L.T.	Mays
Kinard	L.G.	Thorpe
Autrey	Center	Woodell
Liles	R.G.	Simington
Dossett	R.T.	Singer
Murphy	R.E.	Hickey
Bradley	Q.B.	Atwood
Hall	H.B.	Larimore
Whittington	H.B.	Scalet
Lenhardt	F.B.	Cole

Referee—Bell (Vanderbilt). Umpire—Sanders (Texas A. & M.). Linesman—Severance (Oberlin). Field Judge—Moore (Georgia Tech).

Mississippi	6	0	7	7	—20
Arkansas	0	14	0	0	—14

Touchdowns — (Mississippi) Murphy, Ward, Schneller; (Arkansas) Lyon, Z. Smith. Points after touchdown—(Mississippi) Hall (2) (place-kicks); (Arkansas) Mosely (2) (place-kicks). Referee—Alvin Bell (Vanderbilt). Umpire—Sammy Sanders (Tennessee). Head linesman—Red Severance (Oberlin). Field judg—Scrappy Moore (Vanderbilt).

Center Tilt To Post Ten

All-Stars Lose Plaza Team Wins Steffes Is Hero

The grip of Victory Post, Community Center League softball team, on first place was tightened b yan 8-2 victory over second-place Community Center All Stars at Tech Gym Tuesday night The loss dropped the All-Stars from a second-place tie with Plaza Beverage into third place.

Beverage sackers also won a game, beating the last-place Marine Barracks, 10-5. The crack performer of the double-header was Harold Steffes, Victory Post's winning pitcher. Stefffes whiffed seven All-Stars and allowed but four scratch hits. His teammates performed well in the slugging department.

Community Center League Standings

	W.	L.	Pct.
Victory Post	4	0	1.000
Plaza Beverage	4	1	.800
Community Center	3	2	.600
Benzing Unknowns	2	2	.500
Treasury	1	2	.333
Marine Barracks	1	4	.200

2 Virginia Teams Set Sunday Tilts

Virginia A. C. an dits offspring, the Virginia Juniors, go through a stiff football schedule during the next week with two championships at stake. Sunday the Athletic Club plays Uline Ice eleven at 3 p. m. at the Municipal Stadium in Alexandria, and preceding the game, at 1 p. m., the Juniors tangle with the Alexandria Pirates for the city sandlot title.

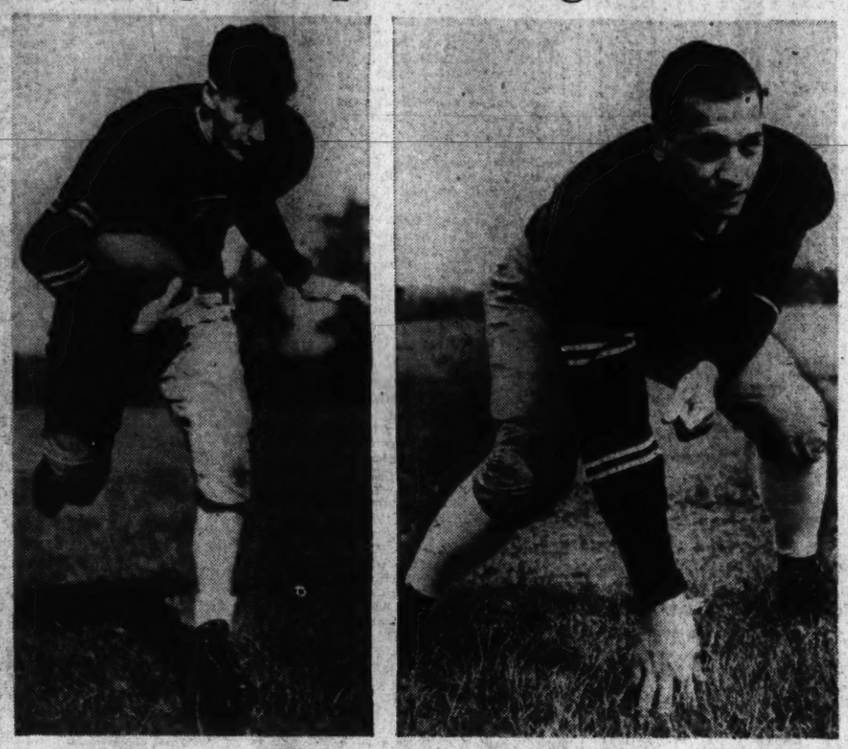
On Thanksgiving Day the Virginians play Delta Sigma Phi of Washington at the Municipal Stadium. The Juniors again inaugurate proceedings, meeting the strong Corsby eleven, of Richmond, Va., for the Virginia State Junior championship, starting at 1 o'clock. Admission has been set at 25 cents for adults and a dime for children.

Frostburg Wins, 4-2

Special Dispatch to The Post

Frostburg, Md., Nov. 16.—Battling against a strong wind, Frostburg State College's soccer team booted its way to a 4-2 victory over Western Maryland College in a Maryland Collegiate League game here. It was the third victory in seven starts this season for Frostburg, which will close here Saturday morning by meeting the University of Virginia.

Georgetown, Maryland Step Up Training Tempo for Big Game



(Left) Joe Murphy, smallest but fastest back on the Maryland squad, who, though only a sophomore, has won a regular halfback position because of his triple-threat ability. Murphy a track man, has run the century in :09.9 in competition. (Right) George Albarano, Maryland's fine tackle, who has been a standout in every game his team has played. Albarano, a senior, is a 60-minute ball player and a strong candidate for the All-District collegiate eleven

Terps Give Attention to Both Defense, Offense Hoyas, Fearing Weidinger, Stress Air Defense Lack of Reserves Is Dobson's Problem

Georgetown and Maryland, preparing for their annual football classic at College Park Saturday, yesterday stepped up their training tempo after two days of comparatively light work.

The Terps held a lengthy drill, giving attention to both offense and defense, while the Hoyas, fearing the passing of Charley Weidinger, continued to stress aerial defense.

Maryland, with few reserves, plans to start its best eleven Saturday and make no substitutions unless they are absolutely necessary. It would not be surprising if at least two of the Terps' back play the entire game.

Weidinger, quarterback and Maryland's chief offensive threat, and John Boyda, blocking fullback, are both rugged, and since the team is immeasurable weakened when either leaves a game, they are expected to go the route. Joe Murphy and Frank Skotnicki, probable starting halfbacks, are considerably smaller than their mates and probably will divide the time with Rip Hewitt, Joe Deylin and Dick Shaffer, best of the rserves.

The Terps' starting line likely will be the same as for the Florida gae, which placed Francis Beamer and Loe Mueller at ends, Bob Brown and Ralph Albarano at tackles; John DeArmy and George Lawrence at guards, and Bob Smith at center.

Beamer, incidentally, will be one of three local boys scheduled to see action. Georgetown has the other two, Francis (Reds) Daly and Bill Krouse. Beamer was playing for Roosevelt High at the same time that Daly was at Tech. Krouse was an all-high tackle at Western.

Catholic U. Team Leaves Tonight

Catholic University's squad will leave at 6:30 tonight on its 2,400 mile trip to New Orleans where Loyola of the South will be met Sunday in the Cards' fifth intersectional game of the season.

The Cards will stop over in Atlanta tomorrow and hold a limbering up drill before re-boarding the train which is due in New Orleans early Saturday. The same afternoon C. U. will hustle over to the Loyola field for another light workout, designed to rid the boys of their "train legs."

Fod Cotton who, in the absence of Dutch Bergman, is handling the team, announced yesterday he would use Sunday the same backfield that started against Miami last week. Johnny Fiorellino will be at quarterback, Burke Vidnovic and Henry Brostek, at halves, and Johnny Matukaitis, at fullback.

G. W. Hears Bisons Will Be at Peak

George Washington's battered squad was anything but cheered yesterday by the news that Bucknell will be at full strength for the Colonials' invasion aSturday. The Bisons who have been resting since meeting Georgetown week before last will be considerably bolstered by the return of Quartrback Bill Lane, who was injured on the first play against the Hoyas.

In their workout at Grifith Stadium yesterday the Colonials continued to use the new backfield combination that made its debut against Kansas. Billy Richardson, the former Central High star, is working at left halfback, Vic Sampson old position, Murphy is at right half, Fred Sartore at fullback and Merka at quarterback.

Manor Club Puts Up Shooting Range

Manor Country Club has installed a trap shooting range for the benefit of the members. The range is located on Great Oak road, near the Layhill pike, in line with the fourth tee of the woods nine. The range will be operated from 2 p. m. until dark on Thursdays, Saturdays and Sundays. Shells must be purchased at the office.

Plans for the dinner-dance December 1 honoring Marion Brown, the club's District and Middle Atlantic champion, are nearing completion. The testimonial affair for the 20-year-old linkswoman is in recognition of her domination of the women's golf tournament in this section. Ticket sale is limited to 300.

Armstrong Loses, 6-0

Cardozo High Wins Score in 4th Period Crummer Tallies

Cardozo High scored late in the game to defeat Armstrong, 6 to 0, yesterday in a city colored high school championship game at Brooks Stadium.

Battling nip and tuck until within seven minutes of the final gun, the elevens threatened a scoreless tie until Mitchell, Cardozo fullback, shot a bullet pass 20 yards to Ellis, who negotiated an additional 10 yards to place the oval on the Armstrong 2. Crummer went through center for the only count of the game.

In he first three periods neither team had been able to approach within 10 yards of its opponents' goal. Armstrong, on a pass, Fagins to Carroll, once had placed the ball on the Cardozo 11, but the advantage was short-lived and availed the Orange and Black team nothing.

Cardozo's victory yesterday, following defeat by Dunbar earlier in the season, three the series awry. Armstrong will meet Dunbar Monday, and should they prove the victors, each team will then have one game to its credit, and the series will be a three-way tie. Should Dunbar win Monday's game, the Poets will be the undisputed city champions of the colored high schools.

Armstrong	Position.	Cardozo.
Bowman	L.E.	Ellis
Bradford	L.T.	Haywood
Fields	L.G.	Chavis
Hersey	Center	Gross
Moore	R.G.	Hurd
Carter	R.T.	Prather
Peters	R.E.	Spriggs
Fagins	Q.B.	Mason
Queen	L.H.	Mitchell
Carroll	R.H.	Sheffield
Lacy	F.B.	Valentine

Armstrong	0	0	0	0	—0
Cardozo	0	0	0	6	—6

Touchdown—Crummer. Substitutions—Sneed for Lacy; Taylor for Valentine; Gibson for Mason; Crummer for Prather. Referee—Martin. Umpire—Drew. Head linesman—Temple. Field judge—Cupid. Time—Two hours.

Pure Oilers Host To Heurich Cage Team

Clarksburg, W. Va., Nov. 16.—Washington's American League Heurich Brewers are scheduled to meet the Pure Oil professional basketball team here December 11, and the Pittsburgh Pirates will be here January 18 in the first of two games.

The Buffalo Bisons, formerly the Buffalo Germans and last year a member of the National League, will be here January 1. The Pure Oilers were formerly the Clarksburg Collegians and Barna's Collegians.

Mrs. J. H. Bullock Heads Committee

Mrs. J. H. Bullock was named chairman of the womens' golf committee at Indain Spring yesterday, succeeding Mrs. K. S. Giles.

Mrs. Bullock will take over immediately, and communications from other clubs should be addressed accordingly.

Additional Sports On Pages 22 and 23

P. G. A. Champions Will Be Exempt From Qualifying

Chicago, Nov. 16 (AP).—The Professional Golfers Association decided today that all past P. G. A. champions in good standing with the association shall be allowed to compete in its National Championship without qualifying sectionally.

Delegates to the association's twenty-second annual convention agreed that past champions can attempt to qualify sectionally, but should they fail, will be permitted to compete in the national tourney, to which they will pay their own expenses. Exemption of past champions will not affect the allotment of places to the various sections.

The resident professional where the P. G. A. championship is to be played also will be exempt from qualifying i nthe future, the delegates decided.

Gay Balko Nears Mark

Pawtucket, R. I., Nov. 16.—The Narragansett Park record of 1:10 1-5 for 6 furlongs was threatened today when Paul Andolino's Gay Balko went that distance in 1:10 2-5 in winning the featured Albany Purse, a sprint for 3-year-olds and upward.

Closest to the son of Balko at the finish of his speedy flight was the Sanford Stud Farm's Sunport, heavily favored at the mutuels. He was a length and a half behind the winner, but four lengths in front of Phil Schwartz's Napper Tandy, which finished third.

Gay Balko led after a few strides out of the gate and was never caught as he turned the first quarter in 0:22 4-5 and the half in 0:45 4-5.

Gay Balko paid $8.20, $3.10 and $2.40; Sunport paid $2.70 and $2.20, and Napper Tandy $2.60.

You Men!

—who like full-bodied perfectos. Here is your size! The Puritanos Finos shape is the finest 2 for 25c cigar your money can buy.

EL PRODUCTO
CIGARS
for real enjoyment

G. H. P. Cigar Co., Inc., Phila., Pa.

DANIEL LOUGHRAN CO., INC.
402 11TH STREET S.W.
WASHINGTON, D. C.

An American Gentleman's Whiskey

Hunter Baltimore Rye Distillery, Inc., Baltimore, Md.
87½ Straight Whiskey, 12½% Grain Neutral Spirits—90 Proof

DELCO BATTERIES
CREEL BROTHERS

now for a real old time
Thanksgiving

ENJOY
3 Extras
1 Extra SMOOTH
2 Extra AGE
3 Extra QUALITY

RED TOP BEER
UNION MADE

Made by RED TOP BREWING CO. Cincinnati, O.

Edward Zupnik & Sons., Inc., Distributors, 1307 4th St. N.E. Lincoln 7358

Down In Front

By Richards Vidmer

Department of Confusion

New York, Nov. 16.—The crowd was packed in two and three deep, and the men in their white coats were opening bottles, slicing oranges, cracking ice and going through the other familiar motions at a great rate. Somewhat in the distance Sonny Kendis' orchestra was playing. People came in through the door and shoved past. Some paused to speak before joining the gay crowd. And then above the babble of voices and light laughter, someone tapped me on the shoulder.

VIDMER.

"I wish you would explain a couple of things to me," said an unfamiliar voice, and looking up I saw a timid soul with a bland and bewildered look on his face.

"Glad to if I can," I replied, always eager to oblige. "What is it?"

"Well, to begin with," said the stranger slipping into the seat beside me, "What about this fight at Madison Square Garden on Friday night?"

"The one between Apostoli and Young Corbett 3d?" I asked. "Why, it's a fight for the middleweight championship of the world. that's all."

"But which is the champion and which is the challenger?" he wanted to know.

"Well, neither is either," I said. "You see, Freddy Steele was the middleweight champion——"

"Yes, I know that. And he was beaten by Al Hostak and Hostak was beaten by Solly Kreiger. But where do Apostoli and Corbett come in?"

Who's Who

"Well, you see, when Steele was champion the New York State athletic commission wanted him to defend his title against Apostoli. But instead he fought Hostak and was beaten. So the local commission wouldn't recognize him, either."

"Why wouldn't they recognize Hostak?"

"Because they didn't consider him a logical challenger for the title."

"Well, if he was good enough to beat the champion, why wasn't he a logical challenger? That seems logical enough to me."

"Yeah yes; I know. But you see, there are other things that enter into it. Any way, they felt that Apostoli deserved a chance t owin the title so they matched him with Corbett."

"Why didn't they match him with Kreiger?"

"Look," I pleaded, trying to hide my impatience. "Look, they don't recognize Kreiger as the champion, see? So they match Apostoli with Corbett and announce they are going to recognize the winner as the champion of the world."

"But Corbett beat Apostoli just last February. Outpointed him in 10 rounds. I remember that. Why don't they recognize Corbett as the champion. Or still recognize Steele for that matter?"

A Lot of Ifs

'A Lot of Ifs

Just then a tall, handsome young fellow with a quiet smile leaned over and said hello. It was a welcome interruption and after we had exchanged greetings and I returned to my seat, the stranger apparently had forgotten about the fight, much to my relief.

"Who was that?" he asked.

"Dan Topping. He owne the Brooklyn Dodgers in the National Professional Football League," I replied. "They are playing the Bears on Sunday."

"Yes, I know. But it doesn't mean anything, does it? The championship hinges on the game between the Giants and the Redskins later on."

"Oh, no, it doesn't. The Dodgers still can win the championship, if everything goes right."

"The Dodgers? I thought they were out of it."

"Not at all. Look, if the Dodgers beat the Bears on Sunday and the Giants lose to Green Bay the same day at the Polo Grounds, then the championship may depend on the game between the Dodgers and Giants on Thanksgiving."

"Why's that?"

"Well, the Giants have won six games and lost two. They have three more games to play. If they lose Sunday and the Dodgers beat them on Thanksgiving, they will have won six and lost four and it won't matter what happens in their last game against the Redskins; the best percentage they can have is .636. Whereas, if the Dodgers beat the Bears and then beat the Giants they will have a percentage of .666 when they finish their schedule."

Slightly Involved

"But what about the Redskins in the mean time?"

"Well, they have two more games to play and if they split even they will tie Brooklyn. That is if Brooklyn wins both its games. If the Redskins win them both they will win the Eastern title, but if they lost both then Brooklyn, providing it beats the Bears and the Giants, will win."

"You mean if the Dodgers beat the Bears and Giants, then the championship in this section will depend o nthe outcome of the game beween the Redskins and the Giants, but the Giants won't have anything to do with it. They'll be playing for Brooklyn."

"How's that again?" By this time I was getting a little confused myself.

"Look," I said, rising quickly. "I think I see a fellow over there I wanted to ask about something. Excuse me, will you?"

Copyright, 1938, New York Tribune, Inc.

Big Yacht Race

San Francisco, Nov. 16.—Yachtsmen of two continents North and South America, will compete in the Silver Star championships at the 1939 Golden Gate International Exposition.

Ed Meske, Gino Garibaldi Headline Arena's Mat Program

Akron Boy Is Favorite Over Italian

Both Liked Here Coleman on Program Tackles Zaharias McCoy Vs. Newman

Having conquered Ernie Dusek, Ed Meske, the big bomber from Akron, will attempt to victimize another seldom-beaten local favorite, Gino Garibaldi, tonight at Turner's Arena in their feature match.

MESKE

Meske and Garibaldi, battling for the first time, are to headline another five-star wrestling card Promoter Joe Turner is offering.

According to the applause and cheers for Meske since his rise to local stardom, big Ed is expected to be the sentimental favorite. He never has been booed. He always manages to please fans with his mixture of heroism and villainy—but Ed knows just when to cut loose and just when to be a nice fellow in the ring.

Shortly after being moved into a headline role by reason of a victory over Ed Newman, Meske handed Ernie Dusek the second defeat ever suffered by the Nebraska Wildcat in Washington. It was a bitter pill for Ernie to swallow, he says, and he is gunning for a return bout.

GINO GARIBALDI

Garibaldi's best with Ernie was a 90-minute draw, but the Italian holds a couple of local verdicts over Ernie's kid brother, Joseph.

Abie Coleman, the "sawed-off shotgun" from Warsaw, and Chris Zaharias, Pueblo, clash in a semi-windup. This will be a meeting between two gnomes, and plenty of action is promised.

Bibber McCoy and Ed Newman will hold forth in a special 30-minute bout. These ruffians are due to set a new high in villainy, and a regular old fashioned bar room brawl is in prospect.

Other bouts show Jack League against Tony Colisano and Hank Barber against Tommy Rae.

First bout is at 8:30.

Former Penn Grid All-American Dies

Tucson, Aliz., Nov. 16 (AP).—George Haydock Brooke, 64, Philadelphia insurance broker and one-time all-America football back at the University of Philadelphia, died at his home here today.

Brooke once was racquet champion of America, court chapion of America in doubles, and doubles lown tennis champion. He made Walter Camp's football teams in 1894 and 1895.

His wife, Mrs. Marie Brooke; a sister, Mrs. Edward Carlton Stone, Lexington, Mass., and a brother, Robert J. Brooke, Staten Island, N. Y., survive.

Funeral services will be held here Friday.

Leo Diegel Files Suit

Cleveland, Nov. 16 (AP). — Leo Diegel, professional golfer from Glenside, Pa., alleged today that injuries to his right hand imparied his career and sued Joseph G. Fogg, jr., Cleveland, for $20,000 damages. Diegel said an automobile driven by Fogg struck him last August while he was playing the Cleveland Open tournament.

Rooters Boost Fair

San Francisco, Nov. 16.—St. Mary's Gaels and 150 rooters on the Slip Madigan special train went to New York for the Fordham football game, all wore emblems boosting the 1939 California World's Fair.

Ackerman

Continued from Page 21.

usual. Consequently, in some sections of the country the duck season has come and gone—with few ducks.

The mild weather has hampered the sportsmen considerably and aided the ducks to a great degree. It is just one of the things that can beset the best laid plans of mice and men when it comes to setting seasons. Wildlife authorities have pretty well figured out other elements affecting the open seasons and are able to plan shooting periods to give the sportsman a break—except when some unforseen occurrence such as this pops up.

In most of the sections of the country where seasonable weather did bring the ducks during the season, hunting has been reported excellent.

Official Bowie Charts

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 16, 1938.
(Compiled by Walter Haight.)
WEATHER, CLEAR. TRACK, FAST.

FIRST RACE—Five and one-half furlongs. Purse, $1,100. For maiden 2-year-olds. Start good from stalls. Won driving; place same. Went to post 1:32. Off 1:38. Winner, M. Shea's b. g. (2), by Crack Brisade—Handover. Trained by W. A. Shea. Value to winner, $800; second, $180; third, $90; fourth, $30. Time, 1:08 4-5.

Horses	Jockeys	Wt.	Post	St.	¼	½	¾	Str.	Fin.	Straight
CHARLES F.	(Dotter)	116	4	3	2²	2¹½	1²	1²	1¹	*$8.55
SIR MOWLEE	(Lindberg)	116	6	5	4½	3½	2½	2²	2²	22.05
ASTER PRINCESS	(Morris)	113	9	1	1¹	1¹	3²	3nk	3nk	11.00
BUD'S KING	(Mora)	116	2	7	5²	5½	5¹	4¹½	4¹½	11.10
GOLDEN MAYNE	(Schmidl)	116	3	4	3¹	4¹	4h	5nk	5nk	77.60
BARRACA	(Yarberry)	108	12	6	9²	9¹	8¹	6¹	6¹	13.40
MY SHADOW	(Peters)	113	11	9	7nk	7¹½	7²	7½	7½	.85
BULLET B	(Seabe)	116	6	8	8h	6nk	6h	8h	8h	*
AUTUMN ECHO	(Stevenson)	113	8	2	6h	8h	9¹	9²	9²	12.15
SOUR CHERRY	(McMullen)	113	4	10	11²	11²	10½	10²	10²	*
WILD IRISH	(Dupps)	111	10	12	12	12	11²	11²	11²	30.10
EXERTION	(Dabson)	116	7	11	10²	10²	12	12	12	15.90

*Field.
Two-dollar mutuels paid—CHARLES F. (field), $19.10, $8.30, $5.10; SIR MOWLEE, $15.10, $12.20; ASTER PRINCESS, $8.80.
CHARLES F. raced ASTER PRINCESS into defeat to get to front and was kept to drive to end while holding SIR MOWLEE safe. SIR MOWLEE raced on outside and clear and closed with good energy. ASTER PRINCESS had good early speed and tired gradually after being caught. BUD'S KING was off in tangle and went evenly thereafter. GOLDEN MAYNE showed good effort. BARRACA raced in close quarters. BULLET B had a rough trip. AUTUMN ECHO was bumped approaching stretch.

SECOND RACE—One and three-sixteenths miles. Purse, $1,000; claiming. For 4-year-olds and upward. Start good from stalls. Won driving; place same. Went to post 2:08. Off 2:08½. Winner, Mrs. A. A. Gray's br. g. (7), by St. James—Daughter of Zeus. Trained by C. Beal. Value to winner, $700; second, $180; third, $90; fourth, $30. Time, 2:05 2-5.

Horses	Jockeys	Wt.	Post	St.	¼	½	¾	Str.	Fin.	Straight
JAMES BOY	(Stevenson)	111	8	10	11	11	10²	2nk	1nk	$39.30
MOON HARVEST	(Page)	115	11	3	1¹	1¹½	1nk	1½	2¹	3.75
COUNTER PASS	(Hendricks)	108	7	11	10³	8h	8½	3½	3½	63.30
WRENACE	(Duppa)	115	3	5	8½	7¹	7h	5½	4²	1.00
JOLYON	(Schmidl)	111	1	1	3h	2¹	2²	6½	5²	†9.20
EXHORT	(Mattioli)	111	2	7	5½	5²	5h	7¹	6½	†
SUN SWEEP	(Hacker)	102	12	4	4²	4h	4½	7²	7²	20.15
DUNRITA	(Mora)	111	5	2	2¹	3½	3½	8½	8½	*73.55
DOCTOR'S GIFT	(West)	106	4	9	9³	10¹	11	11	9½	*
STROPHE	(Yarberry)	104	9	6	7¹	9½	9²	10¹	10²	8.60
BRIGHT CHANCE	(Dabson)	112	6	8	6²	6¹	6½	9½	11	10.80

*Field.
†Lucky Teter-Mrs. L. H. Silver entry.
Two-dollar mutuels paid—JAMES BOY, $80.60, $22.20, $11.40; MOON HARVEST, $7.10, $6.00; COUNTER PASS, $18.30.
JAMES BOY, distant trailer for half, came through on the rail while bettering position with rush, took command and lasted under strong handling. MOON HARVEST set good pace, but bore out entering stretch and came with rush at end on outside. COUNTER PASS, slow to begin, came with rush on inside and closed gamely. WRENACE was shuffled back in early stages and came gamely at finish. JOLYON went closer to pace for three-quarters and faltered. SUN SWEEP had early speed.

Daily Double, Charles F. and James Boy, Paid $6,754.50.

THIRD RACE—One and one-eighth miles. Purse, $1,100; claiming. For 3-year-olds and upward. Start good from stalls. Won driving; place same. Went to post 2:37. Off 2:38. Winner, T. D. Buhl's b. c. (4), by Jacopo—In-Law. Trained by A. G. Wilson. Value to winner, $800; second, $180; third, $90; fourth, $30. Time, 1:56 1-5.

Horses	Jockeys	Wt.	Post	St.	¼	½	¾	Str.	Fin.	Straight
OLD JAKE	(Stevenson)	115	5	5	5	6	7½	1¹	1nk	$2.40
PASSING EVE	(Yarberry)	107	2	2	3²	3¹½	2²	1½	2½	2.80
KAI-MIN	(Peters)	116	7	7	7²	5²	3h	3h	3²	14.15
JOBAKHETA	(West)	113	6	4	4½	4nk	4¹	4nk	5h	14.85
BRIERTON	(Howell)	112	8	1	1½	1²	1½	2½	5²	9.45
COPPER TUBE	(Wall)	115	1	6	6¹	6²	5½	6²	6²	3.15
TOW ROPE	(Seabo)	116	3	3	2½	2¹	8	7²	7²	13.65
BIG BUD	(Scott)	110	4	8	2¹	2¹	6⁴	8	8	132.25

Two-dollar mutuels paid—OLD JAKE, $6.80, $3.70, $2.80; PASSING EVE, $4.00, $3.40; KAI-MIN, $4.50.
OLD JAKE, allowed to settle into best stride and far out of it for half, came to extreme outside for racing room and under punishment, won going away. PASSING EVE, forward factor from start, rallied to get to front in midstretch, but could not resist winner. KAI-MIN, off slowly, hung after improving position. JOBAKHETA went evenly. BRIERTON, set good pace, but faltered badly after three-quarters. COPPER TUBE was listlessly handled. BIG BUD was through after a half.

FOURTH RACE—Six furlongs. Purse, $1,000. For 2-year-olds. Start good from stalls. Won driving; place same. Went to post 3:12. Off 3:16½. Winner, R. V. Boyle's b. c. (2), by Happy Argo—Golden Billows. Trained by owner. Value to winner, $700; second, $180; third, $90; fourth, $30. Time, 1:13 2-5.

Horses	Jockeys	Wt.	Post	St.	½	½	¾	Str.	Fin.	Straight
GOLDEN VOYAGE	(Seabo)	114	12	1	2¹½	1½	1²	1²	1²	$6.40
BLACK BUN	(Wall)	120	2	8	1nk	2½	2²	2²	2²	1.65
WATCH OVER	(Dotter)	114	11	4	3½	3²	6¹	3²	3²	6.05
WAR MOON	(Peters)	117	9	2	6½	5½	5½	4nk	4nk	5.60
LOVEDAY	(Porter)	117	8	9	5¹	4²	4nk	5²	5²	6.70
POMARY	(Stevenson)	114	10	3	8h	8¹	8nk	6h	6h	40.30
HASTEN UP	(Scott)	112	1	6	4½	6¹	4½	7½	7½	*49.30
JOHN'S HEIR	(Yarberry)	112	5	7	10²	10²	9½	9½	8²	10.15
BANNER GIRL	(Morris)	114	7	11	9²	7½	7½	8²	9²	86.45
BREADANBUTTER	(Blanc)	106	6	8	7¹	9½	10²	10²	10²	72.35
BROAD STRIPES	(Laidley)	111½	3	12	12	12	12	11²	11²	*
LYCONNA	(Dupps)	108	4	10	11²	11²	12	12	12	*

*Field.
Two-dollar mutuels paid—GOLDEN VOYAGE, $14.80, $6.30, $4.00; BLACK BUN, $3.40, $2.90; WATCH OVER, $4.50.
GOLDEN VOYAGE, steadied along while close to BLACK BUN'S early pace, took command when asked and was kept to drive to end. BLACK BUN, rushed to front in opening furlong, continued gamely when displaced. WATCH OVER went forwardly throughout. WAR MOON broke well, dropped back and went evenly thereafter. LOVEDAY was held safe. HASTEN UP had speed in spots.

FIFTH RACE—Six furlongs. Purse, $2,500 added. The W. P. Burch Memorial Handicap. For all ages. Start good from stalls. Won driving; place same. Went to post 3:46½. Off 3:49. Winner, Mrs. A. J. Abel's ch. g. (4), by High Cloud—Honey Pot. Trained by A. J. Abel. Net value to winner, $1,755; second, $500; third, $250; fourth, $125. Time, 1:12 3-5.

Horses	Jockeys	Wt.	Post	St.	¼	½	¾	Str.	Fin.	Straight
HONEY CLOUD	(Peters)	115	5	5	3h	2¹	1²	1²	1²	$8.05
CLINGENDAAL	(Hall)	112	22	3	4½	4¹	2nk	2h	2nk	71.80
RYE BEACH	(Stevenson)	121	3	4	1²	1h	3²	2½	3nk	3.80
CONQUER	(Gilbert)	122	6	11	11²	10¹	8½	4¹	4²	8.90
BILL FARNSWORTH	(Yarberry)	120	8	7	8½	8½	4h	3½	5²	8.20
LADY MARYLAND	(Seabo)	112	11	2	7½	6¹	7¹	6½	6²	16.20
CHANCEVIEW	(Schmidl)	110	9	8	9h	7½	5½	5²	7²	*36.55
SUN EGRET	(Shelhamer)	109	13	1	2nk	3½	6¹	8½	8²	†
ACCOLADE	(Dotter)	117	7	9	10¹	9nk	9²	9½	9²	14.35
CACODEMAN	(Dabson)	110	9	10	9¹	11½	11²	10¹	*	*
GOLD FLAG	(Mora)	106	10	6	8½	5²	10¹	11½	*	57.60
MALANO	(Donoso)	122	1	12	12²	12²	12²	12²	*	*
ROYAL EMINENCE	(Solomina)	111	9	13	13	13	13	13	*	201.70

*Field.
†A. C. Compton entry.
Two-dollar mutuels paid—HONEY CLOUD, $13.90, $7.10, $4.10; CLINGENDAAL (entry), $3.50, $2.40; RYE BEACH, $3.70.
HONEY CLOUD, steadied along closest to early pace of RYE BEACH, responded when placed to strong hand ride approaching stretch, came around leaders and drew out gradually under drive. CLINGENDAAL, forward factor from break, came with rush in closing stages. RYE BEACH, rushed to top at once, set good pace and fought it out willingly. CONQUER, slow to begin, saved much ground entering stretch and closed with bold rush along rail. BILL FARNSWORTH had speed in spots. LADY MARYLAND had a rough trip. CHANCEVIEW saved ground to improve position, but weakened. SUN EGRET stopped. ACCOLADE was away poorly.

SIXTH RACE—One and three-sixteenths miles. Purse, $1,000; claiming. For 4-year-olds and upward. Start good from stalls. Won driving; place same. Went to post 4:17. Off 4:23. Winner, H. Neusteter's ch. g. (6), by Polymelian—Roney Dale. Trained by owner. Value to winner, $700; second, $180; third, $90; fourth, $30. Time, 2:06 1-5.

Horses	Jockeys	Wt.	Post	St.	¼	½	¾	Str.	Fin.	Straight
CHIEF EVERGREEN	(Mora)	111	4	3	4¹	1½	1²	1¹	1¹	$23.80
SCATTER BRAIN	(Morris)	111	6	5	6²	5½	2½	2¹	2²	1.40
SOME BOY	(Morris)	120	12	11	8½	7nk	3nk	4½	3nk	6.70
LADINO	(Yarberry)	106	7	7	7²	8²	8¹	5²	4h	3.40
BE BIG	(Driscoll)	108	5	6	5½	6¹½	5¹	3h	5²	*46.35
THREE DAGGERS	(Dabson)	111	11	12	11²	11²	11²	10½	6h	*
GAYLASS	(Hacker)	108	2	8	10²	9½	10¹	8nk	7¹	*
BOOMER	(Dacey)	111	10	9	9¹	10²	7½	7²	8¹	20.50
GRAND DUKE	(Lindberg)	111	3	1	1h	4¹	9¹	8h	9¹	5.05
SUMAC	(West)	106	8	3	3h	3½	6²	9¹	10²	32.65
STARWICK	(Stevenson)	108	9	10	12	12	12	12	11²	52.45
MISS TROY	(Schmidl)	108	1	4	3²	1½	4½	11²	12	170.05

*Field.
Two-dollar mutuels paid—CHIEF EVERGREEN, $49.60, $14.60, $5.80; SCATTER BRAIN, $3.50, $2.60; SOME BOY, $5.00.
CHIEF EVERGREEN, rated while close to leaders, went to front when asked and held away under pressure to stave off bid of SCATTER BRAIN. The latter, within striking distance from start, went to contention with bold rush and fought it out willingly. SOME BOY improved position steadily to stretch, but hung in final drive. LADINO closed with good energy. BE BIG moved up menacingly in stretch, but hung. THREE DAGGERS closed full of run. LADY TROY was not a serious factor. SUMAC had early speed. MISS TROY started outside the gate, quit after a half.

SEVENTH RACE—One and one-eighth miles. Purse, $1,100; claiming. For 3-year-olds and upward. Start good from stalls. Won driving; place same. Went to post 4:32. Off 4:34. Winner, J. Bieber's b. g. (6), by Sting—Mollie Darling. Trained by H. Jacobs. Value to winner, $800; second, $180; third, $90; fourth, $30. Time, 1:55 4-5.

Horses	Jockeys	Wt.	Post	St.	¼	½	¾	Str.	Fin.	Straight
CAUGHT	(Donoso)	115	10	4	1¹½	1²	2¹	1nk	1nk	$2.45
SPRING MEADOW	(Dotter)	116	3	7	4¹	3¹	1nk	2½	2¹	2.75
SAN ANTIOCA	(Yarberry)	110	8	8	6nk	7½	5½	3²	3²	3.10
MONUMENT	(Witmer)	110	9	9	9²	8²	9²	8½	5½	3.15
THE STORY	(Porter)	112	5	5	7¹	6h	9²	9²	6²	205.25
DARK REVUE	(Kelly)	112	6	3	3½	5²	7h	6²	7²	33.00
GOLDEN VEIN	(Duppa)	110	4	6	8¹	9²	8h	8¹½	8²	9.70
GRAPE THIEF	(Howell)	113	1	1	5h	4½	3nk	5²	9²	62.10
SAIDONA	(Hacker)	107	1	1	5h	4½	3nk	5²	9²	21.80
PALAN	(Seabo)	115	7	10	10	10	10	10	10	18.05

Two-dollar mutuels paid—CAUGHT, $20.90, $12.70, $4.80; SPRING MEADOW, $5.20, $3.10; SAN ANTIOCA, $2.90.
CAUGHT, sent up on outside to take command, was rated when displaced by SPRING MEADOW leaving backstretch, saved ground and responded to punishment to retain command and lasted under pressure. SPRING MEADOW went to front after being well placed in early stages, ran wide entering stretch and came again nearing end. SAN ANTIOCA was in trouble early, went to contention with good energy, but hung at close. MONUMENT, outrun in early stages, improved position, but flattened out in closing test. THE STORY had speed in spots and a rough trip. GRAPE THIEF had early speed.

Narragansett Park Results

By the Associated Press.

FIRST — Six furlongs; purse, $800; claiming; 3-year-olds and upward.
Little Tarzan, 108 (Jones) 18.70 7.40 4.90
Joe D., 113 (Almers) 9.80 7.60
Lorraine S., 105 (Krovitz) 10.00
Jabberie, Bay Stout, Rolla Nice, Eyota, †Montmary, Squawker, †Hastinola, Joylee, Pharatime also ran. Time, 1:12 1-5.
†C. L. O'Neal-L. J. Sandrock entry.

SECOND—Six furlongs; purse, $800; claiming; 3-year-olds and upward.
Takus, 113 (Highshoe) 3.30 2.90 2.80
Armstrong, 113 (Barba) 5.80 5.20
Fair Beaut, 110 (McCombs) 10.10
Belle Dare, Twosome, Old Dominion, Hueu, Discount, Assist, Millimeter, Yankee Skipper, Orphans Lass also ran. Time, 1:12 3-5.

THIRD — Six furlongs; purse, $800; claiming; maiden 2-year-olds.
Donna Lopez, 108 (Maloney) 4.90 3.10 2.70
Sunabell, 106 (Ashcroft) 4.10 3.20
Cantamere, 111 (Berger) 2.30
Westfort, Tis So, Gen L., Lucas, Cross Over, Sun Bess, Royal Upset also ran. Time, 1:12 3-5.

FOURTH—Six furlongs; purse, $900; claiming; 2-year-olds.
Major B., 105 (Maloney) 9.90 3.10 2.70
Grinette, 105 (McCombs) 3.70 2.30
Greedan, 110 (Berger) 5.40
Jean C., Little Rhody, Ching Ling also ran. Time, 1:12 1-5.

FIFTH—Six furlongs; purse, $1,000; the Albany; 3-year-olds and upward.
Gay Balko, 112 (Merrill) 8.20 3.10 2.40
Sunport, 115 (Ashcroft) 3.70 2.20
Napper Tandy, 112 (Dickey) 2.60
Silverette, Starz Beauty also ran. Time, 1:10 2-5.

SIXTH — Six furlongs; purse, $800; claiming; 3-year-olds and upward.
Panoramascope (Maschek) 35.00 11.70 6.50
Crowning Glory, 110 (May) 7.00 4.00
Remarkable, 103 (Maloney) 3.60
Spring Moon, Miss Apprehend, Woof, Frozen Mask, Sweeping Flame also ran. Time, 1:12 1-5.

SEVENTH—One and one-sixteenth miles; purse, $800; claiming; 3-year-olds and upward.
Goldfin, 108 (Berger) 9.30 5.40 3.30
Lady Democrat, 113 (Murphy) 33.80 10.40
*Steeplejoy, 111 (Lynch) 3.40
*Lumillion, 111 (Ashcroft) 4.40
Sea Dove, Carus Clarus, Our Uncle John, Scudder, Telling You, Bozertin, Continuity also ran. Time, 1:46 3-5.
*Dead heat for show.

EIGHTH—One and one-sixteenth miles; purse, $800; claiming; 3-year-olds and upward.
Ivory Tip, 111 (Berger) 73.80 22.70 12.90
Bertillon, 110 (McCombs) 5.40 4.80
Match Pint, 111 (Feck) 16.50
Rebel Yell, Pete Sand, Many Moons, Golden X, Unlawful, Sharp Girl, Pickout, Bellesk, Count Cleporte also ran. Time, 1:47 3-5.

Bill Bennings

At the Post

Selections at Bowie.

Dear Al:

I don't want to harp on the Aneroid disqualification, but I wish somebody would explain something to me. Aneroid was tossed out, along with the money bet on him for the reason that he fouled Esposa in the stretch. The stewards by their own admission exonerated Aneroid's jockey, Ralph Eccard of all blame, contending that Aneroid fouled because he went lame. In the seventh race o nthe same card, Apprentice Jockey Beverly Hacker in taking Celtic Legend to the top at the first turn, crossed over in front of the field and interfered with several horses. After the race, the stewards announced that Hacker had bee nsuspended, but Celtic Legend, which finished third, was not disqualified. In Aneroid's case the foul was accidental and itn no way the fault of the rider. In Celtic Legend's case the foul was a deliberate action of the boy. But the ways of racing officials are sometimes stranger than the heathen Chinese. I recall an instance a few seasosn back when a horse was bumped, worse than Aneroid bumped Esposa. A claim of foul was made and no action wa staken. When asked why the horse at fault was not disqualified, one of the stewards said: "Why the horse that was bumped was a beaten horse at the time." A few days later, the so-called "beaten horse" was in action against virtually the same field and walked home the winner. In my opinion, and there are many of the same mind, Esposa was a well-beaten horse at the time of the foul. It looked to me ats if Nick Wall, Esposa's jockey, was trying to alibi for a bad ride. He seemed to have used very bad judgment in trying to out run Two Bob in the early stages. Two Bob never figured to last more than a mile when setting the pace.

BILL.

First race—Santiago stopped badly going a route at Laurel, but was previously second at this distance in good company. Freshened up and has the edge. Blazearound has been going a distance of ground, but closes well. May get up. Counora should better a green effort last outing.

Second race—Star Mint had poor luck last out at Pimlico, but was a good second recently. Is fit and should prefer track conditions. Bosonia turned in a good effort in better company, but may need this race. Seed was a beaten favorite in New York.

Third race—Many flags showed a flash of early speed with high-class juveniles in New York. The class here and should win. Chance Watch merits a good chance off his second to Bing Beng at Pimlico. Ghost Flyer has changed hands, dropping down. Should show.

Fourth race—Toni closed plenty of ground in the stretch when fourth in this company at Pimlico. Due for his best effort and should like this track. Gyral raced well with slightly better horses Monday and looks like the one to beat. Gaurisankar is not outmatched and is in good form.

Fifth race—Time Signal was placed over his head last out, but won recently with high-grade plateds. On edge; should win. Indomitable can better a poor showing in similar company. Has good chance on best races. Fogoso has class and speed; could take it all.

Sixth race—Watersplash was unable to threaten when made favorite in much better company on a heavy track a tPimlico. Should remedy his poor showing today. Kinross was a recent winner and is in form. Clap In should go well if he has any early foot.

Seventh race—Duel won his last, is in good hands, and is reported to have quite a little class. Moves up but figures much the best. Camaderie can better a poor effort last outing. Is dropping down for this. Wispy has won his last two, but is moving up.

Best bet—Toni.

Day for Livermore Max

San Francisco, Nov. 16.—Max Baer, one-time Livermore Larruper and heavyweight champion, probably will be a featured participant in the Livermore Day celebration next June 7 at the 1939 California World's Fair.

Povich

Continued from Page 20.

348 for 100 games was impressive but his run-production wasn't. The roly-poly fellow produced only 37 runs with his 91 hits. And he is not a power slugger. Playing Wright alongside of Case, another moderate-distance hitter, would mean that the third man in the outfield must necessarily be a long-range slugger if the outfield is to hold up its end of the attack.

Fondest of Griffith's hopes is that Bobby Estallela will be that man. Between Griffith and Manager Bucky Harris there is a sharp division of opinion on that point. Harris, who has given the stocky Cuban two trails, is unimpressed with his possibilities. Griffith, who watched him closely as he led the Piedmont League in batting, in runs driven in, in home runs and virtually everything else, is virtually convinced that Estallela is ready.

When a club owner feels that way about it, the fellow is in for a through trial.

The Post's Consensus at Bowie

Bennings (Washington Post)

First Race	Second Race	Third Race	Fourth Race	Fifth Race	Sixth Race	Seventh Race
Santiago	Star Mint	Many Flags	Toni	Time Signal	Watersplash	Duel
Blazearound	Bosonia	Chance Watch	Gyral	Indomitable	Kinross	Camaraderie
Counora	Seed	Ghost Flyer	Gaurisankar	Fogoso	Clap In	Wispy

Best bet—Toni.

Louisville Times (AP.)

Blazearound	Two Aces	Romaunt	Prowl	Idle Way	Head Hunter	Dian
Puzzle Dance	Bosonia	Ghostflyer	Gyral	Black Arrow	Count Dean	Westbrooke
Game Chaser	Diavid	Chalmac	The Runner	Indomitable	Sir Rag	Kindacorn

Best bet—Prowl.

Consensus of Leading Handicappers

Jest Once (28)	Two Aces (16)	Chance Watch (15)	The Runner (15)	Idle Away (12)	Watersplash (22)	Duel (15)
Santiago (10)	Principessa (10)	Romaunt (13)	Toni (12)	Time Signal (10)	Count Dean (10)	Dian (12)
Gay Casino (8)	Diavid (9)	Ghostflyer (9)	Prowl (12)	Mr. Grundy (8)	Sir Rag (6)	Melody Maid (10)

Time Out

By Chet Smith

The enemy, my stupid ones, is over in this direction!

Some of the movie stars have the dizziest hobbies. Lucie Neville tells you about some of them in this Sunday's Post.

BowieEntries With Marvel Ratings

By the Associated Press.

FIRST RACE—Five and one-half furlongs; purse, $1,000; for maiden 2-year-old fillies.

No.	Horse and Jockey.	Wt.	Odds	Rate
10	Teresa Gino (Peters)	116	15-1	310
11	*Lyds (Duppa)	111	15-1	307
12	*Moppo (LeBlanc)	111	10-1	...
13	½Jest Once (Duppa)	111	4-1	311
14	½Ready About (Gilbert)	116	15-1	311
15	†Cleo C. (No boy)	111	15-1	306
16	Gay Casino (Hardy)	116	12-1	309
17	†Fuzzie Dance (Gilbert)	116	15-1	304
18	*Mighty Busy (LeBlanc)	111	20-1	...
1	Blazearound (Eccard)	116	5-1	312
2	Santiago (Peters)	116	5-1	313
3	*Repass (Jackson)	111	20-1	308
	Also eligible:
4	Dinamita (E.Smith)	116	15-1	313
5

Loyola Beats Little Hoyas, 20-6

Baltimore Outclasses D. C. Team

Smothers Air Attack Gets 9 First Downs Scores 2 in Opener Kuntz Losers' Star

Special Dispatch to The Post

Baltimore, Md., Nov. 16.—Loyola High School conquered Georgetown Prep, 20 to 6, today for its fourth victory in eight games of the current campaign.

The home team easily was the superior, rolling up nine first downs against two for the Garrett Park opponent, and completing six in 15 passes, while preventing Georgetown Prep from making good any of its six aerial attempts.

Loyola marched down the field from the start and scored the first touchdown on a buck by Norman Brady from the 4-yard line. The second touchdown came in the first period on a pass, Brady to Joe Scheidt. It was completed behind the safety man, and the receiver raced 30 yards to score. Scheidt added the extra point on an end run.

The third touchdown came in the second quarter. After an advance to the visitors' 25, Brady passed to John Farley, who made the catch on the 7-yard line and ran across. Preston Rowland bucked for the extra point.

Georgetown scored in the third quarter after blocking Rowland's punt and recovering on the 8-yard line. On second down, Kuntz, who was chief ground gainer for the prep team, circled end for the touchdown.

Loyola suffered greatly from penalties in the second half. Loyola lost 65 yards for rule infractions, while Georgetown Prep was set back 15.

Loyola.	Position.	G'town Prep.
Farley	L.E.	Doggett
Trillman	L.T.	Becker
Sullivan	L.G.	Perry
Kennegan	Center	Salb
Graham	R.G.	Harper
Cook	R.T.	Goodspeed
Scheidt	R.E.	Devine
Brady	Q.B.	Boyer
Wise	L.H.	McDonald
Connolly	R.H.	Finlayson
Rowland	F.B.	Decker

Loyola	13	7	0	0	—20
Georgetown Prep	0	0	6	0	— 6

Scoring: Touchdowns—Loyola, Brady, Scheidt, Farley; Georgetown Prep, Kuntz. Points after touchdown—Loyola, Scheidt, Rowland. Substitutions—(Loyola) O'Connor, McGrain, Sutliser, Siwinski, Mellendick, Frank, Bahr, Miller; (Georgetown Prep) Kuntz, Crowley, Briefs, Eckrick.

North, South to Fight Again—This Time on the Gridiron

By the Associated Press.

Montgomery, Ala., Nov. 16.—The North and South, clad in blue and gray, will fight it out again—this time on the gridiron in the cradle of the Confederacy January 2.

Mayor William A. Gunter announced tonight teams will be selected from either side of the Mason-Dixon Line, professionals or seniors whose college playing days are over, to play in a game "which will be different."

Coaches Frank Thomas of Alabama and Jack Meagher of Auburn will handle the Grays, or Southern team, Gunter said, with Columbia University's Lou Little selecting the Northern coaches.

The mayor said:

"It was here in Montgomery that the first capital of the Confederacy was established—it was here Jefferson Davis took his oath of office—it was from Montgomery that word was sent to fire on Fort Sumter. All these things have now been forgotten, except as historical fact, and we again wish to make history as the host of a united nation."

Gunter said the game will become "an annual affair."

Each team will be allowed 22 players, to be selected by the coaches from their territory.

Crampton Bowl here, with a capacity of between 15,000 and 20,000, will be the playing field. Gunter said it was planned in another year to increase the bowl capacity to 35,000.

Modern Child Has Washable Toys

As soon as children have passed the infant stage, they prefer the "do with" or "make something" toy, to the "look on" type. Sturdy blocks that can be converted into skyscrapers, bridges, and docks will keep Junior happily occupied from babyhood until he is well along at school. Nor need mothers worry that dust and grime from the floor will leave them unfit for contact with chubby fingers. Modern blocks, like rattles, rubber dolls, and, in fact, all toys intended for children who still have a tendency to put things into their mouths are finished to withstand soap and water washing, and they should have it in order to protect the health of the children who use them.

Forward Ringlets Predicted by Stylist

Within a few months classic ringlets brushed well forward and mounting high above the brow will supplant the omnipresent up-swept versions. This is the prediction of Gaillaume, Paris arbiter of coiffure styles.

This future coiffure trend which gets its inspiration from L'Aiglon—son of Napoleon—one of the most romantic figures of history and will be adopted by smart American and French women, according to Gaillame, who created brushed-up hair do's in the midst of flowing page boy bobs.

You do not drink whiskey so often that you need deny yourself one of the finest there is. I. W. Harper—Bottled in Bond—Kentucky Straight Bourbon Whiskey—100 Proof. The Gold Medal Whiskey. Distilled and Bottled by the Bernheim Distilling Co., Louisville, Kentucky.

Washington Wholesale Liquor Corporation
EXCLUSIVE DISTRIBUTOR FOR DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

N. C. State, Duke Game Tops Card

Southern Conference V.M.I., Roanoke Meet Gamecocks to N. Y. Hoyas at Maryland

By the Associated Press.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 16.—Weekend engagements held top attention ini six Southern Conference camps today as other loop squads took things a bit easier for Thanksgiving Day football games.

Only Duke and N. C. State were confronted with preparations for a conference battle Saturday. The Blue Devils and the Wolfpack will meet at Durham. Wallace Wade sent his Duke varsity through a signal drill yesterday and gave the team new plays. The No. 2 eleven drilled on defense against a frosh eleven running N. C. State formations.

Willard Eaves, injured in the U. N. C. game, rejoined the Duke squad, and ran at the blocking position with Eric Tipton, Bob Spangler and Bob O'Mara.

The Wolfpack, meanwhile, drilled behind closed gates as Coach Doc Newton worked out a defense designed to stop Tipton and O'Mara, Duke spearheads.

Maryland looked to its defense and primed its running and passing attack in an effort to score an upset over the unbeaten Georgetown eleven at College Park Saturday.

V. M. I.'s varsity, though spotty on defense, displayed a hard running attack in preparation for the game with Roanoke College at Lexington. The V. M. I.-Roanoke tilt tops a meager card in the Old Dominion this week-end.

South Carolina faced its final heavy workout today for the Fordham game. The Gamecocks will entrain Thursday for New York, hopeful of doing as well against the Rams as did their neighbors, the North Carolina Tarheels.

A final heavy workout likewise was on tap today for The Citadel, which meets Erskine Friday.

Elsewhere throughout the conference preparations went forward for turkey day engagements with traditional rivals.

Beauties to See 'Skins and Giants

Two of Washington's loveliest, Dorothy Parker, "Miss Washington" for 1938, and Nadine Petrey, "Miss Halloween" and runner-up for "Miss Washington's" title, will act as comascots for the Junior Board of Commerce's "Redskin Special" to the Redskin-New York Giants football game to be held in New York City Sunday, December 4.

This announcement was made today by Austin de Wilde, chairman for arrangements, who further announced that over 500 avid Washington football fans were expected to board the special train which leaves Union Station at 1:30 p. m. Saturday, December 3.

Miss Parker and Miss Petrey, chaperoned by Miss Parker's mother, will act as official mascots for the junior board party, whose tickets will include round-trip rail transportation, tickets to the game, and hotel accommodations.

Golf

Continued from Page 20.

event will be played tomorrow and Friday.

The card:

Par out—
4 4 4 5 5 3 4 4 3—36
Armour and Cruickshank:
4 4 4 3 4 4 4 3—33
Picard and Grout:
4 3 4 5 3 2 4 4 3—32
Par in—
5 4 4 4 3 5 3 4—36—72
Armour and Cruickshank:
5 4 4 3 3 3 5 2 4—33—66—66—132
Picard and Grout:
6 3 4 4 3 2 4 3 4—33—65—67—132

Bobby Cruickshank, Richmond, Va., and Tommy Armour, Bocarton, Fla., 66, 66—132.

Willie Klein, East Williston, Long Island, and Billy Burke, Belleair, Fla., 69, 66—135.

Steven Warga, jr., Peekskill, N. Y., and Jim Milward, Madison, Wis., 68, 68—136.

Jimmy McHale, Rumson, N. J., and Craig Wood, Rumson, N. J., 70, 67—137.

Al Huske, DeKalb, Ill., and Frank Stuhler, Jamaica, Long Island, 68, 69—137.

Johnny Bulla, Chicago, and Clayton Kefner, Greensboro, N. C., 66, 71—137.

Al Krueger, Beloit, Wis., and Jimmy Hines, Great Neck, Long Island, 73, 66—139.

Harry Cooper, Chicopee, Mass., and Lawson Little, Presidio, San Francisco, 74, 66—140.

Cahndler Harper, Portsmouth, Va., and Ernie Ball, Charlottesville, Va., 70, 70—140.

Matt Kowel, Philadelphia, and Ralph Williamson, Fort Wayne, Ind., 71, 69—140.

Stanley Horne, Ottawa, Canada, and Jules Huot, Quebec, Canada, 72, 70—142.

Al Cluck, Flushing, N. Y., and Herman Barron, White Plains, N. Y., 72, 70—142.

Albert Alcroft, Youngstown, Ohio, and Andrew Moscary, Norwalk, Ohio, 71, 72—143.

Ky Laffoon, Chicago, and Leonard Ott, Denver, 70, 73—143.

E. F. Loeffler, jr., Oakmond, Pa., and Vince Eldred, Pittsburgh, 73, 70—143.

Ralph Miner, New Bern, N. C., and Palmer Maples, Rocky Mount, N. C., 73, 73—146.

George Diffenbaugh, Washington, and Virgil Worsham, Washington, 75, 72—147.

Walter C. Greiner, Baltimore, and John Bass, Baltimore, 78, 76—154.

Jack Grout, Chicago, and Henry Picard, Hershey, Pa., 67, 65—132.

Felix Serafin, Clarks Summit, Pa., and Teri Johnson, Morristown, Pa., 68, 65—133.

E. J. (Dutch) Harrison, Little Rock, Ark., and Sam Byrd, Ardmore, Pa., 69, 65—134.

Dick Metz, Lake Forest, Ill., and Gene Sarazen, Brookfield Center, Conn., 63, 67—130.

Jimmy Thomson, Shawnes-on-Delaware, Pa., and Horton Smith, Oak Park, Ill., 66, 69—137.

Edward Oliver, Wilmington, Del., and Frank Walsh, Bretton Woods, N. H., 68, 67—135.

Al MacDonald, Yardley, Pa., and Charlie Yanisick, Tuxedo Park, N. Y., 68, 70—138.

Tony Manero, Salem, Mass., and Mike Turnesa, Elmsford, N. Y., 68, 70—138.

Harold J. Calloway, Pinehurst, and Ellis Maples, Plymouth, N. C., 73, 67—142.

Pat Sawyer, Detroit, Mich., and Ernie Shave, Northville, Mich., 76, 68—144.

Charles Penna, Boca Raton, Fla., and Sandy Armour, Bloomington, Ill., 72, 74—146.

Graham Napier, Lynchburg, Va., and Bill Schraeber, Towson, Md., 74, 73—147.

Leonard Gibson, Kansas City, Mo., and Webb Gilbert, Topeka, Kans., 72, 69—141.

Louis Barbaro, Harrison, N. Y., and Dan Caigano, Harrison, N. Y., 71, 68—139.

B. Webber, Leroy, N. Y., and Charlie C. Tripp, Fort Bragg, N. C., M. C., 73, 72—145.

Roy Grinnell, Southern Pines, N. C., and Art Clark, Summit, Pa., 74, 73—147.

Ade Simonsen, Minneapolis, Minn., and Lester Bolstad, Minneapolis, Minn., 72, 67—139.

Eddie Bush, Norway, Me., and Denny Chamoagne, Grand Rapids, Mich., 68, 75—143.

John Gertsen, Salt Lake City, Utah, and Rod Munday, White Plains, N. Y., 70, 72—142.

Andy Gibson, Baltimore, and Ben Lovins, Saranac Inn, N. Y., 69, 69—138.

Ted Luther, Wilkinsburg, Pa., and Perry Delvecchio, Greensburg, Pa., 69, 67—136.

Tony Longo, Inwood, N. Y., and Pete Vassella, Westbury, Long Island, N. Y., 73, 71—144.

Jack Patroni, Shawnee, Pa., and Jim Turnesa, Elmsford, N. Y., 67, 66—133.

Lee Walper, Washington, D. C., and Henry C. Fee, Durham, N. C., 69, 69—138.

Bob Hamilton, Evansville, Ind., and Tommy Wright, Stearns, Ky., 73, 73—146.

Joe Stein, Wayland, Mass., and Wally Grant, Duquesne, Pa., 78, 74—152.

Archie Hambrick, Decatur, Ill., and I. C. (Rocky) Schoor, Bluefield, W. Va., 73, 73—146.

Beaches Are Deserted as Fishing Season Ends

Ocean City, Md., Nov. 16.—The fishing season ended today and the beaches were deserted.

Only a few fishermen were out in the morning, and they had little success. Most of the boats were tied up at the docks.

Fishing was good during the season, which began in May, and the catch was large.

Color in Make-up Must Suit Dress

New York (AP).—The importance of color in the current mode has caused women to give almost as much thought to fashions in faces (with their make-up problems) as to fashions in frocks, in order to insure harmony between the two. To help simplify the make-up problem, a leading New York beauty specialist gives these tips:

For yellow and brown costumes choose a warm red rouge and lipstick, such as coral, and a peach powder.

With violet frocks wear orchid rouge and lipstick which has a very slight violet cast and a warm rosy champagne powder.

Bowl

Continued from Page 20.

leys, and the boys have always received four cents per game.

CHEVY CHASE—After a small percentage of the boys quit early in the evening, Manager Eddie Espey reported all alleys working and enough boys to last indefinitely.

COLUMBIA—Beryl English allowed strikers from Lucky Strike to talk with Columbia pinboys and they told him to go on back they'd stick. They now receive four cents per game on Sundays.

CONVENTION HALL—After a meeting with the boys Charley Bell reported no trouble. They'd stick with him at present rate.

COLLEGE PARK—Owner Charles A. Gentile always has paid boys 4 cents per game, despite nearby competition of less than 3 cents.

GEORGETOWN RECREATION—No trouble at all.

MOUNT RAINIER—Boys reported "more than pleased" with working conditions.

NEW RECREATION ALLEYS—"We're treated good now," consensus of pinboys.

PETWORTH—Has always paid boys 3 cents per day and 3½ cents a night. Expected no trouble. Has same boys since plant opened.

QUEEN PIN—No action by present boys.

RENDEZVOUS—Had same boys six or seven years and expected no walkout.

ROSSLYN—Galt Davis talked to the boys, and all seemed satisfied after discussion, and all reported to work.

SILVER SPRING—"No telling what will happen when organizer gets among them," said Owner Hugh Arbaugh, "but thus far no trouble whatsoever."

TAKOMA—Reds McGaw reported everything running smoothly.

TEMPLE—Boys receive 4 cents per game at present, satisfied.

UNIVERSITY—Also paying boys 4 cents per game.

Frosh May Serve Ultimatum On Pitt Athletic Chieftains

By the Associated Press.

Pittsburgh, Nov. 16.—Campus talk of an "ultimatum" by University of Pittsburgh freshmen football players in connection with a muddle over tuition payments brought a statement of a firm stand tonight from the school athletic authorities.

John Weber, the university's termed the entire affair a "misunderstanding," then added:

"We, of course, cannot accede to any ultimatum from the freshmen, but we stand ready to give the boys every chance possible to work for their indebtedness (for their tuition)."

The difficulty centered in bills for tuition sent the athletes. Under Pitt's new policy banning athletic scholarships, the men signed promissory notes of $150 each, but the athletes insisted they assumed the notes were a mere formality and never would be collected.

The Sun-Telegraph said Pitt "faced the loss of one of the greatest freshman football squads in the school's history unless university authorities can be prevailed upon to lessen the burden which the freshmen claim they must carry."

The paper quoted one of the gridders as saying: "There is nothing else we can do. If they won't help us out of this predicament, we'll have to quit, for we are in no position to help ourselves."

Weber predicted affairs "would be ironed out satisfactorily."

The freshmen football players expressed themselves as willing to finish out their season schedule Saturday against Kiski.

Curb Bonds

Sales in thousands. | High | Low | Close

DOMESTIC BONDS

A
3 Ala Pw 5 '51	99	98	98
23 Ala Pw 4½ '67	85⅛	84½	84½
9 AmG & E 5 2028	108	107⅛	107⅛
4 Am P&L 6 2016	86	86¼	86¼
21 Ark P&L 5 '56	100¼	99⅞	100⅛
12 As Elec 4½ '53	47	45⅜	45⅜
39 As G&E 5 '50	35	30¼	32
31 As G&E 5 '58	34½	30	30¾
83 As G&E 4½ '49C	33½	29	30¼
2 As T&T 5½ '55a	77⅛	77⅛	77⅛
B
69 †Baldw L 6 '50	104¾	100	100
C
4 Caro P&L 5 '56	98½	98	98¼
22 CenIll PS 4½ '67	102⅝	102¼	102¼
28 Cen P&L 5 '56	97⅝	97¼	97⅜
7 Cen St El 5½ '54	35½	34	34
3 Cen Ste 5s '48	36⅝	36⅜	36⅜
6 Cities Ser 5 '66	71⅛	70¼	70¼
93 Cities Ser 5 '50	71	69½	69¾
1 Cit S Gas 5½ '42	101⅝	101⅜	101⅜
20 Cit SP & L 5½ '49	75⅝	74⅛	74⅜
47 Cit S Pw 5½ '52	75⅜	74⅛	74⅛
23 ContG&E 5 '58a	85⅝	85	85⅛
E
32 †East G&F 4 '54 A	69½	69	69
30 Elec P&L 5 2030	78¾	77⅛	77⅛
F
23 Fla P & L 5 '54	95⅜	95⅛	95⅛
G
15 Gary E&C 5 '44 st	98	96⅝	98
3 Gatin P 5 '56	104½	104	104
3 Gen Pub Ut 6½ '56	84	83½	83½
33 Geo Pow 5 '67	97⅜	97⅛	97⅛
1 Glen Ald Coal 4 '65	72½	72½	72½
H
5 Hall Pr 6 '47 A st	100	100	100
I
73 Ill Pw & L 5 '56C	97⅝	96⅝	97
3 Ill Pw & L 6 '53	101⅝	101¼	101⅝
9 Ind Sve 5 '50	88½	87½	87½
11 Inters Pow 6 '57	44½	43½	43½
11 Inters Pow 5 '57	39½	39	39¼
1 It Sup Pw 6 '63 A	48	48	48
J
2 Jer C P&L 4½ '61C	105¼	105¼	105¼
4 Lou P & L 5 '57	106⅛	106¼	106⅛
M
11 Milw G Lt 4½ '67	100¼	100	100
N
18 Nat P&L 5 2030 B	91½	91	91⅜
7 Nevada Cal E 5 '56	85¼	84⅝	84⅝
15 N Eng G&E 5 '50	56½	55	55
12 N Eng G&E 5 '47	59	58½	58½
4 N Eng Pw 5½ '54	92½	92½	92½
6 N Eng Pow 5 '48	88½	88	88
1 N Orl P S 6 '49 A	88	88	88
37 NY Pow&Lt 4½ '67	107¾	107¾	107¾
34 NY St E&G 4½ '80	99½	99½	99½
9 Nor Ind P S 5 '69	106½	106	106
9 Nor I PS 4½ '70 E	103¾	103¼	103¼
O
6 †Okla Nat Gas 5 '46	103¾	103	103
1 †Okla NG 4½ '51 A	104⅛	104⅛	104⅛
P
9 Pac P & L 5 '55	80⅜	79¾	80⅜
14 Pen C P&L 4½ '77	92⅝	92¼	92⅜
3 †PubS N Ill 4½ '81 F	102	29-32	all
1 Pur Sd P&L 5½ '40	74½	74½	74½
2 Pur Sd P&L 5 '50 C	75⅛	75⅛	75⅛
9 P Sd P&L 4½ '50 D	73¼	72⅛	73
S
16 ShawW&P 4½ '67A	106½	105	105⅛
11 S E P&L 6 2025 A	95¼	94	95
1 †So Cal Ed 3¾ '45	104⅛	104⅛	104⅛
17 Stand G&E 6 '51	63	62	62⅛
11 Stand G&E 6 '66	63	62	62
39 Stand P&L 6 '57	63	60⅛	61⅛
10 †Starrett Corp 5' 50	33½	33⅛	33⅛
T
30 Tex El S 5 '60	98	97	97½
9 Tex P&L 5 '56	103¼	103	103¼
13 Twin CRT 5½ '52A	85¼	85¼	85½
U
4 Unit L&P 6½ '74	77½	77½	77½
8 Unit L&P 6 '75	77	76¾	76¾
7 Unit L&Ry 5½ '52	82	82	82
W
37 West Tex Ut 5 '57A	97⅝	97	97⅛
1 Ger C Mun 7 '47	22½	22¼	22¼
2 Ger C Mun 6 '47	22⅛	22⅛	22⅛

Total bond sales yesterday, 12,000,000; year ago, $1,202,000.

†Bonds so marked are fully listed on the Curb Exchange. All others are dealt on an unlisted trading basis.

Matured bonds. ‡Negotiability impaired pending investigation.

(ur) Under rule. (ww) With warrants. (xw) Without warrants. (war) Warrants.

Local Produce

Prices paid shippers net f. o. b. Washington. By U. S. Bureau of Agricultural Economics.

EGGS—Market slightly weaker; 1 cent lower on U. S. Extras, large. Market steady on other grades. Government graded and dated eggs: Whites. U. S. Extras, large, 40; U. S. Extras, mediums, 39; U. S. Standards, large, 38½; U. S. Standards, mediums, 26½; U. S. Trades, 26½; Pullets, 24. Nearby ungraded eggs: Current receipts, whites, 31@32; mixed colors, 27@28.

LIVE POULTRY—Market steady. Fowl: Colored, all sizes, 17@18; No. 2s, 13@14; Leghorns, 12@13; roosters, 10@11. Chickens: Virginia Rocks, broilers and fryers, all sizes, 19@20; No. 2s, 12@14. Delaware Rocks and Crosses, Broilers and fryers, all sizes, 19@20; No. 2s, 12@14. Mixed-colored fryers, 15@16; No. 2s, 11@12; Leghorns, broilers, all sizes, 15@16. Capons: 7 to 9 pounds, 23@28; slips, 16@18. Turkeys: Young hens, 10 to 12 pounds, 22@23; young toms, 15 pounds and up, 21@22; No. 2s, 15@16; old hens, 18; old toms, 18. Guineas, 2 pounds and over, 60 a pair under 2 pounds, 40 a pair.

Fruits and Vegetables

APPLES—Bushel baskets, U. S. No. 1, Maryland, Pennsylvania, Virginia and West Virginia: Grimes, 2¼-inch minimum, 60@75; 2½-inch minimum, 1.00@1.10; 2¾-inch minimum, 1.15@1.25; Jonathans, 2¼-inch minimum, 75@85; 2½-inch minimum, 1.15@1.25; Yorks, 2¼-inch minimum, 65@75; 2½-inch minimum, 90@1.00; 2¾-inch minimum, 1.10@1.15; Staymans, 2¼-inch minimum, 75@85; 2½-inch minimum, 1.15@1.25; Delicious, 2¼-inch minimum, 1.00@1.10; 2½-inch minimum, 1.35@1.50; Golden Delicious, 2¼-inch minimum, 75@80; 2½-inch minimum, 1.25; Bonums, 2¼-inch minimum, 75@85; 2½-inch minimum, 1.00@1.10. Boxes and cartons: Virginia and Pennsylvania, Delicious, combination extra fancy and fancy, 113s-163s, 1.50@1.85; 64s-100s, 2.00@2.25. C grade, 113s-163s, 1.25@1.50; 64s-100s, 1.50@1.65. Fancy: Staymans, 113s-150s, 1.50@1.65; 64s-100s, 1.90@2.00; Golden Delicious, 113s-163s, 1.35@1.65; 64s-100s, 1.85@2.00; Romes, 113s-150s, 1.35@1.50; 64s-100s, 1.75@1.85.

BROCCOLI—Pennsylvania, crates, 75@1.00.

BRUSSEL SPROUTS—California, 25-pound drums, 1.75@2.25.

CABBAGE—New York, 50-pound sacks Danish type, 35@40, fair condition, 23@30; 1½ bushel hampers, Pennsylvania, Savoy type, 40@50; South Carolina, pointed type, 60@75.

CARROTS—California, Western crates, bunched, 3.50; fair condition, 1.50@3.00; Pennsylvania, bushel baskets, topped, washed, 65@75.

CAULIFLOWER—New York, crates, 65@75.

LETTUCE—Western crates Iceberg type, 5-dozen, California, 4.00.

ONIONS—50-pound sacks, yellow, U. S. No. 1, New York, 1.00@1.10; medium size, 90@95; Michigan, 50-pound sacks, yellows, U. S. No. 1, 1.00.

PEAS—California, bushel hampers, telephones, fair quality, 2.00@2.25.

POTATOES—Hundred-pound sacks, Cobblers, U. S. No. 1, Pennsylvania, 2.25@2.50; New Jersey, 1.20@1.25; fair condition, 1.10@1.15; Idaho, 100-pound sacks Russet Burbanks, U. S. No. 1, 2.00@2.10.

SWEET POTATOES—Bushel baskets, North Carolina, Puerto Ricans, 75@85; Virginia, Puerto Ricans, 75@85; Nancy Halls, 90@1.00.

TOMATOES—Lug boxes, California, ripes and turning wrapped, 6x6 and larger, 1.75@2.25; 6x7, 1.50@1.75; 7x7, 1.00@1.25; Texas, ripes wrapped, 6x6 and larger, best, 2.50; fair condition, 2.00@2.25.

SNAP BEANS—Florida, bushel hampers, green, flat type, 1.25; Round Stringless, 1.40@1.50.

CUCUMBERS—Florida, bushel baskets, 1.50@2.00; fair condition, 1.00.

SQUASH — Florida, bushel hampers, white, wrapped, 1.25@1.50; Yellow Crooknecks, 1.00@1.50.

EGGPLANT—Florida, 1½-bushel crates, fair quality, 1.50@1.75.

ARTICHOKES — North Carolina, 30-pound boxes, 1.00@1.25.

BEETS—Pennsylvania, 20@25 per dozen bunches.

CHAYOTES—California, crates, 16s to 20s, 1.25@1.50.

COLLARDS — Nearby sections, bushel baskets, 30@35.

CRANBERRIES—Massachusetts, ¼-barrel boxes, 3.50.

GARLIC—California, 10-pound bags, 90@1.00.

KALE—Nearby sections, bushel baskets, 30@35.

MUSHROOMS—Maryland and Pennsylvania, 3-pound baskets, 30@75.

OKRA—Florida, bushel hampers, large size, 1.00@1.25.

PARSLEY—Pennsylvania, ½-bushel baskets, 50@60.

PARSNIPS—Pennsylvania, ½-bushel baskets, 35@40.

TURNIPS—Nearby sections, 25 per dozen bunches; Canada, 50-pound sacks Rutabagas, 50@60.

AVOCADOS—Florida, flat crates, 1.00@1.25.

CASABAS—California, crates, all sizes, 1.50@1.75.

CHESTNUTS—Italian, 7@8 per pound.

GRAPEFRUIT—Standard boxes: Florida, 1.50@1.75; Texas, Pink Meats, 2.50@2.75.

GRAPES — California, lugs, Malagas, 1.25@1.35; Ribiers, 1.50@1.75; Emperors, 1.65@1.85; Cornichons, 1.40@1.50.

HONEY — Virginia, cartons, 2-dozen, comb, 2.75@4.00.

LEMONS—California, standard boxes, 2.00@4.50, as to grade and size.

LIMES—Florida, ½ boxes, 50@1.00.

CELERY—Market steady. New York, ½ crates, individually washed, 3-6 dozen, 1.50@2.00; 2/3 crates, crate-washed, 5-7 dozen, 1.50@1.75.

(Quotations from other sources.)

BUTTER—90 score, 1-pound prints, 23; tub, 27; ¼-pound prints, 29; 92 score, 1-pound prints, 26; ¼-pound prints, 31.

MEATS—Choice beef, 20; good beef, 19; calves, 17; lambs, 18; veal, 17; fresh pork, 20; pork loin, 23; fresh ham, 19; fresh skinend ham, 16½; smoked hams, 25; large smoked skinned hams, 22; smoked skinned hams, 26; piece bacon, 24; sliced bacon, 29; compound, 10½; lard, 9½.

LIVESTOCK — Pigs, 120-140 pounds, 6.84¾@7.14¾; light pigs, 140-180 pounds, 7.14¾; 180-210 pounds, 7.39¾; 210-240 pounds, 6.89¾; 250-300 pounds, 3.89¾@4.89¾ down; calves, 10.25¾@10.89¾; medium calves, 8.14¾@7.14¾; culls, 2.94¾.

Chicago Livestock

Chicago, Nov. 16 (AP).—The hog run of 24,000 head was 2,000 less than expected and only 2,000 smaller than a week ago, but this was enough to strengthen the market. Tone of the cattle market was steady to strong, influenced partly by good shipper demand for choice and prime kinds. Fat lambs were unchanged, with sellers holding best natives above 9.25.

(U. S. Dept. of Agriculture).—HOGS—Receipts, 24,000, including 9,000 direct. Moderately active, steady to 10 higher than Tuesday's average; mostly 5-10 up; top 7.80; good and choice, 190-300 pounds, 7.60@7.80; liberal proportion, 7.65@7.75; 140-180 pounds, 7.50@7.75; good 350-500-pound packing sows, 7.35@7.55; few light weights up to 7.65.

CATTLE—Receipts, 8,500; calves, 1,200; general market a little more active; steers and yearlings steady to strong; strictly good, choice and prime kinds show most strength on shipper account; long-fed weighty steers, grading strictly good and better, very scarce; run mostly yearlings and light steers of value to sell at 8.75@11.00; top 13.15 paid for medium-weight steers; nothing strictly prime here in weighty steer line; stockers and feeders steady, with calves active at 9.50@10.25 and yearlings and weighty feeders slow, steady at 8.25@9.25 and 7.50@8.50, respectively; other killing classes fully steady, mostly steady to strong; bulls strong to 15 higher, with weighty sausage offerings up to 6.65; vealers 25 or more lower at 9.00@10.50; mostly 10.00 down; few head at 11.00, no criterion of general trade.

SHEEP—Receipts, 10,000, including 2,000 direct. Late Tuesday, fat lambs steady to 10 lower; top 9.15; others 8.35@9.10; bulk around 9.00; sheep steady. Today's trade opened very slow. Early bids fully steady with Tuesday's uneven trade on all slaughter classes; holding best natives above 9.25; odd lots fat sheep steady; feeding lambs strong; 74-78-pound Westerns, 8.45@8.60.

Richmond Markets

Richmond, Va., Nov. 16 (AP) (U.S.D.A.).—FRUITS AND VEGETABLES—Receipts fairly liberal; market steady and unchanged; quoting No. 1 grade white potatoes in 100-lb. sack packs at 1.25, sweet potatoes in bushel basket packs 85@1.00 per bushel. Cabbage in 50-lb. sack or basket packs, 65@75. Apples: Virginia No. 1 stock Yorks, 1.00 per bushel; Staymans, 1.25@1.40; Delicious, 1.50@1.75 per bushel pack. Oranges and grapefruits mostly 2.00 per standard box. Lettuce 3.00 and celery 2.25 per standard crate. Tomatoes in 28-lb. lug packs, 1.40@1.75 on medium and good, choice to 2.00. California, 28-lb. lugs of grapes, 1.40@1.75.

BUTTER—Virginia, creamery in moderate supply; market steady, quoting pound carton packs, solid prints 27 quartered pounds 28.

EGGS—Receipts are slightly heavier; indications market on ungraded eggs unchanged, mixed colors and sizes, 30@32; hennery whites and hennery browns, 38 straight cases, few fancy to 38 dozen. Graded eggs: Net f.o.b. to shippers for large extras, 38 dozen; large standards, 33 dozen; medium extras and medium standards, 28 dozen.

POULTRY—Receipts moderate; market steady, unchanged. Bulk of sales by commission merchants quoted: Leghorn hens, 11@12 lb; Reds and Rocks, choice grade and weight at 18 lb. Other than choice as to value. Chickens: Choice as to value. Chickens: Including all weights Leghorns, 14@16; Reds, 17@18; Rocks, 19@20 lb. Turkeys: Receipts slightly heavier, market steady and active on small lots young hens at mostly 20@ lb. Heavy toms 21 lb., medium weights 22, a few to 23 for fancy. Guineas mostly 45 each for choice. Other than choice, 35@40 each.

LIVESTOCK—Hogs: Receipts moderate; market 10 cents higher at 7.80 top paid for good and choice 180-250 lb. run of sells-barrow. 140-160 lbs., 7.50. 120-140 lbs. 6.90, 250-300 lbs. 7.55. Sows under 350 lbs. at 1.50 under top and over 350 lbs. 1.75 under; stags under 350 lbs. 3.00 under top and over 350 at 3.50 under top. Cattle: Receipts light; vealers steady at 11.00 top for choice. Cows, steady unchanged 3.50@8.50 for bulk of sales. Bulls, steady unchanged 4.00@6.00 for average run. Common and medium steers and better grades of heifers 5.50@7.50, good grass and slightly warmed-up steers 7.75@8.50 with better grassers and considerable grain finish to 9.00 top. Sheep: Practically no receipts; quoting nearby eastern Virginia lambs 4.50@8.00 or slightly better. No southwest section here. Ewes quotable 1.50@3.00 as to value.

Money Markets

Foreign Exchange

New York, Nov. 16 (AP).—Closing rates follow: Great Britain in dollars, others in cents.

Great Britain, 4.70½; 60-day bills, 4.69¾.

Demand Rates

Montreal in New York	99.09⅜	Yugoslavia	2.34
New York in Montreal	100.90⅝	Netherlands	54.23
Belgium	16.92½	Norway	23.64
Italy	5.26¼	Poland	18.84
Finland	2.07	Portugal	4.27½
France	2.63¾	Rumania	0.75
Germany	40.07	Sweden	24.23¾
Greece	.87	Switzerland	22.59
Hungary	19.85	*Argentina	31.33
Travel	22.35	*Brazil (free)	5.90
		*Mexico City	20.75
		Japan	27.42
		Hongkong	29.34
		Shanghai	16.05

*Nominal.

New York

Bar silver 42¾, unchanged.

London

Money, ½ per cent. Discount rates: Short bills, ½@⅝ per cent; 3-month bills, ⅝.

Bar gold 148s 1d. off 2 pence. (Equivalent $34.76.).

Bar silver 20d. up ⅛. (Equivalent 42.29 cents.)

Paris

Principal rente issues in the bourse were: 3 per cent, 80.70 francs; 4½s "A," 94.50; 4½s 1937, 136.90.

Baltimore Grain Prices

Baltimore, Nov. 16.—FLOUR—Receipts, 2,938 barrels. Market quiet, 98-pound cotton sacks, winter patent, 3.85@4.15; winter straight, 3.05@3.35; spring patent, 5.00@5.25; spring straight, 4.75@4.95; hard winter patent, 4.65@4.85; hard winter straight, 4.45@4.70; rye flour, dark to white, 3.10@4.00.

WHEAT—No receipts. Shipments from elevators, 21,007 bushels. Stock in elevators, 975,735 bushels.

Closing prices: No. 2, red winter, garlicky, spot, domestic, 65.

CORN—Receipts, 14,042 bushels. Shipments from elevators, 459 bushels. Stock in elevators, 62,606 bushels. No. 2

Father Walsh To Address A. I. B. Forum

On Foreign Affairs Meeting and Supper Next Tuesday Night

The Rev. Edmund A. Walsh, S. J., vice president of Georgetown University and regent of the School of Foreign Service, will be the speaker at a Forum sponsored by Washington Chapter, American Institute of Banking, to be held next Tuesday night. The meeting will be in the form of a buffet supper to be held at 8 o'clock in the Willard Hotel. Father Walsh will speak on "Foreign Affairs."

Father Walsh has been decorated for services in the field of international relations by the governments of Spain, Chile, Venezuela, Rumania, Czechoslovakia and Yugoslavia. He is a member of the Council on Foreign Relations, Cosmos Club, School of Slavonic Studies at London University, Advisory Council, American Academy of Political and Social Science and a lecturer at the Academy of International Law at The Hague.

For the last 15 years he has made a close study of Russian affairs, beginning in 1922 when he went to Soviet Russia representing American Catholics on the American Relief Administration. Since then he has delivered more than 1,100 lectures on Soviet Russia, covering all the leading cities in the United States.

The variety of his foreign experience is reflected in his books, which include: "The Fall of the Russian Empire;" "The Last Stand—An interpretation of the Soviet Five-Year Plan;" "Ships and National Safety" and "The Woodcarver of Tyrol."

Security Club Meeting

The Security Club of the American Security & Trust Co. recently held its first business meeting of the new club year. The newly elected officers presented to the club members are: Henry S. Kenworthy, president; Kenneth Birgfield, first vice president; Robert P. Talley, second vice president; Daniel J. Murphy, treasurer; Hazel R. Zoerner, secretary; and the following members of the board of governors: George F. Lingebach, York D. Hollingsworth, Mary Faulkner and Ross W. Morgan. The meeting was held in the lunchroom of the American Security & Trust Co.

The Union Cab Association, which has been completely reorganized and placed under new management, began operations from a new address—310 M street, northeast, it was announced yesterday by Wade B. Riley, newly elected president. The association is now a fully co-operative organization, with more than 100 taxicabs now in service. The new officers have perfected plans for financing purchase of cabs for members and providing complete liability and other forms of insurance through a local insurance company.

Besides Mr. Riley, new officers are B. A. Pomeroy, vice president, and Don Anderson, secretary-treasurer. The board of directors includes the officers and J. A. Watson, O. E. Kent, E. B. Barrett. Arthur Booth has been appointed general manager, the only salaried officer in the association.

Authority

REV. EDMUND A. WALSH, S. J., regent of the Georgetown Foreign Service School, who will address the local chapter of the American Institute of Banking at a forum meeting next Tuesday

Cotton Futures Close Lower

New York, Nov. 16, (AP).—Cotton moved within a 5-point range today with prices tending to ease as liquidation developed late in the day. March reacted from 8.51 to close at a low of 8.45. Final prices showed net losses of 1 to 5 points.

The market opened unchanged to 2 points lower. Trade and local interests were the chief buyers while hedge selling and scattered liquidation supplied contracts. Later prices advanced a few points on trade buying in December and spot house and cooperative interest buying in March. The demand failed to expand, however, and prices slipped off during the afternoon.

Futures Price Range

	High.	Low.	Last.
December	8.60	8.57	8.57
January	8.57	8.53	*8.52
March	8.51	8.45	8.46
May	8.32	8.28	8.28
July	8.16	8.11	8.11
October	7.87	7.83	7.83

Spot nominal; middling, 9.27.
*Nominal.

Cottonseed Oil

Cottonseed oil declined today under further liquidation and selling by houses with Southern connections, promoted by decline in lard and the heavy receipts of hogs. Final prices were 4 to 9 points net lower with sales of 119 contracts. Bleachable spot nominal; December closed 7.50; January, 7.61; March, 7.71; May, 7.82; July, 7.88.

Boston Wool Market

Boston, Nov. 16 (AP) (U. S. Dept. Agr.)—The wool market in Boston today was very slow. Occasional sales were closed on moderate quantities of fine territory wool in original bags at 66 to 68 cents for average to short French combing lengths and at 68 to 70 cents for good French combing wools.

Trade Pact Fears Sends Wheat Lower

Declines ¾ cents a Bu. Recovers Near Close British Tariff 6 Cents

By the Associated Press.

Chicago, Nov. 16.—Oppressed by uncertainty over the terms of the Anglo-American trade pact, Chicago wheat prices fell ¾ of a cent today, but later recovered somewhat.

Doubt whether or not the British tariff duty of 6 cents a bushel against United States wheat would be removed did much to make traders irresolute. Cheap offerings from exporting countries acted also as a drag.

At the close, Chicago wheat futures were ⅜ lower to ⅛ higher, compared with yesterday's finish; December, 63¾@64; May, 66⅛@66¼; corn, ¼-¾ down; December, 47¾@47⅞; May, 51⅛@51¼; oats, ⅛ off to ⅛ up; rye showing ¾ to 1 cent setback, and provisions a drop of 7 to 12 cents.

	Open.	High.	Low.	Close.
Wheat—
December	64	64	63⅛	64
March	....	....	....	65⅝
May	66⅛	66¼	65½	66¼
July	66	66⅛	65⅝	66⅛
Corn—
December	48¼	48⅜	47⅝	47⅜
March	....	....	....	50
May	51½	51¾	51⅛	51¼
July	52⅛	52¾	52⅛	52⅛
Oats—
December	25⅝	25¾	25⅝	25⅝
May	26⅝	26¾	26⅝	26¾
July	26⅝	26⅝	26½	25½
Soy Beans—
December	73¾	74	73⅝	74
May	76½	77	76½	77
July	....	....	....	77½
Rye—
December	42½	42½	41¾	41¾
May	44⅝	44⅝	44¼	44¼
July	45¼	45¼	45⅛	45⅛
Lard—
December	7.20	7.20	7.12	7.12
January	7.30	7.30	7.22	7.22
March	7.87	7.87	7.82	7.52
May	8.00	8.02	7.96	7.95

Cash Grain Prices

WHEAT—No. 2 yellow hard, 64½; No. 2 Northern spring, 65.

CORN—Old, No. 1 mixed, 49½; No. 3, 48¼; No. 1 yellow, 49¼@49½; No. 2, 49¼; No. 4, 48¼; No. 5, 47¼; No. 1 white, 50; No. 2, 50; sample, 45@45½; new, No. 2 mixed, 48@48¼; No. 3, 46½@48¼; No. 4, 45½; No. 1 yellow, 48½@49¼; No. 2, 48¼@48¾; No. 3, 46¼@48¼; No. 4, 44¾@46¼; No. 5, 43¾@44; No. 1 white, 49¾; No. 2, 49¾; No. 5, 44¼; sample, 43¾.

OATS—No. 1 white, 29½; No. 2, 28⅛; No. 3, 24½@26½; sample, 24@26.

BARLEY—Illinois, 33@36 nom.; Michigan and Wisconsin, 45@68 nom.; No. 3 malting, 55; sample, 31, musty.

SOY BEANS—No. 2 yellow, 74¼@74¾; No. 3, 73½@74; No. 4, 73½.

TIMOTHY SEED—2.85@2.95.

RED CLOVERSEED—12.00@15.00.

RED TOP—8.75@9.20.

Treasury Certificates

(Reported by Smith, Barney & Co.)

Rate.	Maturity.	Bid.	Offer.
1¼	Dec. 15, 1938	100 2-32	....
1½	Mar. 15, 1939	101 16-32	101 18-32
2¼	June 15, 1939	102 2-32	102 4-32
1⅜	Sept. 15, 1939	101 30-32	102
1⅜	Dec. 15, 1939	101 29-32	101 31-32
1⅜	Mar. 15, 1940	102 6-32	102 8-32
1½	June 15, 1940	102 9-32	102 11-32
1½	Dec. 15, 1940	102 20-32	102 22-32
1½	Mar. 15, 1941	102 20-32	102 22-32
1⅜	June 15, 1941	102 15-32	102 17-32
1¼	Dec. 15, 1941	102 11-32	102 13-32
1¾	Mar. 15, 1942	103 18-32	103 20-32
2	Sept. 15, 1942	104 19-32	104 21-32
1¾	Dec. 15, 1942	103 21-32	103 23-32
1⅛	June 15, 1943	100 30-32	101

Naval Stores Firm

Savannah, Nov. 16 (AP).—TURPENTINE—Firm, 22¾; sales, 52; receipts, 307; shipments, 1,620; stock, 51,887.

ROSIN—Firm; sales, 247; receipts, 1,931; shipments, 1,382; stock, 294,548. Quote: B, D, 4.05; E, 4.25; F, 4.85; G, H, I, K, M, 5.00; N, 5.50; WG, 6.00 WW, X, 6.65.

The Market

By C. Norman Stabler, A Special Correspondent.

Stocks Generally Lower as Volume Jumps Anthracite Railroad Shares Show Gains Down Trend of Treasury Issues Continues

New York, Nov. 16.—Stocks dropped an average of a point as the reaction of the week continued and there was a moderate pickup in the volume of business as the selling gathered momentum during the afternoon. The turnover of 1,794,880 shares was the largest of the current decline, and at one period during the day the ticker was four minutes late. The opening was strong but there was no follow-through, the list thus reversing its behavior of the previous day.

All of the major divisions of stocks contributed to the decline. Aviation issues generally made new highs for the year in the opening bulge, but not many of them were able to close with plus signs. Wright Aero, which at one time was up more than 6 points, held only a 2½-point advantage at the close, and this was better than the performance of the more active members of this group.

Aircrafts Close Down

Consolidated Aircraft, North American and Curtiss Wright made new highs but closed lower and minus signs also were carried by Douglas and Glenn L. Martin, the latter selling off following the announcement that the company plans the raising of new capital through the issuance of rights to purchase additional stock.

Shares of anthracite railroads enjoyed a period of strength based on the ruling of the Interstate Commerce Commission permitting roads serving Pennsylvania to put into effect substantially higher rates on anthracite. The ruling brings the ICC into conflict with the Pennsylvania Utility Commission, which has the right to appeal to the courts if it so desires. The finding of the ICC was that intrastate rates were not contributing their fair and just proportion to the revenues of the carriers.

The ruling brought heavy trading into Lackawanna, but an early advance did not hold, the stock closing unchanged. Delaware & Hudson followed a similar course, closing unchanged after making a new high for the year. Central was active and off a fraction.

Rail Stocks Lower

The majority of rail stocks followed the balance of the market to slightly lower levels. Carloadings for last week, to be made public Friday, are expected to reflect the two holidays and the normal trend for freight traffic from now until the close of the year is for a gradual decline.

Claiming the interest of security holders, particularly those owning certain railroad stocks, and also of the stock brokerage fraternity, is the move to delist from the big board a number of issues. Permission of the S. E. C. may be asked shortly to delist Cotton Belt preferred and common stock, as well as stocks of certain industrial concerns. There are several score issues said to be scheduled for like consideration, the theory being that the exchange should not facilitate the purchase of bankrupt securities by the public.

Of even more importance to members of the exchange, as well as to the public, is the question of new listings. With certain issues being taken off the board, and others likely to be withdrawn by the issuing companies, such as International Nickel, the exchange may well consider the advisability of making it easier for new concerns to place their securities on the big board. A committee of the exchange has been delving into this problem and is expected to issue its report shortly.

Bonds Generally Weaker

Listed bond trading was accompanied today by the same signs of weakness that afflicted the equities market. United States Treasury and best grade corporate issues slowly drifted downward. Among speculative rails the weakness of previous sessions was accentuated. Local tractions managed to resist the trend, with small gains in Interborough issues reflecting the optimism on the the $315,000,000 unification bond issue of the city. Foreign dollar bonds were irregular. Turnover in all issues was $8,230,000.

Treasury Issues a Worry

The downward trend of Treasury bonds now is beginning to worry the financial district, less because of the extent of the change than because of the persistence of the movement. Declines today ranged from 1-32 to 11-32 point, with the larger recession merely indicative of accumulated losses in an inactive bond. Guaranteed issues of the farm and home corporations were quiet and steady. Among best rated utility, railroad and industrial bonds variations were small and irregular.

Interborough bonds stood out in the local traction group, with gains ranging to a point, while Manhattan and B. M. T. issues were soft. Secondary rail liens were generally weak, with the more vulnerable bonds from 1 to 3 points. Default rails also were weak. Both rail and utility holding company bonds softened, and industrial convertibles likewise reflected the trend of related equities. Communications bonds, commodity issues and other special groups were dull and uncertain.

German bonds steadied in the foreign section today, with small upward and downward variations the rule. Italian and Japanese bonds also moved indifferently. Best grade foreigns were firm, owing to the impression that the new $40,000,000 Canadian loan would be well received tomorrow. Among Latin-American default issues a few firm spots appeared, but most bonds were dull.

15 Most Active Stocks

Special Dispatch to The Post

New York, Nov. 16.—The 15 most active Stock Exchange issues today were:

	Volume	Close	Nt. ch.
Republic Steel	47,100	23¾	—1
Boeing Airplane	33,500	30⅝	....
General Motors	30,800	49⅝	—1⅝
U. S. Steel	29,700	66⅝	—2¼
No. Am. Aviation	26,800	15⅝	— ⅝
Del., Lack. & W.	23,700	77½	....
N. Y. Central	23,300	19⅝	— ⅛
Newport Indust.	20,500	17¼	— ¼
Beth. Steel	19,100	73	—2⅜
Pathe Film	18,900	12⅝	— ⅛
General Elec.	18,700	44	—1⅛
Curtiss-Wright	18,200	6⅝	+ ⅛
Chrysler	17,500	81⅝	—2⅞
Con. Edison	16,700	30¼	—2
U. S. Rubber	16,600	50½	—2⅜

Volume, 15 stocks, 361,100 shares.
Ratio to total volume, 20.1 per cent.

Steel Output Advances to 62.5 Capacity

One Company at 100% High Rate to Continue Rail Buying Needed

New York, Nov. 16.—A further rise in the ingot production rate to 62.5 per cent of the country's capacity, highest since early October, 1937, accompanied by strength in scrap prices is largely a reflection of the more rapid consumption of steel by the automobile industry, says Iron Age today in its weekly survey of the steel industry.

"One independent steel company is now operating its steel-making facilities at 100 per cent and another has brought into service five new open-hearth furnaces which have not hitherto been required.

"With the support of large backlogs of sheets and strip booked at recent low prices, nearly all mills will be able to maintain their present operating rates to the end of the year. If the moderate expansion of orders in other lines continues, even higher operations may be looked for this month or next.

"The reduction of $7 a ton on tin plate, effective November 10, will undoubtedly result in the release of a fairly substantial volume of orders that have been held back pending a price announcement.

"Though it is gratified over the improvement that has taken place in recent weeks, the steel industry is aware that permanent betterment cannot be founded largely on the automobile industry and Government spending. A buying movement by the railroads and an expansion of private construction are essential elements that are lacking.

"As the year-end nears, buyers are taking more interest in steel prices for the first quarter. Alert to the fact that the steel companies need higher prices in order to obtain adequate profits, steel users foresee the possibility of moderate increases, but thus far no steel company has given any intimation of its intentions on 1939 prices beyond the announcement on tin plate.

"The automobile industry is revising production schedules upward as demand for cars exceeds earlier expectations. Instead of the slump that sometimes comes in January, after dealers' stocks have been supplied, it now appears likely that production will continue through the winter without serious abatement unless recurring labor troubles hinder production."

Three Rubber Firms Restore Pay to 16,000

Akron, Ohio, Nov. 16 (AP).—Akron's three major rubber companies announced today that some 16,000 white collar workers who received 10 to 15 per cent pay cuts last April 1, would be restored to full rates.

The restoration, announced by Goodyear, Goodrich and Firestone, is effective today for all salaried employes receiving less than $300 a month, and individual consideration will be given those receiving more than that rate, the companies said.

U. S. Treasury Receipts

By the Associated Press.

The position of the Treasury November 14:

Receipts, $15,782,752.16; expenditures, $30,063,924.36; net balance, $2,561,656,285.89, including $1,949,835,840.08 working balance; customs receipts for the month, $12,249,636.91.

Receipts for the fiscal year (since July 1), $2,089,760,408.68; expenditure, $3,322,177,935.71, including $1,064,231,258.50 of emergency expenditures; excess of expenditures, $1,232,417,527.03; gross debt, 138,524,323,923.01, an increase of $7,655,675.97 above the previous day; gold assets, $14,118,529,972.39.

The Day's Movements In Leading Markets

Stocks

	Wed.	Tues.
Advances	103	195
Declines	700	542
Unchanged	142	159
Total issues	945	896

Late selling forces list down; volume, 1,794,880.

Bonds

Rails lead general decline; transfers, $8,240,700.

Curb

Utilities lower; turnover, 321,000.

Commodities

Wheat and cotton lower; sugar steady; coffee higher.

Exchange

Lower; Great Britain, $4.70⅛; France, 2.63¼ cents.

Libby-Owens-Ford To Restore Pay Cuts

Toledo, O., Nov. 16, (AP).—Salaried employes of the Libby-Owens-Ford Glass Co., who accepted salary reductions during 1938, will have the cuts restored December 1, John D. Biggers, president, announced today.

He said 563 employes who had received more than $1,500 a year and who accepted 10 per cent voluntary reductions will be affected.

Montreal Silver Futures

Montreal, Nov. 16 (AP).—Silver futures closed 15 points up. Bid: November, 41.15.

WE SELL, BUY OR EXCHANGE
OFFICE FURNITURE
Desks — Steel Files
Tables — Steel Cabinets
Chairs — Safes
BAUM'S OFFICE FURNITURE
1416 Eye St. N.W. (Next to Postoffice)
NA. 2184 — No Branch Stores

LAIDLAW & CO.
28 Broadway—New York
Established 1842
Washington Office
727 15th St. N.W.
Telephone Di. 2255
Other Offices
Montreal — Boston, Mass. — Toronto
Providence, R. I. — Oil City, Pa. — Rutland, Vt.
252 Park Avenue, New York
Members
New York Stock Exchange
New York Curb Exchange
Boston Stock Exchange
Chicago Board of Trade
Facilities reach leading security and commodity markets

LONG TERM Mortgage Loans 5% INTEREST
Monthly Payments of $6.60 on each $1.000 borrowed. Include interest and pay off loan in 20 years.
- Interest charged only on unpaid balance of principal.
- Amount loaned—up to 66 2-3% of appraised value.
- Valuable prepayment privileges.

Other plans of financing first mortgage loans available.
H. L. RUST COMPANY
1001 Fifteenth St — NAtional 8100

Transactions on N. Y. Bond Market

By the Associated Press.

Total bond sales yesterday, $8,240,700; previous day, $7,276,00 $15,095,000; January 1 to date, $1,578,944,830; year ago, $2,514,0; week ago, $11,942,550; year ago, $6,504,450; two years ago, 344,375; two years ago, $3,112,039,000.

Range of United States Government Issues

(Sales in $1,000. Dollars and 32ds)

1938 High.	1938 Low	Nov. 16. Sales.		High	Low	Last.	Net Change.	Closing Bid.	Closing Ask.	Yield
108.2	106.16	1	Treasury 3⅜s, 1943-41 March	106.29	106.29	106.29	+ .2	106.27	106.29	.38
108.14	106.26	1	Treasury 3¼s, 1941	107.9	107.9	107.9	— .2	107.10	107.11	.51
110.5	107.2	1	Treasury 3¼s, 1945-43	109.13	109.13	109.13	— .6	109.15	109.17	1.24
110.3	107	27	Treasury 3¼s, 1946-44	109.18	109.15	109.17	+ .1	109.17	109.19	1.40
114.23	111.22	10	Treasury 4s, 1954-44	114.2	114.2	114.2	....	114.1	114.4	1.56
113.18	110.8	1	Treasury 3¾s, 1956-46	112.30	112.30	112.30	— .8	112.27	112.29	1.85
119.5	116.4	5	Treasury 4¼s, 1952-47	118.18	118.18	118.18	— .5	118.16	118.19	1.96
105.17	101.27	9	Treasury 2¾s, 1951-48	105.5	105.4	105 4	— .11	105.4	105.6	2.13
105.7	101	1	Treasury 2½s, 1948	104.26	104.26	104.26	— .2	104.26	104.28	1.95
102.20	99.18	2	Treasury 2½s, 1953-49	102.3	102	102.2	+ .3	102	102.2	2.28
102.23	100.4	2	Treasury 2½s, 1952-50	102.3	102.2	102.2	— .2	102.2	102.4	2.29
104.7	100.26	2	Treasury 2¾s, 1954-51	103.19	103.16	103.19	— .4	103.17	103.19	2.41
107.7	103.26	16	Treasury 3s, 1955-51	106.18	106.16	106.18	— .3	106.16	106.18	2.40
104.21	101.24	35	Treasury 2¾s, 1960-55	104.4	104.1	104.3	+ .1	104.2	104.3	2.56
103.17	100.14	4	Treasury 2¾s, 1959-56	102.31	102.31	102.31	+ .1	102.29	102.31	2.54
102.29	100.6	10	Treasury 2¾s, 1955-58	102.13	102.11	102.13	+ .1	102.11	102.13	2.59
106.22	103.4	4	Fed. Farm Mtg. 3s, 1949-44	106.13	106.11	106.13	+ .1	106.11	106.12	1.78
103.13	101.9	1	Home Own. Loan 2¾s, 1949-39	102.11	102.11	102.11	— .3	102.11	102.13	....
105.15	101.5	6	Home Own. Loan 2½s, 1944-42	104.1	104	104.1	— .5	104.1	104.3	1.09
106.23	103.9	2	Home Own. Loan 3s, 1952-44	106.12	106.11	106.11	— .1	106.11	106.13	1.76

Sales in thousands.	High	Low	Close
CORPORATION BONDS
A
10 Alleghany 5 '44	83¼	82	82
9 Alleghany 5 '49	74	73½	73¾
51 †Alleghany 5 '50 st.	41	38½	39
24 Allis Chalm 4 '52	110½	109	109
9 Am & F P 5 2030	56	54½	54½
9 Am I Co Cb 5½ '49	104	103¾	104
19 Am T & T 5½ '43	112¾	112½	112⅝
40 Am T & T 2½ '56	105¼	105⅛	105¼
9 Anacon Cop 4½ '50	105⅞	105½	106⅛
19 Arm Del 4 '53	98	97¾	97¾
31 A T & S F 4 '95	106½	106	106
13 A T & S F cv 4½ '48	101½	101½	101½
7 A C Line 1st 4s '52	86	85¾	85¾
B
41 B & O rfg 4 '95	20⅜	19	19
20 B & O 5 '96 F	19¾	18¾	18¾
125 B & O cv 4½ '60	14½	12¾	12¾
52 B & O 4 '48	52⅜	50½	50½
12 Bell T Pa 5 '48 B	118	118	118
51 Beth Stl 3½ '52	99⅞	99	99
16 Bost & Me 5 '67	29	28	28
7 Buf R & P 4½ '57	29¼	28½	28½
C
1 Can Nat Ry 4½ '56	115¼	115¼	115¼
10 Can Pac 4 perp	81⅜	81⅜	81⅜
10 Cen Ill E & G 5 '51	102½	102⅜	102½
5 Cen Pac 5 '60	59⅜	57⅜	57¾
30 Cen Pac 1st 4 '49	74½	74	74
2 Certain-td 5½ '48	82¾	82¾	82¾
2 C & O 2½ '96 D	97	96¾	96¾
24 C & O rfg 3½ '96 E	96¾	96⅜	96¾
21 †Chi & E Ill 5 '51	15¾	14¾	14¾
43 †Ch Gt West 4 '59	21	20¼	20½
274 †C M S P & P 5 '75	11⅛	10	10
108 †CMSP&P al 5 2000	3⅜	3⅛	3⅛
18 †C & N W cv 4¾ '49	6	5¾	5¾
2 ††CRI & P 4½ '52 A	8⅞	8⅞	8⅞
13 ††CRI & P rfg 4 '34	8½	8	8
1 Ch & W Ind 4 '32	90	90	90
18 CC & St L 4½ '77	60	59	59
7 Cl U Ter 4½ '77 C	73⅜	73¼	73⅜
1 Col & So 4½ '80	45	45	45
30 Colmbia G 5 '52 May	96⅞	96¼	96⅛
8 Colmbia G 5 '61	94½	94½	94½
25 Com'l Cred 3¼ '51	103¼	103¼	103¼
16 Com'l Cred 2¾ '42	103	102⅞	102⅞
3 Com'l Inv Tr 3½ '51	106⅛	106	106⅛
5 Comwlth Ed 4 '81	108	107¾	108
19 Con Edis 3¼ '46	106⅛	106	106
10 Con Oil 3½ '51	103¾	103¼	103¼
6 Consum Pow 3½ '70	107⅞	107⅜	107⅜
13 Cuba No Ry 5½ '42	35½	34¾	35½
D
105 Del & Hud rfg 4 '43	59⅜	56¾	58¾
35 †D & R G 4 '36	14	13	13
2 Duquesne Lt 3½ '65	110	110	110
E
21 Elect Auto Lite 4 '52	109½	109	109¼
45 †Erie rfg 5 '67	13¼	12¼	12¾
94 †Erie rfg 5 '75	13	12¼	12¾
38 ††Erie gen lien 4 '96	22¾	22	22¾
F
54 †Fla E Cst 5 '74	10	9¼	9¼
G
10 Gen Cable 5½ '47	104½	104	104½
1 Gen M Accept 3 '46	106⅝	106⅝	106⅝
12 Gen Stl Cast 5½ '49	69½	68	68
9 Goodrich 4¼ '56	99¾	99¼	99½
22 Goodyr T & R 5 '57	103¾	103¼	103¾
7 Gt Nor 4½ '77 E	84	84	84
3 Gt Nor 4 '46 G	98¾	98	98
10 Gt Nor 4 '46 H	88¼	88¼	88¼
H
1 Hous Oil Tex 5½ '40	101⅞	101⅞	101⅞
65 Hudson Coal 5 '62 A	38	37	37
9 Hud & M rfg 5 '57	48⅛	48	48
7 Hud & M inc 5 '57	13¾	13	13½
I
3 Ill Bell Tel 3½ '70 B	111	111	111
48 Ill Cen 4¾ '66	47	45	45
24 IC&CSL&NO 5 63 A	53¾	52¾	53
16 Ill Steel 4½ '40	105	105	105
93 ††Interb R Tr 7 '32	69	67	67¾
141 Interb R T rfg 5 '66	70½	69½	69½
4 Interlake Iron 4 '47	90½	90¼	90½
1 †Int G Nor 1st 6 '52	19½	19½	19½
21 Int Hydro El 6 '44	78½	77	77
39 Int Paper 5 '47	97¾	96¾	96¾
48 Int T & T 4½ '52	64¾	64	64
32 Int T & T 5 '55	69¾	68½	68¾

Dow-Jones Bonds

By the United Press.

New York, Nov. 16.

40 bonds	90.20	—0.31
10 first rails	93.71	—0.26
10 second rails	53.82	—0.88
10 utilities	106.06	+0.02
10 industrials	107.22	—0.10

Sales in thousands.	High	Low	Close
K
14 K C South 5 '50	70⅞	69	69
19 K C Term 4 '60	107⅜	107¼	107⅜
2 Koppers Co 4 '51	102⅞	102⅞	102⅞
2 Kresge Found 4 '45	104⅛	104¼	104¼
L
1 Lac Gas 5½ '53	52⅝	52⅝	52⅝
36 †Lautaro Nit inc '75	31	30¼	30¼
5 Lehigh Val 5 2003	24¼	24¼	24¼
29 Leh Val 4 2003	22½	20¾	20¾
2 Liggett & M 7 '44	129	129	129
14 Lorws 3½ '46	102	101⅞	101⅞
1 Long Isl rfg 4 '49	83½	83½	83½
8 Louisia & Ark 5 '69	82¼	82	82¼
22 Louis & N un 4 '40	100¾	100⅜	100⅜
5 Louis & N 3½ 2003	80¾	80¾	80¾
3 Lou Gas&El 3½ '66	107	107	107
M
9 McKes&Rob 5½ '50	105	104⅞	105
6 †MSP&SSM cn 4 '38	8¼	8⅛	8⅛
4 M-K-Tex 5 '62A	40⅝	40½	40⅝
3 M-K-Tex 1st 4 '90	53	53	53
52 †Mo Pac 5½ '49	4⅛	3¾	3¾
57 †Mo Pac 5 '77 F	19⅛	18	18
54 †Mo Pac 5 '81 I	19⅛	18	18
30 †Mo Pac gen 4 '75	6½	6	6
25 Mont Pow 3¾ '66	98¾	97¾	97¾
N
21 Nat Dairy 3¾ '51 ww	104	103¾	103¾
27 Natl Steel 4 '65	108	107⅞	107⅞
1 New Eng T&T 5 '52	123¾	123¾	123¾
10 N O Pub Sv 5 '55B	101¼	101	101
10 NYC rfg 5 2013	64	63	63
3 NYC cn 4 '98	68	68	68
11 NYC 3½ '52	68	67	67
11 NYC&HR 4½ 2013	59	57½	57½
8 NYC&HR 3½ '97	83¼	83¼	83¼
40 NY Ch&StL 4½ '78	50½	47	47
2 NY Edis 3¼ '66	108½	108	108½
22 †NYNH&H cv 6 '48	15½	14¾	14¾
10 †NYNH&H 4½ '67	14¾	14½	14½
10 NY Tel 4½ '39	103¾	103¾	103¾
25 ††NY W&B 4½ '46	4¾	4¼	4¼
5 Norf & W 4 '96	119¾	119	119
3 N Am Co 5 '61	106	106	106
23 N Am Ed 5 '69 C	103¼	103	103
17 N Pac 6 2047	68½	67½	67½
3 N Pac 4 '97	85	84½	84½
2 N Pac 4 2047	50½	50	50
O
18 Ohio Ed 4 '65	106⅝	106	106⅜
16 Or W RR&N 4 '61	104⅛	103⅝	103⅞
P
12 Pac G & El 3½ '66	104¾	104⅝	104⅝
3 P G & E 3¾ '61	107¾	107¾	107¾
2 Pa T&T 3¼ '66 B	107½	107½	107½
2 Para Pict 6 '55	99½	99½	99½
29 Pen P&Le 4½ '68	104½	104⅝	104⅝
33 Pen RR gen 4½ '65	104⅝	104	104
21 Pen RR gen 4½ '65	96⅛	95½	95⅞
26 Pen RR 4½ deb '70	86	85	85
11 Pen RR 3½ '70	88	87½	88
24 Pen RR 3¼ '52	81¾	80½	80½
28 Peo GL&C Chi 5 '47	114	114	114
10 Phelps Ddg 3½ '52	115	114¾	114¾
21 Phila Co 5 '67	99½	99	99
20 Phil Elec 2¼ '67	110	109½	110
5 †Phil Bd C&I 6 '49	5¾	5¼	5¾
17 †Ph Rd C&I 5 '73	15¾	15½	15½
6 ††Philip Ry 4 '37	14½	14½	14½
12 Portl Gen E 4½ '60	63¾	62½	62½
70 ††Postal T&C 5 '53	16¼	15½	15½
R
21 Readg 4½ '97	76	74½	74½
5 Rem Rand 4¼ '56	103	102¾	103
3 Repub Stl 4¼ '61	94¾	94	94
1 Repub Steel 4½ '50	125	125	125
S
1 Safeway Strs 4 '97	105⅝	105⅝	105⅝
4 †StLIM&S 4R&G '33	60½	60	60
14 †St L S F 4½ '78

Building Hits Near-Highest For Five Years

$197,814,000 in Oct. Topped Only Once Activity Increasing

Chicago, Nov. 16.—Actual expenditures for building construction during October were $197,814,000, according to the November 15 issue of Building. That amount, with one exception, was greater than was spent in any one month since the start of the recovery period in 1933. The exception was July, 1937, when a little over $201,000,000 was spent.

That building activity will continue at a comparatively high level for the immediate future is indicated by the magazine's forecast of the amount of money that will be spent during the two-month period, November and December. Forecast to be spent is approximately $407,000,000, an amount greater than that spent during any other consecutive two-month period this year. Expenditures during October of $197,814,000 for building were an increase of 3.3 per cent over the September figure and an increase of 8.6 per cent over October 1937.

Home Construction

Of the three types of building which make up all building volume, the alteration and repair classification was the only laggard, October volume declining from the previous month and from October last year. Both residential and non-residential building increased over the previous month, but of the two only residential volume was ahead of that for the same month last year.

Expenditures for residential building during October were $103,136,000, an increase of 2.8 per cent over September and an increase of 35.4 per cent over October last year. Non-residential building expenditure increased 7.8 per cent over September to $60,256,000, but were still 4.0 per cent behind the same month last year.

Expenditures of $34,422,000 during October for alteration and repair work were 1.6 per cent less than in September and 20.2 per cent less than in October last year.

Railroad Deficit

Class I railroads in the first eight months of 1938 had a deficit after fixed charges of $183,364,000, it was reported yesterday.

Bank Stocks

New York, Nov. 16 (AP) (Investment Bankers Conference, Inc.):

Bank and Trust	Bid	Asked
Bk of Am NTS (SF) (2.40)	46	48
Bank of Man (1.15e)	8	9
Bankers Tr (2)	15½	16½
Bklyn Tr (4)	42¾	44¾
Central Bk & Tr (4)	77	82
Chase Nat (1.40)	85½	86½
Chem Bk & Tr (1.80)	31	33
Commercial (.6)	41	43
Cont Bk & Tr (.80)	142	148
Corn Exch Bk & Tr (3)	11	11
Empire Tr (6.50)	50½	61½
First Nat (Bos) (2)	15	16
First Natl (100)	39¾	41¾
Guaranty Tr (12)	1665	1703
Irving Tr (.60)	242	247
Manufacturers Tr (2)	9¾	10¾
Manufacturers Tr pf (2)	39	41
Nat City (1)	51¾	53¾
New York Tr (3)	25½	27½
Public (1¼)	86½	89½
Title G & T	27½	29½
Insurance	6¾	7¾
Aetna Cas (3a)	108	112
Aetna Life (1a)	46¾	48¾
Am Equit (2)	25½	27¾
Am Ins Nwk (1a)	27¼	28¾
Am Reins (1.60)	12¾	14¼
Am Surety (2½)	37	39
Automobile (1a)	28¼	29¾
Bank Amer (.20a)	33¼	35¼
Boston (1.20)	30	32
Camden Fire (1)	20	22
Conn Gen Life (.80)	20¾	22¼
Conn Fire (2.40)	25¾	27¼
Continental (1.20)	32½	34½
Crum & Forst (3)	112½	114½
Eagle Fire (1)	13½	15
Employers Re (1.60)	37½	39½
Fidelity-Phila (2)	73	76
Fire Assn Phila (2)	41	43
Firemans Fund (2)	79	83
Firemans Newark (1)	17¾	19¾
Gen Reinsur (1a)	51	53
Glens Falls (1.60)	39½	41
Globe & Rep (½)	4¼	4¾
Globe & Rut (1½)	13½	15
Gt Amer Ins (1a)	29	32
Hanover (1.60)	25½	26¾
Hartford Fire (2)	31	33
Home Fire Sec	75½	78½
Home Ins (1a)	32½	34½
Homestead (1)	29¾	31½
Knick Bk Ex (1½)	17½	19¼
Lincoln Fire	10½	12
Maryland Cas	2½	3¾
Mass Bond (3½)	25¾	43½
Merc Ins Pr	54¼	56¼
Natl Fire (2)	4	6
Natl Liberty (.20a)	6¾	8¾
N Hampshire (1.60)	7¾	8¾
N Y Fire (.70e)	44¾	46½
North River (1)	16½	17½
Phoenix (2a)	26½	28
Prov Wash (1)	80½	84½
Reliance (2) In (1.20a)	33½	35½
Rh Isl Ins	23½	25
Russia Ins	4	5
St Paul Fire (8)	2¾	5¾
Springfield (4½a)	225	229
Surety (15)	122½	125½
Travelers (16)	440	490
U S Fid & G	457	467
U S Fire (2)	16	17½
Westchester (1.20a)	54¾	56¾
(a)—Also extra or extras.	32¼	34¼
(d)—Declared or paid so far this year.
(e)—Paid last year.

Short Term Securities

(Reported by Robert C. Jones & Co., Inc.)

	Bid.	Asked.
Amer Tel & Tel 5½s, 1943	112¾	112⅞
Baldwin Locomotive 5s, 1940	98¾	99½
Baltimore & Ohio 4½s, 1939	102	102⅛
Commil. Credit 2¾s, 1942	102⅛	102½
Chesa & Ohio 3½s, 1939	105	105⅛
Dela & Hudson 4s, 1943	102	102½
Edison Elec Illum 4s, 1939	56½	57
Houston Oil 5½s, 1940	100¼	102¾
Illinois Steel 4¼s, 1940	104¾	105
Inter Tel & Tel 4½s, 1939	100¼	100½
Laclede Gas Light Coll Tr 6% notes, "B," 1942	100¼	100½
Lehigh Val Term Rwy 5s, 1941	56¼	58
Louis & Nashville 4s, 1940	100½	100⅞
Michigan Central 4s, 1940	100⅞	100⅞
New York Tel Co 4½s, 1939	102¼	102½
Penn R R Co 4s, 1943	107¾	108
Phila Balti & Wash 4s, 1943	108¾	109
Union Oil Calif 6s, 1942	116¼	116½
Warner Bros 6s, 1939	89	90

FEDERAL SAVINGS AND LOAN INSURANCE CORPORATION
SAFETY OF YOUR INVESTMENT INSURED UP TO $5000

DOUBLE PROTECTION

Your savings here are doubly protected—first because invested by us in sound first mortgage loans, and second because insured for safety up to $5,000 against any and all loss.

PRUDENTIAL Building Association
1331 G St. N. W.
Di. 6270 Suite 304-5-6

Complete Transactions Yesterday on New York Stock Exchange

By the Associated Press.

Total stock sales yesterday (shares), 1,794,880; previous day, 1,465,980; week ago, 3,098,760; year ago, 758,570; two years ago, 2,921,350. January 1 to date, 239,697,185; year ago, 368,341,570; two years ago, 430,492,943.

1938 High	1938 Low	Name and Dividend Rate	Sales—Add 00	High	Low	Close	Net Ch'ge
		A
60⅛	36⅛	Abbott Lab (1.60a)	1	58½	58½	58½
12¾	4⅛	Adams Exp (.10e)	1	5	5	5
30	16⅝	Addressoo (1.40)	10	22	21½	21½	— ⅝
67⅞	40	Air Reduction (1a)	1	29½	29½	29½	+ ½
14⅜	⅝	Air-Way El Appl	15	65	63¾	63¾	— 2
13⅝	8¾	Alaska Juneau (.60a)	7	1¼	1¼	1¼
17⅛	⅞	Alleghany Corp	13	10	9¾	9¾	— ⅛
17⅞	5½	Alleghany pf xw	40	1⅝	1¼	1¼	— ⅛
17⅞	6½	Alleghany pf $30 ww	12	14½	13¾	13¾	— ⅛
17⅛	5	Alleghany pf $40 ww	34	18⅝	17¾	17¾	— ⅛
21½	7⅝	Alleghany pf $60 ww	3	13⅜	13⅜	13⅜	— ⅛
29¾	14⅜	Alleghany pf	10	20½	18	18	— 2½
14½	4½	Allegh-Lud Stl	67	28¼	26	27½	— 1½
107	124	Allen Industries	1	11¾	11¾	11¾	— ¼
12¾	7	Al Chem & Dye (6)	1	188	182	182	— 5
14⅜	8¾	Allied Kid (½)	3	12⅜	11⅜	12½	+ ⅝
17⅜	4½	Allied Mills (1⅝a)	26	14½	13¾	13¾	— ⅝
29½	26	Allied St pf (3)	28	12⅞	12¼	12¼	— ⅛
85¾	34½	Allis-Ch Mfg (1½)	67	51¾	49	49	— 1⅜
20	11⅛	Alpha P Cem (1)	1	18½	18¼	18¼	— ⅛
3⅝	1⅛	Amal Leather	21	3¼	3	3⅛	— ⅛
24	10	Amal Leather pf	21	39	37	37	— ⅛
28½	35	Amerada Corp (3)	3	24	23	23
23¼	12	Am Ag Ch Del	2	73½	71	71¾	— ⅛
22¼	10	Am Bank Note (.70e)	11	25½	24½	24½	— ⅛
63	46½	†Am Bank Nt pf (3)	11	19⅝	18½	18½	— ⅛
14⅝	6¾	Am Bosch	5	56	54⅝	55
52	23	Am Brake Shoe (¾e)	33	8¾	7½	7⅝	— ⅛
108⅛	70¾	Am Can (4)	3	49	46¾	46¾	— 1⅜
34⅝	12⅝	Am Car & Fdy	8	20½	19¾	19¾	— ⅛
97⅜	27	Am Car & F pf (2½e)	18	32½	29	29	— 2¾
23¾	9½	Am Ch & Chem (.35e)	1	55⅝	55⅝	55⅝	+ 1⅜
128	58½	Am Chicle (4a)	19	23	22½	22½	— ⅜
9¾	4½	Am Colortype	8	12¾	12½	12½	— ⅛
15	9	Am Coml Alco	9	9¼	8¾	8⅝	— ⅛
16¾	8¼	Am Crystal Sug	8	14½	12½	13⅜	— ⅛
83	68	†Am Crys S pf (6)	20	82	82	82	— ⅛
6⅝	2½	Am Encaus Tiling	10	7⅝	7⅜	7⅜	— ⅛
3¼	2¼	Am & For Pow	8	4¾	4¾	4¾
12⅞	4⅞	Am & F P 6 pf	12	3⅞	3⅝	3⅝	— ⅛
25½	13½	Am & F P $7 pf	1	15½	14⅝	14⅝	— ⅛
12¾	5¼	Am & F P 7 pf	5	19¼	18	18	— ⅛
5⅞	2	Am Hide & Leather	7	9½	8¾	8¾
36	12	Am Hi & L pf	41	5⅝	5½	5½	— ⅛
44⅛	30¾	Am Home Pr 2.40)	3	35	34¾	34¾	— ⅛
2¼	1¼	Am Ice	4	44½	43⅝	44½	+ ⅞
8⅝	4⅛	Am International	2	1⅝	1⅝	1⅝	— ⅛
29½	12¾	Am Locomotive	9	8	7⅞	7⅞	— ⅛
79	41	Am Locomotive pf	25	78	76½	76½	— 1⅝
17¾	11	Am M & Pdy (.80)	48	16⅞	16⅛	16⅛	— ⅜
5⅛	2¾	Am M & Met	9	4¾	4½	4½
29½	20	Am Metal (¾e)	17	42¾	40⅝	40⅝	— 1⅝
7½	3¼	†Am News Co (1¼e)	59	27	27	27
47½	19	Am Pow & Lt	39	6¾	6⅜	6⅜	— ⅛
41½	11¾	Am P & L $6 pf (3k)	11	44	40¾	40¾	— 2¾
19½	9	Am P&L $5 pf (2¼k)	19	37½	34½	35	— 2¾
24⅛	13¾	Am Rad & St S	36	15½	13¾	13¾	— ⅛
80¾	58	Am Roll Mill	94	24⅜	22¼	22¼	— 1⅛
20¾	14⅜	Am Roll Mill pf	11	77⅛	75½	75½
23½	7⅜	Am Safety Razor (1.60)	4	17½	17	17½	— ⅛
35½	32¾	†Am Seating	11	21½	19¾	19¾	— 1⅛
38⅝	28¾	†Am Ship Bldg (2a)	70	33	32½	32½	— 1⅛
24⅛	103	Am Smelt & R (2½e)	62	56	54⅜	54⅜	— 1⅝
148½	130	Am Smelt & R pf (7)	2	138	137	137
38	15⅛	Am Snuff pf (6)	10	18	18	18	— 2½
11⅜	4⅛	Am Stl Fdrs	17	90	86½	88½	— ¾
18	6¼	Am Stores	38	36½	34	34
18	12	Am Stove (.20e)	2	10⅝	10	10	— ⅛
20⅞	12¾	Am Sugar Ref	2	16¾	16¾	16¾
150	111	Am Sumat Tob (1a)	2	26	25	25
89	58	Am Tel & Tel (9)	26	149¾	148⅛	148⅝	— ⅛
91½	58¾	Am Tobacco (5)	18	87	86	86	— ¾
9	3⅞	Am Tob B (5)	17	90	88½	88½	— ¾
16⅝	6	Am Type Fdrs	2	8	8	8
9	3	Am Wat Wks	1	9¾	8¾	8¾	— ⅛
91	63	Am W W 1 pf (6)	1	88	88	88	— 1
7¾	3¼	Am Woolen	1	6¼	6	6
45	33⅜	Am Wool pf	5	41½	40¼	40¼	— 2¾
9½	4⅝	Am Zinc L & S	3	8	8	8	— ⅛
42½	31	Anaconda	26	13¾	13	13⅛	— ⅛
21½	10¾	†Anchor Hock Gl (.30e)	137	37	35	35	— 1⅜
31½	20½	Archb-Dan-M (1¼e)	1	19	19	19
	3⅞	Arm Ill	1	28½	28½	28½	— ⅛
72	28¼	Arm Ill pr pf	28	5⅜	5⅜	5⅜	— ⅛
53½	27¼	Armstrong Cork	1	48⅝	48	48	— 1
13	5¾	Arnold Const (¾e)	19	12⅜	11⅞	12	— ⅛
5¾	2½	Artloom Corp	1	12	12	12
12¾	4	Assd Dry Goods	1	7½	7½	7½	— ⅛
20½	27	Association Inv (2)	12	12	11¾	11⅜	— ⅛
92½	72	Assoc Inv pf ww (5)	50	92½	92½	92½	+ 2½
44⅞	22½	Atch T & S F	1	37	37	37	— ⅛
72	40	Atch T & S F pf	85	42⅜	39¾	40	+ 2½
14½	4	Atl Coast Line (1½e)	11	69½	66½	66½	— 1⅝
27⅜	6½	Atl G & W Ind	20	28¼	26	26	— ⅛
9⅞	4⅜	Atl Refining (1)	17	23¾	23	23¾	— ⅛
48⅛	8¾	Atlas Corp (¼e)	30	8¾	8¾	8¾
68	38½	Atlas Corp pf (6)	36	46¾	46¾	46¾	— 1⅜
123	105	Atlas Pow (1¼e)	2	67	67	67
		†Atlas Pow pf (5)	40	125	125	125	+ 3
23¾	9½	Atlas Tack	1	4	4	4	— ⅛
25¾	2⅝	Auburn Auto	2	8	8	8
	2	Aust Nichols	3	4¾	4½	4½	— ⅛
	12½	†Aust Nich pr A	1	3⅜	3⅜	3⅜	+ ⅛
6	2¼	Aviation Corp (.18⅛e)	38	5¾	5¾	5¾	— ⅛
		B
15¼	5	Bald Loco ct	71	14¼	13½	13½	— ⅛
11	4	Balt & Ohio	39	7¾	7¼	7¼	— ⅛
29	5	Balt & Ohio pf	6	9¾	9½	9½	— ⅛
23¾	12¾	Bangor & Ar (2½)	18	20	20	20
14	6	Barber Asph	1	17⅛	17¼	17¼	— ⅛
21⅜	10¼	Barker Bros	1	20	20	20
21	19	Barnsdall Oil (1)	20	18½	17½	17⅝	— ⅛
24	11½	Bayuk Cigar (.56⅜e)	13	20¾	19¾	19¾	— ⅛
24	12	†Bayuk 1 pf (7)	10	113½	113½	113½	— ⅛
36	12	Beatrice Cream (1a)	41	17¾	17¼	17¼	— ⅛
44⅛	30¾	Beech-Nut Pack (4a)	3	35	34¾	34¾	— ⅛
2¼	1¼	Belding Hem (¾e)	4	44½	43⅝	44½	+ ⅞
8⅝	4⅛	Bendix Aviat	2	1⅝	1⅝	1⅝	— ⅛
29½	12¾	Benef Ind Ln (1¼e)	7	15¼	14¾	14¾	— ⅛
79	41	Best & Co (2.32½e)	1	58	58	58	— ⅛
11	4	Beth Steel	77	39¾	38¾	38¾	— ⅛
18¼	12¾	Beth Steel 5% pf (2)	191	76½	74	74	— 2
114⅞	75	Beth Steel 7% pf (7)	2	117⅞	117⅞	117⅞	+ ⅛
33¼	17⅛	Bigelow-Sanf	1	113⅜	113⅛	113½	— ⅛
19	9¾	Bulova Watch (3e)	2	13⅜	13⅛	13⅛	— ⅛
106	94	Burlington Mills (1)	10	14½	14¼	14¼	— ⅛
22¼	14½	Burr Add Mach (½e)	46	19½	19	19	— ⅛
38⅛	16¾	Bush Terminal	1	19¼	19	19
17½	6¾	†Bush Term Bldg pf ct	20	14¼	14¼	14¼	+ ⅛
6	3¼	Butler Bros	2	8⅛	8⅛	8⅛	— ⅛
24	16¾	Butler Bros pf (1½)	1	22	22	22	— ⅛
16	4	†Col & South 1 pf	9	8¾	8¾	8¾	— ⅛
4	2¾	†Col & South 3 pf	90	7¼	7¼	7¼	— ⅛
22¾	13½	Colum Br'cast A (1¼e)	2	20	20	20
22¾	13	Colum Br'cast B (1¼e)	1	17⅞	17⅞	17⅞	— ⅛
9⅝	5½	Colum G & E	108	17½	17½	17½	— ⅛
83	57	Col G & E pf A (6)	1	78	78	78	— ⅛
10	80	†Col Gas 5% pf B (5)	20	97	96½	96½	— ⅛
98½	83¾	Colum Pict vtc (2¼% f)	4	17⅜	17⅛	17⅛	— ⅛
59½	23	Colum Carbon (4)	2	97	95	95	— 1⅝
64	31½	Comi Credit (4)	13	57½	56¾	56¾	— ⅛
112½	90	Comi Invest Tr (4)	12	61½	59	59	— 1⅛
2¼	1	Comi Inv Tr cv pf (4½)	2	111	110½	110½	— ⅛
5¾	2	Comi Solvents	28	10⅝	10⅜	10⅜	— ⅛
53½	25	Com'with & South	79	27⅛	27	27	— ⅛
28	22½	Com'with & So pf (3)	11	52	50	50	— 1½
3⅝	3⅜	Com'with Edis (1.60)	29	27¾	27	27¼	— ⅛
29	15	Conde Nast	1	7¾	7¾	7¾	— ⅛
14½	8¾	Congoleum-Nairn	8	27½	27	27	— ⅛
25½	10½	Consol Aircr	40	7	7	7	— ⅛
10⅜	4½	Consol Chem (¾e)	5	22⅝	22⅜	22⅜	— ⅛
84⅞	71	†Con Cig pf pf (5)	50	84	84	84	— 2
24¾	1	Consol Coal pf	1	103¾	103¾	103¾	— ⅛
11⅝	4⅛	Consol Film Ind	10	2	2	2
104	88⅝	Consol Film Ind pf (¾k)	4	11	10¾	10¾	— ⅛
2¾	1	Cons Laundries	1	8¾	8¾	8¾	— ⅛
10¾	2	Consol Oil (.80)	33	6¾	6¾	6¾	— ⅛
5⅞	2¼	Consol Coal	9	4¾	4¾	4¾	— ⅛
22	10	Consol's Coal pf	16	4¾	4¾	4¾	— ⅛
93½	78	Consum Pow pf (4½)	1	19	19	19	— ⅛
17⅝	8¾	Container Corp	3	93½	93½	93½	— 1⅛
36⅛	24	Cont Bak A	8	16¼	16¼	16¼	— ⅛
3¾	1¼	Cont Bak B	17	2¼	2¼	2¼	— ⅛
41	36½	Cont Can (2a)	3	2	2	2
11⅛	6	Cont Diam Fib	13	41	39	39	— 1½

Dow-Jones Averages

By the United Press.

New York, Nov. 16.

Stocks—	Open.	High.	Low.	Close.	Net Ch.
30 industrials	155.09	155.60	151.41	151.54	—3.19
20 rails	32.05	32.46	31.23	31.28	—0.67
15 utilities	23.91	23.93	23.10	23.17	—0.70
65 stocks	51.41	51.66	50.11	50.17	—1.10

Transactions in stocks used in averages today:

Industrials	211,600
Rails	138,200
Utilities	86,500
Total	436,300

Commodities Range

	Yester-day.	Prev. day.	Week	Month	Year
Cotton, New York (Dec.)	8.57	8.58	8.58	8.33	7.80
Wheat, Chicago (Dec.)	83⅝	84	84	83⅝	1.00
Corn, Chicago (Dec.)	47	48 ⅛	48 ⅛	44 ⅜	58 ⅛
Oats, Chicago (Dec.)	25 ⅝	25 ⅝	25 ⅛	25	30 ⅝
Cattle, choice steers, Balto.	9.50	9.50	9.00	9.25	11.00
Hogs, choice, Baltimore	8.45	8.40	8.00	8.30	8.25
Lambs, choice, Baltimore	9.85	9.85	9.45	9.85	9.40
Eggs, special, New York	40.00	40.00	43.00	45.50	41.00
Butter, creamery, New York	27.00	27.00	26.50	26.50	38.75
Flour, New York	4.75	4.75	4.90	4.85	5.80
Coffee, New York	8.00	7.75	7.75	7.75	8.80
Raw sugar, New York	3.05	3.05	3.05	3.10	3.25
Steel, bar, Pittsburgh	2.25	2.25	2.25	2.25	2.45
Rubber, New York	16.33	16.37	17.29	17.19	14.40
Pig iron	21.00	21.00	21.00	21.00	24.00
Tin	46 ¾	46.50	46.80	46.50	49.12
Copper, electrolytic	11.25	11.25	11.25	11.25	11.00
Bar gold, London (s)	84.76	84.77	84.77	84.75	84.99
Per silver, New York	43.75	42.75	43.75	43.75	44.75
Zinc, East St. Louis	5.95	5.95	5.95	5.95	5.75
Lead, New York	5.10	5.10	5.10	5.10	5.05

1938 High	1938 Low	Name and Dividend Rate	Sales—Add 00	High	Low	Close	Net Ch'ge
27½	21½	Cont Ins (1.60a)	9	36⅛	35⅞	35⅞	— ⅛
33¾	21¼	Cont Motors	28	11½	11½	11½	— ⅛
29¾	13	Cont Oil Del (1)	23	29	29¼	29¼	— ⅛
58	33	Cont Steel (1e)	11	28¾	27¾	27¾	— ⅛
93⅛	70½	†Corn Exchange (3)	10	51¾	51¾	51¾	— ⅛
19¼	13¾	Corn Products (3)	10	65¼	65	65	— ⅛
42½	10	Coty Inc	9	4¾	4½	4½	— ⅛
23¾	21¾	Cranane Co	2	37	37	37	— 1
43¾	22¼	Cream of Wh (2)	59	39¾	36¾	37¼	— 2
33¾	25½	Crown Cork & S	2	29	28½	28½	— ⅛
37⅞	25½	Crown Ck pf ww (3¾)	33	41½	39¼	39¼	— 1⅛
92⅜	70½	Crown Zellerbach	36	36½	36	36½	— ⅛
95¾	70½	†Crown Zeller pf (5)	31	91½	90	90	— 1
59¼	19¼	Crucible Steel	1	91½	91½	91½	— ⅛
92	70	Crucible Stl pf	46	43	39¾	40	— 1⅛
9	⅝	Cuba Co	1	91	91	91	+ 1
6¼	5¼	Cuba R R pf	1
6¼	3	Cuban-Am Sugar	30	7½	7½	7½	— ⅛
87	53¼	†Cuban-Am S pf	9	5	5	5	— ⅛
21⅝	12	Cudahy Pack	10	72⅝	72¼	72¼	— 1⅛
58	35	Curtis Publishing	7	18	17¾	17¾	— ⅛
7⅛	3¼	Curtis Pub pf	8	6⅞	6½	6½	— ⅛
28	12⅞	Curtiss-Wright	182	7	6⅞	6⅞	— ⅛
39¼	13¼	Curtiss-Wright (1e)	155	28¼	27	27	— ⅛
		Cutler-Hammer	5	27	26	26	— 1
		D
8¾	4½	Davega Stores	1	7	7	7
11¼	6¼	Davison Chem	5	7⅝	7⅝	7⅝	— ⅛
17	7¾	†Day P & L pf (4½)	50	110	110	110	— 1½
9	4½	Deere & Co (1.35e)	121	22½	20½	20½	— ⅝
24¾	4	Delaw-Wem-Gil	2	16¾	16¾	16¾	— ⅛
24¾	9	Del Lack & Hudson	129	24¾	23⅝	23⅝	— ⅛
11⅛	2½	Den & Rio G W pf	237	8¾	7¾	7¾	— ⅛
115	6½	†Det & Mackinac	2	8½	8½	8½
136	76	Detroit Edison (6e)	40	3¾	3¾	3¾	— ⅛
30⅜	20¾	†Detroit & Ray A (1)	70	37½	36¾	36¾	— ⅛
43⅜	31½	Diamond Match (1¼a)	2	29	29	29	— ⅛
24⅛	21¼	Diam T Motor	2	41¼	41¼	41¼	— ⅛
11	6¼	Dist Corp-Seag (1½e)	19	22	21	21	— ⅛
91⅛	65	Dist Corp-S pf ww (5)	10	92½	91½	91½	— ⅛
25½	10	Dixie-Vortex	2	12¼	12¼	12¼	— ⅛
70⅝	27¼	Doehler Die Cas	12	32½	32	32	— ⅛
140⅝	87⅞	Dome Mines (1e)	17	32½	31¾	32	— ⅛
24⅛	15	Douglas Aircraft (3e)	84	66¾	66¼	66¼	— 1⅛
14	7	Dow Chem (3)	2	134	133	133	— 1
119½	90½	Dresser Mfg (1½g)	5	19¾	19¾	19¾
	109½	Dresser Mfg B	1	19¾	19¾	19¾
		du Pont de N (3½e)	33	149¼	145¾	145¾	— 3½
		du Pont pf (4½)	4	118¼	118¼	118¼
		E
187	121⅞	Eastern Roll Mill	15	7¾	7¾	7¾	— ⅛
23⅝	10⅛	Eastman Kodak (6)	6	186	182	183	— 1½
5⅝	2	Edison Mfg	14	23	21½	21½	— ⅛
12¼	6	Fitingon Schild	1	3⅜	3⅜	3⅜	— ⅛
44⅛	18	El & Mus Ind (.10g)	5	37	34	34	— 2
13¼	6	El Auto Lite (½e)	1	31½	31½	31½	— ⅛
6¼	2¼	Elec Boat (.60e)	68	34⅛	31½	31½	— ⅛
21⅝	6	El Pow & Lt	3	11⅞	11⅞	11⅞	— ⅛
21⅝	5	El Pow & Lt pf	13	35½	33¾	33¾	— ⅛
	2¼	El Storage Bat (2)	9	36¾	36¾	36¾	— ⅛
23¾	17	Elk Horn Coal	30	34½	32	32	— 2
17	6	E. Paso Nat Gas (2)	8	24	24	24	— ⅛
94½	71

Legal Record

DAILY ASSIGNMENT
Court Actions

20, 85496—Collett vs. Collier. Attys., W. E. Leahy; P. C. Icenhower—H. S. Ward; Huston Thompson (pre-trial).

202, 62014—McGuire vs. McGuire. Attys., C. L. Munter—J. W. Boardman.

158, 63915—Butts vs. Butts. Attys., H. W. McCullough—T. E. Rhodes.

90205—Jones vs. Kennedy et al. Attys., J. J. Laughlin—R. E. Kline, jr.; E. C. Parker.

182, 63271—Nicholas et al. vs. Burdick, et al. Attys., Shirley, Faust & Wilson—E. S. Prettyman; John Lynham.

67881—I. T. O. A. vs. P. U. C. Attys., Whitford, Marshall, Hart & Carmody—L. B. Harrison.

961, 86391—Garrity vs. D. C. Attys., W. C. Sullivan—Vernon West.

153, 63548—De Foe vs. De Foe. Attys., J. M. Earnest—L. H. Shapiro.

200, 64078—Fulmer vs. Vance. Attys., Millan & Smith—Henry Stearman.

216, 59668—D'Ambrosia vs. D'Ambrosia. Attys., Leo Schlossberg—Turco & De Nunzio.

218, 62943, 67983—Reardon vs. Reardon. Attys., Joseph DiLeo—W. A. Gallagher.

67, 63064—Crawford vs. Wash. Loan & Trust Co. Attys., T. E. Rhodes—G. P. Hoover.

88, 63261—Minn. Mining Co. vs. Coe. Attys., R. H. Benjamin—R. F. Whitehead.

85, 63236—Minn. Mining Co. vs. Coe. Attys., H. H. Benjamin—R. F. Whitehead.

104, 62261, 489—Biggs vs. Biggs. Attys., D. B. Groff—H. L. Merrick.

Adv. 66883—Maryland Cas. Co. vs. Penna. Ind. Co. Attys., Swingle & Swingle—Kaufmann & Tepper.

110, 63333—Crowley vs. Crowley. Attys., A. M. Schwartz—J. E. Burnett.

1371, 61215—Carozza vs. Del Balzo. Inc. Attys., Simon Hirshman; A. S. Wardwell—J. C. Turco; W. C. Sullivan.

220, 62194—Spencer vs. Spencer. Attys., M. F. Keogh—T. F. Gowen.

221, 59512—Caplan vs. Caplan. Attys., Chas. Walker—Ellis Block.

226, 64090—Warfield vs. Tucker et al. Attys., Andrew Wilson; G. H. Gray—Lawson & Berry.

227, 62233—Harrison vs. Harrison. Attys., J. J. O'Brien—M. F. O'Donoghue.

228, 64037—Ackerman vs. Acker. Attys., Irving Diner—A. Chasanow.

228, 64252—Davidson vs. Davidson. Attys., N. A. Dobbins—Houston & Houston.

89363—Young vs. Worischek. Attys., Caywood & Partridge—W. C. Burton (Mr. Justice O'Donoghue.)

188, 63602—Harris vs. Harris. Attys., Raymond Neudecker—L. H. Shapiro.

51, 62809—Fones vs. Fones. Attys., R. Neudecker—Ellis Klein.

72, 63240—Caldwerth vs. Caldwerth. Attys., William Wendell—S. F. Smith.

1261, 61174—Noble vs. Noble. Attys., E. S. Howard—A. F. Oehman, II. N. Coe.

139, 63573—Turner vs. Turner. Attys., J. G. Turnbull—Morris Abrams.

161, 64061—Crow vs. Coe. Attys., R. F. Davis—R. F. Whitehead.

121, 63650—Sheaffer Pen Co. vs. Coe. Attys., E. R. Hutchinson—R. F. Whitehead.

Adv. 67473—Scott vs. Howard University. Attys., J. C. Rogers—Spencer Gordon.

Jury Actions:

51, 87163—Murphy vs. Krieg's Express Co. Attys., F. R. Noel—Selig Brez.

127, 88400—Yoho vs. Heffner. Attys., R. L. Merrick—Simon, Koenigsberger & Young.

90, 87920—Henry vs. Leon. Attys., M. L. Schulman—A. L. Newmyer, D. G. Bress.

25, 87240—Miller vs. Lord Baltimore Fillin Sta. Attys., D. K. Offutt—Simon, Koenigsberger & Young.

11, 85609—Ginsberg et al. vs. Warfield. Attys., Kelly & Nicolaides—P. H. Marshall.

32, 87241—Summers vs. Capital Transit Co. Attys., A. L. Newmyer, D. G. Bress—E. L. Jones, H. W. Kelly.

49, 87830—Sapir vs. I. T. O. A. Attys., A. L. Newmyer, D. G. Bress— P. H. Marshall.

88, 63261—Minn. Mining Co. vs. Coe. Attys., R. H. Benjamin—R. F. Whitehead.

85, 63236—Minn. Mining Co. vs. Coe. Attys., H. H. Benjamin—R. F. Whitehead.

104, 62261, 489—Biggs vs. Biggs. Attys., D. B. Groff—H. L. Merrick.

Adv. 66883—Maryland Cas. Co. vs. Penna. Ind. Co. Attys., Swingle & Swingle—Kaufmann & Tepper.

110, 63333—Crowley vs. Crowley. Attys., A. M. Schwartz—J. E. Burnett.

1371, 61215—Carozza vs. Del Balzo. Inc. Attys., Simon Hirshman; A. S. Wardwell—J. C. Turco; W. C. Sullivan.

220, 62194—Spencer vs. Spencer. Attys., M. F. Keogh—T. F. Gowen.

221, 59512—Caplan vs. Caplan. Attys., Chas. Walker—Ellis Block.

226, 64090—Warfield vs. Tucker et al. Attys., Andrew Wilson; G. H. Gray—Lawson & Berry.

227, 62233—Harrison vs. Harrison. Attys., J. J. O'Brien—M. F. O'Donoghue.

228, 64037—Ackerman vs. Acker. Attys., Irving Diner—A. Chasanow.

228, 64252—Davidson vs. Davidson. Attys., N. A. Dobbins—Houston & Houston.

89363—Young vs. Worischek. Attys., Caywood & Partridge—W. C. Burton (Mr. Justice O'Donoghue.)

188, 63602—Harris vs. Harris. Attys., Raymond Neudecker—L. H. Shapiro.

51, 62809—Fones vs. Fones. Attys., R. Neudecker—Ellis Klein.

72, 63240—Caldwerth vs. Caldwerth. Attys., William Wendell—S. F. Smith.

1261, 61174—Noble vs. Noble. Attys., E. S. Howard—A. F. Oehman, II. N. Coe.

139, 63573—Turner vs. Turner. Attys., J. G. Turnbull—Morris Abrams.

161, 64061—Crow vs. Coe. Attys., R. F. Davis—R. F. Whitehead.

121, 63650—Sheaffer Pen Co. vs. Coe. Attys., E. R. Hutchinson—R. F. Whitehead.

Adv. 67473—Scott vs. Howard University. Attys., J. C. Rogers—Spencer Gordon.

Jury Actions:

51, 87163—Murphy vs. Krieg's Express Co. Attys., F. R. Noel—Selig Brez.

127, 88400—Yoho vs. Heffner. Attys., R. L. Merrick—Simon, Koenigsberger & Young.

90, 87920—Henry vs. Leon. Attys., M. L. Schulman—A. L. Newmyer, D. G. Bress.

25, 87240—Miller vs. Lord Baltimore Filling Sta. Attys., D. K. Offutt—Simon, Koenigsberger & Young.

11, 85609—Ginsberg et al. vs. Warfield. Attys., Kelly & Nicolaides—P. H. Marshall.

32, 87241—Summers vs. Capital Transit Co. Attys., A. L. Newmyer, D. G. Bress—E. L. Jones, H. W. Kelly.

49, 87830—Sapir vs. I. T. O. A. Attys., A. L. Newmyer, D. G. Bress— P. H. Marshall.

Adm. 52779—In re estate of Lithgow. Attys., M. D. Campbell, W. E. Richardson—J. G. Dondero.

Adm. 51986—In re estate of Lieber. Attys., R. B. Washington, L. P. Harlow—H. L. Ryan.

26, 87136—Ballnovic vs. Evening Star Co. Attys., A. L. Newmyer, L. Harrison Shapiro, D. G. Bress—E. L. Jones.

84, 87143—Nolan vs. Nolan. Attys., William Wendell—H. I. Quinn.

61, 87880—Brennan vs. Capital Transit Co. Attys., Bowie & Stein—E. L. Jones, H. W. Kelly.

62, 87960; 63, 87961—Gephart vs. Capital Transit Co. Attys., Frose, Myers & Towers—E. L. Jones, H. W. Kelly.

99, 88111—Gnash vs. Alexander. Attys., G. L. Munter—T. E. O'Connell.

Adm. 52390—In re estate of Riley. Attys., S. W. Dempsey, Bruce Fuller—James F. Reilly, C. S. Lawrence.

17, 86397—Mattox vs. Hixson. Attys., Oehman & Long—Harry Grant.

Adm. 51921—In re estate of Morrison. Attys., J. A. Cantrel, D. T. Doherty—T. S. Holland; McKenney, Flannery & Craighill.

143, 88421—Haardt vs. Tillinghast et al. Attys., Yeatman & Yeatman—T. O. Nichols.

144, 88531—Reese vs. Hotel Roosevelt. Attys., Yeatman & Yeatman—Fischer & Fischer.

150, 87647—Hursey vs. Dern. Attys., Martin Mendelsohn, J. A. Donovan—Isadore Bernstein, H. I. Quinn.

147, 88067—Harrison vs. I. T. O. A. et al. Attys., Martin Mendelsohn—Whiteford, Marshall, Hart & Carmody.

152, 88477; 153, 88478; 154, 88479—Artis, admx., et al. vs. Moyer. Attys., S. M. Boyd, H. C. deLozier, J. C. Ragland—Welch, Daily & Welch.

155, 88935—Dixon vs. Davis. Attys., O. D. Branson—Lester Wood.

Adm. 53743—In re estate of Johnson. Attys., R. C. Johnson, D. A. Lyons, L. H. Miller—Arthur Peter, G. P. Hoover, W. H. Baden.

138, 87983; 139, 87982; 140, 87984; 141, 87985—Gray et al. vs. Cammerer. Attys., C. A. Thompson—Frost, Myers & Towers.

Motions Assignment

3—Durham vs. Aronoff. Attys., Houston—Baker & Tepper.

61576—Lamm vs. Lady Jane, Inc. Attys., Geiser, Sedwick, Bonorad, Drain, Pledger, jr.—Schwartz.

85223—Independent Oil Co. vs. Barrett. Attys., Rosenberg, Lubar—Gallagher.

88762—Small vs. Cohen et al. Attys., Dawson, Costello, Burroughs.

90397—Paiella vs. U. S. Employers. Attys., Edwards—Pine.

80061—Estate of Anna Fuchs. Attys., Lodge—Leahey, Taggert, Spaulding, Berrien.

67360—Holmes vs. Holmes. Attys., McKenzie—Rowan.

53828—Estate of Ida J. Kinsel. Attys., Dougherty—Laskey.

Civil Actions Filed

684—Marion A. Zimmer vs. Lillian M. Zimmer: absolute divorce. Atty., Joseph M. Bonuso.

685—Mary S. Allison vs. Raymond R. Allison: absolute divorce. Atty., George D. Hoskins, jr.

686—Anna W. Hume vs. Edith R. Shugard et al.: to rescind contract. Attys., Louis Ottenberg, H. M. Ammerman.

687—Cary A. Purdee, receiver, vs. Littlefield, Alvord & Co.: note, $1,012.50. Attys., Huston Thompson, Herbert S. Ward.

688—Elaine W. Dowling vs. Talbert E. Dowling, jr.: absolute divorce. Attys., Lawson & Berry.

689—Carl E. Kelly vs. Hugh A. Kirk: damages, $5,000. Atty., Milton Dunn.

690—Jessie M. Flaherty vs. Edward A. Flaherty: absolute divorce. Atty., Joseph D. Bulman.

691—Perry Manus vs. Merle Manus: absolute divorce. Atty., Achilles Catsonis.

692—Alexander Ferguson vs. Maurice Rothfeld, et al.: injunction. Attys., Edward A. Beauman, John A. Lankford.

693—The Philadelphia, Baltimore & Washington Railroad Co. vs. Melvin C. Hazen, et al.: to cancel special assessments. Attys., McKenney, Flannery & Craighill.

694—Elizabeth Williams Young vs. Lewis Young: limited divorce. Atty., Ernest N. Hudgins.

695—Blanchard K. Slaughter, et al., vs. Edward G. Wenger: damages, $20,000. Atty., Henry I. Quinn.

696—Rosalie Marie Donaldson vs. Edwin Andrew Donaldson: limited divorce. Atty., Charles H. Quimby.

697—Stanley L. Mahoney vs. District of Columbia: injunction. Atty., Christopher Cannon.

Docketed Judgment

5514—Sam Laskin vs. Mossburg & Richmond Co.: $135. Atty., N. Norman Mayer.

Bankruptcy Petition

3685—In re William Showers Armiger: voluntary; assets, $5,047.86; liabilities, $4,925.12. Atty., Benjamin M. Kail.

MOTIONS COURT

Justice Luhring—Kirkland, Clerk

87485—Bawell vs. Bawell: order appointing Albert Brick to defend.

277—Baltimore National Bank vs. Wash. Railway & Elec. Co.: order extending time to answer to November 30.

256—Coltrane vs. Coltrane; order appointing Richard W. Galiher to defend.

623—Potomac Elec. Power Co. vs. Cardillo: order continuing rule indefinitely.

16—Imbrey vs. Mutual Life Ins. Co.: order extending time to answer to December 5.

43—Junghans vs. Junghans; order appointing appraisers.

459—Smallwood et al. vs. National Savings & Trust Co. et al.; order for additional time to answer complaint; order continuing rules and postponing sale to December 5.

63102—Bowde vs. Bowden: rule returnable first Friday.

87085—Stinson vs. Stinson; order for issuance of letters rogatory.

60720—Needles vs. Nash et al.: default against defendants B. J. Eggleston and Russell A. Hauser, surviving trustee, entered by clerk.

88304—Plankenhorn vs. I. T. O. A., Inc., et al.; order granting motion to strike amended declaration with leave to amend.

86785—U. S. A. vs. Imbrie; order advancing cause for trial.

437—eifetz vs. Krucoff et al.: order for security for costs.

85583—Consolidated Realty Co. vs. Dunlop, administrator; order advancing cause for pretrial procedure.

87236—Brown vs. Jameson; order extending time to November 22 to file objections to amendments.

628—Smith vs. Hardy et al.; order appointing Frank A. Tyler, jr., guardian ad litem.

63139—Dowling vs. Dowling, jr.; rule returnable first Tuesday.

6806—Meese vs. Meese; rule returnable December 2.

58546—Hardee, receiver, vs. Linton; order confirming amended report of auditor.

644—Southern Finance Co. vs. Firestone Tire & Rubber Co.; rules continued to November 21.

379—Consolidated Macaroni Machine Corp. vs. National Macaroni Co.; default against defendant entered by clerk; judgment against defendant for possession of goods, etc.

686—Hume vs. Shugard; rule rejurable November 21; temporary restraining order; bond, $200.

85883—Moore vs. Moore; rule returnable first Friday.

86358—Prince vs. Prince; rule returnable first Friday.

458—Martin vs. C. & P. Telephone Co.; order extending time to plead to November 28.

CIVIL COURT NO. 2

Justice Gordon—Hamilton, Clerk

52502—Estate of Brady; trial resumed, same jury; verdict for defendant sustaining will.

CIVIL COURT NO. 3

Justice Cox—Garnett, Clerk

88398-88399—Clark vs. Miller; jury sworn and respited to tomorrow. Attys., Baker & Tepper, Marcus—Samuel W. McCart.

CIVIL COURT NO. 4

Chief Justice Wheat—Derrickson, Clerk

2557—In re Square 1018; on hearing, argued and submitted; order of discontinuance as to parcel 9.

CIVIL COURT NO. 5

Justice O'Donoghue—Gardner, Clerk

61582—Allen vs. Lambert, admx.; hearing begun and continued to tomorrow. Attys., Doyle, Thuee—Lambert, Canfield.

63534—National Savings & Trust Co. vs. Smith et al.; decree for defendant Bertha Smith, individually.

CIVIL COURT NO. 6

Justice Bailey—Below, Clerk

64056—Carter Carburetor Co. vs. Coe; hearing resumed and concluded.

63194-67748—Weckerly vs. Coe; case consolidated for trial; hearing concluded, argued and submitted. Attys., Hostetler—Cochran.

C. A. R. Group To Plant Tree In Alexandria

Honors Mrs. Howard In Christ Church Yard Another at Mt. Vernon

THE WASHINGTON POST BUREAU,
607 Prince St., Alexandria, Va.
Phone Temple 3767
Delivery Service, phone Alex. 1400

The Eleanor Washington Howard Society Children of the American Revolution, today at 3:30 p. m. will plant a tree in Christ Church yard, in memory of Mrs. Eleanor Selden Washington Howard, the last girl child of the Washington family born at Mount Vernon. She was for 33 years a national vice president of the Children of the American Revolution. Mrs. Howard died in Alexandria November 7, 1937. She was a communicant at Christ Episcopal Church throughout her life.

The ceremony will open with invocation by the Rev. Harry Lee Doll, rector. Miss Helen Norris Cummings, president of the Cameron Club of Alexandria, of which Mrs. Howard was for many years vice president, will make the address.

John Augustine Washington, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Blackburn Washington, and a great nephew of Mrs. Howard, will present the tree, and the acceptance will be by Mr. Doll.

Mount Vernon Ceremony

The ceremony in Alexandria will follow a similar one at Mount Vernon at 2 p. m., when the invocation will be by the Rev. C. A. Langston, rector of historic Pohick Episcopal Church, and the salute to the flag will be led by C. W. Wall, superintendent of Mount Vernon, who also will present the tree to be accepted by Mrs. Herbert R. Haar, senior president and organizing regent of the Eleanor Washington Howard Chapter.

Mrs. Horace Mann Tower will speak for the Mount Vernon Ladies Association, and the response will be by Adelaide Fitzhugh Brown, junior president of the chapter.

Mrs. Charles Alexander Swan Sinclair, Virginia State regent of the Daughters of the American Revolution, and a relative of Mrs. Howard, will give a sketch of her life.

National C. A. R. officers who will be present include Mrs. William H. Pouch, president; Mrs. Thaddeus Jones, treasurer; Mrs. John Morrison Kerr, organizing secretary, and Miss Marie Beyerie, vice president from Pennsylvania.

Mrs. Sinclair will entertain the visitor at luncheon at her home in Braddock Heights, prior to the two ceremonies, and in the afternoon an inspection of historic Gadsby's Tavern will be held, where rooms are being restored in honor of Mrs. Pouch and Mrs. Sinclair, and a doorway honoring Mrs. Howard was dedicated and unveiled last March.

At St. Paul's

The Rev. Beverly M. Boyd, of Richmond, will speak at the annual every member canvass supper of St. Paul's Episcopal Church this evening at 6 o'clock in the parish hall, served by Section B, of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the church. Mr. Boyd is chairman of the diocesan board.

Albert A. Smoot is general chairman for the canvass. After the talk a round-table discussion will be held.

Elks to Meet

Judge Edwin S. Fuller, past exalted ruler of the Washington Lodge of Elks, will deliver the memorial address at the annual exercises of Alexandria Lodge, No. 758, B. P. O. Elks, December 4, at 8 p. m. in the auditorium of the Elks' Home.

E. Joel Treger, past exalted ruler of the local lodge, is chairman of the committee in charge of arrangements, and Hannon E. Norris, exalted ruler, will preside.

Members of the lodge will sponsor a "turkey social" tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock in the rathskeller of the Elks' Home, the proceeds to be applied toward the entertainment of Christmas Eve of approximately 600 children of the city, at a Christmas party. Howard Carter is chairman for the social. Contributions of used toys that may be renovated, or new articles, have been requested. Charles B. Jewell, sr., is general chairman for the Christmas party.

Rutherford to Speak

R. M. Rutherford, representing Federal aid in wild life restoration, of the Bureau of Biological Survey, will speak today at the luncheon meeting of the Alexandria Kiwanis Club, at 12:15 p. m. in the George Mason Hotel. The speaker will be presented by Sam J. Allan, and Dr. W. Clyde West, president of the club, will preside.

Church Tea Postponed

Mrs. L. H. Dudley, chairman of a tea to have been given tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Henry Smith, 2109 King street, under the auspices of Section B., of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, has announced the affair is indefinitely postponed.

Community Chest Campaign Contributors

This list includes only names of those pledging $100 or more to the Community Chest for 1939. It will appear cumulatively throughout the campaign. WATCH IT GROW!

A.

Abbot, Charles $150
Acheson, Mr. and Mrs. Dean G. 5450
Adams, Byron 1.5500
Aitchison, Clyde B. 100
Aldon Construction Co. 100
Alexander, Harry, Inc. 100
Allan, Mrs. Bryce 150
Allen, Robert S. 200
Allies Inn, The 400
Altemus, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick E. 200
American Fire Insurance Co. 250
American Brewery, Inc. 500
American Building Association 100
American Security and Trust Co. 6.000
Amory, Mrs. Copley 150
Anacostia Bank 100
Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. Frank 100
Ashton, Col. and Mrs. P. M. 150
Ashenfelter, Miss Mabel 100
Atherton, Mrs. Frederic 300
Atwood, Mr. and Mrs. Albert W. 150
Auchincloss, Mrs. Hugh D. 2.000
Austin, Mrs. Louis W. 200
Austern, Mr. and Mrs. H. Thomas. 100

B.

Baer, Benoit, jr. 150
Baer, Mr. and Mrs. David A. 125
Baily, Howard H. 100
Bailey, Justice Jennings 120
Baird, Mr. Bruce 100
A. H. Baker & Co. 400
Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence A. 400
Baldwin, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. 120
Baldwin, Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. 100
Baldwin, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. 100
Barbour, Mr. and Mrs. John S. 120
Bardwell, Charles M. 100
Barry, Maj. David S. 200
Bartel, William P. 100
Bayne, Dr. and Mrs. J. Breckinridge 150
Bell, Mrs. Charles J. 300
Barton, LeRoy 100
Baskin & Co. 100
Baum, Mr. and Mrs. Leo 100
Beale, W. L. 100
Becke, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert E. 300
Beebe, Raymond N. 150
Behrend, Miss Esther M. 110
Behrend, Mr. Rudolph B. 250
Behrend, Dr. and Mrs. Edwin B. 200
Bell Clothes 100
Belin, Mr. and Mrs. F. Lammot. 600
Bellman, Mr. George R. 1.750
Benet, Mr. and Mrs. Laurence V. 350
Benton, Mr. and Mrs. John E. 110
Behrends, Melvin 600
Berenson, Mr. and Mrs. Harry S. 120
Berry, James W. 110
Birney, Mr. and Mrs. Dion S. 100
Birnie, Mrs. Douglas P. 100
Bisland, Miss Margaret W. 150
Bishop, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur G. 150
Bishop, Mr. and Mrs. Randolph G. 125
Blair, Dr. Montgomery, jr. 100
Blanning, Mr. Wendell Y. 100
Blick Coal Co. 150
Bliss, Miss Elisabeth 150
Bliss, Hon. and Mrs. Robert Woods. 8.000
Boardman, Miss Mabel T. 700
Phil Bobys, Inc., Regal Clothing Co. 350
Bonsal, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen 300
Bowen, Mrs. Russell 100
Boyce, Miss Lucy G. 100
Blair, Mr. Henry P. 600
Blair, Mr. and Mrs. David 100
Bliss, Mr. and Mrs. Edward G. 100
Boli, Mrs. John 100
Boss, Harry K. 100
Bower, Mrs. Ward T. 150
Borger, Mr. George I. 125
Boyd, Mr. and Mrs. Crosby Noyes. 130
Brawner, Edgar N. 150
Breese, Mrs. Julia A. P. 150
Breese, Mr. William L. 150
Breuninger, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis E. 200
Briggs, Lyman J. 200
Brodie, Harry H. 150
Brookings Institution 705
Brookings, Mrs. Robert S. 2,400
Brooks, H. A. 240
Brown, Mrs. Philip M. 100
Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Wrisley 300
Brownell, Roy A. 100
Brownson, Mrs. Willard H. 2.000
Brez, Selig C. 115
Brylawski, Mr. and Mrs. Fulton 150
Brylawski, Mrs. Helen 100
Brylawski, A. Julian 125
Buchols, Frederick 250
Burlew, Mr. and Mrs. E. K. 100
Burling, Mr. and Mrs. Edward B. 2.000
Bush, Mr. and Mrs. William L. 650
Butler-Flynn Paint Co. 100
Butler, Ulysses 100

C.

C. I. T. Corporation 200
Cafritz, Mr. and Mrs. Morris 5.000
Cahill, Dr. and Mrs. James A. 100
Caldwell, Mr. Louis G. 100
Callahan, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel J. 200
Capital Awning Co. 100
Capital Transit Co. 2,500
Carson, Dr. S. L. 100
Carson, T. D. 100
Casey, Mrs. Thomas L. 100
Castle, William R. 600
Chapin, Mrs. Higgins 250
Chapin, Mrs. Selden 100
Chappell, Mr. and Mrs. Walter F. 300
Charest, Clarence M. 200
Chestnut Farms-Chevy Chase Dairy 2.000
Chiswell, W. Wallace 200
Choate, Mr. and Mrs. H. Lawrence 185
Christie, Dr. and Mrs. Arthur C. 500
Church of the Epiphany 100
City Bank, The 300
Clark, Dr. William Earl 300
Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Appleton P., jr. 160
Clarke, Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey L. 250
Clayton, Mrs. Powell 120
Clephane, Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. 100
Cleveland, Mr. and Mrs. Augustus F. 100
Cobb, Judge James A 100
Coffin, Mr. and Mrs. Philip O. 700
Cole, Miss Jean S. 100
Colbert, Maurice J. & Co. 100
Colpoys, John B. 100
Colladay, Mr. and Mrs. Edward F. 300
Colton, Samuel A. 100
Columbia Nat'l Bank of Washington 500
Columbia Title Co. 175
Columbia Typographical Union, 101 400
Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. 125
Comdr. and Mrs. W. D. Chandler, jr. 100
Commercial Credit Co. 100
Commercial Office Furniture Co. 200
Conn, Russell A. 100
Connelly, Rev. Eugene J. 100
Connor, Maj. Gen. and Mrs. Wm. D. 100
Continental Baking Co. 600
Coonley, Mrs. Avery 1.100
Corby, Mrs. Charles L. 2.400
Covey, Mrs. Earl W. 600
Cotter, Mr. Joseph J. 100
Cottrell, Mr. and Mrs. P. G. 120
Cousins, Dr. Sidney Charles 100
Covington, Mr. and Mrs. J. Harry. 600
Covington, Mr. and Mrs. Harry 3d. 120
Coyle, Mrs. David Cushman 100
Covelle, Mrs. Frederick V. 100
Craighill, Mr. and Mrs. G. Bowdoin. 250
Cragin, Mr. Charles H. 150
Crawford, Miss Emma G. 100
Cuniberti, Mr. and Mrs. Fernando. 200
Custin, Mr. and Mrs. William L. 100

D.

Daniels, Dr. and Mrs. Worth B. 300
Daugherty, Mr. and Mrs. James L. 100
Davidson, Mrs. Howard. 400
Davis, Miss Cynthia 100
Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Dwight F. 2,750
Davis, Mrs. John W. 150
Davis, Miss Helen Brooks 150
Davies, Ambassador and Mrs. J. E. 10.000
Deaver, Mr. and Mrs. Richard W. 300
Delano, Mr. and Mrs. Frederic A. 400
Delano, Mr. and Mrs. William P. 100
Depew, Mrs. Chauncey Mitchell. 10.000
Dewey, Dr. George 100
Diamond Cab Co. 100
Dietz, A. B. & Co. 100
Dieterich, Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. 100
District Wholesale Drug Corporation 100
District Title Ins. Co. 350
Donaldson, Walter 200
Donn, Edward W., jr. 150
Donoho, Mrs. Murray T. 100
Donovan, William R. 200
Donohoe, John F., and sons 100
Dore, John A. 100
Dorsey, Miss Laura R. 100
Dows, Mrs. Tracy 100
Downey, Mrs. George F. 100
Droop, Mr. and Mrs. Carl 350
Droop, Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. 450
Drury, Mr. Samuel A. 300
Dubb, M. D. 250
Dudley, Claude W. 100
Dulany, Mr. and Mrs. H. Rozier, jr. 400
Dunham, Dr. Ethel C. 100
Dunham, J., Inc. 250
Dunlop, Mr. and Mrs. G. Thomas. 180
Dunn, James Clement. 100
Dunn, Mrs. James C. 1.000
Dunn, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McKee. 800
Dye, Mrs. Alexander V. 120
Dyer, J. E. & Co. 175

E.

The East Wash. Savings Bank. 100
Eccles, Marriner S. 100
Eckels, Mrs. George M. 115
Ecker, Dr. and Mrs. Lewis C. 100
Eastman, Joseph B. 360
Edge, Hon. and Mrs. Walter E. 250
Eiseman, Maurice 100
Eisenmann, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob. 150
Eliot, Dr. Martha M. 200
Ellis, Hon. Wade H. 100
Elite Laundry, Inc. 1.000
Ely, Mr. and Mrs. Albert H., jr. 100
Ely, Mrs. Louise C. 500
Ely, Dr. Charles R. 125
C. Engel & Sons, Inc. 100
Eustis, Mrs. William Corcoran. 4.500
Evans, Mr. and Mrs. John M., jr. 220
Evening Star Newspaper Co. 40.000
Ewerhardt, Dr. Paul J. 100

F.

Fahnestock, Mr. and Mrs. Snowden A. 200
Falls, Dr. W. Marion 100
Farr, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Sharon. 200
Faulkner, Waldron 200
Faulkner, Mrs. Waldron 140
Ferry, J. M. 350
Finley, Mr. and Mrs. David E. 450
Firemans Insurance Co. 300
Fisher, Dr. Anna C. 100
Flather, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. J., jr. 750
Fleming, Mr. and Mrs. Robert V. 750
Foley, John D. 100
Folger, J. C. 200
Ford Motor Co. 250
Fox, Miss Margaret Raub 100
Freeman, Russell P. 120
Freeman, Bishop and Mrs. James E. 250
French, Owen B. 100
Freed, Mrs. Alice S. 100
Friday, Mr. and Mrs. David 100
Frost, Norman B. 100

G.

Gaff, Mrs. Thomas T. 300
Gaegler, The Misses 100
Gassenheimer, Mr. and Mrs. L. 325
Gatley, Mr. H. Prescott 100
Gatti, Mr. Joseph D. 100
Geier, John M. 250
Gsier, Mrs. Joseph A. 100
Georges Radio Co. 250
Gewirz, Mr. and Mrs. Morris 100
Gibbs, Henry F. 160
Fred S. Gichner Iron Works 200
Giles, Mrs. Robert 100
Gill, Mrs. Thomas H. 100
Given, Mrs. Helen D. 100
Glassen, Mr. and Mrs. Isadore 100
Glassman and Ostrow 1.000
Globe-Wernicke Co. 100
Glover, Mrs. Charles C. 1.500
Glover, Mrs. Charles C. jr. 100
Glover, Charles C., jr. 100
Goldberg, Herman 100
Goldman, Hyman 100
Goldnamer, Mr. and Mrs. Marc S. 600
Samuel Gompers Lodge, No. 45. 100
Gordon, Mr. and Mrs. Spencer. 300
Gore, Mrs. Nelly Larner. 100
Gorin, Max 250
Goss, Albert S. 100
Gould, Association of D. C. 100
Grar, Miss Nellye M. 100
Grayson, Mrs. Cary T. 300
Gregory, Henderson B. 200
Green, Mr. and Mrs. James M. 200
Greene, Ernest W. 600
Greenough, Commander Joseph 100
Griffith, Clark C. 600
Groner, Mrs. Duncan Lawrence. 300
Groover, Dr. Thomas A. 240
Grosner, Mrs. Isidor 250
Grosner, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence W. 600
Grosner, Gerald D. 150
Gruver, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob S. 350
Gude Bros. Co. 500
Gunther Brewing Co., Inc. 100
Gurnee, Miss Bell 125
Guthrie, Charles Stuart 100
Guthrie, Mr. and Mrs. William M. 125

H.

Haas, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick J. 200
Haas, Mr. and Mrs. John I. 1.000
Hackett, Mrs. Jennings 125
Hagner, Dr. and Mrs. Francis R. 200
Hagner, Mrs. Randall H. 400
Hale, Mrs. Chandler 500
Halkett, Mrs. Sarah Stokes. 500
Hall, James L. 120
Hall, Mr. and Mrs. William F. 200
Ham, Mrs. Suzanne M. 150
Hamilton, Mrs. Charles 100
Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. G. E., jr. 360
Hamilton, Hans 170
Hamilton National Bank 1.500
Hamilton, Hanse 200
Hannay, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. M. 600
Hardie, William V. 144
Harden, Mrs. B. Lauriston 150
Harris, R., & Co. 200
Harrison, Mrs. 750
Harrison, Mr. Nelson T. 150
Hawkins, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. 250
Heath, Mrs. Perry S. 500
Hechinger, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney B. 750
Hecht, Alexander 600
Heck, N. H. 100
Heilbrin, Mr. and Mrs. Giles F. 180
Heldenheimer, E., Inc. 100
Heins, R. J. & Co. 100
Hellen, Arthur 240
Helm, Mrs. Edith B. 250
Helvering, Guy T. 100
Hempstone, Mrs. Smith 100
Henderson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. 300
Hershfield, Mr. and Mrs. Isidore. 150
W. H. Hesstck Sons Co. 100
Hewes, Clarence B. 100
Hewes, Penelope Awalt. 100
Hickey, Mr. Harry K. 100
Hill, Mr. Bishop Perkins. 100
Hill, William Hurd 500
Hill, Mrs. William Hurd 100
Hill, Wilmer A. 120
Hillary, Mrs. H. 150
Himmelfarb, Mr. and Mrs. Paul. 750
Hitchcock, Mrs. Gilbert M. 300
Hofer, Mrs. Charles 250
Hofer, Myron 500
Hohenstein Bros. 100
Holbrook, Mr. and Mrs. F. S. 100
Holbrook, Lindley W. 100
Hoover, Mr. and Mrs. Reve. 150
Hoover, Mr. and Mrs. George P. 150
Hopfenmaier, Milton, Estate 500
Hoskinson, Mr. and Mrs. Hillsary. 100
Houghton, Hon. and Mrs. A. B. 1,200
Houghton, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. 130
Howard, Mrs. Beale R. 3.000
Howard and Hoffman 100
Howard, Mr. Harry Wheaton

Read Post Want Ads for Opportunities; Use Them for Results

Auction Sales

Continued From Preceding Page.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 18, 1938
ENOCH L. OWEN & SON, Auctioneers.
1411 Eye Street Northwest.

TRUSTEES' SALE OF VALUABLE BRICK DWELLING KNOWN AS PREMISES NO. 1515 SEVENTEENTH STREET NORTHWEST.

By virtue of a certain deed or trust duly recorded in Liber No. 7244, folio 447 et seq., of the land records of the District of Columbia, and at the request of the party secured thereby, the undersigned trustees will sell, at public auction in front of the premises, on FRIDAY, THE EIGHTEENTH DAY OF NOVEMBER, A. D. 1938, at TWO-THIRTY O'CLOCK P. M., the following-described land and premises, situate in the District of Columbia, and designated as and being lot 148 in square 181, as per plat recorded in the office of the surveyor for the District of Columbia.

TERMS: Sold subject to a prior building association deed of trust for $4,998.64, further particulars of which will be announced at time of sale; the purchase price above said trust to be paid in cash. A deposit of $250 required. Conveyancing, recording, etc., at purchaser's cost. Terms to be complied with within thirty days, otherwise deposit forfeited and the property may be advertised and resold at the discretion of the trustees.

ISADORE BORNSTEIN,
HERMAN MILLER (erroneously described in said deed of trust as H. Millar), Trustees.

ALEXANDRIA

Alexandria Dairy Products Co.
Buy Your Dairy Products in Alexandria
FITZ & PRINCESS STS. ALEX. 3838

BANNER LAUNDRY
100% Local Industry. Phone Alex. 203.

DANCE The Lambeth Walk & N. York's latest steps. MARY CABELL CALLAWAY, Alex. 3856-W. Alex. 1197-J.

Personalized Xmas Cards
3001 King. Bryan Stationery of Va. AL. 3548

DODGE Cooper Phillips Motor Co.
PLYMOUTH 115 North Washington st.
Phone Alex. 4122.

HUDSON SUPPLY & EQUIPMENT CO.
Insulation. Free Estimates.
DISTRICT 1070.

PLUMBING & heat. Weld. rep. 5% Off
Walter Mitchel. Alex. 3090.

RAILING'S JEWELRY & MUSIC.
Pre-Xmas sale! 10 to 25% off. Use our lay-away plan. 318 King st. Alex. 319.

SAVE 25% on your Fire and Auto-mobile insurance. Call G. R. Gaines, insur. of all kinds, Alex. 248.

Storage Moving. Local, long-distance. W. S. Smith Co., Alex. 1064.

TIRES New, used. Easiest credit in town. Extra allowance with ad. Dunlop Store, 1201 King st. Alex. 3943-W.

ARLINGTON

BYRON'S RADIO Service—Electrical appliances rep'd. 4215 N. Fairfax dr. WA. 2214.

Lumber, Millwork, Roofing, Insulite. MURPHY & AMES, INC.
Phone WA. 5095. Falls Church 1180.

Fox's Beauty Shops, Inc.
Ox. 0829—2 shops to serve you—Ox. 0867
2117 Wilson Blvd. 2215 N. Glebe Rd.

BETHESDA-CHEVY CHASE

FALSE TEETH REPAIRED, "while you wait." Delivery Serv. Rhueford Dental Lab., 4626 Chestnut st. WI. 5798.

HAMMOND MOTOR CO. Radiator, body and fender repairs. Free estimate. Guar. work. 6900 Wisconsin ave. WI. 6550.

HOME RADIO SERVICE. Free est.; 90-day guar. 4906 Wisconsin ave. WO. 1771.

PAPERHANGING, painting; expert work; good materials; ref.; reas. WI. 7420.

PRESIDENT VALET SERVICE—Hats, any kind, cleaned and blocked. Expert work. 5316 Conn. ave. WO. 0663.

UPHOLSTERING—Antique repairs, chair caning; qual. work; low prices. WI. 6049.

WM. REUBEN PUMPHREY
5009 Wis. Ave. FUNERAL HOME. WI. 2200.

BRIGHTWOOD

ARMSTRONG SHADE SHOP.
Window shades; shades reversed. 10% off with this ad. Phone RA. 4346 for est.

PAPERHANGING, painting. Reasonable. Work guaranteed. Estimates. Dist. 6716.

CLEVELAND PARK

PAINTING, paperhanging, flooring; lowest rates; now. Free estimate. EM. 2068.

COLUMBIA HEIGHTS

Fur Cloth coats remod. Geracy's, Inc., 3201 14th nw. GLAZING FREE!

Radio Doc Columbia Heights' Finest. Estimates no cost, no obligation. Day and Nite Service. CO. 7377.

DOWNTOWN

ACME WELDING CO. Acetylene and electric portable equipment. Anything, anywhere. 1345 Nicholson st. NE. Lin. 0295-W.

ACORN FLOORING CO.—Sanding, refinishing and cleaning floors. Dist. 4027.

Auto Repairs Wrecked cars our specialty. CEN TRAL AUTO WORKS, 443 Eye st. nw. Dist. 6161.

BOOKS The Whyte Book Shop. Colored prints; reproduct.; framing; for-eign books. 1707 H st. nw. RE. 1041.

CAMERA REPAIRING.
FULLER & d'ALBERT, INC.
815 10th St. N.W. Phone NA. 4712.

CUT DOWN OFFICE EXPENSES!
Mail, Address and Telephone Serv. NA. 2911.

Exterminator Any kind of vermin; no odor or danger; reasonable. M. STEVENSON, Li. 1094.

FALSE TEETH REPAIRING "while you wait." Emergency Laboratory, Rm. 902, Westory Bldg. 14th and F nw. ME. 1833.

Furnace Cleaning by vacuum. $3.50 up, to 8-rm. house; expert heating man. Call ME. 3373. Furnace Cleaning Dept.

KEEP THE HOME FIRES BURNING—Complete H. W. heating plants installed as low as $285. Also Camel Oil Burners. Bowling Bros. Co., 906 10th nw. ME. 2132.

Moving Hauling—Any kind. Reasonable rates. GARNER, ME. 6744.

Painting Papering; white mech.; reas. D. M. Gaines & Son, RE. 2017

PLUMBING and heating. D.C. and Md. license. Collins & Key Service Co. DE. 5940.

REFRIGERATORS checked, cleaned, lubricated, adjusted, $1.50. AT. 2063 Day-nite.

SPECIAL, shampoo, 9x12 domestic, $2.25. Oriental, $3.25; guar. Sanitini Co. 0070.

TILING Repairing. Very reasonable. Robert E. Wright. Lt. 1084.

TIRES New and used; complete stock; unusual bargains. BETTER TIRES CO., 1435 P N.W. DE. 2137.

Upholstery Shampooed Electrically quick, safe, economical) without bother in home or office; insured. Keene, NA. 2911.

ANY SEWING MACHINE adjusted, oiled, inspected; exp. serv. RE. 1900.

$3 Up Mattresses Renovated. $3 Up
STEIN BEDDING CO.
1234 12th St. N.W. ME. 1234.

MID-CITY.

BRING YOUR RADIO to Universal, 100 H nw.; or call. DI. 6680. Fr. est. Exp. repair.

PAPERHANGER, Painter and Floor Sanding; guar. work; white mech. DE. 5260.

UPHOLSTERED FURNITURE CLEANED. DEc. 2348 HATL CLEANING SERV. —3-piece suite cleaned and cushioned, $7, in your home. Guaranteed.

NORTHEAST

PAPER furnished and hung, $4 up; scraping reas. G. DONALDSON, LI. 5634-J.

"TOURIST HOME," 715 Lawrence ne., near Catholic Univ., from 8th nw. Dec. 4813.

PETWORTH

Painting Papering; guar.; reas.; estimates free. M. L. SLATTER 3704 Webster st. nw. AD. 1166-7309.

YOUR NEIGHBORHOOD SERVICE GUIDE

SHEPHERD PARK

GET 'EM WHILE THEY'RE HOT! Fresh rolls, buns, pies and doughnuts. PITTLE'S BAKERY. 1700 Ga. ave. RA. 2344.

SILVER SPRING—TAKOMA PK.

ANY odd or repair jobs; help needed. Call Takoma Gen'l Jobbers Assn., SH. 4676-W.

Piano & ORGAN. Begin. & adv. stud. Toronto Conservatory of Music. SH. 2790.

Turkey Dressed to order. Fish & Fowl Mart. 7327 Ga. ave. GE. 6800.

SOUTHEAST

FLOOR SERVICE, by hand or machine; oldest in city. F. Stokes, Lt. 0424-R.

Plumbing Jobbing a specialty. Reas. F. C. FROST. AT. 3219

THURS. and FRI.
RADIO REPAIRING
Regardless of condition we will service your Radio—Exclusive of parts—for.....
Test Tubes, Speaker, Aerial, Ground, Loose Connections, Minor Repairs. 50c
RADIO TUBES
29c Up AT. 1677
FOGLEMAN'S
14th St. at Mass. Ave. S.E.
Close at 10 P. M.

The Washington Post

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING
LOCAL RATES

For Washington and Points Within 50 Miles of the District of Columbia.

The following rates are for consecutive insertions:

1 time.....12c per line.
3 times.....18c per line.
7 times.....13c per line.
15 times.....12c per line.

The one-time rate applies on skip ads or irregular insertions.

OUT-OF-TOWN RATES.

Ads from points more than 50 miles from the District of Columbia are: 1 time, 21c per line; 3 times, 20c per line; 7 times, within 30 days, 17c per line.

When computing the cost of an ad kindly estimate 5½ average words to a line.

Rates for special classification and yearly contracts furnished upon request.

The Washington Post reserves the right to edit, revise or reject any classified advertising.

Misclassification of ads not permitted.

The Washington Post will not be responsible for more than one incorrect insertion on any order.

Kill Orders or Corrections before insertions (excepting Death Notices) cannot be made unless ordered before 6 p. m. daily or 4 p. m. Saturday for Sunday.

The Washington Post strives at all times to prevent insertion of fraudulent or misleading advertisements.

Information concerning any ad that proves misleading or fraudulent will be appreciated.

Phone NAtional 4200
Ask for an Ad-Writer

THESE DRUG STORES WILL TAKE YOUR WANT AD. DAY AND NIGHT.
Alaska Ave. Pharmacy, 7808 Alaska Ave.
Chevy Chase Pharmacy, 5810 Connecticut Ave.
Garfield Park Drug Store, 311 15th St. S.E.
Hallstorz Pharmacy, 732 2nd St. S.W.
Imperial Pharmacy, 2624 P St. N.W.
Johnson Pharmacy, 600 3rd St. S.W.
Jolson Pharmacy, 5000 First St. N.W.
Matthews Pharmacy, 1257 South Capitol Street.
Modern Drug, 1300 11th St. N.W.
Novelty Store, 1601 11th St. N.W.
O'Donnell's Drug Store, Wisconsin Ave. and P Street.
Park View Pharmacy, Georgia Ave. and Park Road.
Paul's Drug Store, 901 Fourth St. S.W.
Smoot Pharmacy, 1348 N. J. Ave. N.W.
Standard Drug, 1748 7th St. N.W.
Suter's Drug Store, 1841 Columbia Road.
Williams Pharmacy, 501 First St. S.W.

Lost and Found 1

You can phone your "Lost and Found" ads to The Post until 11 p. m. for insertion the following morning. For the Sunday Post, Saturday, 4 p. m. ("Found" ads are published free.)

BRING or report deserted, stray or lost animals to the Animal Protective Association. AT. 7142.

CLASS RING—Central High School; in Woodward & Lothrop wash room. Reward. WI. 6960.

COCKER SPANIEL—Black, male, 6 mo. old; collar, no tag; vic Wesley Heights. Reward. Call EM. 0036.

FOUND—Male black scottie; male fox, black head, black saddle. Call NAtl. 4200, Br. 382.

FOUND—Male Scotty, vicinity Cathedral ave. and Woodley Pl. nw. AD. 3539-W.

FOUND—Bunch of keys (5) near 14th and T st. nw. Owner call for at Apt. 22, 1433 T st. nw.

LOST—$70, in or around Anacostia Bank. Liberal reward. AT. 0234.

$500 REWARD for return of mink coat lost at North Side Club, Warrenton, Va., November 11, 1938. Notify Nichols Co., 326 Woodward Bldg., Washington, D. C. ME. 0316

Personals 3

DENTAL PLATES REPAIRED "while you wait." Mod. Dental Laboratories, Rm. 902 Western Bldg., 14th & F st. nw. NA. 0713

DRESSMAKING, alterations, day, eve. appt. Guar.; reas. LI. 9593-M. 644 G st. se.

FALSE TEETH REPAIRS while U wait. Emergency Laboratories, 608 14th st. nw., Room 902. ME. 1833.

HEMORRHOIDS (piles) eradicated by my own methods; results effective for a lifetime or money back. Write for booklet. No drugs or surgery. DR. SOMMERVILLE, 1356 Columbia rd. AD. 0366.

OAK Retreat, Col. Estate. Convalescents, chronics, invalids. Rockville. KEn. 780.

ORDERS taken for hand-crochet bedroom slippers; excellent Christmas gift; very reasonable. GEorgia 4971.

TRAINED NURSE will care for chronic invalids of any kind. Ref. JA. 1990.

WALL PAPER, 5c per roll. Phone ME. 8202 for sample book.

WANTED—Return load of household goods to Pittsburgh, Nov. 18. Call NOrth 4876 Thursday after 4 p. m. or early Friday.

30-YARD line; 2 good seats; Army-Navy game. Box 34, Washington Post.

ROOFING AND INSULATION
YOU WILL FIND
BARBER GENASCO
LATTE ROOFS
Almost Everywhere
Made With THE VITAL ELEMENT,
TRINIDAD LAKE ASPHALT,
NATURE'S OWN WATERPROOFER.
Estimates Free—Terms If Desired.
ENTERPRISE
ROOFING COMPANY
District Coal Bldg., 3030 R. I. Ave. N.E.
POt. 0200.

Motor Travel 10

DRIVING Texas Friday; '38 car, radio, heater. ME. 0340. Apt. 224 after 6.

WASHINGTON Auto Travel Service, share expense plan. 1130 14th st. nw. Di. 0899.

Help—Female 11

Women—If you don't find your position in the Help Wanted Column today—place a "Situations Wanted" Ad in The Post. A 3-line ad costs only 19 cents.

SALESLADY, 22 to 28, preferably with gift shop experience; neat, clean, pleasant; $14 to start. 1414 Allison st. nw.

Lost and Found 1

BRACELET, gold, with name plate, engraved "Mary"; lost Wednesday, Nov. 9, between 14th and Eye sts. nw. Reward. Call RE. 1900.

BRIEF CASE, black,

A Small Post Want Ad Can Find a Tenant for YOUR Vacant Room

Post Classified Ads—National 4200.

Houses—Unfurnished 56

Continued From Preceding Page.

4 BDRMS., 2 BATHS—$60
Near 44th and Ellicott sts. nw. Det. semi-bung.: good cond. NAtl. 8880.

1310 D ST. S.E.
8 rooms, bath, garage, front porch. $47.50

2008 1st ST. N.W.
8 rooms, bath, cellar, back yd. $50.00
P. J. WALSHE, INC.
1107 Eye St. N.W. NAtional 6468.

$75—5342 41st St. N.W.
7 rooms and bath, extra lavatory; hot-water heat; garage.
National Mortgage & Inv. Corp.
NA. 5833. 1312 N. Y. Ave. N.W.

Suburban—Rent 58

ARLINGTON, VA.—6 rooms and bath; shade, shrubbery; 1 acre. Hot-water heat; gar.; $60 mo. B. M. SMITH, 2408 Columbia pike, Arlington, Va. OX. 2038.

ARLINGTON—$72.50. Attractive 6-room home; sun rm., brkfst. rm.; oil heat; gar.; nr. bus; option to buy, $6,950. WA. 6050.

BETHESDA, Md., 106 Cedar Lane—Open, brick bungalow, 5 rooms, bath, excellent condition; oil heat; large lot; $60.

NR. Mt. Vernon blvd.—At Wellington Villa: small home, 5 rms., bath, elec. kit., gar.; $-$-$. Mrs. Miller, Alex. 366-W-11.

NEW BLDG. being completed, all outside apts. Large living room, 2 bedrooms, tile bath, built-in tub with shower; dinette, kitchenette, screened porch; in residential section. 11 Custis ave., northwest, suburb of Alexandria, Va., between Russell rd. and Mt. Vernon ave., near schools, stores and buses.
BRODIE & COLBERT, INC.
103 S. Royal St., Alex., Va. ALex. 2484.

ARLINGTON, VA. CHOICE HOMES. New 7-rm. bung. avail. Dec. 1....$60 mo. Modern, 6 rm. house, lge. lot....$50 mo. Modern 5-room bungalow.....$45 mo. G. R. J. NEWMAN WA. 9039.

BEAUTIFUL RIVER VIEW
NEARBY VA.—New 6-room brick house on Mount Vernon blvd.; oil heat, elec. kitchen, sun parlor, strictly mod.; garage; 20 min. drive to Pa. ave. Call J. M. Reed, ALex. 366-J-11.

VIRGINIA BUNGALOW
5 large rooms, hot-water heat; large lot. 1 block from stores, school and Lee Highway. $45 month.
JAMES M. DOYLE
3015 N. Washington Blvd. WA. 9001.

40 ACRES
6-room house, garage, electric light, electric stove and oil heater; near Seabrook, Md. Rental $40 per month. Call Mr. Carney
BRADLEY BEALL & HOWARD, INC.
NA. 0271 Southern Bldg.

Suburban Apartments 58A

ALEXANDRIA, VA. (120 E. Chestnut st.)—Opposite new George Wash. High School; outside apt., spacious liv. rm., bedrm., large dinette, kit., porch, elec., refrig., $40 mo. Apply Apt. 4d.

FALLS CHURCH, VA.—3 attractive rooms, priv. bath, shower; new brick home; heat, light, h. w. furnished, F. Ch. 1756.

FORT STRONG VILLA, Va.—2627 Lee Hwy., Va.—3 rms., kit., din., b., unfurn., newly decorated; oil heat WAl. 7016.

WASH.-BALTO. BLVD.—4 rms., bath, $20 mo. J. Bewley, Berwyn 176-R.

Sole Investment Property 65

4¼ TIMES ANNUAL RENT
New downtown apartment building of 60 units. Practical opportunity to secure real saving by purchase in advance of construction—payment on completion. For details, call Irving Newcomb, with J. Wesley Buchanan—MEtro. 1144.

A VERY substantial, new, four-family, brick building, containing 18 rooms and 4 baths, with 4 large concrete rear porches; 1 automatic oil-burning furnace and a thermostat in each apartment. In less than 2 years about $2,500,000 worth of homes and apartments have been built and sold in this immediate neighborhood. Annual rent, $2,400. PRICE, $15,250. BOSS & PHELPS, 1417 K ST. NW. NA. 9300.

Sale Houses 66

A NEW GROUP OF LOW-PRICED HOMES has just been completed in beautiful AVONDALE. They contain 2 and 3 bedrooms, porches, garage, air-conditioning, insulated gas ranges, Electrolux refrigerators and Venetian blinds. These homes are built under the most rigid supervision and according to the highest specifications required by the FHA. The prices range from $7,250 to $7,950 and include 50x100 lots. All houses are eligible for FHA long-term financing. Drive out today. Past Catholic University on Michigan Ave. to Queens Chapel Road and the District Line.
HARRY WARDMAN, INC.
1512 K St. N.W. DI. 3830.

Southern Colonial

4305 Van Ness St.
Authentic architecture, lovely landscaping, modern construction and features, unimpeachable location and correct price combine to make this home built by Samuel S. Spruce an ideal investment in contentment and happiness. Living room, dining room, butler's pantry, kitchen, breakfast room, library and powder room on main floor. 4 bedrooms and 2 baths on second floor. Knotty pine recreation room with fireplace on third floor. Maid's room and bath in basement. Air-conditioned.
To Reach. Drive out Mass. Ave. to Nebraska Ave., right to Van Ness St., left to home.
OPEN DAILY
Paul T. Stone, Inc.
927 15th St. N.W.
Phone EMerson 5675

SEE THESE HOMES EACH A REAL BUY

6306 FLORIDA STREET
Chevy Chase, Md.
Just reduced $2.000. 4 bedrooms, 2 baths. Lot, 10.000 sq. ft. $10,750. Rent $110.

4705 BLAGDEN TERRACE
Large 4 bedroom, 2½ bath home. 2-car garage. At edge of Rock Creek Park. $17,500. about ½ original cost. Rent $135.

4941 46TH ST. N.W.
Bungalow on large corner lot. A real buy for home buyer or investor. New price $6,950. Rent $69.50.

4708 BLAGDEN AVE. N.W.
Adjacent to Rock Creek Park. A beautiful home on pretty landscaped lot. Rent $150.

2340 MASS. AVE. N.W.
Town house with all appointments necessary for entertaining. Less than ½ original cost. 20 rooms, 5½ baths. $35,000. Rent $350.

The AMERICAN COMPANY
"Every Phase of Real Estate"
807 15th St. NA. 8629
Evenings WOodley 2631

Post Classified Ads—National 4200.

Sale Houses 66

AUCTION—Monday, Nov. 21, 2:30; 3-story brick home; 1220 North Carolina ave. ne. A dandy. Terms. Williams, Auctioneer, NA. 2620.

CAPITOL HILL, 200 BLOCK MD. AVE. N.E. Attractive, 11 rooms, brick, 2 baths, oil burner. Ideal location for doctor. Rare opportunity. Call E. W. BAILEY, AD. 4786.

NEAR SHERMAN Circle—6 rooms, $6,250; garage; Electrolux; excellent transportation; small cash payment; balance less than rent. RAndolph 2720.

S.E.—Model on F st. and at the foot of Washington blvd., just off Marlboro pike, District Hgts. Straight out Pa. ave., brick and frame, $4,000 to $5,000; 5% interest; easy terms.
THRIFTIE HOMES, INC.
111 Marlboro Pike, District Hgts., Md.
Hillside 0561. AT. 4929.

WILL TRADE my detached house located at 2927 2nd st. north, Lyon Park, Va. Price, $7,250, for sm. row house in D. C. or will accept sm. down pay. and bal. like rent. New oil burner, det. garage. DI. 2724; evenings, CL. 0432.

BEFORE YOU BUY CONSULT BOSS & PHELPS.
1417 K St. N.W. NA. 9300.

Serving Washington Over 50 Years.
WM. H. SAUNDERS CO., INC.
1519 K St. N.W. DI. 1015.

WILL CONSIDER TRADE.
WILLIAMSBURG COLONIAL.
Near Chevy Chase Circle.
New, detached center-hall brick; living room, 13x24.6; 3 bedrooms, 2 baths; library, 17x17, with fireplace; finished and heated attic; 2-car garage; beautiful landscaped lot, 60x125. Phone MIKKELSON & SON, CLeveland 1156.

6 huge rooms, 3 baths, and the price is very low. Brick with furred walls, insulation, slate roof, weatherstripping, oil burner, breakfast room, full basement, garage and porch. Beautiful home. Go out Georgia ave. to Piney Branch rd. to houses at corner of Philadelphia ave.
ROBERT E. LOHR.
311 Cedar St., Takoma Park. GE. 0681.

THIS property was advertised in The Post of October 23 at $12,750. Today it is being offered at the very low price of $10,750 in order to effect an immediate sale.
CHEVY CHASE, MD.
NEAR CHEVY CHASE CLUB.
5306 FLORIDA ST.
Detached home on lot with over 10,000 square feet. Many large trees. Sunroom, dining room, living room, 15x26; breakfast room, kitchen, pantry; four bedrooms, two tiled baths, maid's room, lavatory; built-in garage; oil heat. COMPLETELY RENOVIZED.
THE AMERICAN CO.
807 15th St. NA. 8032.

OPEN TONIGHT, 6 TO 9.
2926 38TH. ST. N.W.
ONE OF THE FINEST NEW INTOWN HOMES IN CITY, located just south of National Cathedral.
$13,950. An English type of brick and stone; 8 ROOMY, beautifully decorated rooms (including outstanding recreation room and breakfast room), 2 LOVELY BATHS, fine kitchen; automatic refrigeration; house is automatically air-conditioned; 2-car brick garage. WILL CONSIDER TRADE for smaller house. BOSS & PHELPS. NA. 9300. Drive out Massachusetts ave. to Cathedral ave., west to 38th st. and south to home.

CHEVY CHASE, D. C.
Detached corner brick. This new colonial home is near Chevy Chase Circle and convenient to grade, junior and senior high and parochial schools. Delightful living room opens onto screened porch; dining room, 13'x17'; first-floor lavatory; 3 bedrooms, 2 baths, large library with open fireplace, suitable for bedroom, finished and heated attic, large basement with open fireplace; 2-car garage; terms. Phone G. F. MIKKELSON & SON, CLeve. 1156.

$250 CASH, $45 PER MO.
Near Soldiers' Home Park. Substantial Colonial brick, containing 6 lovely rooms, tile bath, h.-w. h.; newly decorated, floors scraped, etc. Price only $4,500! Rush.
LEO M. BERNSTEIN & CO. ME. 5400.

WANT A QUICK OFFER!
841 LONGFELLOW ST. N.W.
OPEN FOR INSPECTION.
H. Sacks, Rep. 1186. Eves. AD. 2147.

PRETTY BUNGALOW—VACANT
(Near 30th st. ne.) Lot 70x120 ft. 5 rooms and tile bath, Venetian blinds, cellar, oil burner, laundry tubs, side alley, electric refrig. $450 down, $46 per mo. Call 3321 Kentucky ave. se., between 3 to 5:30 p. m. or evenings GR. 2232.

Beauty, Security, Value!
Beautiful English home, surrounded by trees, on large corner lot. Built of stone and brick. Spacious in plan, having a wide center-entrance hall, sunroom, large living room with beam ceilings and rugged stone fireplace, dining and breakfast room, kitchen replete with ultra-modern conveniences; 4 commodious bedrooms and 2 tile baths, recreation room, 2-car built-in garage, automatic heat. Located in delightful suburban community of fine homes. Price, $13,250. Call J. WESLEY BUCHANAN, Metropolitan 1143 until 9 p. m.

NR. 46th AND MASS. AVE. N.W.
Detached Brick Colonial.
This property has nearly everything one could wish for. Large living rm., with attractive fireplace, lge. back porch, screened; most attrac. dining rm. with bay windows, exceptional kitchen with metal cabinets, 7 cu. ft. Frigidaire; also space for table to seat 4. Large den or library with built-in bookshelves, recreation rm. is unique with real fireplace; gas, air-conditioned heat by Bryant; 4 good-sized bedrooms, 2 baths, one communicating; lge. finished attic, 2-car brick garage, beautiful lot and surroundings. Construction and finish speaks for itself. Price, $13,950.
FRANK S. PHILLIPS, DIST. 1411.

3 BRICK HOUSES $1,750 EACH!
Located in Southwest section. Each dwelling contains six rooms. These properties are continuously rented—little expenditure for upkeep. Ideal investments. See MR. BOUCHER.
R. A. HUMPHRIES
808 No. Capital Realtor NA. 6731

HILLCREST—$9,500
Near Alabama Ave. and 32nd St. S.E. Detached brick, 6 rooms, 1½ baths, slate roof, copper gutters, oil heat, insulated, weatherstripped. 2-car garage, nice lot, ½ block to bus. Carefully built by day labor, 3 years old. Cost present owner $11,000. National 7926. A. M. Roth. TEmple 3784.

Chevy Chase, Md.
Adjacent to the Columbia Country Club and situated in a development that combines exclusiveness with a hospitable background; beauty with dignity. It is a home that will particularly appeal to a discriminating family. The architecture is authentic Early American and the moment you enter you will be immediately impressed with the numerous refinements and built-in features. It contains 3 bedrooms of master size and 2 baths, large living room, dining room, completely equipped GENERAL ELECTRIC KITCHEN, pantry and 2-car attached garage. G. E. air-conditioning. Its floor plan provides for the convenience and privacy of every member of the family—designed for living at its best—not simply to sell. The price is $16,500 and liberal terms of financing at 5% interest can be arranged. Permit us to show you the UNUSUAL.
THOMAS J. FISHER & CO., INC.
738 15th St. N.W. DI. 6830.

COLORED—Downtown; 3-story brick, 2 baths; h.-w. h., electricity; garage; good condition; excellent for rooming house; price, $7,500. DINOWITZ CO., NA. 6717.

COLORED—153 Adams st. nw.—Colonial front porch, 6 rooms, bath, h.-w.-h., elec. Your price and terms. DE. 1160.

COLORED—2 blocks west of 16th st., suitable for professional man. 3 story brick, 6 bed rooms, h. w. h., oil burner, $7,250. NA. 1245 D. L. Luxford Res. WO. 9161.

COLORED
BROOKLAND, D. C.
$5,950—Attractive detached home. Lot 40x165. 6 rooms, bath, hot-water heat, electricity. Just off 12th street; convenient to Rhode Island ave. street cars.
L. T. GRAVATTE
729 15th St. Realtor. NA. 0753.

Sale or Exchange 68

WILL exchange 300 acre water front tract, 50 miles D. C. and add cash if necessary for farm or wooded tract near D. C. Write Washington Post, Box M-271.

40 ACRES
Near Seabrook, Md., with 6-room house and garage. Land suitable to subdivide into small tracts. Owner will trade $5,000 equity for small house in District. Call Mr. Carney.
BRADLEY, BEALL & HOWARD, INC.
NA. 0271. Southern Building.

Business Opportunities 77

BARBER SHOP—4 chairs; practically new equipment. 3208 Mt. Pleasant st. nw.

GUEST HOUSE. Mass. ave. nw.—26 rms., 7 baths; rent, $210; income over $1,000 monthly; a real home for Government workers; $5,500; terms. KEACH & McCOWN, 1730 H st. nw. RE. 2910.

LUNCH-BEER, 360 day business; price, $3,500, ½ cash; grocery, $400 wk. business; low rent; living quarters; $3,500, ½ cash. J. E. Mallos, 317 12th st. nw. NA. 1563.

APPLE MARY AND DENNIE

By Martha Orr

Post Classified Ads—National 4200.

Sale Lots 69

$260 EACH.
Ten bldg. sites, Forest Glen, Md., built-up section. Will sell separately if desired. Call Mr. Moore.
ADELBERT W. LEE.
1343 H St. N.W. Dist. 4600.

Lots in Westmoreland Hills
Desirable corner lot in Washington's most carefully restricted subdivision. Buy your lot now and build the home you are dreaming of next spring. For further information call WIsconsin 5333 or WIsconsin 2688, between 10 a. m. and 8:30 p. m.

Suburban Lots 69A

BY OWNER—8 adjoining beautiful wooded lots; portion of the original Estate of Mount Vernon. Price $800 to $1,200 per lot. Terms. ALex. 2616.

SEMINARY HILL, Alexandria, Va.—Desirable building sites; 1 to 5 acres; $1,200 to $1,500 per acre. C. E. WORTHAN, 116 N. Fairfax st. ALexandria 3317.

Sale Suburban 70

ACROSS THE RIVER, 10 minutes from downtown, in Virginia. New 7-room and bath brick bungalows; air-conditioned; full basements, $5,750 to $6,950. FHA or other 5% financing may be arranged. Inspect the model home, OPEN, in Brandon Village. Drive out Wilson boulevard to 4800 block at Dinwiddie st., left to houses. J. LEE PRICE, exclusive agent, 2303 So. Arlington Ridge road. IVy 1272.

AN OPPORTUNITY to visit the new Fire safe model home. Priced from $4,900. Open 1-6 p. m. For directions, WA. 6479.

ALEXANDRIA—Remodeled, charming, old brick home with original woodwork; 8 rms., 3 baths, oil burner, large side yard. Price $9,750. Small cash payment 10 years to pay balance. ALex. 2616.

ARLINGTON—15 new homes just completed; 5 and 6 rooms. Cape Cod and Colonial design; near schools, stores and 16c bus. Price range $5,950, $6,250 and $6,750; 10% cash, balance like rent. C. B. YEATMAN. WAlnut 7771.

BERWYN—Modern new home; 5 rms., elec. range, refrig.; $3,850; $350 down; $35 mo. BURCH & SON, BErwyn 83 or 24-M.

NEARBY MD.—12-rm. house, 3 apts.; $6,950, terms. Owner, SHepherd 3317-J.

NO CASH—6-room Cape Cod, like new. Frigidaire, oil heat, large lot. Spring Brook terrace.
Phillips H. Clarke Co. GReenwood 3734.

$50 MONTHLY
For this beautiful 2-story brick home situated on deep wooded lot. Oil heat, built-in garage. Truly a charming house. Only 10% down. $7,650—226 N. Oakland st., Arlington Hgts. Between Lee blvd. and Pershing drive. 10c bus. 3 miles D. C. DICK BASSETT, WA. 8627.

3 BEDROOMS AND 2 BATHS
1 block from new Lee blvd., 11 minutes' ride from downtown Washington; just beyond the Fairfax County line where taxes are at a minimum.
Two new houses in course of construction, containing 24 ft. living room with massive fireplace and choice of screened porch or solarium. Master bedroom with 2 exceptionally large closets and private bath. Extra wide, high lots. Air-conditioned, insulated and ultra modern in every respect. If you can pay $65 monthly regularly, will accept and $150 when house is completed in February.
$150 DOWN
JAMES M. DOYLE
3015 N. Washington Blvd. WA. 9091.

Estates for Sale 71

WATERFRONT COLONIAL
Brick; built 1740; on a bluff with panoramic view of river, shore and forest. The house has 11 rooms, high ceilings, 4 fireplaces, center hall and other characteristic features; large barn; 312 acres with full riparian rights. This historic estate is 21 miles from Washington over fine roads. Price, $30,000; $5,000 down. See MASON HIRST, Annandale, Va., at the end of Columbia pike. ALexandria 869-J-1. Closed Sundays.

Sale Acreage 72

LARGE, beautiful wooded lot on Lee boulevard; close in; 5c square ft. WA. 6959.

Sale—Farms, Land 73

BY OWNER—$9,750; 23 A.; 6 rms., 2 baths, 2 fireplaces; fruit and shade; 5 miles to Chain Bridge. E. L. Potter, McLean, Va. Falls Church 855-J-11 evenings.

FAIRFAX COUNTY, VA.—150 acres; 100 acres cleared, balance wooded; 5 streams; several springs; 6-room house, barn, outhouses; on State rd. Sacrifice. T. J. PEARSON, OXFORD 1001; evenings, WALNUT 7969.

FAIRFAX COUNTY, VA., on hard-surface road; 79 acres, partly wooded; modern 2-family house with bath; electricity, heat, etc. High beautiful location. OXford 1001 or evenings, WAlnut 7969.

OVER 100 ACRES, suburban Montgomery Co., Md. Ripe for development with medium priced loans; fronts on 3 important highway; long term mortgage to responsible builder with release clause. Price attractive. CALL MR. FARQUHAR, WITH BOSS & PHELPS, NATIONAL 9300, OR ADAMS 0303.

TOURIST CAMP on Md. blvd., near D. C. 7-acre farm, 5-rm. and bath bungalow, electricity (3-room lunchroom), 3 two-room cabins; brings $18 per day. Large shade trees; chicken house with wired fence; ground for dog kennels. Price, $8,500. See Mr. Warring, 321 Kentucky ave. se., between 3 and 5:30 p. m., or phone evenings, GR. 2232.

VIRGINIA, 17 miles D. C.—17½ acres; shingled bungalow, 5 rooms, attic, basement, electricity, barn, chicken house, orchard; $1,100 cash terms. J. A. BAKER, JR. CO., 1112 North Irving st., Clarendon, Va. WAlnut 7280.

$2,000. 6½ acres good garden land; large 5-room bungalow, several outbuildings. About 30 miles in Virginia. Owner will trade as part payment for modern bungalow north of D. C.
R. D. LILLIE CO.
264 Carroll St., Takoma Park. GE. 3301.

$20 PER ACRE. 376 acres rich land, with 326 acres in grass or corn and 50 acres wooded. Fenced and cross-fenced, with a fine stream and State road through farm, 65 miles from Washington, all but 4 of which are over concrete roads. No buildings; clear of debt, and in the cattle country. Easy terms. See MASON HIRST, Annandale, Va. Phone Alexandria 869-J-1. Closed Sundays.

60 ACRES—$5,250
Beautiful rolling Montgomery County land with broad stream; 800-foot elevation, commanding view across county to Sugar Loaf Mountain. Some timber. Modern fireproof farm home, only 4 years old, with large living room, fireplace, 3 bedrooms and bath. Fully furnished and with electricity available. 45 minutes' drive from D. C. over State roads. Inspection by appointment with Mr. Shelton.
THE MARYLAND REALTY.
915 Tenth St. N.W. NAtional 8095.

Sale—Shores, Waterfront 74

160 ACRES, level, fertile water front land, 47 miles D. C.; 20-acre muskrat marsh; good ducking; $4,500. GIBBONS Bar Bldg., DU. 4929 or NA. 3753.

Business Opportunities 77

BARBER SHOP—4 chairs; practically new equipment. 3208 Mt. Pleasant st. nw.

GUEST HOUSE. Mass. ave. nw.—26 rms., 7 baths; rent, $210; income over $1,000 monthly; a real home for Government workers; $5,500; terms. KEACH & McCOWN, 1730 H st. nw. RE. 2910.

LUNCH-BEER, 360 day business; price, $3,500, ½ cash; grocery, $400 wk. business; low rent; living quarters; $3,500, ½ cash. J. E. Mallos, 317 12th st. nw. NA. 1563.

Post Classified Ads—National 4200.

Business Opportunities 77

RESTAURANT—Busy Gov't. location; does $300 wkly.; seats 65; low overhead; short hours; $2,500; about $1,000 down. 1008 H st. nw. ME. 4813.

ROOMING HOUSE sacrifice, $800; sacrifice account of illness. 1119 Eye st. nw. ME. 7053.

ROOMING HOUSE—Downtown; 29 rooms, 7 baths, oil heat; rent only $128; nicely furn.; clean; price, $3,000; good terms. B. Winfield, 908 10th nw. NAtl. 9654.

ROOMING HOUSE, right at Dupont circle; 21 rooms, 5 baths; rent $137.50; single beds. Should clear over $2,000 yearly. We offer this well furnished house as the best bargain we have. $2,200; reas. terms.
R. M. De Shazo, 1123 14th st. nw. NA. 5521

STORE for rent with 2 adjoining rooms suitable for living quarters. Loc., 2913 M st. nw. Call owner, POt. 5421.

GUEST HOUSE—15 ROOMS 5 BATHS—$150 RENT
Seward Sq. near 4th. Penna ave. se. Newly decorated. Most rooms have running water. Unusually nice furniture. Real possibilities for $2,000; terms.
EDWIN L. ELLIS
1010 Vermont Ave. Rm. 217. NAtl. 3384

Dogs, Cats, Pets 79

GERMAN Shepherd puppies, 2 mo. old. Very smart. Both sire and dam trained to lead blind. $50. 1095 Greenwood ave., Tak. Park, Md. SH. 2339, District.

ADLEA KENNELS
A. K. C. REGISTERED
BREEDER OF WIRE FOX TERRIERS.
Complete Grooming of All Terriers. $3. Includes hand-plucking, bathing, dessheading, nail filing, teeth cleaning; calling for and returning. Boarding of selected dogs. Freshly ground Sanitary Stores beef fed daily. Veterinary supervision.
Adlea Kennels, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Woolner.
U. S. Route 240 From Washington.
PHONE GAITHERSBURG 77.

Horses—Livestock 81

2 LARGE young horses, 3 mules, work horses. 2 riding horses. 110 M st. se.

Sale Miscellaneous 83

DEALERS' ADS under this heading contain a firm name or a business address, or state the word "Dealer." Other ads are presumed to be from private individuals. Readers who find dealers masquerading in this column as private individuals are urged to report the matter to The Washington Post.

ACCORDIONS—Before purchasing a piano accordion, it's to your advantage to see Droop's first. 1300 G st. nw.

ANTIQUES, Canopy beds, chests, 13-pane corner cabinet, Victorian sofas, chairs, rockers, Waxler, 1014 10th nw.

ANTIQUES—Furniture, glass, china, paintings, silver, jewelry, fireplace adornments; reasonable prices. Murray Galleries, Inc., 1724 20th st. nw. DU. 1211.

ANTIQUES—Valuable colored glass, all kinds; good line of furniture, including Hepplewhite bookcase, pie-crust table of mahogany; thousands of articles not mentioned; everything must be sold at public auction. Those who appreciate the value of antiques should come to this auction sale. Don't miss this opportunity. Sale starts at 1:30 p. m. on Saturday, November 19. 811 Alper's Auction House, Rockville, Md.

BEAUTY SHOP equipment—Chairs, tables, hair dryer, etc.; no reasonable offer refused. D. Notes, 633 Indiana ave. nw. DI. 8112.

COAT—Lady's lapin fur; black; size 20; sale for half of price. DIst. 3000, Apt. 548, 4 to 6 p. m.

DESK, office; sec. bookcases; file cabinet; books, historical, fictional. RA. 2252.

FUR COAT, Jap mink, cost $450; good condition; $65. Hudson Seal, $35. Navy blue, 2-pc., $10. WO. 6932.

FUR COAT—Black seal; size 16; splendid condition, $25. Call before 6 p. m. 1204 G st. nw., 2d floor.

GAS RANGES, LARGE ASSORTMENT, RECONDITIONED, $3 UP. 1350 S ST. NW.

GAS FURNACE, "Bryant," hot-water heat; sacrifice for $50 cash. ADams 6550.

LADIES' STORECASES, solid walnut, plate glass; also solid walnut dining room suite. WI. 3010. Chevy Chase Transfer & Storage, East ave. & Leland st., Ch. Ch., Md.

OFFICE DESKS—USED GOVT. SURPLUS $10 UP. H. BAUM & SON, 616 E ST. N.W.

OVERCOATS, "Mt. Rock Fleece," 38; Chesterfield, 40; $7.50 each. GE. 5354.

PIANOS FOR RENT—New, full keyboard, spinets or apartment uprights, only $5 monthly; money paid as rental applies on purchase price if you decide to buy later. NAtl. 4730. Kitt's, 1330 G st.

PIANO—Chickering grand, walnut, case, $250. 3100 Conn. ave., Apt. 340.

PIANOS—Sale of Knabes taken over from Kitt's after the insurance company made their adjustment on the recent fire. $325 Knabe spinet console now $395; $690 Knabe, small, mahogany, now $565; $1,045 Knabe, walnut, medium size grand, now $850. All in absolutely perfect condition and the latest models. New-piano guarantee. Easiest terms in the city. REpublic 1590. The Piano Shop, 1013 7th st. nw.

PLUMBING SUPPLIES, new and used. Peoples Salvage Co., 2 stores: 629 Mass. ave. nw., 2122 14th st. nw. DU. 9750.

REFRIGERATOR, Frigidaire, porcelain model; guar.; special $29.50; terms. Dist. Elec. Co., No. 1 Dupont Circle. DU. 5900.

REFRIGERATOR, Electrolux, 1936; 4½ cu. ft.; air-cooled; $75; terms. CL. 6795.

SEWING MACHINES, portable electrics, $17.50 up; consoles, $22.50 up; we electrify and put into consoles Singer and White treadles. 927 F st. nw. RE. 1900.

SINGER, ball-bearing d. h. treadle, $9.50; Electric con., $22.50. Open Wed. and Fri. eves. until 9. Guaranteed repair service. Singer Sewing Center, 637 H ne. LI 7022.

STUDIO BED, Simmons super beauty rest base and mattress, 6x8. Also typewriter desk. Will sell or exchange both for studio couch. DI. 1045.

TYPEWRITERS—Woodstock, $32.50 value, a bargain now for $27.50; 1 year free service. United, 813 14th. RE. 1177.

TYPEWRITER—Remington Standard, $25. Public address system, Selmer Portable; cost $200; sell $45. Phone GE. 5387 after 6 p. m.

USED CAMERAS, projectors, binoculars, microscopes; bought and sold. Capital Camera Exchange, 1003 Penna. ave nw.

VACUUM CLEANERS—Hoover; rebuilt like new; complete with attachments, $16.95; 1-year guarantee. Clean-rite, 905 G St. 3015 14th st. nw. CO. 6100.

5 CANDLES, crystal fixtures, sac. $50; green carpet, about 9x18, with pad, $50; mahog. hanging shelf, $15; drum table, mahog., leather top, $29. 5310 14th st. nw. No dealers, please.

PUBLIC AUCTION
Bedroom, dining room, living room and dinette suites; occasional chairs, china, pictures, rugs, beauty rest couch, davenports. Gas range, apt. size, black and white enamel; refrigerators and other miscellaneous furniture. Sold for storage charges promptly at 2 p. m. Friday, November 18. Goods on display today.
Smith's Transfer & Storage Co.
1313 You St. N.W. NO. 3343

Post Classified Ads—National 4200.

Sale Miscellaneous 83

PIANOS.
Baby Grand Merriam, $200; excellent condition; Uprights, Weser, $40; Foster, $35; Story & Clark, $30. Others $10 and $15. Smith's Storage Co., 1313 You st. nw.

FREE TURKEYS!
Win them at Electrical Refrigeration Service Co. Also one given with each purchase of refrigerator or major appliance. 1318 14th st. nw. DE. 3610. Open until 9 p. m.

Coal, Fuel Oil, Wood 83A

BEST coal, oak fireplace wood and kindling. Prompt delivery, storage. DE. 5797.

OAK WOOD, $10 per cord delivered and stored. Mr. Buck. ALexandria 4793.

SELECT fireplace, kindling wood, quality coal, top soil. AT. 1503; night, AT. 8207.

WOOD—Firepl.; well seasoned; any length; $8.50 cord, $4.50 half. Del. HI. 0025-R.

ARLINGTON COAL CO.
Full 2,240 Pounds to Ton
CARRIED IN FREE
NO CHARGE FOR EXPERT STOKER INFORMATION

	1 Ton
Pocahontas Pea	$7.50
Pocahontas Nut, $10.25; Cubes, $10.50; Stove, $11.00.
Penna Pea	$11.00
Penna Buckwheat	$9.40
Penna Chestnut or Stove	$13.10
Blue Banner Egg	$8.40
Virginia Pea	$8.50
Va. Hard, Stove or Nut	$10.25
Va. Hard Special Furnace	$9.25
R. O. M., 75% lump	$7.40
Nut and Slack	$6.50

Wood—Kindling, $9 Per Cord.
Fireplace, $9 Per Cord.
Free Delivery
In Washington and Virginia
JAckson 1880

Miscellaneous Wanted 84

ALWAYS HIGHEST PRICES—Old jewelry, cameras, firearms, musical instruments. MAX ZWEIG, 937 D N. W. ME. 9113.

AMERICAN or foreign coins, stamp collection. Autograph letters bought. Hobby Shop, 716 17th st. nw. DI. 1272.

BOOKS—All kinds; highest cash prices; bring them or phone G. David Pearlman's Book Shop, 1407 G nw. ME. 5415.

BOOKS—All kinds; highest cash prices; bring them or phone G. David Pearlman's Book Shop, 1407 G st. nw. ME. 5415

CLOTHING—Highest prices paid for men's used clothing. Herman's, 1122 7th st. nw. MEt. 3767. Open eve. Will call.

FURNITURE, bric-a-brac, china, glassware, rugs, silverware, paintings; highest cash prices paid. Call Murray, ADams 5133.

GOLD OR PLATINUM JEWELRY AND SILVERWARE AND GOLD TEETH, ANY CONDITION. WE PAY CASH. A. KAHN, INC., 46 YEARS AT 935 F ST. N.W.

SEWING MACHINES—We buy all types. Repair, parts, vacu. clean. rep. RE. 1900.

USED CLOTHING, men's and boys' highest cash prices paid. 1345 S nw. FOt. 0806.

SPOT CASH PAID IMMEDIATELY.
OLD GOLD AND SILVER
WATCHES, DIAMONDS AND ANY OLD Discarded Jewelry or Gold Teeth.
SELINGER'S, 818 F ST. N.W.

Personal Loan Cos. 88

AUTO LOANS TO $300
AYARES SMALL LOAN CO., INC.
7902 Georgia Ave. SH. 3700.

Auto Service 90

CORRECTS:
SHIMMY HARD STEERING
WEAVING WANDERING
EXCESSIVE TIRE WEAR
DRIVE IN TODAY FOR A FREE ALIGNMENT CHECK-UP
STOHLMAN CHEVROLET
3307 M St. N.W.
The only Chevrolet dealer in Washington with this modern BEAR equipment.

Trucks for Sale 97A

CHEVROLET—1935 Panel, newly painted; good rubber, motor, clutch, rear end excellent; used for hauling cigars (very light load); this is a real buy for $249. Logan Motors, 3540 14th st. nw. DI. 5631.

CHEVROLET—1935 Panel, newly painted; good rubber, motor, clutch, rear end excellent; used for hauling cigars (very light load); this is a real buy for $249. Logan Motors, 3540 14th st. nw. DI. 5631.

Post Classified Ads—National 4200.

Sale—Automobiles 98

BUICK $595
1936 "61" 4-Dr. Trunk Sedan. A beautiful Buick buy. Perfect mechanically, clean as a pin, in fact, entire condition shows careful handling by preferred type of owner. Smart Brewster green; radio; heater; clock. Reduced from $645 to $595 for 2 days only.
STANLEY H. HORNER, INC.
1111 14th St. N.W. NAt. 7651.

CHEVROLET $395
1936 4-door Trunk Sedan, beautiful gray finish, mechanically perfect, upholstery and paint like new. See this immaculate car at only $395. This car carries a Good Will guarantee. Call MR. SULLIVAN, DIst. 8631, Dealer.

CHEVROLET—1936 COACH, $360.
ADDISON CHEVROLET.
1437 Irving St. N.W. AD. 5411.

CHEVROLET—1932 De Luxe Coupe; wholesale, $95. Logan Motors, 18th and M sts. nw. DIstrict 5803.

CHEVROLET—1937 de luxe Sport Sedan. A beautiful car with original lustrous jet black original finish; spotless velour upholstery. Has spacious built-in trunk and all de luxe equipment. Five excellent tires. Equipped with improved knee action, hydraulic brakes and many other desirable Chevrolet features. Specially priced at only $840 with liberal trade and easy terms arranged.
STOHLMAN CHEVROLET.
3301 M St. N.W. WE. 1646.

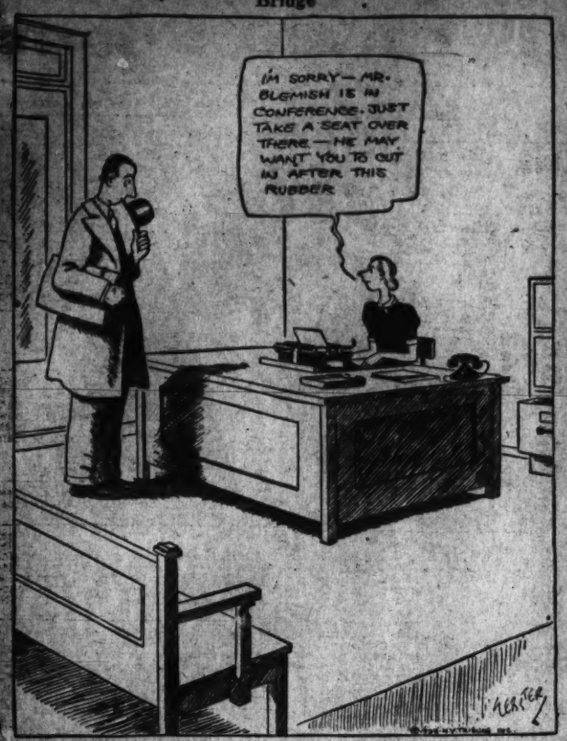
CHEVROLET $525
1937 De Luxe Town Sedan. This newlooking car has its orig. glistening black finish. Very low mileage and is radio and heater equipped. $525. 30-day guarantee.
HYATTSVILLE AUTO CO.
Hyattsville, Md. (on Balto. Blvd.) GR. 1810.

CHEVROLET—1933 Master Coupe; rumble seat, new paint, clean inside. A real buy at $149; $9 down, $10 month. Logan Motors, 18th and M sts. nw. DIst. 5803.

CHEVROLET $495
1937 4-door Trunk Sedan, beautiful black finish. This car looks and drives like new and carries a Good Will guarantee. Specially priced, $495. Call MR. SULLIVAN, DIst. 8631, Dealer.

CHEVROLET—1937 Master De Luxe Touring Sedan; radio and heater equipped. Just as near new as a car can be to be used at all; $569. Logan Motor Co., 18th and M sts. nw. D

Bridge



Bob Burns Says—

I think it's about time somebody came to the defense of the Hollywood wife. Through the jokes of some comedians and the stories of magazine writers and newspaper columnists people have got an idea that all married couples in Hollywood lead separate lives. You would think the Hollywood wife is not the least bit interested in her husband's career.

I happened to be present the other day when a wife got a telephone call from her husband, who is a big executive of a studio. When she hung up, she turned around with a beaming face and says "I jest got the most wonderful news from my husband."

I says "What's the matter? Did he finally turn out a good picture?" and she says "No, he's jest had a nervous breakdown and we're gonna spend the winter in Honolulu!"

Copyright, 1938, Esquire Features, Inc.

See Bob Burns in "The Arkansas Traveler" Now Playing at the Earle.

MR. AND MRS. — Men Never Remember

GOSH, I HEARD A FUNNY STORY—DON'T RECALL WHO TOLD IT TO ME
LET'S HEAR IT
WELL, IT SEEMS THERE WERE TWO—
'S'MATTER? DON'T YOU THINK IT'S FUNNY?
VERY. I THOUGHT SO WHEN I TOLD IT TO YOU
YOU TOLD IT TO ME!
YES. I READ IT AND I TOLD IT TO YOU. NATURALLY, I NEVER GET ANY CREDIT

BY MILTON CANIFF

TERRY AND THE PIRATES — Technological Phenomenon

SO YOU TWO HIRED A FLOCK OF SERVANTS WITH YOUR REWARD MONEY, EH?
GONNA QUIT US NOW?
OH, NO, MIST' PAT, MIST' TERRY! WE KETCHUM PERSONAL SERVING BOYS—BUT WILL STILL WORK FOR YOU—ALL TIME!
OKAY—THEN I WANT MY GRAY TROUSERS PRESSED AND MY BROWN SHOES SHINED—CHOP, CHOP!
HOKE DOKE!
11-17

BIG CHIEF WAHOO — BY SAUNDERS AND WOGGON

IN THIS NOTE, YOU ADMIT, PROFESSOR WEERD, THAT YOU TURNED WAHOO INTO NAPOLEON WITH YOUR "TIME-MACHINE"
CERTAINLY! YOU TRIED TO GET RID OF ME—THE WORLD'S GREATEST SCIENTIST—BEFORE I HAD FINISHED MY EXPERIMENT!
SO, I WROTE YOU THREATS, AS "THE REAPER". YOU BROUGHT IN WAHOO TO PROTECT YOU—
AND I—"THE REAPER"—MADE HIM THE FIRST MAN TRANSFORMED IN MY MACHINE! HA! HA! HE'LL STAY NAPOLEON TOO! AS A MONUMENT TO MY GENIUS!
OH YEAH!

WINNIE WINKLE — Revelation — BY BRANNER

GOOD MORNING, WINNIE! I-ER-HOPE YOU DON'T THINK ME FORWARD!
WHY SHOULD I THINK YOU FORWARD?
I MEAN—FOR SENDING YOU THE FLOWERS!
F-FLOWERS? W-WAS IT YOU WHO SENT THEM?
QUICK! SOME WATER!
OHHHHH
GULP GULP

MICKEY FINN — New Deal! — BY LANK LEONARD

YOU MUST BE LOSING YOUR MIND, MR. MINTMORE! SUCH A THING WOULD BE ABSURD!
MY MIND WAS NEVER CLEARER, CLARK!—THANKS TO BEING QUARANTINED WITH THESE PEOPLE I'VE LEARNED A LOT IN THE LAST TWO WEEKS!
BUT—
LISTEN, CLARK! I'VE LEARNED THAT THERE'S SOMETHING MONEY CAN'T BUY—SOMETHING REAL AND WHOLESOME—SOMETHING I WANT SUNNY TO HAVE!
MR. MINTMORE! WAIT!
WAIT, NOTHING! I'M GOING TO TELL THEM NOW!
I'VE GOT ANOTHER PROPOSITION FOR YOU—AND THIS TIME I'M SURE YOU'LL ACCEPT IT!

DIXIE DUGAN — Here Again — BY J. P. McEVOY AND H. J. STRIBEL

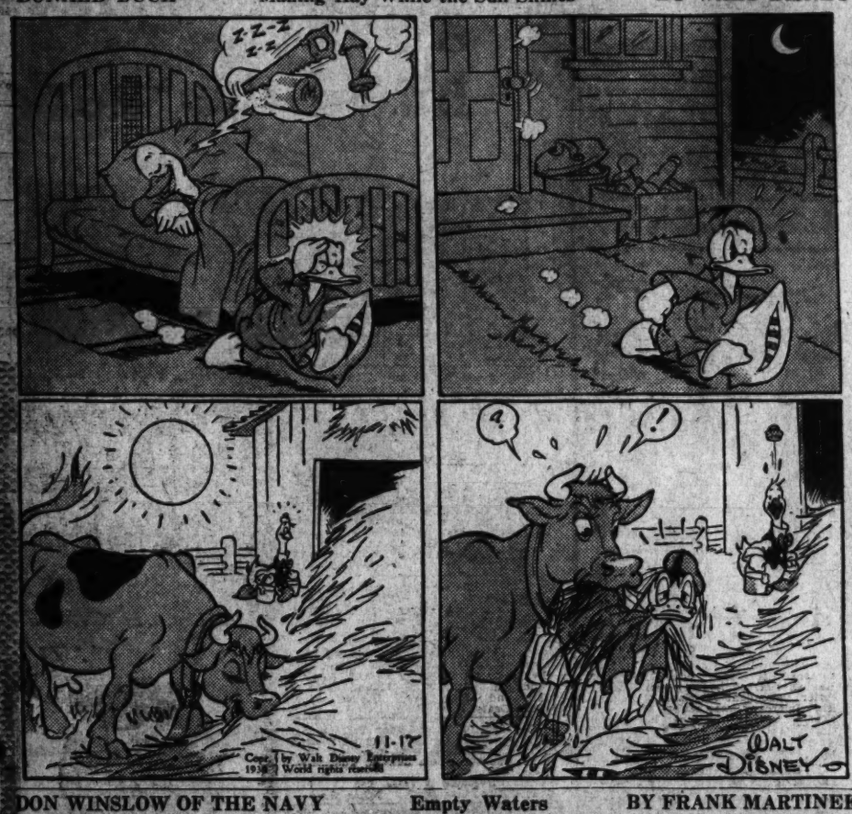
WELL, KEN—YOU KNOW YOURSELF HOW MUCH WE'VE ENJOYED OUR STAY AT BAR X—WE SHOULD'VE GONE HOME A LONG TIME AGO!
GLAD YOU LIKED IT, AND I'M SORRY YOU CAN'T STAY FOREVER!
I'VE JUST WIRED MA THAT WE'RE ACTUALLY COMING HOME—IN A HURRY!
WE'RE READY WHENEVER YOU ARE, DOCTOR BROWN.
CUDDLES!
YAP! YAP!

DON WINSLOW OF THE NAVY — Empty Waters — BY FRANK MARTINEK

THERE'S THE POLICE BOAT WAITING FOR US, WINSLOW..
HOP ABOARD, COMMISSIONER, EVERYTHING'S SET FOR THE ATTACK..
428A
IS THIS THE COURSE, COMMANDER?
YES, HOLD HER STEADY DOWN THE BAY..
SOME TIME LATER
SLOW THE MOTORS, HELMSMAN.. THE FREIGHTER'S WITHIN EASY SEARCHLIGHT RANGE FROM HERE..
THAT'S QUEER! I'M ABSOLUTELY CERTAIN—WH-WHY, THAT SHIP CAN'T BE GONE!!

Listen to Don Winslow on the air today—WMAL—4:30 P. M.

DONALD DUCK— Making Hay While the Sun Shines — BY WALT DISNEY



JOE PALOOKA — Momentarily Out of Sight — BY HAM FISHER

NED BRANT—A Story of College Athletics — BY BOB ZUPPKE, Famous Football Coach.

CARTER FANS, NOTED FOR THEIR LOYALTY TO TEAM AND SCHOOL, RISE AS THE BAND LEAVES THE FIELD AND THE TEAM APPEARS FOR THE SECOND HALF OF THE CHAMPIONSHIP GAME—PUGET LEADS 3 TO 0—11-17
A SILENT, GRIM-FACED CARTER TEAM EMERGES FROM ITS DRESSING ROOM, DETERMINED TO GIVE THE HEAVIER PUGET ELEVEN THE BATTLE OF ITS LIFE!
MEN, THIS IS JIMMY BURKE—HE SAYS HE WANTS TO HURRY AND GROW UP SO HE CAN PLAY FOOTBALL FOR CARTER—JIMMY IS GOING TO BE UP THERE ROOTING FOR US!
THANKS, JIM—WE WON'T DISAPPOINT YOU, SON

BENNY — Time Out! — BY J. CARVER PUSEY

Mrs. Simpson Is Re-elected In Arlington

Women Voters Ballot
Green, Damm at Parley
K. of C. Will Meet

ARLINGTON COUNTY BUREAU OF THE POST, Clarendon, Va., Tel. OXford 0509

Mrs. Ruby G. Simpson was unanimously elected to her sixth term as president of the Arganized Women Voters of Arlington County at the annual meeting yesterday at Cherrydale Methodist Church.

Other officers elected were Mrs. Ruth Marcey, vice president; Mrs. Genevieve Clapper, recording secretary; Mrs. Olive Odom, recording secretary; Mrs. Margaret Tapp, treasurer; Mrs. Ethyl Cook, registrar, and Mrs. Florence E. Cannon, parliamentarian.

The membership committee includes Mrs. Nettie H. Warner, Mrs. Sadie A. Sias, Mrs. Edith Simpson, Mrs. Harriet Wismer, and Mrs. Tillie Ahalt.

In view of confusion in understanding the ballot at the recent county election on the question of "staggered term for county board members," the secretary was instructed to communicate with the State senator and delegate and request that in the future, when an enabling act is passed, the ballot be worded so that it would be throughly understood by the voter.

The organization adopted the report of the committee on State and county government, of which Mrs. Jesse Roberts is chairman, recommending establishment in Arlington County of a receiving room for women and minors and for a thorough study of the advisability of a woman's police bureau. The report urged inspection of the county jail by the county board members, welfare board members, county manager and superintendent of public welfare.

Post Staff Photo.
MRS. RUBY G. SIMPSON,

Green, Damm at Parley

Harry K. Green, commissioner of revenue, and his deputy, George Damm, left for Richmond yesterday to attend the annual communication of the department of taxation and the twentieth annual convention of commissioners of revenue.

Commissioner Green, at the annual banquet tonight, will introduce Senator Byrd, who with Gov. Price and Senator Glass will address the commissioners of revenue of Virginia.

The annual meeting of the department of taxation will be held tomorrow with C. H. Morrissett, tax commissioner of Virginia, presiding. Commissioner Green will address the group on "The Assessing of New Improvements and the Making of Transfers."

K. of C. Meeting

Edward Douglas White Council, No. 2473, Knights of Columbus, meet tonight in their clubroom on North Washington boulevard. The first degree will be conferred upon a large class of candidates.

Safety Council to Elect

The Arlington County Safety Council at its semiannual meeting to be held tonight at the courthouse will elect five members, according to an announcement by I. Chance Buchanan, president.

The five members whose terms have expired are Arthur C. Stickley, Thomas R. Meachem, Halsey W. Smith, Raymond J. Brown and Oscar Doyle.

A report on activities will be given by Arthur H. Surprise, executive director.

First reports on the newly inaugurated large commercial truck fleet operator's "safety drivers" contest will be made at this meeting. The contest has been inaugurated by the safety council committee composed of William K. MacMahon, chairman; B. J. Dorsey, H. H. England, George W. Benzie, C. J. Ralston, A. C. Scheffel and Harvey Marcey.

Santa Claus Lane

Carol F. Winchester, business manager of the Arlington Chamber of Commerce, announces that plans are under way by the merchants of Rosslyn, Cherrydale and Clarendon for a Santa Claus Lane through the business districts.

Moritz Cohen, president of the Rosslyn Businessmen's Association, is in charge of arrangements for Rossyln; Arthur T. Keene, for Cherrydale, and Golden Yeatman for Clarendon.

Plans are to turn lights on Christmas trees which will line the highways immediately after Thanksgiving.

Lyon Park Bazaar

The Lyon Park Woman's Club will hold its annual bazaar and handicraft exhibit at the Community House tomorrow and Saturday. Mrs. George P. Sanders is general chairman in charge of arrangements with Mrs. Carl Brockway as vice chairman.

Mrs. M. K. Toeppen is chairman of the committee to judge the crafts; Mrs. Peter Simpson, chairman of refreshments; Mrs. R. R. Farrar, jellies, cakes and candies; Mrs. Don B. Looney and Mrs. Harold Graves, grab bag; Mrs. Sidney Gaddy and Mrs. Robert L. Meodaws, fancywork; Mrs. Erl R. Leister and Mrs. John Wise, bingo. Prizes for handicraft will be awarded Saturday night.

The program of entertainment will include a magic show by Carl Brockway, and fortune telling.

P.-T. A. Card Party

The Parent-Teacher Association of Thomas Jefferson Junior High School will sponsor a benefit card party tonight at the Clarendon Community House.

Oyster Supper

The Arlington County Catholic Woman's Club will serve a benefit oyster supper tomorrow from 5 to 7:30 p. m., in St. Charles' School Hall, at Clarendon. Mrs. Joseph Savoretti is general chairman in charge of arangements.

Mrs. Shipley Better

Mrs. Beulah Shipley, president of the Woman's Democratic Club of Arlington County, who underwent a serious operation at Georgetown Hospital yesterday, was reported resting comfortably last night.

Gasoline Tank Truck Runs Wild and Hits Seven Cars

Associated Press Photo.

No one was hurt but seven cars parked on the Baltimore highway near Washington were damaged when a 4,000-gallon gasoline truck careened off the road and sideswiped them. James Brady, 24, of Washington, the driver, said he was forced from the road by another truck while en route to Baltimore with his empty vehicle. The truck and three of the damaged cars are shown

Orphanage Head Quits Under Fire

Roanoke, Va., Nov. 16 (AP).—The executive committee of the Lutheran Orphange Home of the South has announced the resignation of the Rev. Turner Ashby Graves, superintendent, and the appointment of Miss Mary B. Long as acting superintendent.

The committee met here yesterday and at the close of its meeting issued a statement announcing it had accepted the Rev. Mr. Graves' resignation. Yesterday's closed meeting was held to allow the superintendent to answer charges preferred against him by the committee at its October 4 meeting.

Morgantown Rites For C. C. Cashman

Special Dispatch to The Post.

Morgantown, W. Va., Nov. 16.—Funeral services were held yesterday for Clarence C. Cashman, 58, with the Rev. Ralph Richards in charge. Burial was in East Oak Grove Cemetery with Masonic rites.

Mr. Cashman was a former chairman of the Republican County Executive Committee, a former city councilman, and a former State president of Elks. For 29 years, he had been connected with a glass company. Survivors are his wife, Mrs. Minnie Harden Cashman, and two sons, Donald and Harold Cashman.

Fredericksburg To Ask Capital For Cherry Trees

Fredericksburg, Va., Nov. 16.—The city council will ask proper authorities in Washington to give the City of Fredericksburg 328 Japanese cherry trees in case they are removed from the Tiday Basin section to make way for the proposed Jefferson Memorial.

These cherry trees would be planted along the highway between Fredericksburg and the Ferry Farm, where George Washington lived as a boy.

Bishop Goodwin Heads Rural Church Board

Richmond, Va., Nov. 16 (AP).—Bishop F. D. Goodwin, of Richmond, today headed the Virginia Rural Church Conference Board as president.

He was elected at a meeting of the board in St. Paul's Episcopal Church parish house yesterday. Elected also were the Rev. R. W. Vanderberry of Richmond, vice president, and Dr. B. L. Hummel, of Blacksburg, secretary-treasurer.

H. J. Myers Named Berkeley Sheriff

Special Dispatch to The Post.

Martinsburg, W. Va., Nov. 16.—Howard J. Myers, a deputy for the last six years, was named sheriff of Berkeley County by the county court here yesterday to fill the vacancy created by the death of Sheriff Harry S. Miller on November 8.

The term expires January 1, 1941.

Myers served two years with the late sheriff, and also was an office deputy under the late Sheriff E. D. Gardner. He is a Democrat.

Log-Splitter Loses Eye When Wedge Cracks

Charlottesville, Va., Nov. 16.—Sidney Dunnivan, 37, of Orange, today was recovering at the University of Virginia Hospital from an accident yesterday which cost him the loss of an eye.

The Orange man, who was working with a gang splitting logs, was struck by a large piece of steel when a wedge driver cracked. Physicians, after examination, found it necessary to remove his left eye.

Fairfax Board Offers Revised Hog Farm Bill

Like Present Law
G. O. P. Dance Slated
Garden Club Bingo

FAIRFAX BUREAU OF THE POST, P. O. BOX 245, Fairfax, Va. Phone Falls Church 2088-M.

The Fairfax County Board of Supervisors yesterday proposed a revised commercial hog farm ordinance for the coutny. A public hearing on the proposal will be held at the December 7 board meeting.

The new ordinance is substantially the same as the existing ordinance in its definition of a commercial hog farm and permit requirements. The major changes were in the method of complaint and prosecution for violation and the repeal of two sections.

The proposal recites that on complaint of three persons owning property or residing within three-fourths of a mile of such a farm, the health department shall make an investigation and report to the supervisors of violations. The board shall make a personal inspection of the premises and for cause revoke the permit to operate the commercial hog farm. Aftr such revocation, or if the operator fails to secure the permit, it shall be the duty of the health department to prosecute the operator.

The two sections to be repealed prohibited feeding garbage on commercial hog farms after December, 1937, and the other made it unlawful to transport garbage over the county roads after that date.

The new ordinance, if adopted, will become effective January 1, 1939, and most operators will be required to obtain new permits by that time.

The supervisors considered the status of the road bond issue sinking funds and interest in Dranesville District. It was brought out that, in 1922, residents of that district voted to issue $175,000 in road bonds and, in 1925, voted another issue of $93,000. Since that time the county has been able to purchase and retire $20,000 of the second issue, leaving a balance of $73,000. These bonds will fall due in 1942 and 1945 and for some time it has been doubtful whether there will be sufficient funds to meet the obligation when due. It was brought out yesterday that if the present income raised by the levy of $1.35 for road bond indebtedness is maintained from now until 1945 in Dranesville district, both issues can be retired without refunding bonds being issued and it will not be necessary to increase the levy as an ticipated. But there is a possibility the rate might be reduced if there is an increase in the assessed property valuation when the reassessment is made in 1940.

A resolution was adopted requesting commission now studying the redistricting of the State for representatives to the General Assembly, headed by State Senator John W. Rust of Fairfax, to postpone any action until after the 1940 census. The commission is meeting today in Richmond and the supervisors felt that a proper redistricting could not be made at this time because of the rapid growth in the section of the State adjoining Washington since the 1930 census.

Republicans to Dance

The Young Republican Club of Fairfax County will hold a dance tomorrow night in the Odd Fellows Hall in Falls Church, beginning at 10 p. m.

W. O. Wood, president of the club, named to the committee in charge of the affair Mrs. Amy Plaugher, of Dunn Loring, chairman; L. B. Burkholder, Mrs. F. W. Turnbull, Mrs. Ethel Davis, Ramsey Bready and Miss Edith Wood.

Garden Club Bingo

The Ayr Hill Garden Club will hold a bingo party in the Vienna town hall tomorrow at 8 p. m. Proceeds will be used for improvement of the Vienna School grounds. Refreshments will be served by the club. Mrs. Kate Cockrell is general chairman, assisted by Mrs. Frank Fouche and Mrs. W. W. Louk.

The Southern Methodist Church at Annandale will serve a turkey dinner tomorrow from 5 to 8 in the auditorium of the Annandale School.

Your Tortured Muscles Relax in

DR. M. W. LOCKE
World Famous Shoes

You can almost feel the skilled hands of Dr. Locke supporting your foot when you wear Dr. M. W. Locke Shoes. These shoes embody the scientific principles of the Canadian physician—relieve tortured muscles and tense nerves. Let our Dr. M. W. Locke shoe fitters select the Dr. Locke last best for you.

Dr. Locke No. 4 Last $12
In black suede. 5-eyelet tie with lizard calf and patent trim. 3½ to 10.

Women's Shoes, Main Floor.

THE HECHT CO.
F STREET AT SEVENTH NATIONAL 5100

A spanking new version of your favorite, adaptable

TWO-BELT "Background" Dress

16.95

The dress that's adaptable! Simply designed . . . rich in line and fabric, it stands ready for any accessory whim. Shirred high neck . . . graceful three-quarter-length sleeves . . . paneled skirt. It goes to business—and later to cocktails or the theatre. In rayon crepe with two belts for more magic. One of self-fabric; the other of suede, starry with rhinestones. In black. Sizes 12 to 20.

Better Dress Shop, Third Floor, The Hecht Co.

Have your photo taken now for Christmas

THE GIFT THAT ONLY YOU CAN GIVE SIX 8x10 PORTRAITS.....

and 48 poses from which to choose

Give a lifetime gift this Christmas! Come in now—before the Christmas rush and let our studio take your picture . . . in 48 different poses. From them, you have your choice of 6 lovely portraits for $5

Other Photographs from $2 to $87.50 a dozen

Photograph Studio, Main Floor

THE HECHT CO.
F STREET AT SEVENTH NATIONAL 5100

Smoky Tones

The "right off the griddle" color hit of the year!

Society Brand HUDDER TOPCOATS

$40

Pay in 3 Months on Our Liberal Men's Budget Plan.

SOCIETY BRAND scores again! This time with a new, exclusive version of heather mixtures . . . beautiful "Smoky Tones" . . . just different enough from the usual heather to bring about a richer, more distinctive tone. Society Brand has created it for the famous Hudder. The result: The Hudder is now a greater standout than ever in the field of fine topcoats. It is snugly warm, yet miraculously light in weight . . . wrinkle proof, rain proof and wind proof. The Hudder is expertly tailored of an exclusive fabric . . . a silk-like blend of alpaca, mohair and fine wool. In three "Smoky Tone" heathers . . . blue, oxford and green.

Men's Shop, Second Floor.

THE HECHT CO.
F STREET AT SEVENTH NATIONAL 5100